SEASON SNAPSHOT

• Eight Boilermakers qualified for the NCAA Championships in St. Louis, Missouri. They finished 42nd as a team with 4.5 points. It had been a dozen years since Purdue qualified eight to the NCAA Championships and it was only the third time in program history eight advanced. The eight qualifiers are a program high that was previously accomplished in 1993 and 2003. They were also the most since 2010.

• Purdue registered 37.5 points to place 10th and sent five to the podium at the B1G Championships. Nick Lawrence (141) and Doug Welch (157) took sixth, Brandon Nelsen (149) and Braden Atwood (197) placed seventh and Pat Robinson (165) was eighth.

• Purdue finished the dual season with a record of 10-8, 3-6 B1G. The six duals won in Holloway Gymnasium are the most since the 2005-06 season when the Boilermakers won five home duals. It was only the second time in program history to win six duals in a season (1986-87) and the most since 2005-06 when five home duals were won.

• The 16 different wrestlers that appeared in a dual combined for a mark of 96-84 (.533). The Boilermakers posted 70 decisions, 11 falls, eight major decisions, four technical falls and received three forfeits. Of the 84 losses, 62 were by decision, 15 by major decision, three by technical fall and they were been pinned five times. In nine B1G duals, Purdue wrestlers combined for a record of 38-52 (.422) with 30 decisions, three major decisions, two technical falls and registered one fall.

• Eleven of the duals had at least one bonus point victory and seven duals had multiple bonus point wins. The most came against Indiana Tech with four pins, one major decision and one technical fall.

• In comparison, the 2013-14 Boilermakers finished the season at 6-8 with a 1-7 mark in the B1G. They owned a 63-77 (.450) combined dual record, including a 23-57 (.290) conference dual record.

• A dozen different lineups were used during the season. Danny Sabatello (133), Lawrence, D. Welch (157) and Robinson started in all 18 duals. The Welch trio of brothers (Luke, Doug and Chad) appeared together in eight duals. All three were victorious in three duals: North Carolina, Wisconsin and Northwestern.

• Sabatello owned a 16-2 dual record and scored 62 dual points. He won 12-straight dual matches spanning two seasons, from Feb. 7, 2014 - Jan. 9, 2015. He, along with D. Welch, led the way in B1G duals with 7-2 marks. D. Welch went 15-3 in duals.

• Sabatello had a team- and season-best 16-match winning streak from Nov. 2 - Dec. 29. During that stretch he recorded eight decisions, three major decisions, three pins, one technical fall and received one forfeit. Three of his wins were upsets of ranked opponents.

• The starting weight was drawn in only two duals, Wisconsin (141) and Indiana (174). The 16 other duals went straight up starting at 125.

• For the fifth time in program history, the Boilermakers put 30+ points on the board in their first two duals. Jessie Reyes's team opened the 2002-03 campaign scoring 30+ points in their first six duals and the 2008-09 squad scored 30+ points in their first four duals. This year's consecutive 30+ outings was also achieved in 1974 and 1920.

• Purdue wrestlers finished the year with an overall record of 313-252 (.554). Thirty-six percent of the team's victories resulted in bonus points with 60 pins, 38 major decisions and 15 technical falls. The 2013-14 squad totaled 88 bonus point victories (47 F, 34 MD, 7 TF).

• Forty-nine shutouts were recorded. D. Welch shutout a team-best eight opponents, while averaging 6.4 points in those matches, and was not held scoreless this season. His eight shutouts are more than his total victories last season (5). As a rookie, he held six opponents scoreless.

• Purdue grapplers put the first points on the board in nearly half of their matches and they held a 198-point scoring edge in the first period (1,076-878). The Boilermakers were +126 (784-658) in the second period and +77 (830-753) in the third period. They scored 2,882 points in 565 matches wrestled. Opponents scored 2,491 points.

• Fourteen grapplers on the roster outscored their opponents in the first period, with Alex Griffin owing the largest advantage, 65-17 (+48). Griffin (49-14) and Sabatello (67-32) led the way in the second period with 35-point advantages. Sabatello also claimed the third period, 82-50 (+32).

2014-15 SCHEDULE NOTES

- After wrestling on their home mat only four times in 2013-14, the Boilermakers wrestled eight of their 18 duals on their home mat in Holloway Gymnasium. The eight duals were the most since the 2002-03 season when nine of Purdue's 21 duals were held in West Lafayette.

