

University Elementary
Monday Minute - October 30, 2019

1. Storybook Character Day Thursday
2. University Global Community Potluck Friday
3. From your PTO

1. Thursday, October 31st is Storybook Character Day at University School. Students and staff are invited to dress up as their favorite storybook character. There should be no masks, blood, or weapons. Face paint is restricted as students should not cover their faces. With that said, you may use reasonable judgement on this as painting whiskers on your child's face would be acceptable if they were a character like the Cat in the Hat. If the classroom teacher determines that the paint is too much, your child will be asked to wash it off. Also, if the costume becomes a distraction in the classroom, the teacher may ask your child to remove part or all of the costume.
2. Friday, November 1st is our University Elementary Global Community Potluck and Talent Show from 6- 8:30pm. Bring a favorite dish to share and sample foods from around the world! After sharing a meal together, settle in and enjoy a showcase of talents and traditional clothing from University Elementary students.

If you are an adult and would like to volunteer for the event, please sign up here: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30E0C4CAFAA22A7F94-2019>

Students - Have a talent or skill that you would like to share with others? Want to showcase traditional clothing that is special to you? From pogo sticks to piano, calligraphy to comedy, all are welcome at the University Elementary Global Community Talent Show! Please include your name, grade, and what you would like to do for the show. Please note that performances are limited to 2-3 minutes each. Looking forward to seeing you there!
