HEAD COACH KIM MAHER

Kim Maher is in her eighth season at the helm of the Purdue program, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances. Maher became the second head coach in Boilermaker softball history on July 14, 2005.

In seven seasons under Maher, the Boilermakers have posted a 217-172-3 record and have registered at least one win against each of their 10 conference foes. (Purdue plays Nebraska for the first time in 2013.) The team extended its streak of non-losing seasons to 14 in 2012, posting a 31-22 mark. Purdue has defeated eight ranked opponents, including three Top 10 teams, while garnering the first national ranking in program history during the 2009 season. Her charges have been honored with eight All-Mideast Region, 16 All-Big Ten, five Academic All-District and 47 Academic All-Big Ten accolades.

In her first season with the Boilermakers, the team posted a 30-30 record, including a 7-12 conference mark, just one game away from a Big Ten Tournament berth. The 30-win season was the seventh straight in program history. Maher's charges also carried on a tradition of academic success as six players garnered Academic All-Big Ten honors and one earned Academic All-America accolades.

In 2007, the Boilermakers went 33-32-1, including a 10-9 Big Ten mark, good for fifth place. The team advanced to the Big Ten Tournament and recorded the first postseason win in program history, topping Iowa in the second round, before falling in the semifinals. Two players earned All-Big Ten and All-Mideast Region honors, while four were honored with Academic All-Big Ten accolades.

In 2008, Maher led the Boilermaker program to its first-ever NCAA Tournament berth and victory, while she and her staff garnered NFCA Mideast Regional Coaching Staff of the Year accolades. Purdue posted a 35-23 mark, including a 9-9 showing in the Big Ten, good for fifth place. The Boilermakers topped Cal State Fullerton for the team's first NCAA Regional victory, while also defeating No. 7 Baylor during the regular season. Three players were named to the All-Big Ten teams, while four garnered TPS/Louisville Slugger All-Mideast Region honors. Seven student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors.

The Boilermakers made their second-straight NCAA appearance in 2009 as part of a 31-20 season, which also featured a sixth-place league finish. The team kicked off the year with a win over No. 4 UCLA and also downed No. 18 Texas A&M, No. 10 Northwestern and No. 14 Ohio State during the regular season. In the NCAAs, after losing their first contest to No. 19 Louisville, the Boilermakers rebounded with a pair of wins, including a rematch with the Cardinals to advance to the regional final against No. 6 Arizona. Four players garnered All-Big Ten honors, while nine received Academic All-Big Ten accolades.

In 2010, Purdue faced off with ranked foes in 12 contests and took on 11 opponents that advanced to the NCAA Regionals. The Boilermakers posted a 27-27 record, including a win over No. 23 Louisiana-Lafayette. The team also managed an 8-10 mark in conference play, good for sixth place. The Boilermakers led the nation in stolen bases per game (2.67), and swiped a school season record tally of 144, including a game record 12 steals against Michigan State on April 28. Two players garnered All-Big Ten accolades and one was named to the All-Mideast Region team. One student-athlete was honored with Academic All-District V accolades, while six received Academic All-Big Ten honors.

The 2011 season saw the Boilermakers post a 30-18-2 record and finish fifth in the Big Ten, tying its second best placing. The team registered a school record .313 average, ranking 23rd nationally, and posted a record .462 slugging percentage. The Boilermakers ranked in the nation's top 50 in five other categories. Purdue tied school records for hits, doubles and RBI in a game and set several individual marks. Boilermaker players garnered one All-Midwest Region, three All-Big Ten, two Academic All-District and six Academic All-Big Ten honors. Purdue players also earned eight Big Ten Player, Pitcher or Freshman of the Week selections.

