

Daduan Deng -- APSA, PPSA, SPSA, Hon. FPSNY

Mr. Deng is the President of PSA China and serves as the Ambassador for the Photographic Society of America in China. Mr. Deng introduced three major prestigious International Photography Associations to China and has earned his title as the World Peace Artist. Mr. Deng is a photography enthusiast himself. He has been travelling to many parts of the world promoting photography, and built a bridge connecting China and photographers all over the world to meet and share their thoughts and ideas, as well as customs and cultures. PSA China is currently hosting its 20th International Salon Photography. Mr. Deng has won many international salon awards including gold medals from PSA and FIAP. He has also served as a judge in many well-known international salon exhibitions.