

Xiaoying Shi was born in Canton, China and immigrated to the United States in the late 1990s. Mr. Shi has over 30 years of working experiences as a professional photographer in the field of commercial publications and products. Mr. Shi is also a well-known photographer in landscape, nature, and wildlife.

For the past 15 years, he has won over 500 photography awards from the Salons that were either recognized by PSA or FIAP. In the PSA Who's Who listing under the Projected Image Division from 2008 to 2011, Mr. Shi was awarded and ranked the 3rd place of Top Ten Exhibitors in the world for 4 consecutive years. In 2019, Mr. Shi was also ranked the 4th place in the world under Nature Division. In addition, his works were selected by PSA for The Image of the year-Best Creative in 2009 and 2010.

Currently Mr. Shi is holding the position as the Board Chairman of the Photographic Society of New York (PSNY). He was the club's president elected in 2009 and 2010.