

POSITION AVAILABLE

ASSISTANT CITY ENGINEER: Norfolk, Nebraska (Population 25,865), in Northeast Nebraska. Supervises, participates in and reviews engineering work involving design and construction observation of bridges, streets, storm water systems, sanitary sewer collection systems, wastewater treatment facilities, solid waste facilities and other public works related facilities; reviews subdivision plans, and provides engineering support and capital planning for other city divisions. Four-year degree in Civil Engineering and Nebraska Professional Engineer license required or be able to obtain a Nebraska Professional Engineer License by Comity. Five to ten years of increasing responsible managerial and public works experience preferred. Salary range $5,457 - $7,607/mo. Excellent benefit package. Applications available at Personnel Office, 309 North 5th Street, Norfolk, or at www.norfolkne.gov/humanresources Please include college transcript. First review of applications beginning February 1, 2022. Open until filled. EOE