

You're Invited to the First Digital For Good Community Event

For educators, parents, students, & community guests

The evening will feature
Dr. Richard Culatta,
Thursday, October 5,
7:00 p.m.
Nu Skin Enterprises,
75 W. Center St., Provo

Use this QR code to get your free Eventbrite e-tickets today. All live attendees will receive a free copy of Digital for Good. This handbook is for anyone seeking to reframe, rebalance, and intentionally live productive and uplifting online lives.

Dr. Richard Culatta—CEO of the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) and the previous Director of the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Educational Technology—is known for designing instructional approaches that are responsive to improving access and equity for families and students.

Dr. Culatta flips the typical digital citizenship conversation from a negative list of "don'ts" into a productive and positive conversation. He encourages family communication and prioritizing life goals that include the use of technology as a powerful tool for good.

SPECIAL EVENT TICKET
* ADMIT ONE *

Educators & Administrators

Wednesday, Oct 4, 4:00 p.m.
Dixon Middle School

Talk with Richard about managing technology use in the classroom, what "good" technology use looks like, and how to address digital dysfunctions in society, and the future of technology (aka, AI). Use QR Codes to register for the events.

#EDCAMPWASO Saturday, Oct 7, 8:00 a.m.

Edcamp WASO is an annual conference for area educators and will have Richard Culatta, ISTE CEO, with Cody Spendlove from USBE as keynote speakers.

Where
165 South 700 East,
Springville, UT
Breakfast & Lunch will be served.

