

Praise from Pastors and Christian Leaders

“Stands boldly against secular revisionism. . . . Shows Washington as sincerely devoted to following Christ.”

—Richard L. Pratt Jr., President and Cofounder, Third Millennium Ministries

“The most definitive work ever written on Washington’s faith. . . . Lets Washington speak for himself—from his own words.”

—William J. Federer, Senior Fellow, D. James Kennedy Center for Christian Statesmanship

“An outstanding example of true faith in Jesus Christ. . . . Washington’s Christian commitment is unmistakably evident.”

—Rob Fields, Executive Director and Founder, Leaders of Faith Foundation

“A fresh reexamination of Washington as a serious believer. . . . Reads the Founders in their own biblical and religious language.”

—Alan R. Crippen II, Executive Director and Chaplain, Blake Center for Faith and Freedom, Hillsdale College

“Overturns the tired narrative of a deist Washington. . . . Reveals a devotion to Christ that shaped both private piety and public virtue.”

—Trent Casto, Senior Pastor, Covenant Church of Naples, Florida

“Reveals a statesman shaped by providence, virtue, and faith.”

—Robert J. Pacienza, Senior Pastor, Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church

“A distinct portrait of a devout Christian. . . . Succinct, careful, and deeply grounded in original sources.”

—Alfred Poirier, Former Chairman of the Board, Peacemaking Ministries

“A tour de force of scholarship. . . . Reveals the Christian heart and character of George Washington.”

—Diana Severance, Director, Dunham Bible Museum, Houston Christian University
