

Columbus Metropolitan Library

Barnett

November 4, 2024

Children and families explore the firetruck.

Fire Prevention Week

October 6th through 12th was Fire Prevention Week.

Barnett Library had fire prevention activities and displays throughout the building all week. Patrons could check out books and participate in a free activity! On Thursday, October 10th, the fire department came to us!

Children and families were able to explore the fire truck, wear some of the equipment, and learn about fire safety!

Join us for more fun to come in November and to receive more information about our upcoming activities and programs!

Family Storytime

Thursday, 10:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

Join our story time to have fun with picture books using multiple senses.

Educators:

- Educator cards allow teachers to have a separate library card for checking out books for your center in addition to the library card you have for personal use. You can borrow up to 80 items, and we forgive you for up to 5 lost or damaged books.
- Teacher Collections- order through our website using your Educator Card- at least 2 weeks before you need them. You tell us the topic and we pick out all the books and have them ready for you.
<https://app.columbuslibrary.org/teacher-request-form>
- Check out books for your classroom- when you visit us or when we visit you. Just tell us in advance, have your Educator card number handy, and we can bring a stack of books for your teachers or students to select and check out.
