Storylines

• The No. 11 Maryland men's basketball team looks to rebound from its first Big Ten Conference loss this season when it heads to Purdue to wrap up a two-game road swing Saturday at 2:30 p.m. EST on the Big Ten Network.

• Freshman Melo Trimble scored a team-high 17 points – his 15th double-figure scoring performance of the year – and added five rebounds and four assists as the Terps fell to Illinois, 64-57, on Wednesday. Jake Layman, who saw limited action in the first half after picking up two early fouls, notched 10 points and four boards for Maryland. Trimble currently ranks ninth (16.3) while Layman is 13th (14.4) in scoring in the Big Ten. Trimble is averaging over 18 points per game in Big Ten play.

• The Terps' No. 11 ranking is the highest for the program since it was No. 8 on February 3, 2003. Head coach Mark Turgeon ranked as high as No. 8 with Wichita State (2006) and No. 9 (2007-08) at Texas A&M. The Aggies were 10th on January 17, 2011 in his final season in College Station.

• Head coach Mark Turgeon announced Thursday that forward Ivan Bender (pronounced EVEN) will join the Maryland basketball program and will be eligible to play immediately. Bender (6-9, 230) played with KK Split in the Junior Euroleague. He was also a member of the U-18 Croatian National Team and is slated to participate in the U-20 Croatian National Team next summer.

• Maryland leads the Big Ten in field goal percentage defense (.369) and is second in three-point field goal percentage defense (.278) and have held opponents to .400 or below in seven of the last eight games, including limiting conference foes Michigan State to a .323 mark and Minnesota to a .338 clip.

• Purdue fell to fourth-ranked Wisconsin its last time out on Wednesday. A 25-3 point discrepancy from the free throw line was too much to overcome in a 62-55 setback for the Boilermakers. Five players, led by Jon Octeus' 12.7 points per game, average at least 9.3 points per game. A.J. Hammons leads the team in rebounding during Big Ten play (8.3 rpg). Purdue is outrebounding opponents by 6.9 rebounds per game. This is the first meeting between Purdue and Maryland.

2014-15 Inaugural Big Ten Season

2014-15 University of Maryland Basketball

Season Preview: Terps Think B1G in 2014-15

With a top-10 recruiting class and his most experienced team in four years as head coach at Maryland, Mark Turgeon has the Terrapins poised for its inaugural season in the Big Ten Conference.

Maryland, which finished 17-15 last season, boasts a balanced team featuring a mix of veteran leadership and key newcomers. Among the leaders is 2013 ACC-All Conference and USBWA All-District III selection Dez Wells, who changed his number to 44 to honor a deceased former teammate for his senior season. Wells is joined by seniors Evan Smotrycz and Jon Graham and sophomore Damonte Dodd in the frontcourt, in addition to junior Jake Layman on the wing.

Turgeon also hauled in the ninth-best recruiting class in the nation according to Scout.com, showcasing McDonald's All-American point guard Melo Trimble (Upper Marlboro, Md.), shooting guard Dion Wiley (Oxon Hill, Md.), guard Jared Nickens (Monmouth Junction, N.J.) and forward Michal Cekovsky (Slovakia, Europe).

Scouting Purdue

Purdue fell to fourth-ranked Wisconsin its last time out on Wednesday. A 25-3 point discrepancy from the free throw line was too much to overcome in a 62-55 setback for the Boilermakers.

Five players, led by Jon Octeus' 12.7 points per game, average at least 9.3 points per game. A.J. Hammons leads the team in rebounding during Big Ten play (8.3 rpg). Hammons has scored in double figures in 11 of his last 12 games. Purdue is outrebounding opponents by 6.9 rebounds per game.

This is the first meeting between Purdue and Maryland.

Terps Fall at Illinois Wednesday

The No. 11 Maryland men's basketball team dropped its first Big Ten contest of the year at Illinois, 64-57, Wednesday night at the State Farm Center.

Melo Trimble scored a team-high 17 points and added five rebounds and four assists. Jake Layman, who saw limited action in the first half after picking up two early fouls, notched 10 points and four boards for Maryland.

Maryland put forth a valiant effort down the stretch, however. A trio of consecutive three-pointers by rookies Jared Nickens, Trimble and Dion Wiley cut the Illini lead to 58-52 with 36 seconds remaining. Trimble hit three free throws after being fouled on a three-point attempt for a 60-55 score with 24 seconds to play but the Terps would get no closer.