In 2012, Purdue put together a 31-22 season, marking the 15th 30-win season in program history, including a sixth-place Big Ten finish and Maher's 200th career win. The Boilermakers set school records for doubles (74) and on-base percentage (.395) and tied the program bests for triples (18) and batting average (.313). The team ranked among the national top 50 in seven statistical categories, including fourth in triples per game (0.36), 11th in stolen bases per game (1.92) and 12th in batting average. Purdue players earned three Big Ten Player/Pitcher or Freshman of the Week nods, while one received All-Big Ten honors. One player was named to the Academic All-District V team, while nine garnered Academic All-Big Ten acclaim.

Maher believes that the Boilermakers have the tools to make strides toward achieving her ultimate goals for the program.

"My goal is for our program to be a national contender and to win a national championship and, along with that, to graduate everyone," Maher said. "You can do both at a school like Purdue, which is in a great community and has good support from the athletics department. The resources are there, it is just a matter of rebuilding the program and starting a new culture where players expect to win."

Maher, who spent six seasons as an assistant coach at California, represented the United States in numerous international competitions, including the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta where she won a gold medal, while also garnering valuable coaching experience as a clinician and at California under head coach Diane Ninemire.

In her time at California, Maher helped guide the Bears to the Women's College World Series each of her six years, including a National Championship in 2002 and runner-up finishes in 2003 and 2004. The team finished near the top of the Pac-10 Conference standings from 2002-2005, including a league title in 2005. The Cal coaches were named NFCA/Speedline Coaching Staff of the Year in 2002, and earned NFCA Regional honors in 2003.

After graduating from Fresno State University in 1995, Maher founded Extreme Hitting, a company that conducted softball clinics for youth of all ages, including individualized lessons and workout programs intended to enhance performance. After a five-year run, the Buena High School alumna joined the staff at California.

Prior to entering the coaching world, Maher made her name as a player on both the international and professional stages. She helped launch the Women's Professional Softball League, which began in 1997. Maher played for the Florida Wahoos, helping the team to the league title in 2000, while also being named to the All-Star team. As part of the WPSL, she toured the country conducting player and coaches clinics, and promoting the league on its media tour.

As a member of the United States Olympic and National teams, Maher participated in several international competitions and national tours. She represented the United States in competitions ranging from the 1995 Pan American Games to the 1997 World Championships, in addition to winning the gold in Atlanta. She was named to the All-Star team at the Canada Cup International Women's Fastpitch Tournament in 2002.

The Ventura, Calif., native, also played for the Redding Rebels, which won the Amateur Softball Association's Major National Championship in 1993, 1994 and 1995. She set the ASA national home run record with five at the 1994 National Championships. Maher garnered ASA Women's Major First Team All-America honors four times (1993, 1994, 1997 and 1998), and was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1994.

Maher began her playing career as a shortstop at Fresno State (1991-94), where she earned second team All-America status her senior season. She finished her career as the Bulldogs' all-time leader in home runs (31), RBI (181), runs (162) and doubles (49). The four-time all-conference and two-time all-region honoree helped Fresno State to three College World Series appearances (1991, 1992, 1994), including third-place finishes her first two seasons. In 1993, Maher led the Western Athletic Conference in slugging percentage, runs, hits and home runs, helping her earn Fresno State's Female Athlete of the Year award.

Maher earned her bachelor's degree in physical education from Fresno State in 1995. She received her master's degree in sports psychology from John F. Kennedy University in 2005.

Stephanie DeFeo joined the softball staff as an assistant coach on July 6, 2012, bringing with her 15 years of coaching experience and collegiate All-American honors.

"We are excited to have Stephanie DeFeo as a part of the Purdue softball staff," Maher said. "She brings an intensity and passion for the game, and she will be able to step right in and make an immediate impact. Stephanie is a great recruiter and will identify the talent we need to take our program to the next level, while helping Coach Stephenson and myself build off the success of our current team."

DeFeo is an alum of Louisiana-Lafayette, where she garnered Academic All-American and All-American awards. She set the school record for single season and career home runs, as well as slugging percentage and RBI in her career before graduating in 1997.

