MATCH POINTS

- The Wisconsin wrestling team (3-5 overall, 1-5 Big Ten) has a loaded weekend ahead, traveling to Purdue on Friday night for a 5 p.m. brawl before returning home to host Michigan on Sunday at noon.
- Wisconsin wrestling senior captains Isaac Jordan and Connor Medbery continued their winning ways on Friday night in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, both tallying wins against tough Iowa opponents.
- Sunday's dual against Michigan will serve as the first alumni dual, where all Wisconsin wrestling alumni is invited back and will be recognized during the dual.
- Both Friday and Sunday's duals will be streamed live on BTN Plus and live statistics will be available on UWBadgers.com. Fans and media can find live updates on Twitter (@BadgerWrestling).
- Wisconsin is returning back to its regular lineup as Johnny Jimenez, TJ Ruschell and Ricky Robertson rejoin the starters in their respective weight classes.
- Andrew Crone leads UW with 29 takedowns on the season, while redshirt Evan Wick leads the unattached Badgers with 60 takedowns.
- Evan Wick was named the No. 4 redshirt in the country by The Open Mat. He has compiled a 16-3 record with 15 bonus-point wins.

Senior TJ Ruschell pulled off the biggest upset of his Senior Connor Medbery has the fourth-most technical falls of any wrestler in the NCAA. Medbery has eight tech falls total this season and seven against DI opponents, including in two conference action.

10

The NCAA released the first of four coaches' panel rankings for the season and it featured all 10 of Wisconsin's starters in the top 25 of their respective weight class, including two in the top 10.

100

Isaac Jordan earned the 100th win of his career with a decision in the Ohio State victory last weekend. Connor Medbery is one away from hitting the 100-mark in his career.

ARENA INFORMATION

Name:	UW Field House
Capacity:	6,012

- The Badgers have struggled in their last two duals dropping both by double digits and allowing opponents to score 33 since dropping a tight 18-15 contest to Minnesota three weekends ago.
- TJ Ruschell was featured as one of the Big Ten Network's top matches of the week after upsetting the first top-10 opponent of his career in his thrilling 5-3 decision over No. 9 Jake Short of Minnesota.
- Junior Andrew Crone got back on track, clinching his first two conference wins of the season over Nebraska's Collin Purinton (10-7) and Minnesota's Carson Brolsma (13-3).
- After Isaac Jordan just hit the milestone the last time UW was in the Field House, another Badger is on the brink of hitting the 100-win mark in his career. Connor Medbery is sitting at 99 wins and has the potential to clinch his 100th career win in front of a home crowd on Friday night.
- The OSU dual began in a familiar place, starting at 165 pounds with the Buckeyes for the second year in a row. But this time it was a little different and a bit of a relief, as senior Isaac Jordan did not have to wrestle his Buckeye cousin, Bo, for the first time in two years. Bo moved up to the 174-pound weight class, pairing Isaac with fellow Ohio native Cody Burcher.
- Jordan took the win, 4-1, but it wasn't just any ordinary win. It was the 100th of his successful career.
- He wasn't the only one who showed he was on the rise against the Buckeyes. The dual ended in dramatic fashion with a rematch between TJ Ruschell, brother of UW assistant coach Kyle Ruschell, and Jake Ryan, the son of OSU head coach Tom Ryan. Ryan pinned Ruschell in their last meeting, but Ruschell came back with a vengeance Friday, taking down Ryan with an exciting 6-2 decision.
- One of the Badgers' most riveting revelations of the night was the return of Johnny Jimenez after initially being redshirted. And the return did not disappoint as Jimenez upset No. 9 Jose Rodriguez with a 14-2 major decision.
- A total of six Badgers earned spots at the podium at the 54th-annual Midlands Championships. The Badgers finished in seventh place with 70.5 points.
- True freshman Evan Wick and junior Ricky Robertson had the highest placings for the Badgers, finishing in fourth place at 157 and 197 pounds, respectively. Senior Connor Medbery (heavyweight), Wisconsin's only semifinalist was forced to forfeit both of his matches due to illness and finished in sixth place. Cole Martin was

ALL-TIME VS. PURDUE

Wisconsin leads 45-13-2 in the all-time series with Purdue. UW snapped a three-match losing streak to the Boilermakers in 2015. Wisconsin has won the last eight of 11 duals.

LAST MEETING: UW 22, PU 13

Jan. 11, 2015 | UW FIELDHOUSE

► The No. 20 Badgers used quick shots and fast paced offensive movements to claim a 22-13 victory over Purdue on Sunday afternoon in the UW Field House. Wisconsin is now 7-1 on the season and 5-0 in Big Ten Conference action.

