A Letter From Our Founders

A MESSAGE FROM ROSS AND ANDREW

Dear Golfers,

As the founders of Your Golf Travel, we've had the privilege of witnessing the transformative power of golf. From the sun-kissed greens of the Algarve to the historic links of Scotland, golf has a unique way of connecting us to the world, to each other, and to ourselves. It's this passion for the game and the experiences it offers that drives our team every day.

Our mission to help as many golfers as possible experience the world's best courses has been further strengthened by our recent partnership with England Golf. This collaboration is all about ensuring golfers, like you, have unparalleled access to the finest courses on the planet. It's a testament to our shared vision and commitment to the golfing community.

Winter, for many, signals a time to pack away the clubs, reminisce about the summer's rounds, and eagerly await the return of longer, brighter days. But what if we told you that winter could be your most exciting golf season yet? That's the inspiration behind this special winter brochure. We believe that golf is not just a summer sport, but a year-round adventure. And winter, with its unique challenges and rewards, offers a fresh perspective on the game we all love.

This brochure is a celebration of winter golf. We've curated a selection of the best winter golf destinations, from the sun-soaked fairways of the Mediterranean to the iconic links of the UK and Ireland. Whether you're looking to extend your golfing season, discover a new challenge, play an Open Championship venue or simply escape the winter blues, there's a destination waiting for you.

But this is more than just a travel guide. It's a testament to our commitment to delivering exceptional golf experiences. Over the years, Your Golf Travel has forged strong relationships with resorts, courses, and golfing communities worldwide. This allows us to offer you exclusive deals, insights, and experiences that you won't find anywhere else. Our team, most of whom are avid golfers themselves, understand the nuances of the game and the desires of our community. This brochure is a reflection of that understanding and passion.

As you read through this brochure, we invite you to imagine the adventures that await, the memories you'll create, and the joy of playing the game you love in places you've only dreamt of.

Let's challenge the idea that golf is a summer-only sport and embrace the unique pleasures that winter brings. After all, golf is not just a game - it's a way of life. And life doesn't stop in winter.

Thank you for being a part of the Your Golf Travel family. Your passion, feedback, and loyalty inspire us to continually raise the bar. As we look ahead to another exciting year of golf, we hope to see many of you on the fairways, come rain, shine, or snow.

Here's to a winter filled with great golf and even better memories.

Warm regards,

R. Marshall.

Chase The Sun

Join Your Golf Travel ambassador and Major champion Darren Clarke on a journey through sunlit golf destinations, embracing the many joys that winter golf brings.

Ready to come with me on a sun-soaked journey through the world's most enticing winter golf destinations? Over my years on the tour, I've had the privilege of playing on some of the planet's most iconic courses, and I can tell you there's nothing quite like teeing off under a warm sun, especially when it's cold and grey back home.

Before we jet off to sunnier climates, let's not forget the unique charm of winter golf right here in the UK and Ireland. There's a certain magic to playing on a frosty morning, with the course quiet and serene.

And winter can be the ideal time to play some of our most prestigious courses. Ever dreamt of walking the same fairways as the greats at Open Championship venues? This could be your chance. Courses like Royal St George's, where I lifted the Claret Jug, my home course Royal Portrush and the historic links of St Andrew, become more accessible in the off-season. It's a rare opportunity to follow in the footsteps of major champions and experience the courses in a whole new light. And Your Golf Travel can get you inside the ropes this winter.

But let's be honest, there's something irresistibly appealing about swapping the chilly British winter for rounds in the sun. Imagine the joy of playing in short sleeves in January, with the sun warming your back and perfect fairways stretching out before you.

Your Golf Travel has curated a selection of incredible winter golf destinations that are perfect for those looking to chase the sun. Whether you're escaping the cold or simply yearning to play more golf, these handpicked locations offer the best in golf, accommodation, and local experiences.

Picture yourself on a course overlooking the Mediterranean, or navigating fairways amidst tropical palms. After your round, retreat to a luxury resort where you can indulge in world-class cuisine or perhaps a spa treatment to soothe your muscles. These are the experiences that await you in this brochure.

