

Drake Ambassadors

Qualifications

- Positive attitude
- Strong work ethic
- Strong potential for leadership
- Willingness to develop speaking skills
- Ability to start conversations with new students and parents
- Ability to take initiative
- Desire to meet and help new and future students
- Ability to balance academic responsibilities with extra-curricular activities

What is an Ambassador?

DMS Ambassadors show leadership, good judgement, maturity, honesty, and integrity while upholding their responsibilities of being a model student. Being a DMS Ambassador is a tremendous honor and with that honor comes responsibility. The DMS Student Ambassadors are a group of students who are dedicated to the positive promotion of Drake Middle School. These students specifically serve as leaders and ambassadors from the current DMS student body to students and families new to the building and/or new to Auburn City Schools.

Requirements

To remain an active Student Ambassador, you must conduct all Ambassador business in a professional manner. If selected to be a DMS Ambassador you may be asked to:

- Conduct building tours for campus guests
- Escort new students to classes
- Explain DMS rules and procedures
- Manage and assist with various student activities throughout the year

