THE BOILERMAKER CHALLENGE

- Throughout the summer, the team competed in an intrasquad competition - The Boilermaker Challenge.
- The players were split into teams of three or four connecting newcomers and returners for the summerlong series that focused on teamwork.
- It was a mixed bag of competition that featured a campus scavenger hunt, on-campus bowling, axe throwing, Pictionary and teammate trivia.
- The winning team walked away with the best award of all - bragging rights for the whole season.

INSPIRED BY GREATNESS

- Katie Gearlds has a deep bench of basketball legends who have touched and continue to influence her career.
- One of the few people who can say they've worked with two G.O.A.T.s, Gearlds was the MVP of the 2003 McDonald's All-America Game with LeBron James.
- Sue Bird, her teammate with the Storm and a mentor over the last 15 years, inspired Gearlds to go into coaching.
- She also shared the court in Seattle with Swin Cash (V.P. New Orleans Pelicans), Adia Barnes (Arizona head coach) and Lauren Jackson (owner Melbourne Boomers).
- She competed against Chris Paul in the skills challenge ahead of the 2003 McDonald's All-America Game.

BEEN THERE. THEY'RE BACK

- Purdue's coaching staff features a trio of alumnae who left their marks on the program during their playing days.
- Head coach Katie Gearlds was one of the best pure scorers in Purdue history, reaching four NCAA Tournaments, three Sweet 16s and an Elite Eight. She continues to rank in the top-10 of numerous career stat categories and was named an All-American in 2007 as a senior.
- 1999 National Champion and new associate head coach Kelly Komara returned to West Lafayette for her second stint on the sidelines. Stephens' in-state ties run deep after serving as a coach at several high schools and AAU programs.
- While they didn't play for Purdue, director of video and recruiting Lakan Hasser-Smith and graduate assistant Abby Downard are in-state products with deep ties to Katie Gearlds, after playing their entire careers for her at Marian.
- Director of operations Amie Anthrop is well-accustomed to the bright lights of Purdue. After an award-winning career as a guard at Southern Indiana, she married Jade Anthrop, brother to Dru (basketball), Danny (football) and Jackson (football).

THE MENTALIST

- Head coach Katie Gearlds connected with mindset performance coach Derick Grant to help develop the program's mental approach to the game.

KATIE GEARLDS BIO

Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame inductee Katie Gearlds enters her fourth season as the head coach of the Purdue women's basketball team. Returning to her alma mater, the 2007 All-American was elevated to the head job on Sept. 17, 2021, becoming the ninth coach in program history.

Three seasons back home at Purdue, Gearlds has begun the process to return Purdue Women's Basketball back to the national stage with three straight postseason appearances. She inked a contract extension in the summer of 2024 that will keep her home in West Lafayette through the 2028-29 season. Establishing a new culture, revamping recruiting and reconnecting with the alumnae and fan bases, Gearlds has the Boilermakers headed in the right direction.

Gearlds was inducted into the Leroy Keyes Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2024.

PURDUE POSTSEASON BOUND

The Boilermakers have reached the postseason in each of Katie Gearlds' first three seasons back in West Lafayette. Purdue returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017 and the 27th time in program history during the 2022-23 campaign. Gearlds took the Boilermakers back to the postseason for the first time since 2018 in her first year, reaching the second round of the WNIT. The Boilermakers added their second WNIT appearance under Gearlds in 2023-24, as Purdue reached the Great 8 for its deepest postseason run in more than a decade.

ON THE RECRUITING TRAIL

Gearlds' first true signing class in November of 2022 was ranked No. 21 by ESPNW. The class of five added to its firepower when top-50 signee Amiyah Reynolds signed for Purdue in May of 2023, alongside her sister and former top-60 recruit Mila, a transfer from Maryland.

Over three campaigns with the Storm, Gearlds shot just under 40% from the field and 37.9% from distance. She also spent time playing professionally in Spain, Greece, Portugal and Slovakia. Two of her closest teammates and friends over the years are WNBA legend Sue Bird and fellow WNBA great and New Orleans Pelicans Vice President of Basketball Operations Swin Cash.

She ranks fourth in program history with 1,974 points and was the ninth fastest to join the 1,000-point club, reaching the plateau in just 80 games. For her efforts, Gearlds was named a Legend of Mackey Arena during its 50th anniversary season. She was inducted into the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame in 2024.

The Boilermakers won two Big Ten Tournament titles and never missed the NCAA Tournament with Gearlds in the squad, reaching three Sweet 16s and one Elite Eight. Her senior class ranks seventh with 103 wins, eighth in winning percentage at 77.4% and seventh in Big Ten winning percentage at 78.1%.

Gearlds' senior season awards haul featured Third Team All-America by the Associated Press, All-America Honorable Mention by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and a spot NCAA Regional All-Tournament Team. She was a four-time All-Big Ten selection, a three-time All-Big Ten Tournament Team honoree and was the 2004 Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Gearlds earned a bachelor's degree in sociology with minors in psychology and communications from Purdue in 2007.

AN IN-STATE TALENT

A native of Beech Grove, Indiana, Gearlds was named the Indiana Miss Basketball in 2003. She amassed 2,521 career points, good for sixth in IHSAA history.