Maryland's win over No. 13 Iowa State marked its first win over a ranked non-conference opponent since 2008-09, when the Terps defeated No. 5 Michigan State, 80-62, on Nov. 27 at the Old Spice Classic in Orlando, Fla.

Iowa State entered the contest against Maryland averaging 86 points per game and shooting 52.4 percent from the floor in its first three wins in 2014-15. MarkTURGEON

► 323-204 (17th Season) / 73-44 (4th Season at Maryland)

Mark Turgeon is entering his fourth season at the helm of the University of Maryland men's basketball team. The Terps, 14-2, are ranked 11th in the latest Associated Press Top 25 poll, marking Maryland's highest ranking since Feb. 3, 2003.

Since arriving in College Park, Turgeon has signed three consecutive nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including the ninth-ranked class in 2014. Last season, he captured his 300th career victory with an 85-74 defeat of Tulsa on Dec. 29, before leading the Terps to a thrilling overtime win against No. 5 Virginia in Maryland's final ACC regular season game.

Turgeon's winning percentage of .600 (42-28) was the best mark by a Maryland coach in his first two seasons, ahead of Bud Millikan (.592) and Gary Williams (.574). After bringing in a top-15 recruiting class in 2012, he led the Terrapins to a 25-13 record (most wins in six seasons) and appearances in the ACC Tournament semifinals and the NIT semifinals in 2012-13.

Turgeon has led his teams to a winning season in 13 of his 16 seasons, including a current streak of 12 consecutive winning seasons.

Turgeon directed Maryland to three wins over a ranked team in 2012-13 after Maryland had gone two seasons without one. The Terps were the only team in the nation to beat Duke twice, while also knocking off then-14th ranked NC State at home in January. Maryland's win over Duke at home on Feb. 16 was its first over a No. 1 ranked opponent in five years.

Turgeon, who came to College Park after directing Texas A&M to four consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament, led Maryland to a 17-15 record in 2011-12. At A&M, he posted a 97-40 record in four seasons and was named the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year in both 2010 and 2011. He is the only coach in Big 12 history with at least 24 victories in each of his four seasons.

Turgeon is 323-204 through 17 seasons overall as a head coach. In seven years at Wichita State, he built the Shockers into a power in the Missouri Valley Conference, earning the league title and an NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2006. In that NCAA Tournament, Wichita State beat Seton Hall and Tennessee before losing to eventual Final Four participant George Mason.

Five of Turgeon's former players are currently playing in the NBA: Gal Mekel (New Orleans Pelicans), Donald Sloan (Indiana Pacers), Khriston Middleton (Milwaukee Bucks), DeAndre Jordan (Los Angeles Clippers) and Alex Len (Phoenix Suns). In addition, Len was selected in the first round (fifth overall) by the Suns in the 2013 NBA Draft.

Turgeon amassed a 128-89 record at Wichita State (2000-07), posting the third-most wins in school history. The Shockers advanced to three straight NITs from 2003 to 2005 in addition to the 2006 NAAs, the first time WSU had four straight postseason appearances in 40 years.

He began his head-coaching career at Jacksonville State, going 17-11 in his final season there (1999-2000) after going 8-18 in his first year.

Turgeon was an assistant at Kansas for five seasons, first under Larry Brown (1987-88) and then under Roy Williams (1988-92). The Jayhawks made the NCAA Tournament in four of those seasons, winning the national championship in 1988 and finishing second in 1991. KU also won Big Eight titles in 1991 and 1992 with Turgeon on staff.

He was the top assistant under Jerry Green at Oregon from 1992-97 and was an assistant coach under Brown with the Philadelphia 76ers in 1997-98 before taking the head coaching position at Jacksonville State.

A point guard at Kansas from 1984-87, Turgeon was the first player in Jayhawks history to play in four straight NCAA Tournaments. KU went 108-33 under Brown in that stretch. Turgeon served as team captain in his junior and senior seasons, leading the Jayhawks to the 1986 NCAA Final Four.

As a student-athlete, he was selected to the Big Eight All-Academic Team in 1986 and was a Big Eight All-Freshman pick in 1984. He earned a bachelor of science degree in personnel administration from Kansas in 1987.

A native of Topeka, Kan., Turgeon led Hayden High School to back-to-back Class 4A state titles in 1982 and 1983, earning all-tournament honors each year. A first team all-state pick as a senior, Hayden went 47-3 in his high-school career.

