Principal Message

From Joshua Rhine

Knights,

We hope that you and yours enjoyed some good times and great memories. As we return to "School Mode" I implore you to remind our students about the necessity of the two most important Knight pillars ... Respect and Responsibility. We want to take care of business with our highest efforts in order to maximize learning. And, of course, we focus on how our students conduct themselves and treat others with basic kindness and regard. Nothing is more important. GO Knights!

College Station UIL District Meet

March 4th, 2026 @ College Station Middle School

March 21, 2026 @ College Station Middle School

Congratulations! Your student has been chosen to represent College Station Middle School at the 2025-2026 College Station UIL District Meet. Most events will be held at our campus and we will pull students from class on March 4th to allow them time to compete on campus.

These students will not need to attend the meet at College Station Middle School unless they plan to attend the Awards Ceremony. Students in Speaking events (Impromptu Speaking, Oral Reading, and Modern Oratory) will be held in-person the morning of the meet on Saturday, March 21st, 2026, at College Station Middle School.

You are responsible for your student's transportation to and from the meet. Please be sure your student arrives at least 15 minutes prior to testing, as it will be necessary to check in and receive their testing number before reporting to the testing room. No late entrants will be admitted to the testing rooms.

Knights Athletics

Our 7th and 8th grade teams for Boys and Girls performed valiantly this past meet.

We are incredibly proud of the growth these young men and women are exhibiting. They are putting in relentless effort, and that is making the difference. We are excited for what is to come.
