A THE OPENING TIP

- The Purdue women's basketball team opens its 49th season and third under head coach Katie Gearlds with a road clash at future Big Ten foe No. 4 UCLA on Monday night.
- Gearlds enters her third campaign back at Purdue after guiding her alma mater to back-to-back postseason appearances in each of her first two seasons.
- Purdue returned to the NCAA Tournament last season for the first time since 2017, after posting a 19-11 record overall and a 9-8 mark in Big Ten play, the Boilermakers' first winning record in conference since 2017-18.
- · Purdue last faced a top-5 opponent to start the season against No. 5 Kansas State in 2003-04 to start Katie Gearlds' freshman campaign. The matchup is just the first of a challenging nonconference slate that features four Power 5 teams in the first five games, plus a bout at Notre Dame in December. Purdue will play seven games against the top 14 of the first AP Top-25 poll of the year.
- All-Big Ten selection Jeanae Terry is looking to climb the career assist charts, starting the year in 14th with 373 helpers at Purdue. Terry is the only player in Purdue history with multiple triple-doubles.

- The Boilermakers take the notion of the team being a family to a whole new level this year with three sets of sisters - Madison and McKenna Layden, Amiyah and Mila Reynolds and Caitlyn and Alaina Harper - the most on any roster in the nation this season. Utah Tech is the only other program to have more than one set of sisters on its roster.
- To compliment the five returners on the roster, Gearlds welcomed in eight newcomers, including six freshmen for the 2023-24 season. The five rookies who signed in November were tabbed No. 21 in the nation, before top-50 recruit Amiyah Reynolds joined in May.
- Gearlds also added a pair of star-studded staff members during the offseason in 1999 National Champion and associate head coach Kelly Komara and dynamic recruiting assistant coach Mark Stenhens
- Three of Purdue's 10 Indiana Miss Basketball winners are a part of the team this year (Jayla Smith - 2021, Katie Gearlds - 2003, Kelly Komara - 1998). Madison Layden and Rashunda Jones both came in second their senior seasons. Freshman Sophie Swanson was named Illinois Miss Basketball as a junior.

- Purdue head coach Katie Gearlds played in all three previous meetings with the Bruins, averaging 10.3 points, 5.3 rebounds and 4.0 assists.
- The most recent meeting came in the second round of the 2006 NCAA Tournament at Mackey Arena when Gearlds dropped a team-high 15 points.
- The Boilermakers are 5-3 against the incoming new members of the Big Ten.

🙆 A WIN WOULD

- · Be better than a loss
- Be Purdue's 41st season-opening victory
- Make Katie Gearlds the second Purdue coach to win her first three season openers
- Give Purdue a 4-3 record when starting the year against a ranked opponent

NUMBERS TO KNOW

The Boilermakers' roster features eight newcomers, including six freshmen who were tabbed the No. 21 class in the nation.

Purdue is 3-0 in true road non-conference games under head coach Katie Gearlds and 6-2 in regular season non-conference contests away from Mackey Arena.

The Boilermakers are the only team in the nation with three sets of sisters on their roster.

BOILER NOTES

BOILERMAKER BASKETBALL

- Purdue Women's Basketball is in its 49th season in 2022-23 with an all-time record of 923-536.
- Purdue was the 40th program in NCAA Division I history to reach 900 wins.
- The Boilermakers are the only team from the Big Ten to win a national championship, hoisting the title in 1999.
- The program has reached the NCAA Tournament 27 times with 12 Sweet 16s, eight Elite 8s, three final fours and a trio of national championship game appearances.
- In addition to its NCAA success, Purdue owns the Big Ten record for most tournament titles with nine.

THIRD SEASON OF THE KG ERA

- Head coach Katie Gearlds is in her third season at her alma mater after guiding the Boilermakers to back-to-back postseason appearances, including the first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2017.
- In two short seasons, Gearlds has transformed Purdue back into an NCAA Tournament squad with eyes on taking the Boilermakers back to the nation spotlight when she was on the floor 20 years ago.
- Gearlds took over the program 47 days before her first campaign in 2021-22 when Purdue was coming off a seven-win season. She guided Purdue to a 17-15 mark and reached the WNIT after the program failed to reach the postseason in the previous three years.
- Purdue finished the 2022-23 season with a 19-11 record and its first return to the NCAA Tournament since 2017.
- Gearlds joined Boilermaker legends Carolyn Peck and Lin Dunn as the only Purdue head coaches to post win improvements in each of their first two seasons.
- When Gearlds moved into the head coach role, Purdue had lost 19 straight games to ranked opponents. Over her first two years, Gearlds has racked up three ranked wins, including the program's first true road AP top-5 victory against No. 2 Ohio State in 2022-23.
- Gearlds was initially hired as the associate head coach with plans to become the head coach at the start of the 2022-23 season.

