Dear Belmont Families,

Happy November! We have a lot to be thankful for this year—namely, the kids being back at school and no recent quarantines. I'm especially thankful for the volunteers who have helped so far. If you are available to help at an outdoor lunch session, visit:

signupgenius.com/go/60b0a4badad22a3f49-outdoor.

If lunch doesn't work, we have other opportunities as well! Sign up here: www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0948ADA82DA1FE3-ptacommittee.

We hope you will join us at our November meeting with Ms. Jazzy and participate in the first-ever Belmont Scavenger Hunt! We've also got a Restaurant Night at the end of the month as we head into the holidays. Stay healthy and safe!

Outdoor Lunch

Please continue to sign up for outdoor lunch sessions. Parent volunteers are essential so we can keep our kids outdoors!

November Meeting with Ms. Jazzy!

Ms. Jazzy, our guidance counselor, will join us for our next meeting. She'll provide tips to help our kids adjust to being back full-time, share an overview of the Zones of Regulation, and answer any questions. You can still join the PTA! Membership offers fun, free student events and helps Belmont and its staff. Contact Amanda Stack for help or register belmontespta.membershiptoolkit.com.

Green Committee November Challenge

We want all Belmont students to start recycling dried out markers and pens, mechanical pencils, and old/small crayon pieces. The Green Committee will be starting collections. Gather these supplies from your house and school supplies to recycle rather than throwing in the trash! Students may send a picture of themselves sending in their old supplies to recycle to amritagirl@gmail.com to be featured on the PTA Green Committee website! Thanks Amrita Ghosh!

Book Fair Update

Thank you to everyone who participated. We had over $9,000 in book fair sales. The funds raised will provide new books and materials for the media center.

Belmont Scavenger Hunt – November 7-13

Save the date for our first neighborhood Scavenger Hunt. Prizes will be awarded! Watch for the information sheet coming home soon and get ready to find some fall-themed items!

We had a great International Week, illustrating the amazing diversity and rich culture in our student body. Buddy the bulldog visited the countries in some posters including Ethiopia, Scotland, and Greece! Hope you all got a chance to find where he was hiding!
