MATCHUP STORYLINES

- Postseason Picture Set, Finale Still Matters: Sunday's matchup marks the final regular-season match in San Diego Mojo franchise history, as the team closes out the road slate in Indy. Both teams enter the match with postseason positioning already secured, as San Diego has locked in the No. 3 seed and Indy the No. 1 seed for the MLV Championship. While seeding is set, the matchup offers a final opportunity to build rhythm and momentum ahead of the postseason.
- Back-and-Forth Season Series: Indy holds a 2-1 edge in this season's series and leads the all-time matchup 4-3. The Mojo opened the season series with a four-set win on Feb. 9 in San Diego before Indy responded with a straight-set victory at home on Feb. 15. The most recent meeting came April 9 in San Diego, where the Ignite earned a five-set win.
- Road Test in a Tough Environment: Indy has won all three previous meetings played at Fishers Event Center and enters Sunday with a 12-1 home record, including 12 straight wins on its home court. San Diego enters at 6-7 on the road and will look to break through in one of the league's most challenging environments.
- Mojo Look to Carry Late-Season Form: San Diego enters the finale playing its best volleyball of the season, winning 14 of its last 20 matches and recording four sweeps in its last five. The Mojo will aim to carry that momentum into a matchup against the league's top seed as they prepare for postseason play.

SAN DIEGO MOJO OUTLOOK

- Mojo Close Regular Season With Momentum, Third Place Secured: San Diego enters Sunday's road match at Indy after a straight-set sweep of Grand Rapids in the final home match in franchise history and locked into third place in the league standings. The win marked the Mojo's fourth sweep in their last five matches as the team improved to 15-12 overall. After a 1-6 start, the Mojo have won 14 of their last 20 matches, carrying one of the league's strongest late-season surges into the regular-season finale.
- All or Nothing Matches Define Late Stretch: San Diego's recent run has been defined by decisive outcomes, with each of the last nine matches ending in either a sweep or a five-set battle. The Mojo are 5-0 in sweeps and 2-2 in five-set matches during that stretch, underscoring their ability to both close efficiently and compete deep into extended matches.

- League-Leading Defense Sets the Tone: San Diego continues to define itself on the defensive end, leading the league in digs per set (17.70) and ranking second in total digs (1,894 in 107 sets), trailing only Grand Rapids (1,909 in 112 sets). The Mojo also rank second in opponent hitting efficiency (.215), while applying pressure from the service line with 95 aces, third in the league and 0.89 aces per set. San Diego adds balance at the net, ranking fourth in total blocks (257) and blocks per set (2.40).

- Back-Row Trio Powers Defensive Identity: San Diego remains one of the only teams with three players ranked in the top 10 in both total digs and digs per set. Shara Venegas leads the way with 419 digs (second in the league) and 3.95 digs per set, while Marlie Monserez (324, 3.03) and Grace Loberg (315, 3.09) also rank among league leaders, anchoring a defense that fuels San Diego's transition game.

- Monserez Continues All-Around Impact: Monserez directs the offense at a high level, ranking second in total assists (1,096) and third in assists per set (10.24). She also ranks in the top 10 in digs and continues to be one of the most efficient setters in the league, ranking first in hitting efficiency (43.1%) and third in hitting percentage (46.7%).

- Loberg Producing Across All Phases: Loberg continues to be one of the league's most complete players, ranking sixth in total points (366) and tied for eighth in points per set (3.59). She also ranks in the top 10 in total kills (303) and kills per set (2.97), while sitting fifth in total aces (20) and adding top-10 marks in both total digs (315) and digs per set (3.09), impacting all six rotations.

- Grote Provides Presence at Net and Service Line: Marin Grote remains a key presence at the net, ranking fifth in total blocks (49) and tied for seventh in blocks per set (0.49). She has also contributed from the service line, ranking among the top 10 in aces per set (0.17), adding another layer to San Diego's offensive pressure.

INDY IGNITE OUTLOOK

- Ignite Secure Top Seed Behind Historic Season: Indy enters Sunday's regular-season finale having clinched the No. 1 seed in the MLV Championship with a 22-5 record, the most wins in a single season in league history.

- League's Top Offense Drives Success: Indy leads Major League Volleyball in points per set (18.07), kills per set (14.55) and kill percentage (.402), while ranking second in assists per set (13.45), hitting efficiency (.244) and aces per set (1.17).