WAIT, HOW MANY SISTERS ARE ON THIS TEAM?

- If a team is a family, Purdue is taking that to a whole new level with three sets of siblings on the 2023-24 roster - Madison & McKenna Layden, Mila & Amiyah Reynolds, Caitlyn & Alaina Harner
- The Boilermakers are the only team in the nation with three sets of sisters. Utah Tech is the only other program with more than one pair of siblings.
- Based on the hard work of a strategic communications intern, 39 teams across Division I have one pair of sisters of the roster this year.

SEASON-OPENING SUCCESS

- Head coach Katie Gearlds won her first two season openers at Purdue, starting her Purdue coaching career with an 89-64 win over Western Kentucky on the road in 2021-22, before knocking off Marshall 73-61 in Mackey Arena last season.
- Gearlds and current Alabama head coach Kristy Curry are the only Purdue head coaches to play two of their first three season openers away from Mackey Arena.
- The Boilermakers have opened the season six times against ranked opposition. The last was against No. 5 Kansas State when Katie Gearlds was a freshman in 2003. Gearlds finished with 10 points, six assists and five rebounds in 26 minutes off the bench.

TOUGH SLATE TO START

- Purdue will face four major conference teams in its first five outings this season, starting with a road game at No. 4 UCLA.
- In addition to the road battle at No. 4 UCLA, the first ranked season-opening contest for Purdue since 2003-04, the Boilermakers will square off with Georgia and Florida during the Baha Mar Pink Flamingo Championship in The Bahamas over Thanksgiving week.
- The Boilermakers will travel to Notre Dame on Dec. 17 for the first regular season matchup with the Fighting Irish in over a decade.
- Purdue play eight games against teams ranked in the initial AP Top-25, including seven against teams in the top 14.

NON-CONFERENCE DOMINANCE

- Purdue has an 18-3 regular season non-conference mark under Gearlds.
- The 18 wins in non-conference regular season action is tied for third in the Big Ten over the previous two seasons.
- Last season, the Boilermakers went 9-1 for the third-best clip in program history and the best since Gearlds' freshman season in 2003-04.
- Purdue went 9-2 in regular season non-conference action during Gearlds' first campaign, which tied for the second best mark by a first-year head coach at Purdue.

WHAT LEFT. WHAT CAME BACK

- Purdue brings back five key contributors from a season ago, including four starters in Jeanae Terry, Abbey Ellis, Madison Layden and Caitlyn Harper.
- Lasha Petree powered the Boilermakers' offense last season with 14.7 points per game. Ellis and Harper joined her in double figures with 11.2 and 10.4 points per game, respectively.

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

- Purdue's five returners entered the season with a combined 492 games played and 5,056 career points in college.
- The rest of the roster of eight newcomers has 51 career games and 168 total points.
- Abbey Ellis and Caitlyn Harper, both transfers, are the lone players on the team to score of 1,000 points in their careers, entering their final campaigns each with over 1,500 career points.
- Jeanae Terry has proven herself as a distributor and rebounder while running the Boilermakers' offense.
- While bottled up much of last season with opponents keying against her, Madison Layden continues to climb the Purdue all-time charts for 3-pointers, starting the season in 14th.
- Jayla Smith has continued to progress each season in West Lafayette setting single-game and season highs her sophomore campaign last year

BOILER NOTES

PACKING A PUNCH IN THE PORTAL

- While setting up her first true high school signing class, Katie Gearlds has found some instant impacts in the transfer portal during her time back at Purdue.
- Gearlds landed Abbey Ellis and Jeanae Terry mere weeks after she was hired on staff. Terry started every game for the Boilermakers during her first two seasons, while Ellis has been a spark plug that has lit up Mackey Arena on numerous occasions.
- Last season, Caitlyn Harper and Lasha Petree provided some much-needed veteran experience and scoring talent into the starting lineup. Petree paced Purdue with 14.7 points per game and Harper was one of 12 players in the Big Ten to average double figures and shoot over 50% from the field.
- Gearlds dipped back into the portal to bring two sisters to the program who played their freshman campaigns elsewhere. Alaina Harper joined after a rookie season at Grand Canyon, and Mila Reynolds made the move to West Lafayette after reaching the Elite Eight last season with Maryland.

