The Mortar Board Premier

The annual Mortar Board Premier tournament began in 1990 under the name Mortar Board Volleyball Invitational tournament. It has been played every year since with the exception of 2001, when it was cancelled due to the 9/11 tragedy. Thirteen different teams have captured the event title. Purdue has won the tournament nine times, including 2011 and 2012, while Dayton and Miami (Ohio) each have taken two titles over the years.

The tournament is sponsored by Mortar Board, which is a national honor society that recognizes college seniors for excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership and service. Mortar Board members represent the top scholars and leaders on their campuses. Since its founding in 1926, Purdue's chapter of Mortar Board has awarded over a million dollars in fellowships and awards to Purdue students, staff and student organizations. The money for these awards comes largely from the annual sale of a calendar, appropriately called the Mortar Board and recognized by virtually every Purdue student and alum.

Mortar Board will recognize student-athletes from all four teams for their scholarship and service accomplishments after each team's match on Friday evening.

The Book on the Boilermakers

At First Glance: The No. 8 Boilermakers (23-12, 11-9 Big Ten) advanced to the Elite Eight for the second time in four years after finishing sixth in Big Ten play in 2013. Purdue returns eight players, including four starters, from that team and adds one redshirt freshmen and seven true freshman. Head coach Dave Shondell is in his 12th season with the team.

Last Time Out: The Boilermakers ended the 2013 season in the Elite Eight. Purdue swept No. 18 Illinois in the Sweet 16, but fell to No. 13 Wisconsin in the regional final.

Statistically Speaking: Outside hitters Val Nichol (2.75), Sam Epenesa (2.36) and Annie Drews (1.80) and middle blockers KiKi Jones (2.11) and Faye Adelaja (1.34) will carry the offensive load for the Boilers. Jones hit at a team-best .380 clip, served up 25 aces and put up 1.21 blocks per set.

Defensively, libero Amanda Neill pulled up 1.93 digs per set and served up 32 aces in 2013, while Nichol added 1.79 digs per set. Redshirt sophomore Kate Workman will see more court time after playing in just 12 matches last season. As a team, Purdue hit .241 and served up 146 aces.

Series Information

USF (Purdue leads the series 1-0): The Boilermakers topped the Bulls 3-0 at the USF Invitational in Tampa on Sept. 14, 2013, the lone previous meeting between the teams.
San Diego: This is the first meeting between the Boilermakers and the Toreros.
LSU (The series is tied 2-2): The Boilermakers won the first meeting in the series on Sept. 20, 1985, at the Domino's Pizza Classic in Bozeman, Mont. LSU won the next two meetings, one in Baton Rouge, La., in 1986 and one in West Lafayette in 1987. Purdue won the most recent contest with a sweep on Sept. 1, 2012, at the LSU Tiger Classic which was played in Houston due to a hurricane.

A Bit about the Bulls

At First Glance: The USF Bulls (17-15, 11-7 American) finished fourth in American Athletic Conference play in 2013. USF returns eight letterwinners, including five starters, while adding six newcomers to the mix. The Bulls are coached by Courtney Draper, who is in her third year with the team.

Last Time Out: USF wrapped up its season with a five-set loss to Memphis to end conference play.

Statistically Speaking: Outside hitter Erin Fairs returns after averaging 3.73 kills and 4.41 digs per set and earning American Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors in 2013. Outside hitter Dakota Hampton (1.41) and middle blocker Jennica Mullins (1.34) also return. Hampton also managed 2.93 digs per set, while Mullins is the top returner at the net with 1.06 blocks per set. Setters Natalia Soares and Wylie Devlin are back after dishing out 6.05 and 4.74 assists per set.

Defensively, Fairs, the AAC's Preseason Player of the Year, led the way with 4.41 digs per set. Libero Amy Van Sant pulled up 3.98 digs per set, while Hampton (2.93), Devlin (1.98) and Soares (1.81) followed. As a team, USF hit at a .199 clip and served up 128 aces.

Talking about the Toreros

At First Glance: The No. 14 San Diego Toreros (26-4, 16-2 WCC) return nine letterwinners, including three starters, from the 2013 team which won the West Coast Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16. USD is coached by Jennifer Petrie, who is in her 14th year with the team.

