JPC Members maintaining more tickets than the quantity restrictions prior to the reallocation will be allowed to order the number of tickets that they have maintained in the past.

Does All-American level JPC membership guarantee Men's Basketball lower bowl seats?

No, the seat selection process is still based upon JPC priority point order. So, availability will be consumer driven with no guarantees of availability at the time of selection. Members at the All-American membership levels and above are pre-qualified to select seats in the lower bowl if available.

Are the sections being renumbered in Mackey Arena?

Yes, we are renumbering sections so that when fans enter the main entrance along Northwestern Avenue they are entering at Section 1 and Section 18 making it simpler for fans to navigate Mackey Arena.

Who sits in the reserved seats shown on the seating diagrams for men's and women's basketball?

The reserved seats are for coach and player guests, visitors, sponsors, recruits and letterwinners from the participating team.

Is there a membership level requirement to get seats in the lower arena for women's basketball?

No, all John Purdue Club season-ticket holders are eligible for lower arena seats for women's basketball. Seats will be allocated based on John Purdue Club priority points.

Will the new NCAA regulation size scorer's table and player benches impede sight lines?

Yes, the lower three rows will encounter slight view obstructions from those seated at the scorer's table and benches.

Are you expanding ADA capacity to meet new guidelines?

Yes, we are expanding ADA space to remain in compliance.

Will the top row of the lower bowl have a wall directly behind it next year?

It will not have a wall behind it with the area being updated to accommodate additional ADA space.

How do you get ADA accommodations?

Fans interested in ADA space must supply their ADA placard before purchasing tickets and must call into the Purdue Athletic Ticket Office during their seat selection time.

When will lower and upper arena seat selections begin?

Seat selections and allocation will begin in late April and conclude in June.

Can we select men's and women's tickets on the same day?

Yes, but if you choose to select your seats online, you must logout in between transactions to access the different manifests.

What's next in terms of communication?

The next step in the process is that you will receive a postcard in the middle of April with your seat selection date and time. We will also post arena maps and other relative information online through the JPC webpage at purduesports.com.