BEEN THERE. THEY'RE BACK

- Purdue's coaching staff features a trio of alumnae who left their marks on the program during their playing days.
- Head coach Katie Gearlds was one of the best pure scorers in Purdue history, reaching four NCAA Tournaments, three Sweet 16s and an Elite Eight. She continues to rank in the top-10 of numerous career stat categories and was named an All-American in 2007 as a senior.
- 1999 National Champion and new associate head coach Kelly Komara returned to West Lafayette for her second stint on the sidelines. Komara was the 2002 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and helped the Boilermakers reach two national title games, winning the lone championship in Big Ten women's basketball.
- Alex Guyton is in her fifth season on staff and third as an assistant coach. Guyton reached three NCAA Tournaments and one the Big Ten championship her four-year career for the Boilermakers
- Another new addition to the coaching ranks at Purdue is dynamic recruiting assistant coach Mark Stephens. After spending the last five seasons on staff at Toledo and Xavier, Stephens returns to the state to lead the Boilermakers' posts and recruiting operations. Stephens' in-state ties run deep after serving as a coach at several high schools and managing Indiana Elite as well as other AAU programs.
- While they didn't play for Purdue, director of video and recruiting Lakan Hasser-Smith and graduate assistant Abby Downard are in-state products with deep ties to Katie Gearlds after playing their entire careers for her at Marian.
- Director of operations Amie Anthrop is well-accustomed to the bright lights of Purdue. After an award-winning career as a guard at Southern Indiana, she married Jade Anthrop, brother to Dru (basketball), Danny (football) and Jackson (football).

JT - START UNKNOWN, FINISH UNFORGETTABLE

- "Start Unknown, Finish Unforgettable" is the mantra Jeanae
 Terry lives by so much she has a tattoo featuring that phrase.
 During her time in West Lafayette, Terry has set the program
- record for triple-doubles and non-point double-doubles.
- Last season, she was one of three players (lowa's Caitlin Clark and Notre Dame's Olivia Miles) to record at least 6.0 points, rebounds and assists per game.
- \cdot Terry and Clark are the only two players in the nation to dish out 150 assists and haul in 200 rebounds in each of the last two years.
- Already up to 14th in program history in career assists at Purdue, Terry holds the second and third spots on the singleseason assist lists, as well as the program's lead for career assist-to-turnover ratio.
- Terry and Purdue legend Carol Emanuel are the only Boilermakers to lead the team in rebounds and assists in two seasons.

NUMBERS TO KNOW IN THE GEARLDS ERA

- Purdue is 29-5 when leading after the first quarter and 33-5 when taking a lead into the fourth quarter.
- Purdue is 22-14 when knocking down seven or more 3-pointers.
 Purdue is 14-9 when shooting 35% from distance or better and 29-9 when shooting 40% or better overall, including 13-1 with a field goal clip above 50%.
- The Boilermakers are 23-3 when outrebounding opponents.
- The Boilermakers hold a 25-3 record when scoring 70 or more points, while also posting a 31-6 mark when holding opponents below that mark.

DOWN UNDER DOWNTOWN ABBEY

- Abbey Ellis enters her final campaign in West Lafayette after garnering honorable mention All-Big Ten nods each of the last two years.
- Ellis was one of the most clutch free throw shooters in the country last season finishing third nationally at 91.7% while leading the Big Ten overall.
- Ellis is one of Purdue's go-to options in tight situations averaging 11.4 points per game during her time in West Lafayette with a 47% clip from the field and 35.3% from behind the arc.
- She joined the 1,500-point club for her career last season.
- In the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals against lowa last year, Ellis made her 100th career start.
- She earned a spot on the Big Ten Honor Roll with 21 points and four rebounds per game, while shooting 60% overall and 58% from three in the wins over No. 22 Illinois and No. 2 Ohio State last year..
- Purdue's first Australian rocks a ribbon in her hair during games from a selection that her mother sends her to wear.
- The senior has also gained a following on TikTok \ @abbeye_22 with videos shared by BarstoolSports, Slam and more.

MONEY MADS

- Senior Madison Layden is in her fourth campaign as one of the top all-around producers for the Boilermakers.
- A scorer, shooter, facilitator, rebounder and defender, Layden was one of 12 players in the Big Ten last season to tally six points, four rebounds, three assists and one steal per game.
- Layden has climbed up to 14th in program history in career 3-pointers.
- She set the single-game Purdue freshman record for triples in a game with six triples in a game.
- She was tabbed All-Big Ten honorable mention as a sophomore and named to the All-Freshman team in 2020-21.

