1. This past Saturday, Y. represented University School in the IU Spelling Bee at the Monroe County Library. Y. won the Spelling Bee for the second year in a row, qualifying her for the Scripps National Spelling Bee in Washington D.C. in late May! Congratulations to Y. If you would like to see a video of her winning word, visit our Facebook or Twitter page to enjoy the win.

2. Online registration for returning and new students for the 2020-2021 school year is now open. You may register online using this link.

3. The 2020 Census is just around the corner (Mid-March) and it plays a major role in how billions of dollars are distributed to local communities for things like education. Visit the following link on our MCCSC site to learn more about the Census and how it impacts public education.

4. MCCSC will be hosting a Teacher Recruitment Fair on Thursday, March 5th from 4:00-6:00 PM at the CoLab. Let your friends that are looking to get into MCCSC know about this great opportunity to make some personal contact with all of our MCCSC schools.

5. Looking to work for MCCSC? Check out our corporation job postings to apply for a position today. At University School, we are currently in need of a Preschool Paraprofessional and a Preventionist.

6. Mark your calendars for Saturday, March 28th as MCCSC hosts their annual GEMS (Girls in Engineering, Math, and Science) event at Bloomington High School North from 8:00-12:00. Hard copies of the informational flyer are available in the main office. You may register here.

7. PTO Skate Night is Tuesday, February 25th.
