1. Tomorrow, Wednesday, is School Picture Day. There are no order forms for this - simply send your child to school ready for their picture! You will receive an email from Sheldon Photography with proofs to place your order. Please check out the separate email that is being forwarded from Sheldon Photography today. If you did not get this in your email from Sheldon, please email him at steve@stevesheldon.com so he can get the correct email address to send you your proofs.
2. We have had a few instances where water bottles have spilled in backpacks. When water bottles spill, they can damage books, binders, and even iPads, which become expensive to fix. Please remind your children to either place the water bottle in the outside pocket of their backpack or carry it in and out of the school each day. We will do the same at school.
3. We have a limited amount of extra yearbooks from 2020-2021 for sale in the front office for $15 each. These will be sold on a first come, first served basis. Cash or check (made out to University School) is accepted.
4. There was an email sent out by MCCSC today that addressed safety precautions for our children and staff. Please take the time to read over the email as it outlines a few pointers to help keep all of us safe. We will continue to work to keep our learning spaces as safe as possible. One of the best things that you can do as a family is send your child to school in a mask that fits properly - covering their face and nose. As outlined in the letter, masks are the safest option as compared to other face coverings as they filter particles at a higher rate.

5. There have been some students that have expressed some interest in a Mythology Club at school. For a club to exist, there needs to be a sponsor. If you know a lot about mythology and would possibly like to sponsor this for some students, please contact the office to talk with Mr. Hopkins. There are parameters around clubs that will need to be discussed before anything could start.
6. If you need to make changes to the end of the day dismissal for your child(ren), please contact the school office and your child's teacher prior to 2:30 PM.