THE ROOKIE SI

- Purdue's roster features six freshmen in 2023-24.
- The group of rookies was the first fully recruited class of the Katie Gearlds and were all targets by her less than a month after she was hired in 2021.
- Emily Monson, McKenna Layden, Sophie Swanson, Rashunda Jones and Mary Ashley Stevenson signed in November of 2022 and were tabbed the No. 21 recruiting class by ESPN.
- No. 43 prospect Amiyah Reynolds joined the squad when she committed in May.

RANKED MATCHUPS

- Head coach Katie Gearlds guided Purdue to three ranked wins during her time in West Lafayette. Purdue had dropped their previous 25 contests to ranked opponents before the Gearlds era started.
- \bullet Purdue recorded back-to-back ranked wins for the first time since 2018 during the 2022-23 campaign.
- With a 73-65 win over No. 2 Ohio State in Columbus, the Boilermakers tallied their first ever top-five win on the road.
- Purdue snapped the program's 19-game skid to ranked teams with a 66-61 win over No. 17 Florida State last season.
- Gearlds was 23-22 against ranked teams during her playing days in West Lafayette. Her highest ranked win was over No.
 Kansas State as a freshman in 2003, her first game as a Boilermaker.

NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player - Ukari Figgs All-Tournament Team - Ukari Figgs, Stephanie White, Katie Douglas AP & Naismith National Coach of the Year - Carolyn Peck

Purdue celebrates the 25th anniversary of its 1999 National Championship, the only one in the Big Ten in women's basketball. Led by National Coach of the Year Carolyn Peck and a star-studded list of greats in Stephanie White, Ukari Figgs, Camille Cooper, Katie Douglas, Michelle Duhart and Kelly Komara, the Boilermakers knocked off 10 ranked opponents, including No. 1 Tennessee in the season opener.

After posting a perfect 16-0 record in Big Ten play and winning the league tournament, Purdue carved through the NCAA Tournament as a No. 1 seed, before defeating Duke 62-45 in the National Championship Game.

MISS BASKETBALL

- Jayla Smith is the 10th Indiana Miss Basketball to play at Purdue, winning the award in 2021.
- The long history of Purdue welcoming the state's top player extended back to 2003, when Katie Gearlds became the fifth honoree to pick West Lafayette.
- Madison Layden (2020) and Rashunda Jones (2023) finished as runner-ups in their senior campaigns.
- Purdue holds the record for most Indiana Miss Basketball winners, followed by Indiana, Notre Dame, Tennessee tied for second with four.

BOILER NOTES

CAITLYN CASHING IN

- Caitlyn Harper is in her sixth and final year of her collegiate career, utilizing her extra season granted by the NCAA for the 2020-21 season.
- She finished third on the team in scoring with 10.4 points per game during her first season in West Lafayette.
- Harper was 1 of 11 players in the Big Ten averaging over 10 points per game while shooting 50% or better from the field.
- Harper paced Purdue with a season-high 20 points on the road at Penn State to top her 15 games in double figures.
- With her 10 points against Illinois, Harper joined the 1,500-point club for her career, following 1,286 points at Cal Baptist.
- The redshirt senior was named the 11th best transfer from a mid-major to a high-major by HerHoopsStats.com last year.
- The Hartland, Wisc., native came to Purdue after leading the WAC in scoring in 2021-22 with 17.7 points per game.
- Harper's honor haul also includes 2022 CoSIDA Academic All-America, 2021-22 WAC Player of the Year, 2021 WAC Tournament MVP.

JAYLA'S JUMP

- Jayla Smith emerged as the top sub off the bench last season when she set career highs for single-game and season stats.
- Smith tallied 7.8 points per game while shooting 45.5% from the field and finished second on the team with 30 steals.
- Smith's biggest impact came with the Boilermakers' season on the line in the Big Ten Tournament. The Indianapolis native laced a wing 3-pointer with less than five seconds remaining and down one to beat Wisconsin 57-55, a victory that likely edged Purdue into the NCAA Tournament.