But it's not just about the golf. These holidays provide an opportunity to immerse yourself in new cultures, cuisines, and landscapes. From the vibrant streets of Marrakech to the serene beaches of the Caribbean, there's a world of sun-filled adventures waiting for you. And for those of us who love both golf and travel, there's no better way to combine the two than with a winter golfing escape.

Having worked closely with Your Golf Travel, I can vouch for their dedication to crafting the perfect golfing holiday. Their expertise ensures that every trip is tailored to your desires, whether you're a seasoned pro or someone looking for a sunny escape with a side of golf.

So, as you delve into these pages, let your imagination run wild. Think of the courses bathed in sunlight, the destinations you've dreamt of, and the warm adventures ahead. Embrace the sun-drenched opportunities of winter golf and extend your season in style.

Portugal

Portugal, with its stunning landscapes, mild climate, and world-renowned golf courses, has long been a favourite destination for golf enthusiasts. But what makes it particularly appealing as a winter golf destination?

Portugal's winter climate provides a perfect respite from the biting British cold. The country's temperate conditions are tailor-made for winter golf, with mercury levels comfortably hovering around 15°C on average and seldom dipping below 10°C. A delightful contrast to frosty British winters!

Beyond the weather, the visual appeal of Portugal's golf courses is mesmerising. Picture this: ocean-facing greens that sit majestically on top of rugged cliffs, bordered by pristine white sand dunes, while others are nestled among serene lakes and majestic mountains, offering stunning panoramic views.

The famed Algarve region, with its sun-kissed landscapes and blue waters, is one of the globe's premier golfing destinations. Winter golf in the Algarve is particularly popular, given the added benefits of more affordable green fees and accommodation rates.

Quinta do Lago & The Magnolia Hotel - Algarve (Right)

Venturing north, the Lisbon and Cascais region, rich in history and cultural charm, presents a distinct golfing experience. This area boasts several time-honoured golf courses, renowned for their challenging terrains and awe-inspiring views of the vast Atlantic Ocean.

From seasoned golfers to enthusiastic beginners, Portugal caters to everyone. It's hardly surprising that golfers make a beeline for this enchanting country year after year to create and relive memories that truly stand the test of time.

Morocco has emerged as a top winter golf destination in recent years and its rise in popularity doesn't look like it'll stop any time soon.

The country is a captivating blend of ancient traditions, vibrant cultures, and modern golfing excellence. Its coastal gems - Marrakech, Agadir, and Casablanca - are blessed with a Mediterranean climate, offering mild winters where temperatures sit between 15 to 20°C. This, combined with over 300 sunny days a year, provides golfers with near-perfect conditions.

In the heart of Marrakech, golfers are treated to world-class courses like Assoufid Golf Club and Al Maaden Golf Resort, set against the awe-inspiring backdrop of the Atlas Mountains. Agadir, a coastal haven, offers panoramic Atlantic views and standout courses, with Golf du Soleil being a notable mention. Casablanca, meanwhile, is more than just Morocco's bustling economic heart - it's home to the incredible golf resort of Mazagan.

But Morocco's appeal doesn't end on the greens. Away from the fairways, it beckons with its mazy medinas, golden beaches, and a culinary scene that's a feast for the senses. Marrakech, in particular, offers a gastronomic journey that's as memorable as any round of golf. Morocco seamlessly weaves premier golfing with a vibrant culture, making it an amazing winter golf destination.

The off-season presents a golden opportunity for golfers: unmatched value, prime tee times and better availability - in fact, we can guarantee tee times at many of the UK's bucket list venues. The chance to tread the hallowed grounds touched by the game's greats, from legendary architects to iconic players. And the chance to play illustrious links courses and Open Championship venues that you've seen so many times on TV.

England boasts courses that have become synonymous with golfing excellence, set against its dramatic coastlines. Scotland, golf's birthplace, is a living museum of courses that have stood the test of time over centuries. Wales, with its undulating terrains and panoramic views, offers a blend of challenge and beauty. While, across the Irish Sea, Ireland's courses, framed by the wild Atlantic, provide a mesmerising backdrop for every swing.

Yes, the winter might be cold, windy and wet. But any customer we've got onto the Old Course, or Royal County Down, or Muirfield, or Ballybunnion, or Carnoustie (shall we go on?) wouldn't swap that experience for anything.

It's not just golf here - it's history.
