1. Welcome back to our continuation of the first semester! The first semester will end on Friday, January 15th.
2. Monday, January 18th is MLK Day. There will be no school in MCCSC.
3. The second semester will begin on Tuesday, January 19th. Please plan to continue your currently learning mode (in-person/online) until January 19th.
4. The government has extended the free breakfast/lunch program in schools through June 2021! Students will continue to receive free breakfast and lunch as needed at school.
5. The winter window for NWEA testing (grades 3-6) will begin on Monday, January 11th. This assessment is used to help aid in the identification process for high ability services. Students that took the assessment in the fall will automatically take this assessment during this window. There is no preparation that families can do for this test. If your child did not participate in this assessment in the fall and you would like for this to happen for the winter window, please contact Mr. Hopkins at ghopkins@mccsc.edu by January 7th.
6. If you have not had the chance to donate to the PTO Thankfulness and Generosity Campaign, please consider doing so via this link:
