1. University students, staff, and families recognized the men and women who served our country today during our Veterans Day Celebration. Miss Bowen had the students sounding wonderful as they sang various songs, the guest speakers was informative, and the veterans were a delight to recognize. We followed our program with some light refreshments in the cafeteria.
  2. Thanksgiving Break will run Monday, November 19th - Friday, November 23rd. No school! We will see everyone back on Monday, November 26th.
  3. Art to Remember is here! Mrs. Newsom is working to get everything sorted out. Please be on the lookout for your child's work as it is her goal to get everything sent home by Friday.
  4. Our UES K-Kids has organized a food drive running from November 5th-16th to help our Backpack Buddies program here at UES. Please send in non-perishable food items at your convenience.
  5. High Ability: We have received the data from the InView cognitive abilities assessment given to all MCCSC 3rd and 6th grade in early October. The corporation hoping to send home "Home Reports" with letter sometime this week. The HA ID application/identification process has begun for middle school. Qualifying 6th grade students will be taking the NWEA December 3-14. Student lists will be sent to elementary schools along with letters for parents the week after Thanksgiving Break.
  6. From your PTO:
    - a. Our November PTO Meeting will be Tuesday night at 6:30 in the library.

7. Did you know that JK Rowling “liked” a tweet from Mrs. D’Eliso last week?! Mrs. D’Eliso tweeted out a picture of over 40 UES students dressed in Harry Potter attire during our Storybook Character Day. This past weekend, some of our University students sang at the Farmers Market with students from other MCCSC schools. We posted a video to social media.
