• The long-awaited return to action at Alexander Field brings a streak of 678 consecutive days without a regular-season home game to an end as Purdue hosts Rutgers this weekend.
 • While it's been a long time since the last regular-season home game on May 18, 2019, the limited capacity allotment announced this week does assure that Purdue baseball will not have to play home games in front of minimal crowds comprised entirely of family members. That was the case for many comrades within Purdue Athletics as well as Big Ten rivals that opened their home schedules prior to this weekend. Conversely, the spring sports did endure the full shutdown and cancellation of the remainder of their seasons on March 12 a year ago.
 • Of the 40 players on Purdue's roster this season, only 11 have played in a regular-season game at Alexander Field. That's a total that includes Justin Walker Jr., who played there with Indiana in 2018.

HOME-OPENING WEEKEND: PURDUE BASEBALL HOSTS RUTGERS

Greg Goff joined Purdue baseball as an assistant coach in July 2017 and was promoted to head coach in June 2019. The 2021 season will be his 16th as a collegiate head coach.

Previously a head coach at four universities, Goff succeeded his friend and longtime colleague Mark Wasikowski, who returned to the University of Oregon as the Ducks' new head coach in June 2019.

Goff has previously served as the head coach at Campbell University (2008-14), Louisiana Tech University (2015-16) and the University of Alabama (2017) as well as Division II University of Montevallo (2004-07). He also helped lead the Boilermakers to a memorable 38-win season in 2018, punctuated by the program's third NCAA Regional bid in program history. Purdue finished second in the Big Ten standings and was also the runner-up at the Big Ten Tournament in Goff's first year with the program.

Along with bringing an upbeat personality to the dugout and contagious energy to his role as the first-base coach, Goff helped numerous Boilermakers develop offensively the last two years. He played a leading role in coaching the base running and outfield defense. He also filled in as the program's pitching coach for a few games during a 2018 home sweep of Michigan while Steve Holm was with his wife for the birth of their second child. Purdue has compiled a 28-15 record at Alexander since Goff joined the coaching staff, headlined by a program-record 13-game home win streak to close the 2018 campaign. That represents Purdue's best two-year mark at home since 2011 to 2012.

In his first two years at Purdue, Goff helped develop and organize new community events for the program like the preseason fan fest and first pitch dinner. Both events proved very popular and helped generate preseason interest going into the new campaign. He has also served as the director of Purdue baseball camps.

Twenty-six Boilermakers registered a grade-point average of 3.0 or better during the 2019 fall semester. During the 2016-17 school year, Alabama's 3.259 team GPA established a program record.

Over 40 Purdue players completed at least 10 hours of community service during the 2019 fall semester as part of the program's increased emphasis in that aspect of the student-athlete experience. As a team, Goff's team logged over 450 hours of community service during the first half of the 2019-20 school year.

Goff and his wife, Tina, are the parents of four daughters: Kara, Kiley, Kolby and Kenzie. Kara plays softball at Louisiana Tech and Kiley joined Purdue softball for the 2020-21 school year.

SIX 40-WIN SEASONS

- As a head coach, Goff's teams have won over 40 games six times. Campbell was one of only eight Division I programs to win 40-plus games for three straight years from 2012 to 2014, posting 131 total victories during that span. The Camels enjoyed a historic 49-10 campaign in 2013.
- He also won 42 games in his final season at Louisiana Tech, helping lead the Bulldogs to an NCAA Regional bid.
- Montevallo was a DII College World Series qualifier in 2006 under his guidance. As an assistant coach at Delta State, the Statesmen also qualified for the DII College World Series in 1994 and 1996.

ENDED NCAA REGIONAL DROUGHTS AT CAMPBELL & LOUISIANA TECH

- In Goff's final season at Campbell (2014), the Camels qualified for their first NCAA Regional in 24 years. Two years later, he led Louisiana Tech to its first Regional bid in 29 years. The 2014 Camels and 2016 Bulldogs both won at least one game in their Regionals, with La Tech coming through the loser's bracket to reach a Regional final at Mississippi State.

HISTORY OF TURNAROUNDS

- Goff's teams have had a losing record only five times in his 14 years as a head coach. Four of those five seasons were his first at a respective university. He has led his teams to some impressive turnarounds.
- In just two seasons, Louisiana Tech went from 15-35 the year before Goff's arrival to 42-20 in 2016, ending a 29-year NCAA Regional drought in the process. At Campbell, he inherited a team that was 11-45 in 2007. But under Goff, the Camels posted a winning record (27-24) in his second season and won 40 games by his fifth year (2012).
- Purdue's win total also jumped from 29-27 in 2017 to 38-21 in Goff's first year on the staff in 2018.

