Portugal

Golf has become more international than ever, with golfers travelling far and wide to play new and exciting courses. However, year after year, thousands of golfers return to Portugal to play the incredible courses found there, why? Because the quality and density of championship golf courses in Portugal is unparalleled in Europe.

There are few better feelings in golf than the glorious Portuguese sun shining down on you, with the rolling hills of the Algarve laid at your feet. Countless European Tour venues are strung along the coast where famous names like San Lorenzo and Quinta Do Lago feature in Europe's most beloved golf destination.

"I've enjoyed many great trips to Portugal over the years, lucky enough to win the Portugal Masters in 2009, however the courses, weather and beaches are all fantastic and I never fail to have a great time whenever I visit."