- Nine of Purdue's 14 opponents in 2013-14 were back on the schedule in 2014-15: Northern Iowa, SIU Edwardsville, Chattanooga, Nebraska, Penn State, Ohio State, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana. The Boilermakers hosted Illinois for a second straight season.

- Purdue last saw Missouri, Wisconsin, Northwestern and Michigan State in 2013, while it had been two years since the last meeting with Old Dominion and three years since the last meeting with Binghamton. The Dec. 13 dual against North Carolina was the first meeting since 2007.

- The Nov. 23 meeting with Indiana Tech was the first between the two programs.

- Purdue returned to the Journeymen/ASICS Northeast Duals in Troy, N.Y., last competing in the event during the 2012-13 season.

- Although it was the sixth meeting all-time between Purdue and Chattanooga, the Dec. 12 dual was the first time the Boilermakers wrestled on the Mocs' home mat.

- Five of Purdue's six duals in January were on the road.

- The Boilermakers spent the entire month of February wrestling on their home mat, hosting Illinois, Michigan, Michigan State and Indiana. Purdue also wrestled all four February weekends at home in 2008.

• When the Boilermakers hosted Indiana in the final dual of the season, it was the 101st meeting between the in-state rivals, which stands as the longest series in Purdue history. The Northwestern dual marked the 88th meeting, which is the second longest-standing series. The Boilermakers battled Illinois for the 87th time and they met Ohio State for the 82nd time.

RANKINGS NOTES

• Purdue checked in at No. 23 in the final USA Today/NWCA Division I Coaches Poll released on Feb. 24. The Boilermakers spent seven weeks among the nation's top-25 teams, ranging from Nos. 21-25.

• Four grapplers closed out the season ranked by InterMat: Danny Sabatello, Nick Lawrence, Doug Welch and Braden Atwood. Four wrestlers also appeared on the final ranking of the 2013 season. In all, five Boilermakers appeared at least once among InterMat's top 20 at their respective weight (Sabatello, Lawrence, D. Welch, Chad Welch and Atwood) during the course of the season.

• The four ranked wrestlers are the most Purdue had in its lineup since 2012 when five Boilermakers were ranked (Camden Eppert - 125; Cashé Quiroga - 133; Ivan Lopouchanski - 149; Tommy Churchard - 157; and Atwood - 197). That group spent three weeks on the poll together, from Nov. 19 - Dec. 3.

• Atwood finished his career on the InterMat rankings at No. 19. He was included on every edition of rankings since Oct. 28, 2012, a span of 58 consecutive polls. His career high was No. 8, a spot he held this season from Nov. 17 - Dec. 8.

• Sabatello and D. Welch were ranked by InterMat for nine consecutive weeks (1/12 - current). Sabatello appeared on the 133-pound list a dozen times this season and D. Welch was listed among the top 10 at 157 pounds five of the nine weeks.

• Lawrence made his second appearance on the 141-pound rankings, checking in at No. 20, in the final edition. He was also listed 20th in the Dec. 2 edition.

• D. Welch's 5-4 (TB1) upset of Nebraska's then-No. 2 James Green (1/9) was the highest ranked opponent that a Boilermaker beat this season. D. Welch, who was unranked at the time, also provided the program's biggest upset since 165-pounder Luke Manuel upended top-ranked and top-seeded Mack Lewnes of Cornell in the first round of consolation wrestling at the 2009 NCAA Championships, 3-1. Although Manuel was unseeded at NCAAAs, he was ranked 15th when he beat Lewnes. Prior to that upset, D. Welch was 0-8 in his career against ranked competition.

• In 18 of his 39 matches, C. Welch went up against a nationally ranked opponent, seven of which were against a top-10 foe.

• Lawrence, D. Welch and Pat Robinson faced a team-high eight opponents that were ranked among the top 10. In addition to Green, D. Welch upset then-No. 7 Dylan Alton of Penn State (3-1 SV1) and then-No. 8 Brian Murphy of Michigan.

• Sabatello's seven wins over ranked opponents were the most on the team, with two of those wins coming over top-10 opponents: then-No. 7 Jimmy Gulibon of Penn State (6-0) and then-No. 4 Zane Richards of Illinois (4-2).

• Complete individual season rankings trends from the polls monitored can be found on page 11. Various records as a ranked wrestler, plus records against ranked opposition can be found on page 15.

