

Ocean View Newsletter

OCTOBER
2025

Ocean View Families,

We are looking forward to our upcoming Parent-Teacher Conferences on October 22 and 23. These meetings are an important opportunity for you to connect with your child's teacher and learn more about what your child is learning, how they're doing academically and socially, and how you can support their growth at home.

Parent-teacher conferences are a valuable time to build a strong partnership between home and school. Our teachers are eager to partner with you to help your child reach their full potential.

Children like to show off what they are learning and doing at school. Knowing you are interested in their schooling is very motivating.

Please click the following link to sign up for Parent-Teacher Conferences. <https://parentconnect.asdk12.org/> See pages 4-5 for detailed instructions. While in-person conferences are always best, we can accommodate virtual or phone conferences if necessary.

Thank you for being an active part of your child's education. We look forward to meeting with you during conferences.

Christina VonWatter, Principal

NURSES NOTE

Head Lice — let's work together to keep them out of Ocean View! Please check your child at least once a week for lice and, if found, let me know and follow up with treatment immediately. Need help or education? Just ask! Although lice do not jump or fly, they can quickly become a classroom nuisance. Educating your child at home will decrease their risk of becoming infested; for example, please recommend high fives instead of hugging, keeping long hair tied back or put up, not letting hair hang down close to others when reading or doing projects. See link for photos, additional information:

Winter Weather is Coming

Now is the time to have your kids try on their winter gear to see if it still fits!

Ocean View Boutique will be open on 10/22 and 10/23 from 12-6pm so families can get geared up for snow and cold weather

Donations of gloves and boots happily accepted

Please write your kids names in ALL of their coats, hats, and gloves so they don't end up like this:

OCTOBER

COUNSELOR NEWSLETTER

WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE CLASSROOM?

October is here, and with it comes falling leaves, pumpkins, and Halloween fun! But along with costumes and candy, we're also learning something very important in our classroom counseling lessons: how to be an Upstander, not a Bystander when we see something wrong.

Whether it's on the playground, in the hallway, or online, we want our students to use their voice for kindness and courage, even when it feels a little scary.

We're not just dressing up as heroes, we're becoming them. Every student can be a brave, kind, and thoughtful Upstander who helps make our school a safer, happier place for everyone.

Kindness week will be October 27-31. Stay tuned for more information and activities!

SUPPORT AT HOME

- Model kindness and respect
- Talk about fairness and inclusion
