

SEAHAWK TALK

November 10th - 14th

A word from Mrs. Hamilton

Hello Seahawk Families!

Thank you parents for helping with the carline issues. The mornings are very busy and I know that everyone has somewhere that they need to be. However, our Seahawks' safety must be the number one concern. Last week, we had less children tardy.

Please continue to try to move your routine up by just a few minutes. We get over 300 children into school between 6:55 AM and 7:30 AM. We start letting children into the building at 6:55 AM. As a result, the carline is pretty empty at 7:00 AM - 7:10 AM. If you are one of the families coming in after 7:30, you may want to consider coming between 7:00 AM-7:30 AM and then you can get to where you need to be with a few minutes to spare.

This week is our Thanksgiving feast. I always love these days. It is a great time to talk with our families and meet new people. We would love to have you join us. See the schedule below for days and times.

Ms. Kissie Melvin will join MBE on Tuesday, November 11th as Principal for the Day. This is a wonderful event our district has done for many years. She will get to spend the day with our Seahawks. If you are interested in being a Principal for the Day next year, reach out to the district office for details on how you can sign up.

Have a wonderful week!

Always,
Kristie Hamilton