RECORD MAKERS & CHASERSCareer Reversals

• Two reversals from Brandon Nelsen against No. 16 Mike Racciato of Pittsburgh at the NCAA Championships pushed his career total to 45, where he ranks fourth all-time at Purdue. The two reversals also landed him on the single-season reversals list with 14.

Career Falls

• Braden Atwood moved into a tie for the fourth spot on the career falls list with Joe Lilovich (1985-88) by pinning Michigan State's Nick McDiarmid in 4:18 at the B1G Championships. It was career pin No. 31 and his seventh of the season.

• On Dec. 6, Nelsen pinned SIU Edwardsville's Karsten Van Velsor for career pin No. 29 and he stuck Van Velsor again at Midlands to push his four-year total to 30 and his season total to seven. He finishes at No. 6 on the list.

Career Back Points

• A three-point nearfall by Danny Sabatello against Maryland's Geoffrey Alexander allowed him to take over 18th on the list with 120. He finished with 46 back points (8 2N, 10 3N) in 38 matches wrestled.

• Nelsen closed out his career with 124 back points thanks to a three-count Racciato at the NCAA Championships. He finishes at No. 17 on the list, tallying 20 two-point nearfalls and 28 three-point nearfalls.

Career Wins

- Atwood finishes with a record of 91-47, tying him for 19th all-time at Purdue. Thirty percent of his wins resulted in bonus points (11 MD, 31 F). It had been four years since a new name had been added to the list, with the last coming in 2011.

Single Season Reversals

- The two reversals from Nelsen against Racciato at the NCAA Championships landed him on the single-season reversals list with 14.

A SEASON OF FIRSTS FOR COACH ERSLAND

- Tony Ersland's 30-9 win over Cal Poly in his head coaching debut made him the fourth coach in the program's history to win his first dual at the helm. Other first-year Purdue wrestling head coaches to win their first dual include Leslie Beers (1929), Don Corrigan (1969), Mark Sothmann (1975) and Mitch Hull (1988). Of those five, only Hull and Ersland came away victorious while making their debut on the road. Corrigan got off to a 4-0 start in 1969.

- In their first dual going up against a ranked opponent, Coach Ersland's squad delivered with a 21-15 upset of No. 18 Northern Iowa (11/23).

- Coach Ersland garnered his first B1G Wrestler of the Week in Danny Sabatello (12/2). Ersland is the second coach in Purdue history to have a wrestler earn the honor during his inaugural season. Then on Jan. 20, Coach Ersland became the first Purdue coach to have a grappler twice earn the honor in his career.

- After upsetting then-No. 20 Chattanooga and beating North Carolina, Purdue pushed into the top 25 of the USA Today/NWCA Division I Coaches Poll on Dec. 16. The 7-2 Boilermakers had been receiving votes in the three previous editions of the weekly poll. The No. 25 ranking marked the first time Coach Ersland has been at the helm of a nationally ranked team.

- Coach Ersland's first recruiting class has garnered national recognition with the signing of top-100 recruits Angus Arthur, Nate Limmex and Gavin Murray for 2015-16. WIN Magazine has tabbed the trio as the No. 20 incoming class and has received high regard from Flowrestling. Arthur and Limmex both hail from Central Michigan, Laingsburg and Ada, respectively, while Murray will come to Purdue by way of Cranford, N.J. The group is balanced in weight class representation with Limmex projected at 141/49, Murray at 157/65 and Arthur at 197 pounds. Coach Ersland details each grappler's resume in videos that can be seen by clicking here.

- The 22-17 upset of No. 19 Northwestern inside Holloway Gymnasium on Jan. 16 gave Coach Ersland his first B1G dual victory.

- Ersland was one of nine head coaches that were in their first season as a Division I head coach and one of 13 coaches that were in their first year at the helm of their respective program. His eight NCAA qualifiers were the most among both groups. Ersland was also the only coach among both groups to have his team in the final USA Today/NWCA Coaches Poll, checking in at No. 23.

Braden Atwood (197) became the 11th four-time NCAA qualifier in program history.

- Four Boilermakers were defeated in their first two matches and forced to exit the tournament, three of which wrestled in their final matches for the Old Gold & Black: Robinson, Kissel and Atwood. D. Welch was also bounced from the tournament with back-to-back losses.