DeFeo also gained experience in the Women's Professional Softball League playing for the Orlando Wahoos in 1997 and the Durham Dragons in 1998 and 1999.

She began her coaching career as an assistant at Southeastern Louisiana, followed by assistant coaching jobs at Texas-San Antonio and Buffalo. Her first head coaching job came at East Tennessee State in 2001 where she lead the team to nine conference wins during their inaugural season. Nine conference wins was the most by a first-year team in Southern Conference history. DeFeo took over the North Carolina-Greesnboro program in 2003. The team set a school and Southern Conference record with 57 home runs in her first year as head coach.

During the 2005-06 season, DeFeo spent time as the manager of All-American Softball Clinics providing hitting, pitching, catching, and fielding lessons. She prepared parents for the collegiate recruitment process and gave private instruction to middle and high school teams.

DeFeo joined the Ball State coaching staff in 2007 and helped the team to three regular season conference titles, a MAC Tournament title, and a NCAA Tournament appearance in 2010. During her time at Ball State, the program went 204-145 overall and produced two Academic All-Americans and three MAC Player of the Year honorees.

DeFeo earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Louisiana-Lafayette. She is now working on a master's degree through a distance progam from East Carolina.

A Big Ten veteran with nearly 20 years of experience, Diane Stephenson is in her third season with the Boilermakers. Stephenson joined the Purdue ranks as an assistant coach on Sept. 29, 2010.

Stephenson, most recently an assistant coach at Iowa for two seasons, was an All-American at Indiana University before coaching the Hoosiers from 1983 to 2002. She was an assistant with the team from 1983 to 1987 before taking over the IU program in 1987.

"Diane brings a tremendous amount of experience and knowledge to the program," Maher said. "She has an energy and passion for the game that is hard to come by. Diane will be working with our bullpen, where I know her experience and leadership will help our pitchers become better in the circle."

In her previous position at Iowa, Stephenson served as the team's hitting coach and instructed the Hawkeye catchers. In her first season with the team, the Hawkeyes posted a 42-16 overall mark and qualified for the NCAA Tournament.

From 2003 to 2007, Stephenson served as an assistant principal, athletic director and teacher at St. Charles School in Bloomington, Ind. She also has been a private consultant and guest lecturer since 2002, providing private pitching and hitting instruction to student-athletes, including camps and clinics at Iowa, Michigan and Mississippi State.

Stephenson got her start in coaching as an assistant at her alma mater, Indiana, under legendary coach Gayle Blevins, who went on to post 1,245 career victories, the second most in NCAA Division I softball history. Blevins, who retired after a 23-year career with the Iowa Hawkeyes, was the head coach at Indiana from 1980 to 1987. As a member of Blevin's Hoosier staff, Stephenson helped Indiana to two Big Ten Championships (1983 and 1986), two NCAA Midwest Regional championships (1983 and 1986) and three NCAA Women's College World Series berths (1980, 1983 and 1986).

Stephenson was picked to replace Blevins as the Hoosiers' head coach in 1987 and held the position until 2002. She was named both the Big Ten and Midwest Region Coach of the Year in 1996 after leading Indiana to the Big Ten title. She led Indiana to two of its five NCAA Tournament appearances (1994 and 1996), while coaching five All-Americans and 18 first team All-Big Ten selections.

A five-sport athlete at Concord High School in Elkhart, Ind., Stephenson was the school's athlete of the year in 1977. She was inducted into the Concord High School Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994 and into the Elkhart Sports Hall of Fame in 1996. She went on to become the first female student-athlete to receive a full athletic scholarship at Indiana in 1977 and the school's first softball All-American in 1981. Stephenson helped the Hoosiers to a Big Ten title in 1978 and led the team to back-to-back appearances in the AIAW College World Series in 1979 and 1980, as the team finished fifth and as the national runner-up.

The Elkhart, Ind., native earned her bachelor's degree in physical education from Indiana in 1982 and her master's degree in athletic administration in 1989.