COACHING HONORS

- Goff was named the South Central Region Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association at both Louisiana Tech (2016) and Montevallo (2006). He was the 2013 Big South Coach of the Year at Campbell after leading his team to a school-record 49 wins and a conference title. Montevallo won a combined 100 games over his final two seasons, posting a new single-season record both years.

BEFORE BECOMING A HEAD COACH

- Goff has coached 10 future big leaguers and over 50 MLB Draft picks, highlighted by Cy Young award winner Brandon Webb while he was the pitching coach at Kentucky (2000-03). Longtime big leaguer and World Series champion Joe Blanton also pitched for Goff at Kentucky.
- Along with his years as the pitching coach at Kentucky, Goff served as an assistant at Southeast Missouri State (1998-99) and his alma mater Delta State (1994-97) before becoming a head coach for the first time in the summer of 2003 at Montevallo. It was at SEMO in the late 1990s where he first worked with Wasikowski. They helped lead the Redhawks to an NCAA Regional in 1998.

NISLE, HUNTER AMONG ELITE COMPANY OVER FIRST 11 GAMES

• Ben Nisle has accounted for eight of Purdue's first 18 extra-base hits this season. In doing so, he became just the sixth Boilermaker since 2001 with eight over the first 11 games. Nisle stole home against Rutgers, with Harry Rutkowski on the mound, in the first inning of Purdue's game 2 win in the 2018 series sweep at Alexander.

• Meanwhile, Skyler Hunter enters the weekend leading the Big Ten with 12 walks. He's only third Boilermaker since 2001 to draw a dozen walks over the first 11 games. He's also the most unexpected to accomplish the feat. Through the end of the 2019 season, the switch-hitter had 204 hits vs. 44 walks in 713 career plate appearances.

INDIANA SERIES NOTABLES

- Purdue has endured some offensive struggles early this season against the toughest schedule in the Big Ten over the first three weekends. However, the Boilermakers scored 13 runs last weekend in Bloomington after Hoosiers had given up only 15 runs in their first eight games. Purdue held the lead at the end of 14 innings over the course of the series after leading for only four innings over the first eight games.
- For the second year in a row, the Boilermakers hung a loss on the reigning National Pitcher of the Week. IU's Saturday starter McCade Brown struck out 16 over seven hitless innings vs. Penn State on March 13 and had surrendered only one run on three hits in his first 14 innings of the season. Brown struck out eight of the 25 batters he faced Saturday, but the Boilermakers scored five times on five hits and four walks.
- The Boilermakers sent 10 men to the plate in their four-run third inning Saturday, each of the first eight reaching first base.
- Skyler Hunter walked and singled in his first two plate appearances Sunday to extend his reached base safely streak in Big Ten play to 17 consecutive games dating back to May 2019. He finished the series with five walks and five runs scored, both team highs. However, streaks ended Sunday for both of Purdue's most consistent hitters early this season. Miles Simington's 11-game reached base safely streak came to an end and Ben Nisle's six-game hit streak was also snuffed out.
- Mike Bolton Jr. batted leadoff Sunday for the first time as a Boilermaker. It marked the first time since May 16, 2019, that someone other than Hunter was Purdue's leadoff man. Bolton delivered an RBI ground-rule double in the fourth inning, his second extra-base hit of the season.
- The Boilermakers remain hitless (0-for-15) for the season with the bases loaded. They were 0-for-7 in such opportunities in Bloomington. Two-out hits were also a difference in the series – Indiana had 10, Purdue only three.

MICHIGAN SERIES NOTABLES

- Ben Nisle homered Sunday for the second day in a row, going deep in consecutive games for the second time as a Boilermaker (first since March 2018). He finished the series 6-for-15 with four extra-base hits and did not strikeout in any of his 16 plate appearances.
- Skyler Hunter drew a career-high three walks, extending his reached base safely streak in Big Ten play to 14 consecutive games. He also recorded his second outfield assist of the series. The center fielder threw out a runner at third base on a fly out in the fourth inning, registering his ninth career outfield assist. It proved to be a key out because an RBI double followed. Meanwhile, Hunter has more walks (7) than strikeouts (6) over the first eight games. Entering the season, the switch-hitter had drawn just 51 walks in 177 career games.
- Purdue scored more runs Sunday than it had in its previous six games combined. Nine of the team's 17 tallies over the first eight games have been scored as part of three-run innings. The Boilermakers held the lead Sunday for the first time since the ninth inning walk-off to finish their season-opening victory. Purdue pitchers had gone 55 consecutive innings without working with a lead.

