THE SANGO SCENE

PTO ONLINE MYTHBUSTERS

MYTH: When dues are paid, the money is used to pay for membership in the national association.

TRUTH: With the transition to a PTO, the "dues" are actually considered a donation. The money is kept by the PTO to support special events held at school (Grandparents' Day, Donuts with Dad, Cookies with Santa, and so many more). The funds are also used for technology resources, classroom supplies, staff appreciation events.

MYTH: If I send "dues", I am a member of the PTO and I will be required to volunteer.

TRUTH: Dues are simply a donation to the work of the PTO. There will be opportunities to volunteer, but volunteering will never be required. Throughout the year, opportunities to serve will be announced. While participation is appreciated it is not required.
