A Letter From Our Founders

A MESSAGE FROM ROSS AND ANDREW

Dear Friends of Your Golf Travel,

As we step into the new year, I'm thrilled to share with you our latest UK golf travel brochure, a labour of love and passion from our team at Your Golf Travel. Each page of this brochure is infused with the same enthusiasm for golf that drives you, our fellow golfers, and us.

And what a year it's been to be a British or Irish golf fan! From Rory taking home the Race to Dubai again to Luke Donald and his men doing the business for Team Europe, made up of 7 British and Irish golfers. Not to mention the European Solheim Cup team, featuring the likes of Leona Maguire and Gemma Dryburgh achieving a famous victory, led by our new ambassador Suzann Pettersen.

We're delighted to have Suzann, a two-time Major winner, join Team YGT. What a stamp of approval it is for our Solheim Cup packages to have the current European Captain involved in all our trips! But she's not the only famous new face we added to our ranks as official ambassadors this year.

We added 2016 Masters champion Danny Willett as well as the man who scored the winning point in the 2014 Ryder Cup in Jamie Donaldson. We also welcomed back with open (!) arms Open and Senior Open champion Darren Clarke ("just tell them Darren sent you!"). That's all in addition to our long-time friend Lee Westwood, one of England's most decorated golfers, who has won 44 tournaments in 20 different countries over four decades across five continents. A feat that will be hard to achieve again.

It means the world to us at YGT to have the support and expertise of some of the most successful golfers and partners in the modern era, but it's our team of golf travel experts that our customers speak to on a day-to-day basis that we're most proud of. Their high levels of professionalism have been endorsed by our partnership with England Golf where we sponsor the UK-wide "Race to Woodhall Spa" tournament and support Respect in Golf and other key industry initiatives.

Across 2023, our in-house team of over 200 travel experts sent hundreds of thousands of golfers to 26 countries around the world, to play some 4,000+ destinations. Including, of course, the very best in the British Isles. Our expertise and history in the golf travel industry is unmatched and you can guarantee that when we say we've 'been there, played that', it's 100% true. We are personally looking forward to trips this year to Trump Aberdeen, The Old Course Links, St Andrew, Royal County Down, Princes, Royal Cinque Ports and Sandwich plus Ballyunion and Waterville golf links in Ireland. And it's this combination of our in-house knowledge and outside expertise from our ambassadors that truly make this year's brochure 'The Expert Edition'.

But the real champions of Team YGT are, of course, you – the golfers who share our love for the game and the adventures it brings. Your passion for exploring new places and creating unforgettable memories and experiences on and off the course is what truly drives us. Every story you share, every new course you discover, and every friendship you strengthen through these journeys makes what we do worthwhile.

As we embark on another year of golfing adventures, we're excited to see where your passion for the game will take you next. Together, we'll continue to explore the UK and Ireland's greatest golf destinations and create memories that will last a lifetime.

All the best for 2024, we look forward to seeing you out on the fairways.

R. Marshall.

Your Golf Travel's Dream Team

Where Champions Shape your Golfing Adventures

What does a Solheim Cup captain, a former world number one, a Masters winner, the scorer of the winning point in the Ryder Cup and an Open (and Senior Open) champion have in common?

Well, not only are they some of the most highly decorated golfers ever, who have played countless events at just about every golf course worth its salt on the planet and all understand what it means to have a well organised, seamless and memorable golf travel experience... they're also all official ambassadors of Your Golf Travel?

We're proud to be working with Suzann Pettersen, Danny Willett, Darren Clarke, Lee Westwood and Jamie Donaldson as we aim to provide the highest quality of service to our customers.

We know that most of our customers aren't professional golfers. But if we can put travel packages together that would impress our ambassadors, we know for sure it'll impress you.

So, without further ado, let's find out more about our ambassadors' work here at YGT...

ROYAL BIRKDALE

Suzann Pettersen

- 2-Time Major Winner
- 2023/24 Solheim Cup Captain
- 21 Professional Wins

Our partnership with Suzann not only elevates the standard of our offerings at Your Golf Travel but also aligns with our vision to inspire and support women's golf. Suzann, a trailblazer in women's golf, embodies the spirit of innovation and excellence we strive to promote. Her remarkable journey, from being a world-class player to a successful Solheim Cup captain, serves as an inspiration to our customers, especially women golfers who aspire to reach new heights in their game.

