

SEAHAWK TALK

WEEK OF JANUARY 9TH - 13TH

A WORD FROM MRS. HAMILTON

Hello, Seahawk FAMILY!

I hope 2023 has been a wonderful new beginning for you and your family.

We are coming up on a long weekend. We will begin dismissal at noon on Friday, January 13th. If your child attends an after school program, please reach out to that location to make sure they will be open on Friday. Some do not open on days when the schools dismiss early. If your child is not going to the after school program on Friday, please send a note so that we can make sure your child gets home the correct way.

The temperature is dropping and the number of coats in our Lost and Found is increasing. If your child is missing a coat, please encourage him/her to look for it in our Lost and Found. We have outdoor recess as long as the temperature outside is 40 degrees or warmer.

Thank you to all who volunteered for Career Day. We appreciate you taking time out of your day to share with our Seahawks about your career. The children enjoyed every presenter.

Have a great week!!

Freedom Readers Horry County Sites

Freedom Readers is a nonprofit organization that focuses on improving literacy skills for students in low-income areas throughout Horry, Georgetown, and Williamsburg County. The organization offers once-per-week 90-minute sessions for K-5th grade students (known as Scholars) to receive one-on-one attention with a trained tutor. Freedom Readers Spring 2023 Session begins the week of Jan 23rd to March 20th.

Knights for Knowledge

Knights for Knowledge is a one hour, once weekly program that deploys a group of trained tutors to established programs where children gather to help with homework and read with young people on their level. Each Knight is required to volunteer for at least 8 weeks. The goal of the program is to help boost student academic achievement in the wake of the pandemic's impact on learning. Just as the knights of old were called on to be defenders of virtue, our Knights of Knowledge defend every child's right to learn, grow, succeed and read.