Last Time Out: The Toreros finished off their best-ever season with a loss to No. 9 Nebraska in the Sweet 16.

Statistically Speaking: Middle blocker/outside hitter Alaysia Brown, a first team All-WCC selection in 2013, and outside hitter Sandra Lozic headline the Torero offense after chipping in 2.95 and 2.76 kills per set last year. Lozic also pulled up 2.37 digs per set. Outside hitter Alexa Banker added 1.03 kills per set in limited action. USD also has the services of middle blocker Canace Finley, a transfer from Oregon.

Defensively, setter Jianna Bonomi managed 2.52 digs per set to lead all returning players. Lozic (2.37) and defensive specialists Hunter Jennings (1.78) and Ryann Powell (1.12) also are back. As a team, San Diego hit at a .264 clip and served up 113 aces in 2013.

Learning About LSU

At First Glance: The LSU Tigers (19-13, 8-10 SEC) return 11 letterwinners, including six starters, from the 2013 which received votes in the final AVCA poll after advancing to the NCAA Second Round and finishing ninth in the Southeastern Conference. The Tigers, which were picked to finish fourth in the SEC preseason poll, also add seven newcomers to their roster. LSU is coached by Fran Flory, who is in her 18th year with the team.

Last Time Out: LSU defeated Michigan to advance to the NCAA Second Round, before falling to No. 3 Washington to end the season.

Statistically Speaking: Outside hitter Cati Leak and Preseason All-SEC selection middle blocker Briana Holman lead the LSU offense after posting 3.24 and 3.01 kills per set in 2013. Holman also hit at a .327 clip and put up a team-best 1.54 blocks per set. Outside hitter Helen Boyle (2.00), middle blocker Khourtni Fears (1.86) and outside hitters Emily Ehrle (1.74) and Katie Lindelow (1.59) also add nearly two kills per set.

Defensively, libero Haley Smith returns after pulling up 3.97 digs per set. Lindelow (2.96), Boyle (2.69), setter Malorie Pardo (2.65), Leak (2.46) and defensive specialist Laura Whalen (1.95) round out the defense. As a team, LSU hit at a .211 clip, while serving up 113 aces.

Jones, Nichol Named Preseason All-Big Ten, Boilers Picked Fifth

Seniors KiKi Jones and Val Nichol were among 15 players selected to the 2014 Preseason All-Big Ten volleyball team on Thursday. Nichol, a 6-1 setter/outside hitter, was named as one of six unanimous selections made by the league's coaches after earning All-Big Ten, All-Northeast Region and AVCA All-America third team honors last season. The preseason honor is the first for Nichol and for Jones, a 6-1 middle blocker, who garnered All-Region and Honorable Mention All-America accolades in 2013.

In addition to the Preseason All-Big Ten team, the league's coaches voted in a preseason poll and the Boilermakers were placed fifth behind Penn State, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Illinois. Purdue finished sixth in league play in 2013 with an 11-9 mark. Last year, the Boilers posted a 5-5 record against the four teams ranked ahead of them in the poll, including a season sweep of Nebraska and two wins against the Fighting Illini.

Boilers To Make Five Television Appearances

The Boilermaker volleyball team will be coming to a small screen near you five times during the 2014 season on the Big Ten Network and will be available to watch on the internet on several more occasions. Poll Position

The Boilermakers held strong at No. 8 in the 2014 Preseason AVCA Coach Poll after wrapping the 2013 season at No. 8. The No. 8 preseason ranking is the highest in program history, ahead of the No. 9 listing to start the 2012 season. Purdue has been ranked as high as seventh in program lore, on Nov. 14, 1983, and on Aug. 27, 2012.

Purdue was ranked in the Top 25 throughout the 2013 season, peaking with the No. 8 ranking in the final poll, and has been ranked in 48 consecutive polls dating to Nov. 29, 2010. The preseason ranking is Purdue's 144th all-time since the AVCA polls began in 1982, including preseason and postseason listings.

