

Jailer

Washington County Jail is taking applications for a part-time jailer. Employees may work all shifts and weekends - current shifts are 12-hour shifts. Looking for male and female applicants to work part-time.

Under general supervision, jailers ensure the protection, welfare, and security of inmates while maintaining compliance with the Code of Iowa, U.S. Constitution, and Iowa Jail Standards.

Starting pay will be $25.48 per hour; applicants with prior jail or corrections experience may start at a higher rate of pay.

View the full job description and download an application at <https://washingtoncounty.iowa.gov/jobs.aspx>.

Applications accepted until position is filled.

Deliver in person or send by mail/email to:
Washington County Jail
Attn: Jail Administrator Gina Greiner
2185 Lexington Blvd.
Washington, IA 52353
ggreiner@washingtoncounty.iowa.gov

Drug testing, background check, and physical capacity profile required.

Washington County is an Equal Opportunity Employer.