TERRY'S DOUBLE TROUBLE

- Jeanae Terry has etched her name into the history books at Purdue in several categories.
- The Detroit native is the only player in Purdue men's or women's basketball history to amass multiple triple-doubles in a season and a career, a feat she achieved during the 2021-22 campaign.
- In both of her triple-double performances, the last category Terry hit double digits in was points.
- Terry is also the only Boilermaker to record a non-point double-double. Jeanae Terry recorded the mark three times last season, the most of any player in the nation since 2009.

THE NAME IS MARY ASHLEY STEVENSON

- Coming straight from the Big Apple, Mary Ashley Stevenson is in her freshman campaign after an impressive prep career.
- Stevenson was an McDonald's All-America Game nominee, the runner-up for New York Miss Basketball and Gatorade Player of the Year, as well as the No. 97 recruit by ESPN.
- She won three state championships, two in New York and one in South Carolina. Stevenson tallied an 80-12 record over four years of high school and finished her career with 2,552 points and 1,575 rebounds in 125 career games.
- Stevenson set The Dalton School record for boys or girls with 53 points in a 75-70 win over Staten Island Academy on Feb. 1, 2023, scoring her team's final 31 points.
- Just before she stepped on campus, she legally changed her last name from Groot to Stevenson, taking the name of her stepfather Gary.

THE SPIDER - RASHUNDA JONES

- Rashunda Jones was the first South Bend Washington commit before the Reynolds sisters joined to reunite the powerful trio.
 Jones was tabbed the 2023 Indiana Miss Basketball and a member of the Max Preps National Player of the Year Watch List.
- She guided the Panthers to a 95-18 record in her career and a 2022 IHSAA 3A Championship and three conference titles.
- Her versatility earned her the nickname "Spider" during her prep career.
- She finished her career with 1,791 points, 497 rebounds, 427 assists and 419 steals, including an assist on Amiyah Reynolds' 1,000th career point.

SNIPER SOPHIE SWANSON

- A pure shooter and scorer, Sophie Swanson joined the program after a stellar prep career at Barrington Prep in Illinois.
- Swanson was named the 2022 Illinois Miss Basketball and 4A Player of the Year following her junior campaign.
- Swanson tallied 23.1 points per game as a senior before her
- season was ended with a knee injury in February.

 She set the school record for points in a season (750),
- 3-pointers in a year (86), thrice set the school mark for points in a game (40, 37, 36)

MURFREESBORO MONSON

- Emily Monson came to West Lafayette after garnering an Naismith High School All-America honorable mention nod.
- Monson powered Blackman High School throughout her career going 107-16 with an 81-8 mark as a three-year starter.
- Monson finished her career with 1,066 points, tallying a careerbest 15.8 points per game as a senior. She recorded more points her senior season than her first three years combined.

PURE LEADER AMIYAH REYNOLDS

- Amiyah Reynolds completed a prolific career for South Bend Washington, going 95-18, winning an IHSAA State Champion and three conference titles.
- Reynolds ranked second in South Bend Washington history with 564 assists.
- Her 1,000th came during her senior season off an assist from Rashunda Jones.
- Sadly, due to an injury that ended her senior campaign in February, Reynolds will redshirt for the 2023-24 season.
- Despite sitting out drills, Gearlds has made a point to work with Reynolds during practice to ingrain her in the offense.
- Reynolds originally committed to Maryland but switched to Purdue in May citing her connection with Gearlds.

MAGIC MCKENNA

- McKenna Layden reunited with her sister Madison following a 78-17 career record at Northwestern High School.
- Scoring 1,616 points and pulling down 573 rebounds, Layden was named an Indiana All-Star as a junior and senior.
- She set the Northwestern single-game record with 47 points with nine 3-pointers against Taylor in 2021.
- In addition to her success playing for her mother Kathie, including reaching the IHSAA 4A Championship Game as a freshman alongside Madison, Layden won two sectional titles in volleyball and tennis each.

BOILER NOTES

2 VETERANS DEPARTING

- The Boilermakers saw two of their most impactful players from the 2022-23 season depart after graduation.
- Fifth-year senior Cassidy Hardin, who postponed her entry to medical school to come back and play a final season in West Lafayette to get Purdue back to the NCAA Tournament, departed after setting the Purdue men's and women's basketball record for most career games played with 142. Hardin was the fifth player in program history to knock down more than 200 3-pointers in a career, finishing fourth on the career charts with 214.
- Lasha Petree made an instant impact in her lone season at Purdue. The Detroit native tallied 14.7 points per game to finish 15th in the Big Ten in scoring.