The Boilermakers finished the 2012 season with a 31-22 mark, including a program-best 10-0 start, despite having a roster with 14 underclassmen. Purdue posted a 13-10 record in Big Ten play, which was good for the second-highest conference win tally in program history and a sixth-place league finish. The team avoided a shutout for 52 games until the season finale, despite playing nine NCAA Tournament teams, while managing at least three hits in all but one game.

Head coach Kim Maher posted her 200th career win on March 14 vs. Cal State Fullerton, while the program edged within three victories of the 600 win mark. The Boilermakers secured a .500 or better record for the 14th straight season and the 17th in program lore. The team also reached the 30-win milestone, which Purdue squads have reached in 14 of the previous 18 seasons, including 11 of the last 12.

On The Honor Roll

Junior first baseman Ashley Courtney garnered third team All-Big Ten acclaim, while senior shortstop Molly Garst was named to the Academic All-District team. Three Boilermaker players were honored with conference player, pitcher or freshman of the week accolades: outfielder Lindsey Rains (Player of the Week, Feb. 20), Garst (Player of the Week, Feb. 27) and freshman pitcher Lexy Moore (Co-Freshman and Co-Pitcher of the Week, April 2).

Garst also was one of 30 candidates selected nationally for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. Courtney also was one of 24 student-athletes honored by the Big Ten Conference as Outstanding Sportsmanship Award winners. Nine Boilermakers recieved Academic All-Big Ten acclaim.

Among The Nation's Statistical Leaders

Purdue ranked among the national top 50 in six statistical categories. The team was fourth in triples per game (0.34), 11th in stolen bases per game (1.83), 12th in batting average (.313), 22nd in doubles per game (1.4), 23rd in scoring (5.36 runs per game) and 34th in slugging percentage (.442). The team also ranked 51st in double plays per game (0.38).

Individually, sophomore outfielder Lindsey Rains ranked 28th in triples (4) and 39th in stolen bases per game (0.47). Senior shortstop Molly Garst ranked 29th in stolen bases per game (0.53).

Impacting the Record Books: Game

Sophomore catcher Danielle Fletcher snapped the 15-year old game record for walks with four in Game 2 against Penn State on March 31. The effort surpassed the old mark of three, which had been reached 19 times in program lore, including twice by junior infielder Ashley Courtney in 2012 (2/18 and 2/24). Fletcher also tied the game record for home runs with a pair against Ball State in Game 2 of the April 12 doubleheader, marking the 20th time a Boilermaker had achieved the feat.

Senior shortstop Molly Garst tied two game records at the Frost Classic, posting five hits against Troy and swiping three bases against Niagara. The five-hit tally matched Angi Roembke's 5-for-5 effort against Indiana in 2002. The steals tally tied the record which has been achieved 20 times in program history, including seven times by Garst.

Sophomore outfielder Lindsey Rains tied the record for steals in a game with three against South Alabama.

Junior pitcher/outfielder Erika Petruzzi tied the game record mark for home runs with two in Game 2 of the series with Indiana. The effort marked the 19th time a Boilermaker player had achieved the feat and the second time for Petruzzi, who also had a two-homer effort on Feb. 14, 2010, against North Dakota State. Fifteen different players have tallied two home runs in a game, including four that have done so multiple times.

The Boilermakers posted a record-tying 18 hits against Troy, matching the mark which has been achieved four times prior, last against IUPUI in 2011. Purdue posted a game-record tying three triples against Niagara, matching the output from the March 6, 1994, game vs. UNC- Wilmington. The Boilermakers earned a record-tying nine walks twice in 2012: against UT-Martin on March 24 and on March 31 vs. Penn State. The nine-walk tallies match a mark achieved three previous times, once in 2006, 2007, and 2008.