NISLE JOINS SELECT COMPANY WITH HOME RUNS VS. MICHIGAN

- Ben Nisle homered in consecutive games for the second time in his career in the final two games of the Michigan series. He had actually been the last Boilermaker to accomplish the feat, back in a March 2018 series at Tulane during the spring break trip. But Nisle joined even more select company by going deep for the fourth consecutive year and hitting Purdue's first home run of a season for the third time in his career. Nisle is the only Boilermaker this century to accomplish the latter feat. Over the last 20 years, only 14 Boilermakers have homered in four straight seasons.

FASCIA ON BUSTER POSEY AWARD WATCH LIST FOR THIRD TIME

- Zac Fascia has returned as a fifth-year senior this season and again earned a spot on the initial watch list for the Buster Posey Award. Fascia is part of the first watch list for the third consecutive season. A year ago, the watch list was released on March 10 and the season was shut down two days later due to the coronavirus pandemic.
- Fascia has thrown out 24 base stealers in his 55 games behind the plate since joining the Boilermakers. He gunned down a Big Ten-high 18 base stealers in 2019 and also worked with a pitching staff that set team records for strikeouts (477) and strikeouts per nine innings (9.10).
- During Purdue's season-opening series with Nebraska, Fascia hit safely in all four games and delivered the game-winning RBI with a sacrifice fly in the walk-off win Friday. He was also behind the plate Friday and Sunday as Purdue racked up 31 of its 46 strikeouts, which is believed to be a program record for a four-game series. The Boilermakers had 15 Ks on Friday and 16 Sunday. Both totals rank among the top five in program history.
- The Brampton, Ontario, native was selected by the New York Mets in the 37th round of the 2018 MLB Draft after his sophomore season at Indian Hills College in Iowa, where he was a two-time Region XI Defensive Player of the Year. He had opportunities to move on the professional ranks again in 2019, but wanted to return for his senior season at Purdue. That season ultimately was cut short, but the eligibility extensions allowed him to return.

NEBRASKA SERIES NOTABLES

- The Boilermakers won their season opener in their last at-bat for the second year in a row. But it was their first walk-off win since March 2019 vs. Penn State at Alexander. The program's last neutral-site walk-off was a few weeks earlier vs. NJIT in Marion, North Carolina.
- Purdue racked up 46 strikeouts over 32 innings in the series, a total believed to be a team record for a four-game set. Since 2001, it's only the second 40-strikeout performance in a four-game series. The 16 Ks Sunday, including 10 vs. 20 batters faced by Jett Jackson, matched the third highest total in program history.
- Trent Johnson (7), Cory Brooks (5) and Jackson Smeltz (3) teamed up for 15 strikeouts, matching the fourth most in team history (at the time) and the top total since setting program record with 18 in a 10-inning game at Indiana in April 2018. Smeltz struck out the side in the ninth inning to set up the walk-off victory in the bottom half of the frame.
- Miles Simington (5-for-11) and Zac Fascia (4-for-12) hit safely in all four games of the series. Simington reached base safely a team-high eight times for the weekend. Skyler Hunter (3-for-14, 3 BB) and Mason Gavre (2-for-11, 2 BB) also reached base safely in all four games.
- In the opener and finale of the series, redshirt freshman Jack Firestone drew a walk as a pinch hitter late in a close game. Friday he walked in front of Zac Fascia's walk-off sac fly and Sunday he worked a base on balls in the seventh inning to give Purdue two on with one out.
- Jett Jackson has only surrendered 15 hits in 23 1/3 innings over five career appearances as a Boilermaker, all starts. Meanwhile, his 10 Ks Sunday were just three shy of his season total in 19 innings last season.
- Purdue lost a four-game series after winning the opener for the first time since April 2008 at Indiana. Admittedly, four-game series have been somewhat rare since the Big Ten went to a 24-game conference schedule, and traditional three-game weekend series, in 2009.
- The Boilermakers were shutout in consecutive games for the first time since March 2019 at Jacksonville State and Ball State. They were blanked in back-to-back contests by the same opponent for the first time since February 2017 at Arkansas-Little Rock.
- Purdue snapped a seven-game losing streak vs. Nebraska that dated back to March 2016. It was the Boilermakers' first win vs. the Huskers as the "home" team since they became conference rivals beginning in 2012.
- Purdue improved to 7-4 in season openers dating back to 2011. Six of those seven victories have come in neutral-site affairs.
- The Huskers scored four of their five runs on home runs, all to right field. The Boilermakers won a game in which the opposition went deep three times for the first time since game 3 of the abbreviated 2020 campaign (vs. Hofstra).
- Trent Johnson became Purdue's first pitcher since Jay Buente (2003-06) to pitch in four consecutive season openers.