- Mia Tuaniga Orchestrates High-Powered Attack: Tuaniga ranks third in the league in total assists (1,066) and second in assists per set (11.46), serving as the engine of Indy's offense. She also provides pressure from the service line, ranking second in the league in total aces (24) and aces per set (0.26).

- Azhani Tealer Leads Scoring Effort: Tealer ranks 10th in total points (318) and fifth in points per set (3.98), while also sitting sixth in kill percentage (.447), 10th in total kills (284) and fifth in kills per set (3.55).

- Lydia Martin Anchors Efficiency at the Net: Martin leads the league in kill percentage (.509) and ranks third in hitting efficiency (.362), providing a highly efficient presence in the middle. She also contributes defensively, ranking seventh in total blocks (46) and leading the league in blocks per set (0.79).

- Service Pressure Across the Lineup: Indy features multiple threats from the service line, including Anna DeBeer, who is tied for eighth in total aces (17) and ranks fourth in aces per set (0.22).

- Elena Scott Provides Defensive Stability: Scott ranks fifth in the league in both total digs (344) and digs per set (3.37), anchoring the back row for an Indy team built around its offensive firepower.

WELCOME TO MAJOR LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

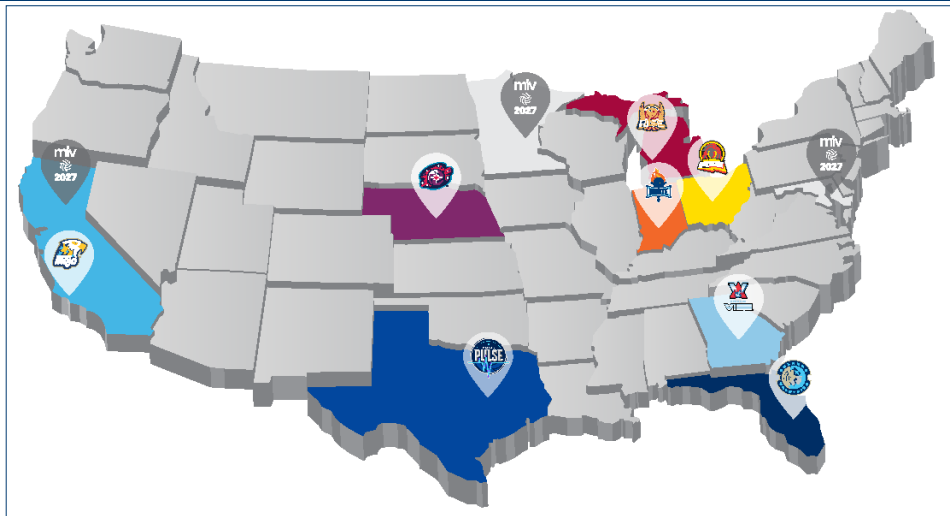

- Major League Volleyball is the premier professional women’s indoor volleyball league in North America, featuring elite American players, Olympians and top international talent.
- Entering its third season, MLV continues to elevate the sport through high-level competition, innovation and nationwide visibility.
- The league is aligned with USA Volleyball and committed to Olympic development, serving as a premier pathway from professional play to the international stage.

EXPANSION AND GROWTH IN MAJOR LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

- Major League Volleyball’s footprint continues to expand, highlighted by Dallas taking the court for the first time this season and the addition of teams in Minnesota, Northern California and Washington, D.C., confirmed for the 2027 campaign.
- With continued strategic growth, the league is slated to feature 11 teams during the 2027 season, further strengthening its national presence.
- MLV already competes in some of the nation’s largest media markets, with all eight teams in 2026 located within the top 45 designated market areas (DMAs).
- Four current teams are based in top-25 DMAs, and the addition of three new franchises in 2027 will bring Major League Volleyball into three more top-20 markets.

RECORD INVESTMENT IN PLAYER SALARIES AND BENEFITS

- Major League Volleyball invests substantially in its players – scheduled to spend more than $11 million as a league in total player salaries and benefits in 2026.
- Each team has a $1.2 million salary pool for player compensation. In addition, there are further financial bonuses for postseason awards and championship competition.

