Dear RCSD Parents and Guardians,

At the April 9, 2019, meeting, the Board of Education voted to bring a new capital bond referendum to the community. The vote will be held on Tuesday, June 11, from 7:00 AM - 9:00 PM in the Rye Middle School Gymnasium at 3 Parsons Street.

Over the past weeks, the Board has been reaching out to the community and listening to feedback and ideas. We deeply appreciate the many members of the community who completed our survey, emailed, called, and met with us to give input on the original capital bond proposal. After much thought and deliberation, we have decided to present several options to the community on June 11.

Here are the three propositions that will be presented to the community on June 11:

Proposition 1:

Establish a Capital Reserve Fund to create the ability for the District to dedicate surplus funds to address future facilities and infrastructure needs at no additional cost to taxpayers

---

We heard your feedback and believe the revised bond proposal offers the community choices. We also heard that you want more detailed information about the projects in the proposal and the financing of the bond. We are committed to providing you with the information you need to make an informed decision. There will be additional public information sessions and school tours scheduled in the near future. Additionally, the School District website (www.ryeschools.org) will be updated with detailed information about the new capital bond proposal. Again, many thanks for your feedback and for your support of our schools and community.

Sincerely,

Rye City School District Board of Education