SOMETHING ABOUT A TRUCK

- A heartfelt story told by the Big Ten Network during the 2022-23 season centered around Gearlds' relationship with her parents.
- As a freshman at Beech Grove High School, Gearlds made a deal with her parents that if she was named Indiana Miss Basketball, they would buy her the car of her dreams.
- Four years and an incredible high school career later, her father Tony traded in his truck to surprise Katie with a 2002 yellow Ford Mustang in the family garage. Tony took over Katie's 1988 Chevy Celebrity, driving it until the wheels fell off.
- In the summer of 2022, Katie returned the favor and surprised her dad to buy him any brand new he wanted. The only rule, it could not be red.

BOILER NOTES

THE VOICE OF THE BOILERMAKERS

- Entering his 34th season calling Purdue women's basketball, play-by-play man Tim Newton is closing in on his 1,000th game with Purdue women's basketball.
- He has called 988 games in his time with the Boilermakers.
- $\,\cdot\,$ Purdue is 674-314 in games called by Newton. He has been on the air for 988 of Purdue's 1,460 total games.
- Newton has provided the call for all seven Big Ten regular season titles, all nine Big Ten Tournament Championships, three Final Fours and 25 of 27 NCAA Tournament appearances.
- Perhaps Newton's best call came in the final seconds of the 1999 National Championship as Purdue became the only Big Ten team to capture the national title.
- "Ladies and gentlemen, the national champion team resides in West Lafayette, Indiana, as Katie Douglas throws the ball skyward. It's over. Purdue wins 62-45, capturing the national championship."
- Based on the best research available, Newton and LSU's playby-play voice Patrick Wright will be the only active radio voices to reach 1,000 games called. Both should hit the mark in December.

SELLING OUT MACKEY

- For the third time in program history and the first since 2000, Mackey Arena sold out for a women's basketball game when the Boilermakers faced No. 4 Indiana last season.
- The crowd of 14,876 set a new record for the program and was the then-16th highest-attended game in Big Ten history.
- Following an Indiana-record 17,222 fans when Purdue and Indiana played on Feb. 19, the grand total of fans who watched the best rivalry in college basketball came to a record 32,098.
- The attendance, at the time, was the second largest on campus nation this season behind Missouri at South Carolina (15,444) and Florida at Oklahoma (19,236).
- Purdue was the fifth Big Ten team to go over 10,000 in attendance this season (Michigan, Maryland, Iowa, Indiana).
- In the regular season, Purdue played in the third and ninth most attended games in the nation last year.

BACK IN THE BIG DANCE

- The Boilermakers made their return to the NCAA Tournament for the 27th time in program history in 2022-23.
- Led by Carolyn Peck, the Boilermakers won the 1999 national title, the only women's basketball championship earned by a Big Ten program.
- In addition to the championship, Purdue has reached two title games (2001 loss to Notre Dame), three Final Fours, eight Elite Eights and 12 Sweet 16s.
- Six Boilermakers have been named to the Final Four All-Tournament Team, including 1999 Most Outstanding Player Ukari Figgs.
- Eighteen players have garnered NCAA Regional All-Tournament Team honors, with Katie Gearlds garnering the laurel in 2007.
- Purdue has a 47-25 all-time record in March Madness.

A WINNING HISTORY

- Putting on the Old Gold & Black carries with it a standard that was set more than three decades ago when the Boilermakers lifted their first Big Ten title in 1991.
- Purdue is the only Big Ten team to win a national championship in women's basketball.
- Despite not reaching the Big Dance since 2016-17, the Boilermakers' 26 NCAA Tournament appearances are tied with Ohio State for second in the Big Ten behind Iowa's 28.
- With its last Big Ten Tournament tile coming in 2013, Purdue owns the record for most league tourney championships with nine (1998-99-2000-03-04-07-08-12-13)
- Purdue has won seven Big Ten regular season championships, good for fourth in the league, with the last one coming in 2002.

SISTER SISTER

Madison Layden - Feb. 7, 2002 McKenna Layden - Jan. 11, 2005

Age Gap - 1,069 days or 2 years, 11 months, 4 days

Parents - Kathie & Jeff Layden Hometown - Kokomo, Ind.