A Tough Slate

The Boilermakers will take on seven teams ranked in the AVCA Preseason Coaches Poll and two that received votes, and will play matches against 10 teams that participated in the NCAA Tournament a year ago. Boilermaker foes listed among the top 25 are: No. 1 Penn State, No. 6 Wisconsin, No. 7 Nebraska, No. 11 Illinois, No. 12 Minnesota, No. 14 San Diego and No. 16 Michigan State. Mortar Board Premier opponent LSU and Big Ten foe Michigan were listed among those receiving votes

Strong Starts

The Boilermakers have won their season opening match 11 of the last 12 years and 32 times in the program's 39-year history. Purdue has won its season opening Mortar Board Premier tournament nine times since 1990, including 2011 and 2012. Dave Shondell's teams have been 3-0 after opening weekend six times since 2004. The Boilers started 14-0 in 2001, 7-0 in 2008, 9-0 in 2006 and 11-0 in 2005.

Fabulous Freshmen

The 2014 Boilermaker volleyball team will include a freshman class of seven talented individuals, who were collectively ranked as the third best group in the nation by prepvolleyball.com.

Christina Ambrose, Danielle Cuttino, Lydia Dimke and Azariah Stahl were named to the 2014 Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 listing. The quartet, all of whom were listed as PrepVolleyball Top 50 Senior Aces also garnered Under Armour All-America honors. Cuttino, a 6-4 middle blocker from Indianapolis, Ind., was the No. 10 Senior Ace, while Ambrose, a 6-4 outside hitter from Orlando, Fla., came in at No. 20 on the listing. Stahl, a 5-11 outside hitter from Elkhart, Ind., was the No. 21 Senior Ace, while Dimke, a 6-2 outside hitter/setter from Ham Lake, Minn., was PrepVolleyball's No. 50 Senior Ace.

Ambrose and Dimke were Under Armour All-America first team honorees, while Stahl & Cuttino were second team selections in November.

Carissa Damler, a 5-3 defensive specialist from Brownsburg, Ind., is two-time all-conference selection. Burgundy Price, a 5-6 defensive specialist from Woodburn, Ind., is a four-time all-ACAC conference selection and was named as a Defensive Dandy by PrepVolleyball.com in 2013. Linnea Rohrsen, a 5-4 defensive specialist from Chicago, Ill., is an all-conference selection and led Nazareth Academy in digs as a senior.

Evans Set to Make Boilermaker Debut

The lone true freshman on the 2013 team, setter Ashley Evans, had a decorated prep career, but redshirted 2013 to gain experience in the Purdue system. The talented setter is now set to make an impact as part of the 2014 squad. Evans was listed as No. 21 on PrepVolleyball's Senior Aces, was a second team AVCA/Under Armour All-America selection for 2012-13 and also was a two-time PrepVolleyball All-American. The Liberty Township, Ohio, native also was a finalist for the Ohio Gatorade Player of the Year honor and earned first team all-state accolades and Greater Miami Conference Player of the Year accolades each of her last two seasons at Lakota East.

Academic Accolades

In addition to finding continued success on the court, the 2013 Purdue volleyball team received the NCAA Public Recognition Award for posting a multi-year academic progress rate among the top 10 percent of its sport. The Boilermakers received the award for the ninth-straight season.

The APR, now in its eighth year, measures the eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes completing on every Division I sports team. The most-recent APR scores are multi-year rates based on the scores from the 2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12 academic years.

Representing the USA

Freshman middle blocker Danielle Cuttino will be bringing some new hardware to West Lafayette after receiving a gold medal as part of the U.S. Women's Junior National team on July 15. The WJNT defeated Cuba 25-15, 25-22, 25-16 to earn the top spot at the U-20 NORCECA Continental Championships in Guatemala.

Senior setter/outside hitter Val Nichol also competed for the USA over the summer as part of the U.S. Collegiate National team, which took part in the Global Challenge in Pula, Croatia in July. The U.S. team advanced to the championship match against Slovenia.

2013 In A Nutshell

The Boilermakers ended the season ranked eighth in the final AVCA poll after advancing to the Elite Eight for the second time in four years, posting a 23-12 overall record, defeating a program-record eight ranked opponents and finishing sixth in the Big Ten. Purdue became just one of five teams to advance to the Sweet 16 each of the last four years and is one of just four to play in the Regional Finals in two of the last four seasons.