Suzann's expert recommendations for 2024

include Royal Birkdale, where she was 2nd in the Womens Open in 2014 and Gleneagles where, in September 2019, Suzann holed her birdie putt on the 18th in her singles match to win the Solheim Cup for Europe.

Suzann's goals with Your Golf Travel:

- ✓ Get more women playing golf
- ✓ Bring more fans to experience the thrills of The Solheim Cup
- ✓ Meet as many Solheim Cup visitors as possible

Danny Willett

- 2016 Masters Champion
- 8 Professional Wins

That's right, we've got the owner of a Green Jacket on our books. Danny's the natural choice to be the face of our Masters tournament packages, which bring hundreds of lucky golfers to the holy grail of golf in Augusta every year for the ultimate bucket list experience.

Not only is he at Augusta to meet our guests and take part in exclusive VIP events, he also personally calls our attendees before they head out to the US for the tournament. And he hosts his own Your Golf Travel golf days in the UK with our customers!

Danny's recommendations for 2024 include The K Club in Dublin, The Belfry - one of his sponsors - plus his home clubs of Lindrick and Rotherham for those on a golfing tour.

Danny's goals with Your Golf Travel:

- ☑ Encourage more golfers to experience the Belfry and try to drive 'Seve's' famous 10th hole
- ☑ Lift the lid on the authentic Masters experience with exclusive insight from a green jacket champion

Darren Clarke

- 2011 Open Champion
- 2022 Senior Open Champion
- 2016 Ryder Cup captain

Just tell them Darren sent you! We're thrilled to be working once more with Darren Clarke, the 2011 Open Champion and 2022 Senior Open Champion. With a professional career stretching back to 1990 and including 27 wins and numerous record-breaking feats, Darren's an invaluable asset to our team.

His expertise on golf around the world is difficult to match, but it's golf in the UK and Ireland that really gets his juices flowing. It's only right that Darren should be the face of our Open Championship tournament packages, playing a key role in delivering exceptional hospitality and meet-and-greet experiences throughout the year.

Darren's recommendations for 2024 are tours to his home club Royal Portrush, as well as Royal St Georges in Kent and Gleneagles in Perthshire where he won his Open and Senior Open respectively, plus the Abaco Club in the Bahamas.

Darren's Goals with Your Golf Travel:

- ☑ Encourage more golfers to play in Ireland
- ☑ Share a pint of Guinness with the punters at The Open

Lee Westwood

- 44 Professional Wins
- Former world number one
- 8th on European Tour all-time wins list

Now to our Chief Holiday Officer. Lee is one of the most well-travelled golfers in the world, having won across five continents and 20 countries - so who's better placed to influence our golf travel experiences than him? Now, as he competes on the LIV Tour with the Majesticks, Lee continues to offer unique insights from his extensive international tournament experience - including his three Race to Dubai victories, as well as in-person events such as his Your Golf Travel golf days.

Lee's recommendations for 2024 include Trump Turnberry, where he placed 2nd in the Open Championship, the Old Course, St Andrews and Kingsbarns, where he won the Dunhill Links, Muirfield Golf Club and his first boyhood clubs Kilton Forest and Worksop in Nottinghamshire.

Lee's goals with Your Golf Travel:

- ✓ Encourage more golfers to experience golf in the St Andrews and play the Old Course at the home of golf
- ✓ Encourage golfers to tick off as many countries as possible in 2024

Jamie Donaldson

- 8 Professional Wins
- Secured the winning point in the 2014 Ryder Cup

Not many people can say that they hit the shot that won the Ryder Cup. And we just happen to have one member of that exclusive club as our ambassador. Jamie's professional career stretches back to 2000, since which time he's won 8 times professionally and reached a high of 23 in the world. Now, as he continues to play on the DP World Tour, he's dedicated to helping us share the joys of the Ryder Cup - that he knows too well - with our customers. Jamie will be alongside our guests in 2025 at Bethpage Black, cheering the European team on to an historic victory... we hope!