Impacting the Record Books: Season

In 2012, the Boilermakers racked up a season-record 74 doubles and a .395 on-base percentage, while also posting a record-tying 18 triples and a .313 batting average. The doubles tally bested the 2007 team's mark of 73. while the on-base percentage topped the previous record of .377 set in 2003. The triples matched the record set in 1994 and tied in 2010. The Boilermakers' .313 batting average, matched the 2011 team.

The team tallied a .452 on-base percentage and drew 175 walks, each good for second-most all time. The team scored 284 runs, third most in school lore, and registered 251 RBI, also good for third. The Boilermakers accumulated 648 total bases, third most all-time, and 448 hits, good for fourth. Purdue swiped 97 bases good for fifth all-time.

Individually, catcher Danielle Fletcher earned 33 free passes, matching Jesse Jones' third-place mark from 2003. Garst's 44 runs tied for fifth on the season list. Ashley Courtney's .457 on-base percentage tied Andie Varsho's mark from 2011 for fifth place on that listing.

Impacting the Record Books: Career

Senior shortstop Molly Garst took sole possession of the career runs scored record on April 28, when she scored her 141st in Game 2 of the doubleheader with Wisconsin. The tally topped the previous mark of 140 owned by Andrea Hillsey (2002-2005) and Tricia Lilley (2003-2006). The runs record of 148, is the second career mark for Garst, who also posted a record of 130 stolen bases.

With 44 doubles, Garst moved into a tie for second place on the career listing, matching Lilley's mark. Garst tallied 236 career hits, good for third place. She also registered 10 triples, matching the fourth place mark, which has been achieved by four other players.

Deana Jackson vs. IPFW April 19, 1994 Purdue Varsity Softball Field

It took merely 28 games for the Purdue softball program to record its first no-hitter, as senior Deana Jackson turned the trick vs. IPFW in the first game of a doubleheader April 19, 1994. It was a five-inning gem, as the Boilermakers beat the Mastodons 9-0 at the Varsity Softball Field. Jackson walked three and struck out five while allowing only one ball to be hit to the outfield. Her catcher, Susan Denny, provided the offensive fireworks with a three-run homer as part of a six-run uprising in the first inning. Jackson came back and fired a four-hit shutout in the nightcap as Purdue won 2-0.

Jenny Deno vs. Butler March 23, 1996 Purdue Varsity Softball Complex

En route to the Boilermaker Classic championship, sophomore Jenny Deno no-hit Butler on March 23, 1996, at the Varsity Softball Complex. The Boilermakers blanked the Bulldogs 10-0 in six innings, scoring two runs in the fourth and four in both the fifth and sixth. Deno walked three and struck out five. She allowed two balls to be hit to the outfield. Purdue collected 14 hits, led by shortstop Jennifer Blasnick with three. Designated player Kimberly Dennis and second baseman Sam Mercier both had two RBI.

Non-Traditional No-Hitter

In a 16-0, four-inning win over Belmont at the Florida State Tournament in Tallahassee, Fla., on March 14, 1998, seniors Sheryl Scheve and Jaime Martino both pitched two hitless innings at Messer Field. Scheve started and struck out five of the six batters she faced before being relieved by Martino, who allowed a walk during her stint. The Boilermakers, who banged out a then-school-record 18 hits in the game, scored six runs in the first inning, eight in the second and two in the third.

Meagan Dooley vs. Temple Feb. 19, 2000 – Raleigh, N.C.

Junior Meagan Dooley authored the first seven-inning no-hitter in Purdue history when she and the Boilermakers beat Temple 1-0 on Feb. 19, 2000, at the Triangle Classic in Raleigh, N.C. The only run was a homer by third baseman Jesse Jones in the top of the second inning. In fact, Jones' shot was the only hit allowed by Temple pitcher Bari Lynn Pflueger. Dooley walked two and struck out two. She allowed just one ball hit to the outfield, a routine fly to center in the sixth, while inducing 16 groundball outs.

Meagan Dooley vs. Iowa State Feb. 26, 2000 – Santa Barbara, Calif.