Awards & Honors

Val Nichol received AVCA All-America third team, All-Northeast Region and All-Big Ten honors and was selected to the NCAA Champaign Regional all-tournament team. KiKi Jones earned AVCA All-America honorable mention acclaim as well as an All-Northeast Region nod … Carly Cramer and Catherine Rebarchak garnered honorable mention all-region accolades, while Cramer also received honorable mention All-Big Ten acclaim. Katie Griffin was named as Purdue's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award honoree. Nichol was Big Ten Player of the Week, Oct. 21, while Jones was the league's Defensive Player of the Week, Oct. 28. Redshirt freshman Faye Adelaja was Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week and Co-Freshman of the Week, Sept. 16. Adelaja earned Academic All-District V acclaim, while a program record 10 players – Adelaja, Rachel Davis, Annie Drews, Hilliary Fox, Griffin, Jones, Amanda Neill, Nichol, Rebarchak and Kate Workman - garnered Academic All-Big Ten honors.

Breaking Down the Season

In non-conference play, Purdue went 9-2, including titles at the Golden Dome Invitational, USF Invitational and Active Ankle Challenge. The team posted its first Top 25 win, topping No. 12 Ohio State via sweep in the third match of Big Ten play. Four-set wins over No. 8 Nebraska in Lincoln and at No. 17 Michigan along with a win over Illinois in front of Mackey Arena crowd of 5,160 highlighted the first half of league play, through which the Boilers were 6-4. A win over No. 15 Wisconsin came amidst a 1-5 start to the second half. The team finished strong with four straight wins, including a sweep of No. 6 Nebraska, a Monon Spike sweep of Indiana in Bloomington and a five-setter on senior night against No. 19 Michigan State.

The Boilermakers travelled to Columbia, Mo., for the NCAA Tournament and swept Central Arkansas before topping No. 4 Missouri in four sets to earn their fourth straight Sweet 16 berth. Purdue topped No. 18 Illinois via sweep in Champaign before falling to No. 13 Wisconsin in the Elite Eight to end the season.

Noteworthy

Jones ranked 28th nationally in hitting percentage (.394), while the Boilermakers ranked 42nd nationally in blocks per set (2.60) and 57th in hitting percentage (.241). More than 40,000 fans came to see the Boilers play at home, ranking the team 16th in the nation in attendance average (2,532).

Among The Nation

The Boilermakers ranked 42nd nationally in blocks per set (2.60) and 57th in hitting percentage (.241) in 2013. Individually, junior KiKi Jones ranked 27th in hitting percentage (.394), and fourth in the Big Ten.

In The Record Book

Junior middle blocker KiKi Jones earned spots on the season Top 10 for hitting percentage (tied for 2nd with .394) and in block assists (4th with 142). Her hitting efficiency tied Tifany Fisher's mark from the 2011 season, while her block assists tally was the team's highest since 2008.

Redshirt freshman middle blocker Faye Adelaja ranked ninth in season block assists with 127. Redshirt senior libero Carly Cramer ranked eighth in season digs with 493 and 10th in digs per set (3.98).

Jones also put her name among the career Top 10 in block assists with 364 to rank sixth all-time. She also moved into the career top 10 in total blocks with 409 (9th).

Redshirt senior Rachel Davis wrapped her career ranked eighth on the career assists listing with 3,294, while redshirt senior libero Carly Cramer finished second in career digs with 1,811 and fourth in career digs per set (3.49).

Milestones

Junior middle blocker KiKi Jones recorded her 600th career kill at No. 25 Illinois, Nov. 16. She ended 2013 with 670 putaways. Jones posted her 400th career block in the NCAA second round match vs. No. 4 Missouri on Dec. 7. Junior setter/outside hitter Val Nichol tallied her 700th career kill against Indiana, Nov. 27, and now has 760. Senior Hilliary Fox recorded her 500th career dig against No. 6 Nebraska, Nov. 22, and ended her career with 578.