Jamie's recommendations for 2024 include his beloved Gleneagles Hotel, Royal Portrush, where he won the Irish Open, Celtic Manor and Royal Porthcawl in Wales, plus his home club at Macclesfield.

Jamie's goals with Your Golf Travel:

- ☑ Bring the experience of playing a Ryder Cup to Your Golf Travel guests
- ☑ Encourage more golfers to play in Wales

Been There, Played That!

How we can offer you the very best golf travel advice on the market

When we say we've 'been there, played that', we really mean it.

Our team of golf travel experts travel across the globe all year round, playing the same courses and staying in the same hotels as our customers, all to bring you the most informed and reliable travel advice on the market.

This hands-on experience is at the core of what we do and is crucial in helping us understand exactly what makes a golf trip memorable. Our experts have walked the fairways, experienced the unique challenges of each course, and enjoyed the hospitality of the hotels we recommend. This first-hand knowledge allows us to tailor recommendations that align perfectly with your preferences and expectations.

For golf travellers planning their own adventures, this expertise is invaluable. We understand that our customers want to sit back and relax, safe in the knowledge that the trip is going to exceed their expectations... and get the nod of approval from the rest of the group!

Every golfer's dream trip is unique - one group may want a seaside links challenge complete with pints in local pubs, while others might be desperate for a lavish all inclusive experience with plenty of beach time following their rounds. Whatever you're looking for, we use our own knowledge and experience of golf travel around the world to make that dream a reality.

England

Home to some of the most beautiful landscapes in the world - from the rolling hills of the countryside to the rugged coastline - there is something for every golfer in England.

Following last year's Open at Royal Liverpool, golfers are heading to England's Golf Coast in record numbers, with an incredible range of links courses to take on. Names such as Royal Birkdale, Royal Lytham & St Annes and Royal St George's often steal the limelight, but elsewhere in England the likes of Princes Golf Club, Royal Cinque Ports and St Enodoc should not be overlooked. Head inland and you'll find some of the finest heathland courses in the world, such as Woodhall Spa, Sunningdale and Wentworth, with their purple heather, yellow flowering gorse, and towering pines. And, whether in a Ryder Cup year or not, The Belfry is always worth a visit, as golfers relive, and try to recreate, the many incredible moments that have taken place on the Brabazon course in years gone by.

Ridiculous variety in such a small area of land! We're so lucky.

Wales

Golf in Wales combines warm hospitality, Championship conditions, iconic golfing moments and stunning natural beauty to create a bonafide golfing destination on your doorstep.

When thinking about golf in Wales, it's hard not to immediately think of Celtic Manor and that dramatic European victory on The Twenty Ten course. But Wales has always had a range of world-class golf courses to offer, from Royal Porthcawl and Royal St David's, to Pennard and Aberdovey. They often steal the headlines, but other popular favourites include the Jack Nicklaus-designed Machynys Peninsula, the stunning Conwy Golf Club, and James Braid's half-links, half-parkland Porthmadog Golf Club. And no write up about Welsh golf is complete without mentioning Nefyn & District in North Wales. Often described as the twin of Old Head in Ireland and the UK's answer to Pebble Beach, this dramatic course is surrounded by water on three sides. With breathtaking views and the warmest of welcomes, you'll truly be spoilt for choice here.

Scotland

From bucket list courses to hidden gems, there's something for every player seeking true golfing drama - the likes of which no other country on the planet can serve up quite like Scotland.

If you're looking for pure heritage and tradition, the likes of Musselburgh Links, the oldest golf course in the world, and the bucket list favourite Old Course at St Andrews will surely be on your shortlist. Want to play the host of the 152nd Open in Royal Troon? You can! After world-class resorts ranked high in the top 100 courses in the world? Look no further than Trump Turnberry, Muirfield, Royal Dornoch, North Berwick, Carnoustie and Kingsbarns. Links courses tend to get all the headlines in Scotland, but the country is also home to some of the best parkland layouts around, such as Gleneagles and Murrayshall. Heathland golf, meanwhile, is enjoyed at many courses in Scotland, but fine examples are enjoyed at The Duke's Course and Blairgowrie Golf Club, with its fast-running sandy soil framed perfectly by heather and grand pine trees.

