Pennies for Patients kicked off today! Thank you to those of you that have already started to contribute. A little change can go a long way! You can place money in the little box that came home with your child or you can donate online via this link.

Garden Club -- 1st Annual Garden Workday this Saturday, March 7th from 10:30-1:30. Garden Club at UES seeks to generate interactions with the natural world, inspire respect for life, and encourage stewardship in our community spaces. Help us kick off the beginning of spring Garden Club by joining us for a few hours in the UES gardens this Saturday. Explore the courtyard gardens we are transforming into outdoor classrooms and lend a hand to help get ready for the students' spring projects! No experience necessary. All ages welcome. Questions? Contact Sam Eads at UES.gardens@outlook.com

Spring Break will begin at 3:45 on Friday, March 13th. School will resume on Monday, March 23rd.

Online registration for returning and new students for the 2020-2021 school year is now open. You may register online using this link.

The 2020 Census is just around the corner (Mid-March) and it plays a major role in how billions of dollars are distributed to local communities for things like education. Visit the following link on our MCCSC site to learn more about the Census and how it impacts public education.
6. MCCSC will be hosting a Teacher Recruitment Fair on Thursday, March 5th from 4:00-6:00 PM at the CoLab. Let your friends that are looking to get into MCCSC know about this great opportunity to make some personal contact with all of our MCCSC schools.

7. Mark your calendars for Saturday, March 28th as MCCSC hosts their annual GEMS (Girls in Engineering, Math, and Science) event at Bloomington High School North from 8:00-12:00. Hard copies of the informational flyer are available in the main office. You may register here.

8. PTO Meeting Next week: Please join us for our monthly PTO meeting next Tuesday night, March 10, from 6-7 pm in the library. Childcare is provided for ages 4+.