- Madison and McKenna Layden are back together for the first time since Madison's senior year of high school in 2020, when the duo guided Northwestern to the 4A IHSAA State Championship game.
- Their mother Kathie was the head coach of the basketball team assisted by their father Jeff. The Laydens won back-to-back state titles in 2018 and 2019.
- The tandem played basketball, volleyball and tennis together throughout their high school careers.
- Kathie won five Indiana State championships as a head coach, the most by a non-private school head coach, during her career that she retired from in 2023 after 23 seasons.
- Madison claimed a trio of sectional titles and back-to-back 3A state titles, before McKenna joined the high school ranks.
- McKenna owns the Northwestern High School record for points in a game with 47 off nine 3-pointers during her senior year.
- The Laydens were honored in a Hamburger Helper commercial when McKenna and Madison were children.

Caitlyn Harper - Feb. 12, 2000 Alaina Harper - Dec. 4, 2003 Age Gan - 1 391 days or 3 years 9 month

Age Gap - 1,391 days or 3 years, 9 months, 22 days

Parents - Dale & Rhonda Haprer Hometown - Heartland, Wis.

- Due to the long age gap, Caitlyn and Alaina Harper will play on the same team for the first time in their lives.
- After Caitlyn had a standout career at Arrowhead High School, Alaina followed suit wearing the same No. 34 her sister wore.
- Prior to transferring to Purdue ahead of the 2022-23 season, Caitlyn was an all-conference player at Arrowhead before earning WAC Player of the Year honors at Cal Baptist.
- Alaina spent her freshman campaign at Grand Canyon following an all-conference career at Arrowhead.
- Their father Dale played collegiately at Bemidji State.
- Strong academics have always played a major role in their lives. Caitlyn was a 2022 CoSIDA All-American and earned a 3.9 GPA at Arrowhead. Alaina bettered that with a perfect 4.0 GPA in high school.

Mila Reynolds - July 1, 2003 Amiyah Reynolds - June 25, 2004 Age Gap - 360 days or 11 months, 24 days Parents - Steve & Marcy Reynolds Hometown - South Bend, Ind.

- After an impressive three years together at South Bend Washington, Mila and Amiyah Reynolds are reunited on the same roster after a year hiatus.
- Combined, the duo won the 2022 Class 3A State Championship and posted a 68-17 record together over three years.
- Mila finished her career with a 78-30 mark and amassed 2,099 career points, second in program history to Skylar Diggins-Smith.
- Amiyah was the No. 43 player in the nation and the second highest Big Ten signee in the class of 2023, per ESPN. She finished her career ranked second in assists with 564 and in the top 10 in points. Reynolds' senior season came to an abrupt ending due to an foot/ankle injury that will rule her out of the 2023-24 season.
- The unofficial third sister of the group is fellow South Bend Washington Panther Rashunda Jones who created an unstoppable backcourt with Amiyah. The duo went 95-18 over their four years on the court.
- Rashunda finished as the runner up for the 2023 Indiana Miss Basketball.
- Their father Steve was the head coach of South Bend Washington assisted by their mother Marcy, both of whom played professionally overseas.
- Mila and Amiyah are two of the seven Reynolds children.
- The Reynolds and Rashunda Jones have played together since grade school after attending church together as children.

GEARLDS' TIMELINE

2021-Present

KATIE GEARLDS

HEAD COACH | 3RD SEASON AT PURDUE | 11TH SEASON OVERALL | PURDUE '07

AN IMPACT BACK IN WEST LAFAYETTE

- In two seasons back at her alma mater, Katie Gearlds has guided the Boilermakers back to the postseason twice.
- After posting a 19-win campaign in 2022-23, Gearlds joined the elite company of Carolyn Peck and Lin Dunn as the only Boilermaker head coaches to post win improvements in each of their first two campaigns.
- The Boilermakers made their return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017 with a bid to the First Four last year.
- Prior to her arrival, Purdue had dropped its last 19 games against a ranked opponent. In two seasons, Gearlds has racked up three, including the program's first AP top-5 win in a true road game against No. 2 Ohio State in 2022-23.
- Katie Gearlds reached the 250-win plateau for her career against Harvard, reaching the feat in 315 career games.

HITTING THE RECRUITING TRAIL

- The 2023-24 freshmen made up Gearlds' first true recruiting class through an entire cycle.
- Landing five signees in November of 2022, the 2023 class ranked No. 21 in the nation, before Gearlds welcomed in top-50 player Amiyah Reynolds to the program the following May.
- A former Indiana Miss Basketball, Gearlds has placed a major emphasis on recruiting and ensuring the best talent in the state comes to Purdue.
- Gearlds has also found success in the transfer portal with Jeanae Terry and Abbey Ellis garnering All-Big Ten nods, while Lasha Petree and Caitlyn Harper powered the offense in 2022-23.

