AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

- Military
- Trade school
- College

WE ARE HERE TO HELP!

INTERESTED IN MILITARY?

- MILITARY CAREER:

- Recruiters from different branches of the military will help you as you investigate a military career.
- Local military recruiters visit your campus frequently.
- In speaking with a local recruiter, learn as much as possible about the different branches, such as the acceptance requirements, job opportunities, benefits, and obligation of service.

CAREER/TRADE/TECHNICAL TRAINING

- Career/trade/technical training is available through junior or community colleges, such as:
 - San Antonio College
 - St. Philip's
 - Palo Alto
 - Northeast Lakeview
 - Northwest Vista
 - Texas State Technical College. (specialized vocational/technical school)

These institutions offer training for careers such as culinary arts, cosmetology, auto mechanics, and medical/nursing.

TESTING INFORMATION

- ACT - www.act.org
 - The ACT attempts to measure skills that are closely-related to the content of courses in the high school curriculum in the four subject areas of English, Mathematics, Reading, and Science.
- SAT - www.collegeboard.org
 - The redesigned SAT will be based on the skills and knowledge that are essential for students' college and career readiness and success.

- The TSI (Texas Success Initiative) Assessment is designed to help your university or college determine if you are ready for college-level course work in the general areas of reading, writing and mathematics.
- The ASVAB (Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery) is a multiple-aptitude battery that measures developed abilities and helps predict future academic and occupational success in the military.
 - This test is recommended for any student, but especially for students who are considering any branch of the military as a possible career.
- For more information, visit: www.military.com/join-armed-forces/asvab.