DELIVERING STRONG ATTENDANCE AND FULL BROADCAST COVERAGE

- Over the first two seasons, more than 828,000 fans have attended MLV matches, with an average of more than 4,100 fans over the 200 matches overall.
- In the first two campaigns, more than 23 percent of matches throughout the league have seen attendance figures over 5,000.
- Every match in the league has been broadcast the past two seasons and fans will be able to watch the full slate again in 2026.

ORLANDO TO HOST ANNUAL ALL-STAR MATCH

- The 2026 Major League Volleyball All-Star Match will be played Saturday, March 28 at noon ET at Addition Financial Arena, home of the Orlando Valkyries, and will air live on CBS and Paramount+.
- Orlando hosts the league’s marquee event for the first time, as the defending champion Valkyries welcome the league’s top stars to one of the nation’s premier sports and entertainment destinations.

- The All-Star Match returns to CBS network television for the second straight season after last year’s broadcast peaked at 445,000 viewers, underscoring the league’s continued national growth.

MLV UNVEILS RECORD 50-MATCH NATIONAL BROADCAST SCHEDULE

- Major League Volleyball announced a landmark 50-match national broadcast schedule, the most expansive media rollout in league history, highlighted by the MLV Championship airing on ION and the All-Star Match on CBS and Paramount+.
- The season will feature coverage across CBS Sports, Roku Sports Channel, ION, VICE and MLV digital platforms, with opening weekend, weekly marquee matchups, and postseason action showcased on national television.
- For the third consecutive season, every remaining match will also be available on the MLV YouTube Channel and through local broadcast agreements, providing nationwide access and continued growth for professional volleyball in the U.S.

ALISHA CHILDRESS

HEAD COACH

The San Diego Mojo tabbed U.S. Olympic bronze medalist and four-time NCAA champion Alisha Glass Childress as the second head coach in franchise history on August 10, 2025. Childress previously served as an assistant coach at Stanford University and with the U.S. Women's National Team. She also served as a coach during the 2025 season with Athletes Unlimited.

Childress joined the Stanford coaching staff in 2019, spending two seasons on the Cardinal sideline and playing a pivotal role in helping guide the program to victory in the 2019 NCAA National Championship.

Before her time on The Farm, Childress served as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Team during the 2018 Pan American Cup, where the U.S. rallied to win gold over host Dominican Republic.

As a player, Childress is regarded as one of the top setters in the world. During her nine-year professional career, she played in the United States, Italy, Turkey, Poland, Puerto Rico and Brazil. Childress spent the 2024 and 2025 seasons with the Vegas Thrill, collecting All-League accolades in 2024 while also earning Most Inspirational Player honors from the league's coaches, and playing in the league's inaugural All-Star Match in 2025.

Childress directed U.S. National Team offensive attacks for six years, helping lead Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio, where she earned Best Setter honors. She was also selected Best Setter of the 2016 NORCECA Olympic Qualification Tournament, guiding the U.S. to gold and an automatic spot in the Rio Games.

A two-time USA Volleyball Indoor Athlete of the Year (2013, 2014), Childress earned gold medals in three consecutive FIVB World Grand Prix Finals (2010, 2011, 2012).

Childress played collegiately at Penn State from 2006–09 for legendary head coach Russ Rose, leading the Nittany Lions to three straight national titles from 2007–09 and posting a 110–2 record during the three-year run. She was a three-time AVCA All-American, three-time All-Big Ten Conference and three-time NCAA Championship All-Tournament selection, and a nominee for the 2009 Honda Volleyball Award.

A four-year starter for the Nittany Lions, she concluded her Penn State career ranked fourth in program history with 5,800 assists and 12.47 assists per set, 13th in hitting percentage at .336 and blocks with 448 and 15th with 465 sets played.

As a prep player, the Leland, Michigan native was a four-year letterwinner at Leland High, earning Michigan Gatorade Player of the Year and Miss Volleyball for the state of Michigan in 2006 after leading the Comets to the 2006 Class D state championship, producing a single-match record of 48 kills in the title match. She was a four-time first-team all-state, all-region and all-conference selection, concluding her high school career as the National and State High School record holder in season aces (296), career aces (937) and career kills (3,584).

A two-sport star, she earned first-team all-state accolades in basketball her junior and senior seasons. Raised in a coaching family, her mother, Laurie Glass, was her high school volleyball coach, and her grandfather, Larry Glass, was her high school basketball coach.

Childress is married to eight-year NBA basketball veteran and Stanford All-American Josh Childress. They have three daughters, Maya, Mina and Amara.