Johnny Vander Meer of the Cincinnati Reds is the only pitcher in Major League Baseball history to throw no-hitters in back-to-back starts. Junior Meagan Dooley was nearly as impressive, as she authored two in a span of seven days. She had two starts in between the two "no-no's." Her second came over Iowa State, on Feb. 26, 2000, at the UC Santa Barbara Tournament in Santa Barbara, Calif. The Boilermakers won 3-0 in five innings. Dooley walked one and struck out three. She did not allow a ball to be hit to the outfield and recorded three outs on ground balls back to the pitching circle. Outfielder Chrissy Davie socked a solo home run to pace the six-hit Purdue attack.

Meagan Dooley vs. Mississippi Feb. 9, 2002 – St. Augustine, Fla.

In the first start of her senior season, Meagan Dooley authored her third career no-hitter in a 1-0 victory over Mississippi on Feb. 9, 2002, at the Triple Crown Invitational in St. Augustine, Fla. She walked four and struck out a career-high-tying eight while allowing three balls to be hit to the outfield. The Boilermakers scored their lone run in the bottom of the fifth inning when pinch runner Angela Knight and second baseman Andrea Hillsey pulled off a double steal, Knight taking second and Hillsey swiping home. Purdue managed only two hits, one apiece by first baseman Heidi Foster and center fielder Andrea Roush.

Leighann Burke vs. Gardner-Webb March 22, 2003 – Purdue Varsity Softball Complex

One of the most celebrated pitchers in school history, Leighann Burke, registered her first no-hitter as the Boilermakers blanked Gardner-Webb 8-0 in the first game of the Boilermaker Invitational. It was a bit anticlimactic, as Purdue scored a run in the bottom of the fifth inning to end the game via the mercy rule. Burke dominated, striking out eight of the 18 batters she faced while allowing two walks. Only one ball was hit out of the infield, a lazy foul fly to left fielder Angi Roembke in the fourth inning. The Boilermakers socked three home runs – shortstop Tricia Lilley, third baseman Jesse Jones and designated hitter Laura Martin – while scoring in every inning.

Diana LaRiva vs. IPFW April 8, 2003 – Purdue Varsity Softball Complex

For the second time in just over two weeks, a Purdue pitcher tossed a no-hitter but wasn't in the pitcher's circle at the end of the game to celebrate it. Diana LaRiva was credited with her first no-hitter in the Boilermakers' 8-0, five-inning win over IPFW. Purdue scored two runs in the bottom of the fifth to end the shortened affair. LaRiva struck out six and walked one. She fanned the side in the first inning. All nine Purdue starters collected at least one hit. Designated player Staci Falzon was 2-for-3 with a double and a triple and four RBI. Second baseman Andrea Hillsey homered.

Leighann Burke vs. Eastern Illinois April 16, 2003 – Purdue Varsity Softball Complex

Leighann Burke tied the school record with two no-hitters in a season as she and the Boilermakers disposed of Eastern Illinois 9-0 in another shortened game, this one lasting six innings. Purdue ended the affair by scoring five runs in the sixth inning, the last three coming on a home run by catcher Jesse Jones. Burke struck out five and did not walk a batter. The only thing that kept her from a perfect game was when Eastern Illinois pitcher Kristen Becker reached on a second-inning error. The Panthers hit merely two balls out of the infield. Purdue led just 1-0 in the bottom of the fifth before scoring three times, including a two-run homer by center fielder Andrea Roush. The Boilermakers finished with 12 hits.

Diana LaRiva vs. Utah State March 20, 2004 - Sacramento, Calif.

Already the owner of a five-inning no-hitter, Diana LaRiva added a seven-inning gem to her resume in a 4-0 win over Utah State in the Capital Classic. LaRiva walked three and struck out nine. She allowed five fly ball outs to the outfield. The game was scoreless until the top of the fourth inning, when second baseman Andrea Hillsey socked a home run. Designated player Kristen Schell singled home a run in the sixth, and shortstop Tricia Lilley provided LaRiva even more breathing room with a two-run double in the seventh. The Boilermakers totaled 11 hits.

