- Sue Bird, her teammate with the Storm and a mentor over the last 15 years, inspired Gearlds to go into coaching.
- She also shared the court in Seattle with Swin Cash (V.P. New Orleans Pelicans), Adia Barnes (Arizona head coach) and Lauren Jackson (owner Melbourne Boomers).

GEARLDS BIO

Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame inductee Katie Gearlds enters her fourth season as the head coach of the Purdue women's basketball team. Returning to her alma mater, the 2007 All-American was elevated to the head job on Sept. 17, 2021, becoming the ninth coach in program history.

Three seasons back home at Purdue, Gearlds has begun the process to return Purdue Women's Basketball back to the national stage with three straight postseason appearances. She inked a contract extension in the summer of 2024 that will keep her home in West Lafayette through the 2028-29 season. Establishing a new culture, revamping recruiting and reconnecting with the alumnae and fan bases, Gearlds has the Boilermakers headed in the right direction.

Gearlds was inducted into the Leroy Keyes Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2024.

PURDUE POSTSEASON BOUND

The Boilermakers have reached the postseason in each of Katie Gearlds' first three seasons back in West Lafayette. Purdue returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017 and the 27th time in program history during the 2022-23 campaign. Gearlds took the Boilermakers back to the postseason for the first time since 2018 in her first year, reaching the second round of the WNIT. The Boilermakers added their second WNIT appearance under Gearlds in 2023-24, as Purdue reached the Great 8 for its deepest postseason run in more than a decade.

ON THE RECRUITING TRAIL

Gearlds' first true signing class in November of 2022 was ranked No. 21 by ESPNW. The class of five added to its firepower when top-50 signee Amiyah Reynolds signed for Purdue in May of 2023, alongside her sister and former top-60 recruit Mila, a transfer from Maryland.