In the summer of 2008, Turgeon was inducted into the Topeka Sports Hall of Fame. Turgeon ("TURGE-in") is married to the former Ann Fowler of Chicago, Ill., and they have two sons - William Harris and Leo - and a daughter, Ella.

Game #4
Arizona State	73
Maryland	78

Nov. 24, 2014 • Kansas City, Mo.
Sprint Center

Melo Trimble kept Maryland within striking distance with his slashing layups and ability to get to the foul line. When the game was on the line, it was time for Dez Wells to shine.

The gritty guard scored all but two of his 14 points in the second half, and teamed with Trimble to make several key baskets down the stretch, helping Maryland to a 78-73 victory over Arizona State on Monday night in the semifinals of the CBE Classic.

Arizona State, which relied all game on the 3-pointer, did so again in the closing minutes, when the Sun Devils hit two more to give ASU a 71-69 lead with 2:15 left.

Wells answered at the other end with a putback off his own miss to tie the game.

It remained a nip-and-tuck matchup until the final minute, when Trimble and Wells took the outcome into their own hands. They scored six straight points to help seal the win.

Game #5
#13 Iowa State	63
Maryland	72

Nov. 25, 2014 • Kansas City, Mo.
Sprint Center

Jared Nickens and Jake Layman scored 15 points apiece to lead a balanced offense, and Maryland shut down No. 13 Iowa State for a 72-63 victory Tuesday night in the CBE Classic title game at Sprint Center.

Bryce Dejean-Jones had 17 points to lead the Cyclones, who won the Big 12 title in the same building in March. Georges Niang added 10 points, but was 4 of 14 from the floor.

Maryland carried a 37-34 lead into the break, but that advantage swelled in the second half. The cold-shooting Cyclones missed their first eight field-goal attempts, struggled to get clean looks in the paint and clanked a series of jumpers and 3-pointers off the iron.

Dez Wells added 14 points and Melo Trimble scored 11 for the Terrapins (5-0), who built a 15-point lead with three minutes left before hanging on down the stretch.

Trimble was voted the tournament MVP after his stellar all-around performance. He also had three assists and three rebounds in the title game.

Game #6
Monmouth	56
Maryland	61

Nov. 28, 2014 • College Park, Md.
XFINITY Center

Freshman Melo Trimble scored 13 of his 24 points in the second half and Maryland extended its winning streak to six games by holding off Monmouth 61-56 on Friday night at XFINITY Center.

The Terrapins were playing their first game without leading scorer Dez Wells, who will be sidelined for four weeks due to a fractured wrist. Maryland (6-0) did get a boost with the return of Evan Smotrycz, who missed the early part of the season with a broken left foot. Smotrycz posted a team-high six rebounds.

Jake Layman had 14 points for Maryland. The junior guard has now recorded double-digit scoring in all six of the Terps' wins this season.

Trimble then made six free throws in the final minute to seal the game for Maryland. The freshman finished 13-of-14 from the free throw line.

Game #16

#11 Maryland 57
Illinois 64

Jan. 7, 2015 • Champaign, Ill.
 State Farm Center

The No. 11 Maryland men's basketball team dropped its first Big Ten contest of the year at Illinois, 64-57, Wednesday night at the State Farm Center.

Freshman Melo Trimble scored a team-high 17 points – his 15th double-figure scoring performance of the year – and added five rebounds and four assists. Jake Layman, who saw limited action in the first half after picking up two early fouls, notched 10 points and four boards for Maryland (14-2, 2-1 B1G).

Illinois was 17-for-20 from the free throw line on the night. The Illini have now won seven straight Big Ten home openers. Malcolm Hill posted a game-high 28 points for Illinois, which held Maryland to a season-low 57 points.

Led by nine points from Trimble, Maryland boasted a 28-26 lead at the half but Illinois (11-5, 1-2 B1G) recorded a punishing 20-3 run to kick off the second half as the Terps trailed by as much as 16 in the period.

Maryland put forth a valiant effort down the stretch, however. A trio of consecutive three-pointers by rookies Jared Nickens, Trimble and Dion Wiley cut the Illini lead to 58-52 with 36 seconds remaining. Trimble hit three free throws after being fouled on a three-point attempt for a 60-55 score with 24 seconds to play but the Terps would get no closer. Wiley and Nickens finished with nine and seven points, respectively.