Trump Turnberry Golf Resort 5* - Ayrshire

Perched upon some of Scotland's most dramatic coastline, under the gaze of the iconic lighthouse, Trump Turnberry is a truly special place. Both links golf courses at Trump Turnberry - the Ailsa and King Robert the Bruce - are simply incredible. The headlining Ailsa course became world-famous after hosting Jack Nicklaus and Tom Watson's legendary 'Duel in the Sun' at the 1977 Open Championship, before hosting The Open a further 3 times. Located on the Ayrshire coast, Trump Turnberry seems far away from the real world but is surprisingly accessible from most of the UK and less than 90 minutes from Glasgow.

Dundonald Links - Ayrshire

"Dundonald Links stands as a beacon of golfing excellence on Scotland's Ayrshire coast. The £25 million development has elevated this Scottish jewel to one of the most desirable golf resorts in the world, offering a complete package of championship links and luxury accommodation.

Designed by Kyle Phillips, who also created Kingsbarns, Dundonald Links has garnered acclaim, hosting prestigious tournaments like the Freed Group Women's Scottish Open and The Open Final Qualifying. It's a course that demands respect - stretching over 7,100 yards, it challenges golfers while remaining accessible to players of varying abilities.

Phillips' intent was to craft a course that resonated with the classic seaside golf of Scotland's west coast, employing advanced construction techniques. The result is a links that has matured magnificently, earning plaudits for its conditioning and design, thus securing its spot within the top courses in Scotland. The 2017 Scottish Open, won here by Rafael Cabrera-Bello, is a testament to its stature.

The course weaves through a landscape steeped in golfing legacy, flanked by the illustrious Kilmarnock Barassie, Glasgow Gailes, and Western Gailes. The undulating terrain, strategic bunkering, and indigenous flora form a pure links experience. A range of tees offers flexibility in play, ensuring a test for seasoned golfers and an enjoyable round for the recreational player.

The 12th hole, a short par 4, epitomises the course's character. Here, it's all about precision over power, with only the most accurate drives holding the fairway. The backdrop of the Firth of Clyde and Isle of Arran enhances the hole's visual and golfing appeal, making it a real highlight of the round.

Practice facilities at Dundonald are first-rate, featuring a driving range that mirrors the on-course experience. The clubhouse's Spike Bar offers panoramic views and a varied menu, ensuring a warm welcome or a place to reflect post-round.

Accommodation at Dundonald Links caters to all group sizes, from intimate foursomes to larger parties. The lodges, with their modern interiors and comprehensive amenities, including Sky Sports and Wi-Fi, offer the comforts of home. The six-bedroom lodges also come with added luxuries like a pool table, ensuring entertainment beyond the links.

Strategically located just 40 minutes from Glasgow and 30 minutes from the historic town of Ayr, Dundonald Links combines the tranquillity of the countryside with easy urban access. The resort is a sanctuary for golfers, with a “member for a day” experience that extends the legendary Scottish hospitality to all visitors.

Dundonald’s commitment to providing a holistic golfing experience is evident in its attention to detail, from the meticulously maintained fairways to the thoughtful amenities. Whether it’s the challenge of a championship course, the comfort of luxury lodging, or the allure of the Scottish landscape, Dundonald Links delivers an unforgettable golfing adventure.

The resort’s success is a blend of its stunning environment, the challenge of championship golf, and the bespoke nature of its accommodation. To stay here is to immerse yourself in an experience that captures the spirit of Scottish golf and the essence of luxury resort living.”

St Andrews Tours

St Andrews needs no introduction when it comes to golf. The Old Course is arguably the most famous course in golf and is certainly one of the most sought after tee times in the world, but St Andrews offers so much more to the visiting golfers. Resorts like Fairmont St Andrews perfectly combine luxurious hotel experiences with championship courses of their own, while there are new additions to the St Andrews golfing landscape that are a must for visiting golfers. Dumbarnie Links, for example, is one of the most exciting golfing developments in world golf in recent years and a must for anyone looking to tee it up on a Scotland golf holiday. Carnoustie & Dundee Tours

The Dundee region will surely blow you away with the golf on offer. Carnoustie is a fabulous Open Championship venue many dub 'Carnastie' due to the sheer challenge presented by the Championship Course - who could forget the trials and tribulations of Jean Van de Velde in 1999? - and with two other courses on site, it is without doubt the headline act for the region. With much more to experience here though, with lesser known courses such as Forfar Golf Club, Panmure, Montrose and many, many more, golfers will be right at home in and around Dundee. As one of Scotland's largest cities, Dundee provides golfers with plenty to do and see during their time away from the fairways. Check out some example itineraries below.

