1. Picture Retake Day is October 20th. Please see the emails from Sheldon Photography that have gone out over the past three weekends.
2. It's October, which means that it is time to prepare for our annual Storybook Character Day! Storybook Character Day will be held on Thursday, October 28th. Students and staff are encouraged to dress up as their favorite storybook character AND to bring the book with them to school. Our rules are no masks, no blood, no weapons. We are an elementary school, so let's keep it light and fun! Your child's teacher will review expectations in the classroom.
3. Your child should have brought home information about the MCCSC Flu Clinic that is being provided by IU Health. Paperwork is due by October 29th. No late paperwork/registration will be accepted. The flu clinic will take place on November 11th.
4. Students in grades PK, 1, 3, 5 will participate in a vision screening, provided by IU Optometry, on Friday, October 22nd. If your child does not pass this screener, they will bring home information for you to follow up with an eye doctor.
5. In gratitude to the people who made donations to the University Library last summer, here's an unboxing video, so you can see where your money went.

6. October is Bully Prevention Month. Mr. Simonton will be providing direct instruction in each of our classrooms during the month on this topic, in addition to the work that our teachers will do with your children. We do have theme days throughout the month that you can find below. We encourage everyone to stand up to bullying!

- a. Wednesday, October 20: Wear Orange - Pacers' National Bullying Prevention Center - wear orange to be united for kindness, acceptance, and inclusion
 - b. Wednesday, October 27: Wear your favorite team - "Team Up Against Bullying"
7. The UES Fall Campaign is up and running! You should have received a hard copy of information prior to Fall Break. We are already $\frac{2}{3}$ of our way to our school-wide goal, so every donation counts! You can send money in the envelope or make a payment via PayPal using this link.
