Cougar Families-

Thank you for a GREAT first week of school. I am not sure who was more exhausted after the first week– the students or the teachers! Either way, we had a fantastic first week and I am looking forward to an outstanding school year.

This year, our motto is Kerr: Where Every Story Matters. In June, our staff participated in Capturing Kids’ Hearts training. This is a process that focuses on building relationships. In the words of Flip Flippen, Founder of Capturing Kids’ Hearts, “If you have a child’s heart, you have his/her head.” Our faculty and staff firmly believe this and we strive to build relationships with all students.

We spent the first week of school getting to know each other– both getting to know our students and letting our students get to know us! This week, we will build our social contracts in each class. A social contract is essentially an agreement between all members of a class, including the teacher, about how we want to be treated and how we will treat each other.

I am looking forward to getting to know your student throughout this school year. Thank you for trusting us with your children each day. Don’t forget to connect with us on social media. Our contact information is to the right. Have a great week!

-Kalee McMullen, Principal

Spotlight on Innovation

Mrs. Mellott’s 7th grade math classes worked on team building and critical thinking skills in this fun card stacking competition. It was fun to see the different methods of stacking cards to have the highest tower!

CONSTRUCTION ZONE

Stay tuned for information about the progress on the new Kerr MS construction on Hidden Creek!

Thank you for your patience during the first week of student drop off and pick up, both in the parent drop off/pick up lines and on the buses. Each day was a little quicker and smoother.

Thank you for helping us keep our students safe!