Trump International Golf Links - Aberdeenshire

Golfing paradise on the Aberdeenshire coastline. Trump International Golf Links, designed by Dr. Martin Hawtree, is one of the world's most spectacular golf courses, winding its way through 500 hectares of the Menie Estate and the imposing Great Dunes of Scotland. Golfers are treated to breathtaking views from various vantage points around the course, while each hole has five separate tees, catering for all levels of golfer. The resort is also home to a magnificent 5-star country hotel - MacLeod House & Lodge - and the delightful Dunes Restaurant & Bar, where golfers can relax following a memorable round.

This course is a monster from the back tees, I highly recommend being humble (!) and selecting the right tees for your ability and enjoy a great game of golf taking with those breathtaking views!

Aberdeen Tours

In the sprawling coastal expanse of Aberdeenshire, stretching a remarkable 165 miles, towering dunes rise majestically, some as high as 100 feet. Within this awe-inspiring landscape, the golfing challenge is unparalleled, thanks to courses crafted by legendary figures like Old Tom Morris, James Braid, and Dr Martin Hawtree. The northeast coast of Scotland offers a unique golfing experience, with sweeping views and the raw power of nature here leaving golfers spellbound. Beyond the natural allure, Aberdeenshire is a place of historical significance in golf, home to two of the oldest courses in the world.

Ireland

The Emerald Isle is home to an abundance of coastal Championship links, beautiful inland layouts, world famous hospitality and superb nightlife.

Those heading to Northern Ireland can play what many consider to be the world's best golf course at Royal County Down, as well as the only course to have hosted an Open Championship outside of England and Scotland in the form of Royal Portrush, where The Open is due to return in 2025. Down the Wild Atlantic Way, golfers can find a huge number of world-famous links courses, such as Waterville, Ballybunion, Tralee, Doonbeg and Lahinch. Further north you'll find some of the most rugged and wildly charming courses in golf including the likes of Carne, Enniscrone and Ballyliffin. Ireland is tough to beat for links golf. That said, the Emerald Isle packs a serious punch even as you move inland. Parkland classics include Lough Erne in Northern Ireland, or alternatively Druids Glen, The K Club, and Mount Juliet in the Republic.

The K Club has long enjoyed its position among the finest golf resorts in the whole of Ireland, and in late 2006 it was catapulted into the worldwide spotlight when the Ryder Cup came to town. Since then, golf fans from all over have come to learn that it is one of the finest golf break destinations in the whole of Europe. Boasting 128 exquisite bedrooms and suites, two stunning championship golf courses, five-star luxury and a fantastic location just a short drive from Dublin, The K Club is a must for any golfer embarking on an Irish golf break.

I don't think I've played a more green and lush course than The Palmer / Ryder Cup course at The K Club. It's incredibly well manicured and the greens were lighting quick even in October.

Seapoint Golf Links - East Dublin

Seapoint Golf Links is one of the quintessential links courses on Ireland's east coast and is also a genuine test of championship golf. Some 260 acres of true 'links land' set the scene for this County Louth treasure that makes a fine addition to any golf tour in the greater Dublin area. Crafted by the ingenious minds of Ryder Cup Vice Captain Des Smyth and Declan Branigan, this golfing haven has evolved into a true gem of Ireland. With its lush fescue greens and velvety fairways that beckon golfers with their firmness and speed, Seapoint promises an unforgettable trip.

153rd Open Championship

Royal Portrush, Northern Ireland | 13th - 20th July 2025

The 153rd Open Championship, set to take place at Royal Portrush, Northern Ireland, promises to be an unforgettable experience for golf fans. As the stage for the prestigious event, Royal Portrush, with its storied history and challenging course, is a perfect host. This marks a triumphant return for The Open to Northern Ireland, having previously hosted the event in 2019 - when home favourite Shane Lowry claimed victory - and earlier in 1951.