► No. 3 Isaac Jordan met up with PU's Pat Robinson at 165 lbs. Jordan wasted no time getting started and easily took down Robinson in the first 15 seconds of the match. In the first period, he collected three more nearfall points and 2:44 riding time to lead 5-0.

► Jordan chose to start on bottom in the second period and swiftly escaped to give him a 6-0 advantage. He quickly followed by earning another takedown and three more nearfall points to end the second period ahead 11-0. One more takedown and three more back points sealed the deal for the All-American who walked away with a 16-0 triumph.

ALL-TIME VS. MICHIGAN

The Badgers trail the all-time series 23-27-1 with the Michigan Wolverines. UW has come away with the win in four of its last 10 matchups with Michigan.

LAST MEETING: UM 24, UW 12

Jan. 23, 2015 | CLIFF KEEN ARENA

► The No. 17 Wisconsin wrestling team was upset on the road by Michigan on Friday night, 24-12.

► The Badgers (7-2 overall, 5-1 Big Ten conference) recorded three wins in the dual, but were handed their first conference dual loss of the season.

► Michigan began the dual with a hot start, winning four of the first five matches. Matt Cavallaris was pinned (4:41) by Conor Youtsey in the first match of the evening at 125 lbs., giving Michigan an early 5-0 lead.

► No. 10 Ryan Taylor earned a 21-6 technical fall over Zebulon Hilyard at 133 lbs. Taylor scored six takedowns and eight back points to close the gap on Michigan, 6-5.

► Wisconsin finally saw some light when No. 3 Isaac Jordan stepped onto the mat. The sophomore won by major decision over No. 10 Taylor Massa, 9-0, which helped elevate Wisconsin to nine team points and brought UW to within 15-9 of Michigan.

also forced to forego his match in the consolation rounds due to illness in the second session.

- Ryan Christensen (174 pounds) blanked Josef Johnson of Harvard 6-0. He clinched sixth place after dropping a 9-2 decision to Indiana's Devin Skatzka. 125-pounder Johnny Jimenez took seventh after defeating Oklahoma's Christian Moody with a 12-9 decision in the seventh-place match. Eli Stickley, UW's 133-pounder, finished the tournament in eighth place.
- Five Badgers have five-or-more pins this season. Senior Isaac Jordan leads Wisconsin with six falls, while Connor Medbery, Mason Reinhardt, Eli Stickley and Ben Stone have tallied five.
- Wisconsin has recorded at least two bonus-point wins in four of its six duals. Ricky Robertson has had a bonus-point win in three duals this season.

STRAIGHT FROM THE MAT

- TOP OF THE LINE: Both Connor Medbery and Isaac Jordan have compiled 18 wins on the seasons.
- STICK IT TO 'EM: Wisconsin freshman Eli Stickley has recorded the most matches so far this season against other competitors with 31.
- BACK-TO-BACK: Wisconsin ended the first half of its season in the best possible way, picking up back-to-back dual wins over Indiana and Northern Iowa for the Badgers' first Big Ten win of the season and first home victory of the year.
- TRICKY RICKY: Junior Ricky Robertson started the season with his best-ever opening record, with a 20-7 start.
- MAKE IT TWO: Connor Medbery defeated three top-five opponents within one week, earning him two consecutive Big Ten Conference Wrestler of the Week honors. The conference announced Medbery won the award in two consecutive weeks on Tuesday, making him the first Badger to win the award in back-to-back weeks. It is also just the second time in program history that Wisconsin has had weekly Big Ten honors two weeks in a row. The first time was in 2008 when Zach Tanelli and Kyle Massey garnered the accolade. Having already accumulated two Big Ten weekly honors in a single season, UW ties for second in program records for the most weekly praises in a season.
- PINNED YA AGAIN: Isaac Jordan has the most pins of any starter with six falls and the fastest fall in 0:38. Cole Martin has the second-most pins of any Badger this season with five falls. His fastest fall was 0:41 and he is averaging pins in 4:40.
- ALL GOOD THINGS HAPPEN IN 3: UW has recorded at least three bonus-point wins in each of its three dual wins. Ricky Robertson has had a bonus-point win in every dual win of his so far this season.