Brooke Baker vs. IPFW (Game 2) March 27, 2004 - Purdue Varsity Softball Complex

For the first time in Purdue history, a pitcher authored a no-hitter despite allowing runs. The Boilermakers defeated IPFW 8-2 at the Varsity Softball Complex. Leading 7-0 entering the top of the sixth inning, the visiting Mastodons scored a pair of unearned runs. Baker walked two batters, who advanced to second and third with two outs and subsequently scored on an error. They were the only two walks surrendered by Baker, who struck out six and allowed no balls hit to the outfield. Third baseman Shelli Messer was 4-for-4 with a double, a run scored and three RBI. Catcher Erika Peterson drove in two runs for Purdue, which banged out 10 hits.

Diana LaRiva vs. Missouri-Kansas City Feb. 11, 2005 – Las Cruces, N.M.

Diana LaRiva joined Meagan Dooley as authors of three career no-hitters with a five-inning job against Missouri-Kansas City at the New Mexico State Invitational. For LaRiva, it was her first start of the 2005 season and was sheer domination. She faced the minimum 15 batters and struck out 11 of them, striking out the side in the first and third innings and fanning at least one batter in every inning. The other four batters were retired on two ground outs, a pop out and a fly out. The Boilermakers won the game 8-0, scoring four runs in the first, three in the second and one in the fifth. Third baseman Shelli Messer recorded three of Purdue's 10 hits, while shortstop Tricia Lilley collected two hits and three RBI and right fielder DaQueta Johnson drove in a pair of runs.

Non-Traditional No-Hitter

For the first time in school history, three pitchers combined on a no-hitter in the Boilermakers' 7-0 win over Ball State on April 4, 2006. Diane LaRiva pitched the first three innings, followed by Melissa Burns for two and Brooke Baker for the final two. LaRiva and Burns both struck out four batters, while Baker fanned a pair. Burns was credited with the win. The visiting Cardinals had two base runners, both reaching on errors. Purdue collected 10 hits, including two by third baseman Katie Mitchell. Center fielder Staci Falzon drove in a pair of runs. Seventeen different players got in on the action for the Boilermakers, who won their 11th straight game against Ball State.

Dana Alcocer vs. UC Davis Feb. 29, 2008 – Fullerton, Calif.

In just her seventh start as a Boilermaker, junior transfer Dana Alcocer blanked UC Davis in a five-inning affair at the Worth Invitational in Fullerton, Calif. Alcocer struck out four, while allowing just one base runner on a second-inning walk. The Purdue offense racked up nine runs on six hits for its part, scoring three runs in the fourth and six in the fifth. Designated player Suzie Rzegocki contributed a two-run double, before a grand slam by outfielder Beth Cinadr and a two-run jack by shortstop Candace Curtis capped the scoring. Curtis went 2-for-2 as five different players contributed to the Purdue hit tally.

Suzie Rzegocki vs. Ball State (Game 2) April 21, 2010 – Muncie, Ind.

Suzie Rzegocki was nearly a onewoman show, getting the work done in the circle with a completegame seven inning effort, while also providing three hits, including two home runs and three RBI, in the night cap of a doubleheader with Ball State. Rzegocki struck out two and allowed just one ball out of the infield, a third inning fly out, while hitting one batter. Offensively, the Boilermakers piled up 12 hits, including the Rzegocki longballs and a pair of doubles by Molly Garst. Rookie Erika Petruzzi also provided two hits in the contest, in which Purdue scored three runs in the first, one each in the third and fourth and two in the fifth. Rzegocki supplied solo home runs to cap the first and lead off the fourth, tying the Purdue game record for roundtrippers, while also adding an RBI single in the fifth. The lone marr on the contest was a sixth-inning fielding error by the second baseman.
