QUAIL WEST GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB | NAPLES, FLORIDA

The Mollenkopf/Keyes Classic honors Purdue Hall of Fame head football coach Jack Mollenkopf and All-American Leroy Keyes. As the Boilermakers' legendary coach, Mollenkopf took Purdue to the 1967 Rose Bowl, produced 14 All-Americans and sent numerous players into the professional ranks.

Known as one of "Jack's Boys," Keyes played for Mollenkopf from 1966 to 1968. Keyes became the first player in Purdue history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season and was a consensus All-American in both 1967 and 1968, finishing third and second in the Heisman Trophy balloting.

The Mollenkopf/Keyes Classic pays homage to a pair of Purdue's all-time greats and raises funds for student-athlete scholarships.

NIKO KOUTOUIDES

Niko Koutouvides was a four-year letterwinner for the Boilermakers from 2000 to 2003. He started 32 of 50 games, and his career stats include 296 tackles (180 solo), 21.5 tackles for a loss, five interceptions, four sacks, four fumbles recovered and four forced fumbles. He was a member of the 2000 Big Ten Champion Rose Bowl team, played in a pair of Sun Bowls and in the Capital One Bowl as a senior. He received his bachelor's degree in organizational leadership and supervisions in 2003.

As a junior, Koutouvides started all 13 games and notched a career-high 121 tackles (80 solo) to lead the team to its sixth straight bowl game. He had a team-high 11.5 tackles for loss, including four sacks. He knocked down three passes, intercepted three others and posted at least 11 tackles in six games.

As a senior in 2003, he helped anchor one of the finest defenses in school history. He was named first team All-Big Ten by the media and second team by the coaches after starting every game at middle linebacker. He finished second on the team with 101 tackles (57 solo), including 5.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, four pass breakups, a fumble forced and a fumble recovered.

He was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the fourth round of the 2004 NFL Draft and was a member of a school-record nine-player draft class. He played nine seasons in the NFL with Seattle, Denver, Tampa Bay and New England. He played in two Super Bowls, with the 2005 NFC Champion Seahawks, for which he was a captain, and the 2011 AFC Champion Patriots.

Niko, his wife, Koryne, and their three boys, Niko Jr, Deo, and Vasili, reside in Avon, Connecticut.