- Purdue's four remaining wrestlers suffered their second loss and were eliminated during the third session of the NCAA Championships. Sabatello and Lawrence each won in the second round of wrestlebacks, but were denied in the third round. Nelsen and C. Welch were defeated in the second round.

NCAA NOTES

- Purdue went 3-5 during Session I, 1-7 in Session II and 2-4 in the third session, finishing with a combined record of 6-16 ... all six victories were decisions ... two matches went into sudden victory and both were won by Purdue.

- Brandon Nelsen and Chad Welch each defeated a seeded opponent in the first round

All Five Purdue Wrestling Seniors NCAA Bound // March 8

- Brandon Nelsen became the eighth Purdue wrestler to clinch an automatic berth to the 2015 NCAA Championships with a seventh-place finish at the B1G Championships in St. John Arena. The Boilermakers registered 37.5 points to place 10th and sent five to the podium, with a pair of sixth- and seventh-place finishers and one eighth-place showing.

- Nelsen (149) joined senior counterparts Nick Lawrence (141), Pat Robinson (165), Patrick Kissel (184) and Braden Atwood (197) with an NCAA ticket.

- In addition to the five seniors, the Boilermakers also qualified Danny Sabatello (133), Doug Welch (157) and Chad Welch (174). It has been a dozen years since Purdue has qualified eight wrestlers to the NCAA Championships and it's only the third time in program history eight have advanced. The eight qualifiers are a program high that was previously accomplished in 1993 and 2003. They are also the most qualifiers since 2010.

- The Boilermakers finished with five B1G championships placewinners. Lawrence and D. Welch took sixth, Nelsen and Atwood placed seventh and Robinson was eighth.

- Nelsen clinched the seventh and final automatic bid for the conference at 149 pounds. The redshirt senior disposed of Michigan State's Nick Trimble, 9-3, thanks to a five-point second period and rallied after being tilted in the third en route to his 22nd win. With the seventh-place showing, Nelsen earned the third podium finish of his career and is the 25th three-time B1G placewinner in program history.

- For the fourth time in his career, Atwood placed in the tournament, taking seventh after receiving a medical forfeit from Northwestern's Alex Polizzi. The Delphi, Ind., native became just the 12th Boilermaker to place at the tournament each of his four years.

B1G NOTES

- Five grapplers wrestled above their seed: Nelsen (unseeded), Lawrence (8), Robinson (10), Kissel (10) and Atwood (9).

- Lawrence's six matches were the most matches of any Purdue wrestler at the tournament.

- Purdue was 4-2 in overtime matches, including a fall from Kissel in sudden victory in his final match.

Flowrestling Wrestler of the Week: Doug Welch, Purdue // Jan. 12

- Upsets have been the theme of the New Year so far with the latest coming when Purdue visited Nebraska. The team score may have been a bit lopsided in favor of the home team Huskers, but Doug Welch's 5-4 upset victory of 2nd-ranked James Green account for a lone bright spot of the dual.

- Early on, the match looked as if it was securely in the hands of Green as he posted a pair of first period takedowns. However, Welch kept the match close after a reversal cut the score to 4-3 going into the second period where he managed to ride Green out and erase all the riding time that the three-time All-American had built up.

- An escape by the Boilermaker in the final period tied the score at 4-4 forcing overtime before a scoreless minute followed. Welch once again put on a great display of riding by holding Green down for the entire 30-second period before escaping in the final period to claim the 5-4 victory. This great comeback win makes Doug Welch the Flo Wrestler of the Week.

Welch was one of two Boilermakers that were victorious in a 25-6 loss to the 12th-ranked Huskers in their B1G opener. The loss puts the Old Gold & Black at 7-3, 0-1 B1G, while Nebraska pushed their mark to 5-1, 2-1 B1G.

- Green, who brought an 18-1 mark into battle with Welch, struck with a pair of first period takedowns, but a Boilermaker reversal shifted the tone of the match after three minutes even though he was down 4-3.

- With choice in the second, Welch deferred and the Husker took bottom. Welch dominated on top and used his funky style to keep Green down the entire two minutes of the period.

- Still trailing 4-3 going into the final two minutes, the Purdue redshirt junior started from bottom. He escaped to even the score at 4-4 and force a 60-second sudden victory. Neither wrestler scored, taking the match into a pair of 30-second tiebreakers with each wrestler getting choice.
