

New York Times Bestselling Author and Sparta Resident

Wendy Mass

Visits HELEN MORGAN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL on

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25th

Wendy Mass is the New York Times bestselling author of 29 novels for young people.

We are so excited that she has volunteered to visit Helen Morgan to talk about her most recent book, BOB.

Wendy Mass and Rebecca Stead, two masterminds of classic, middle-grade fiction come together to craft this magical story about the enduring power of friendship.

10-year-old Livy feels like she left behind something very important when she last visited her grandmother. Turns out she was right! Wait until you meet Bob, the magical creature who waited five long years for Livy to return. Join them on the adventure of a lifetime.

Wendy's assembly will include a lively presentation followed by Q&A from the students.

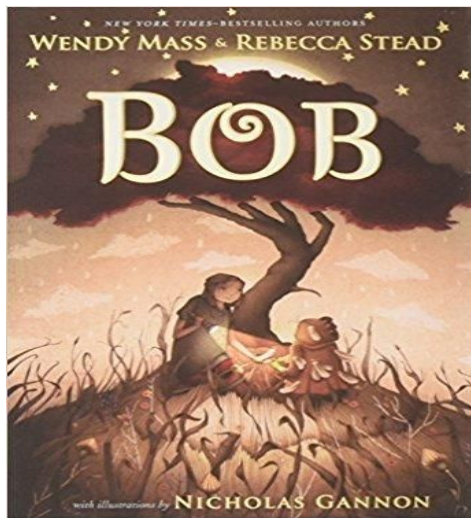

Get your very own PERSONALIZED copy of BOB so you can read it on the same day!

Please complete the form below and return it with your payment no later than Tuesday, October 16th.

Please return the form in an envelope marked "AUTHOR WENDY MASS".

Student Name: _____ Teacher: _____

Personalize to: _____

$17.00 NEW ~ only in hardcover

Please make checks payable to HMS