THE JOB SO FAR

- Gearlds guided the Boilermakers on another step forward in 2022-23, making the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017.
- After having a full offseason to prepare, the Boilermakers went 19-11 and tallied a pair of ranked wins over No. 22 Illinois and No. 2 Ohio State.
- The Katie Gearlds era started sooner than expected in 2021-22, when she took over the program a mere 47 days prior to the season opener.
- Purdue finished 17-15 on the year, winning 10 more games than the previous campaign. It was the best win improvement by firstyear head coach at Purdue and the third best in program history.
- The Boilermakers finished 10-2 in the non-conference, marking the second-best clip by a first-year head coach.
- The Boilermakers reached the postseason for the first time since 2017-18, ending the campaign in the second round of the WNIT.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

- Spent eight seasons taking Marian University winning back-to-back NAIA National Championships in 2016 and 2017.
- Went 228-50 record, an 82% clip with the Knights.
- Three-time NAIA National Coach of the Year, won 10 total Crossroads League titles and made seven appearances in the NAIA Tournament.
- Guided 12 WBCA NAIA All-America selections, compared to just five in the first 37 years of the program's existence.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

- Played professionally over six seasons
- Spent three seasons in the WNBA with the Seattle Storm,
- Was taken with the seventh overall pick in the 2007 WNBA Draft, the highest selection ever from Purdue
- Two of her closest teammates and friends over the years are WNBA legend Sue Bird and fellow WNBA great and New Orleans Pelicans Vice President of Basketball Operations Swin Cash.
- Gearlds is the highest draft pick in Purdue history, going seventh overall to the Seattle Storm in 2007.

ALL-AMERICAN AT PURDUE CAREER

- Was a three-year starter from 2004-07.
- Ranks fourth in program history with 1,974 points and was the ninth fastest to join the 1,000-point club.

- Named a Legend of Mackey Arena for the 50th season.
- Won two Big Ten Tournament titles and never missed the NCAA Tournament with Gearlds in the squad
- · Reached three Sweet 16s and one Elite Eight.
- Set the Purdue single-game record with 41 points at Wisconsin on Feb. 18, 2007, and scored 707 points to tie the single-season program record.
- 2007 Third Team AP All-America WBCA Honorable Mention
- · Four-time All-Big Ten and the 2004 Big Ten Freshman of the Year.
- Earned a bachelor's degree in sociology and minored in psychology and communications form Purdue in 2007.

ONE-OF-A-KIND PREP CAREER

- Named the Indiana Miss Basketball in 2003.
- Amassed 2,521 career points, good for sixth in IHSAA history.
- Averaged 30.1 points, 9.4 rebounds, 5.4 assists and 5.1 steals per game to lead Beach Grove High School to the 2003 Class 3A State Championship.
- Nike/WBCA All-America, First Team All-State and the Gatorade Indiana Player of the Year.
- A McDonald's All-American, was named the MVP of the McDonald's All-America Game the same season as a young talent from Akron, Ohio - LeBron James.

INSPIRED BY GREATNESS

- Gearlds has a deep bench of basketball legends who have touched and continue to influence her career.
- One of the few people who can say they've worked with two G.O.A.T.s, Gearlds was the MVP of the 2003 McDonald's All-America Game with LeBron James
- Sue Bird, her teammate with the Storm and a mentor over the last 15 years, inspired Gearlds to go into coaching.
- She also shared the court in Seattle with Swin Cash (V.P. New Orleans Pelicans), Adia Barnes (Arizona head coach) and Lauren Jackson (owner Melbourne Boomers).
- She competed against Chris Paul in the skills challenge ahead of the 2003 McDonald's All-America Game.

AN INDIANA LEGEND

- One of the best products of Indiana basketball, Gearlds claimed a state title, a Big Ten championship and a national title with programs from the Crossroads State.
- Named Indiana Miss Basketball as a senior at Beech Grove in 2003, Gearlds guided the Hornets to a 3A state championship, setting a state record across all classes with 33 points in the final. Today, she ranks 11th in state history with 2,521 career points.
- As a Boilermaker from 2003-07, Gearlds reached the NCAA Tournament four times, won two Big Ten Tournament titles, sits fourth in Purdue history with 1,974 career points and holds the record for points in a season with 707 with Stephanie White.
- Following a six-year professional career, Gearlds took over the reins at Marian in Indianapolis, posting a 227-49 record over eight years, winning three NAIA Coach of the Year honors and claiming two national championships.