Royal Portrush, known for its stunning coastal setting in County Antrim, is a course that combines beauty and challenge. The course has undergone significant redesigns, notably in the run-up to the 2019 Open, where two new holes were added to accommodate large crowds. With a par of 72 and a yardage of 7143, the course, designed by Harry Colt and opened in 1888, offers a test of skill that is both formidable and rewarding.

When attending The Open in 2025, you'll have the opportunity to immerse yourself in the rich tradition and excitement of this major golf championship. In addition to witnessing world-class golf, bespoke packages are available to enhance your experience with Your Golf Travel. These can include premium accommodation, access to exclusive hospitality, parties and meet and greets with golfing legends. Plus a chance to explore the many other incredible golf courses in Ireland. It's an opportunity not only to be part of golf history but also to create lasting memories in one of the sport's most iconic locations.

Tournaments

Experience the electrifying atmosphere of the world's premier golf tournaments, where each swing, putt, and cheer creates moments you'll remember for a lifetime.

In 2024 and 2025, golfers will once again have the unique opportunity to get inside the ropes and witness iconic moments first hand at the sport's best tournaments. The Masters will always be the ultimate bucket list experience, where golf fans can stand beside the famous azaleas and watch the best in the world compete for the coveted Green Jacket at Augusta National. The Open Championship invites you back to the historic links, where the Claret Jug is on the line as the game's elite battle not just each other, but the elements, in a test of true grit and skill. And The Solheim Cup and Ryder Cup are unlike anything else in sport - where the intense rivalry between Europe and the USA unfolds with every shot until the atmosphere in the galleries reaches pandemonium. And our unique access can place you right at the heart of the action.

There's watching it on TV, and then there's this. There's nothing like being there in person, standing on legendary courses alongside your favourite golfers as they try to make history.

AUGUSTA NATIONAL GOLF COURSE

The Masters

Augusta National, USA | 11th - 14th April 2024

You've seen it every year on the TV, but imagine being there in person. Every year we take hundreds of lucky golf fans to watch arguably the biggest and best golf tournament on the planet.

And it's as close to a religious experience as you can get in golf. Walking up Magnolia Drive, past the iconic clubhouse and onto the fabled fairways of Augusta National - many of our customers say it's borderline surreal to attend golf's most exclusive event themselves. It's truly an experience they'll never forget.

Not only will you get hold of ultra-rare tournament tickets, you'll get return flights, hotel rooms, transfers to and from Augusta, exclusive access to events, parties and meet and greets, and much more. And, as ever, we can get sought-after tee times at local Augusta courses if you want to experience the immaculate Georgian fairways yourselves alongside your tournament access.

Fit that all in alongside your pimento cheese sandwiches, visits to the famous Masters shop, the par-3 contest, Amen Corner and everything else on your Masters checklist and you've got yourself a golf trip that is out of this world.

So, will 2024 be the year you finally do it? The world's best golf course, the world's best golfers and the world's best golf trip awaits...

We'll ensure your Solheim Cup experience is seamless and luxurious. From comfortable accommodation to efficient travel arrangements, every detail is taken care of. Picture yourself immersed in the vibrant atmosphere, singing your heart out and watching every swing up close as you support our ambassador Suzann Pettersen's European team as they try to retain the trophy in consecutive years.

Away from the tournament, our Solheim Cup trips offer a chance to engage with the rich history and culture surrounding the event. Explore the host city and have fun as you embrace the spirit and legacy of the Solheim Cup with us.

The 2025 Ryder Cup

Bethpage Black, New York, US | 25th - 28th September 2025

Following the barnstorming European triumph on home soil in 2023, Luke Donald's European team will be looking to become the first since 2012 to win away from home. And you can be there to witness it for yourself.

Will Rory, Rahmbo, Fleetwood, Hovland and co repeat their heroics to bring the trophy home? Or will the supremely talented US team get back to winning ways in front of their home fans?

One thing is for sure: we'll be there with hundreds of Your Golf Travel customers having the time of their lives. As with all our tournament packages, you'll get more than just entry to Bethpage Black. Return flights, accommodation, transfers, golf days, parties and much more all your Ryder Cup experience to the next level. Thought the Ryder Cup couldn't get any better? Think again.
