

Susan Cowles - FPSA, GMPSA, EFIAP/b3

Susan Cowles joined PSA in Jan 2007. She was awarded the Early Achievement Award in 2009. She has held many positions in PSA including that of Chair of CPID 2011-2012. She started the Individual Portrait Competition. She has been Chair of 2 divisions. CPID and PPD.

Susan has been in the Who's Who box for PID, PPD, PT and Nature. She took and passed the PSA Judging Course and is on the official judge's list.

She has judged for clubs, councils, and many International Exhibitions. She taught an Available Light Portraiture Class for about 10 years. Susan has taught classes to both camera clubs even in England, PSA Chapters and PSA Councils last but not least many times at the PSA Conference. Her favorite thing to take pictures of is portraits. She has over 335 medals which includes approximately 200 PSA Gold Medals. Susan received her PPSA in 2008, her EPSA in 2014, her MPSA in 2017, and her GMPSA in 2019. She now has achieved with PAA FIAP/b in 2022. She received her APSA in 2014 and FPSA in

She still loves to do portraits however, since the pandemic has discovered the love of photographing USA fighter planes, birds and small domestic animals. She has a wonderful studio in her house. Of course she does not take the fighter planes there; those are taken at Luke Air Force Base.