Redshirt senior Catherine Rebarchak put down her 900th career kill on Nov. 30 vs. Michigan State. She ended her career with 936. Sophomore outside hitter Annie Drews posted her 400th career kill on Nov. 30, and now has 432. Defensive specialist Amanda Neill pulled up her 400th career dig against Wisconsin on Dec. 14 and now has 408. Nichol recorded her 1000th career assist against Wisconsin on Dec. 14.

Nichol Posts Pair of Triple Doubles

Junior setter/outside hitter registered her first career triple double with 15 kills, 34 assists and 15 digs in the Nov. 2 match against No. 15 Wisconsin. The triple double is the first for a Boilermaker since Jaclyn Hart achieved the feat on Sept. 5, 2009, against UCF with 12 kills, 41 assists and 10 digs. The effort is the 16th by a Purdue player in program history and just the third by a setter. (also Hart and Renata Dargan (13 kills, 61 asssts, 13 digs vs. No. 8 Wisconsin on Sept. 30, 2005).

Nichol added another triple double in the NCAA Tournament second round match vs. No. 4 4 Missouri, registering 14 kills, 27 assists and 10 digs. With the second triple-threat effort, Nichol becomes just the third Boilermaker to achieve the feat twice, joining Kate Crandell (11/22/1983 and 9/23/84) and Kim McConaha (9/6/2003 and 11/27/2004).

Striking A Perfect Balance

Six Boilermakers posted nearly two kills per set in 2013, while seven players led the team offensively in at least one match. Junior Val Nichol led the team 20 times. Redshirt senior Catherine Rebarchak posted a team-best tally 10 times, while sophomore Sam Epenesa has led the team six times. Junior KiKi Jones was tops on the team four times, while sophomore Annie Drews led the team on three occasions. Redshirt senior Katie Griffin and redshirt freshman Faye Adelaja each posted team-high kill tallies once.

Packing Them In

The Boilermakers welcomed 48,566 fans to home matches in 2012, ranking eighth in the nation in attendance average with 2,857 fans per match. Purdue has ranked among the nation's Top 20 in attendance average every year since 2003.

In 2013, Purdue sold out 10 of the 16 home matches, including the season opener vs. No. 4 USC, when 2,664 fans packed Holloway Gymnasium. Including the Oct. 11 Pack Mackey match which saw 5,160 fans take in the Purdue-Illinois match, the Boilermakers averaged 2,532 fans per home match in 2013.

Operation 14K

The Boilermakers beat Illinois 3-1 in Mackey Arena on Oct. 11 in front of a crowd of 5,160, the fifth largest in program history. The match marked Purdue's 16th match in Mackey in program history, including two exhibition contests. The Boilers are now 10-4 in countable matches in the facility and at one time held the NCAA Attendance record, packing in 10,645 fans for the original Pack Mack event on Oct. 29, 1985.

The six largest crowds ever to watch Purdue volleyball at home have seen the Boilers play in Mackey Arena. Purdue will take on Notre Dame in Mackey Arena on Sept. 20 to wrap up the Active Ankle Challenge tournament. The event will air live on the Big Ten Network.

Shondell's Successes

Head coach Dave Shondell picked up his 200th career collegiate victory with Purdue's sweep of Bowling Green on Sept. 15, 2012. The Boilermakers have posted a 237-131 record in 11 seasons under Shondell, including a 120-100 Big Ten mark. Under his watch, the program has become part of an elite group nationally. Including the 2013 season, Purdue is one of 11 schools nationally to make nine NCAA second round appearances in the last 10 seasons. In addition, the Boilermakers have made seven Sweet 16 berths in the last nine seasons, making the program one of just six in the nation that can boast the accomplishment, alongside Florida, Nebraska, Penn State, Stanford and Texas.

Under Shondell, Purdue has posted seven 20-win seasons, including 23 victories in 2013, and defeated 42 ranked foes. In 2011, the Boilermakers finished second in the Big Ten, its best conference placing since 1987, and posted 29 wins, the most since 1985. Shondell has coached players to seven All-American honors and three Academic All-America accolades. His charges also have earned 18 All-Big Ten and 71 Academic All-Big Ten accolades.

Aiding Shondell in leading Purdue are associate head coach John Shondell and assistant coach Kathy Jewell. The trio are the longest tenured complete staff in the Big Ten Conference.