- WINNING THE WOLFPACK: Ryan Christensen, Andrew Crone and Isaac Jordan each earned first-place finishes to lead the 17 members of the 11th-ranked Wisconsin wrestling team to a third-place team finish in the Wolfpack Open
- In the 174-pound bracket, Christensen was a force to be reckoned with as he collected a 14-0 major decision, 3-0 decision and 15-0 technical fall to secure his spot in the semifinals. Christensen then recorded a 3-0 decision over North Carolina State's Nick Reenan, but it was his championship match against Duke's Connor Bass that showed off Christensen's impressive endurance. In a rematch from Friday's dual against Duke, Christensen came away with the victory yet again after winning the tie-breaker.
- Three decisions and one pin at 3:36 propelled 149-pounder Crone to the semifinal. Up against Sam Speno of North Carolina State, a thrilling sudden victory decision gave Crone the 7-5 win

LAST TIME OUT

#3 IOWA 33, #18 WISCONSIN 8

Feb. 3, 2017 | Iowa City

► Wisconsin wrestling senior captains Isaac Jordan and Connor Medbery continued their winning ways on Friday night in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, both tallying wins against tough Iowa opponents.

► The No. 3 Hawkeyes (9-2 overall, 5-1 Big Ten) recorded five bonus-point wins and three decisions to rout the Badgers (3-5, 1-5) 33-8.

► Second-ranked Medbery was the first Badger to clinch a victory and he did so in dominant fashion over Brantley Farran at heavyweight. He jumped out to a quick start in the first period, tallying two takedowns and two nearfall for a 6-1 advantage headed into the second. It took him just seconds to notch another takedown at the start of the second and grabbed a pair of two nearfall points at the end to take a 13-1 lead into the final period. He finished it off within the first minute of the third period with a final four nearfall points to grasp the 18-1 technical fall.

► Third-ranked Jordan (165) won the only other bout of the night for the Badgers in an exciting sudden victory match. After a scoreless first period, Jordan's opponent Joseph Gunther slipped out of his tight grasp after one minute in the second to take a 1-0 lead. Jordan followed suit 20 seconds into the third period and escaped, tying the bout at 1-1. The score would remain knotted forcing the two into sudden victory where Jordan came out on top, taking Gunther down with a single-leg shot.

► At 197, Mason Reinhardt battled Cash Wilcke tough in his first-ever dual start. The two went scoreless through the first period but Wilcke took a 1-0 lead in the second with an escape. Reinhardt held him to that until one minute into the final period when Wilcke took him down. Reinhardt managed to escape less than 20 seconds later but couldn't jumpstart on offense and dropped the tight 3-1 decision.

► Both Andrew Crone (149) and Eli Stickley (133) lost tight decisions to their Hawkeye foes. Stickley fell by a 6-2 decision to Phillip Laux. Crone hung tough with fourth-ranked Brandon Sorensen but eventually succumbed with a 9-5 decision.

184: Samuel Brooks (Iowa) over Hunter Ritter (Wisconsin) (Fall 4:54)

197: Cash Wilcke (Iowa) over Mason Reinhardt (Wisconsin) (Dec. 3-1)

HWT: Connor Medbery (Wisconsin) over Brantley Farran (Iowa) (TF 18-1, 5:35)

and spot in the championship match. A 5-0 decision over Air Force's Gerald McGinty sealed Crone's second tournament title of the season.

- 165-pounder and second-ranked Jordan recorded three-straight pins in just 1:06, 0:56 and 1:05 to cruise to the title. In the semifinals, Jordan earned an 8-1 decision over Alex Lopouchansck of Air Force before securing a 14-5 major decision victory against Gardner-Webb's Tyler Marinelli to take home the title. He collected the second-most falls in the tournament with his three falls in 3:07. Jordan also had the most team points of any wrestler in the tournament with a total of 25 points.

- POINT TAKEN: Isaac Jordan had the most points of any wrestler at the Wolfpack Open with 25 total points in the tournament. He was followed close behind by teammate Ryan Christensen who had 22.5 points and Ricky Robertson who had 19.5. Both Andrew Crone and Connor Medbery had 19.0 points.

Barry Davis begins his 23rd season officially at the helm of the Wisconsin wrestling program, but enters his 24th season as part of the Wisconsin wrestling program after serving as interim head coach during the 1993-94 season. Davis has an overall dual record of 220-162-11.

In the 2016 season, Davis coached junior Isaac Jordan to clinch his third All-America honor, second Big Ten championship and an NCAA runner-up finish at 165 pounds.

The 2015 season saw Davis help sophomore Isaac Jordan earn his first Big Ten championship and second All-America honor. Davis also helped sophomore Ryan Taylor and junior Connor Medbery to claim their first All-America honors. Under Davis, three of the seven NCAA qualifiers clinched All-American status, tying for the fifth-most All-America honors in a single season and the most for the program since 2011.

In his 20th season at the pinnacle of the program, Davis' squad received multiple All-America honors for the first time since 2011. Senior Tyler Graff (133) became the program's fourth four-time All-American after a second-place finish at the NCAA championships. Freshman Isaac Jordan (157) earned an All-America honor after seventh-place finish, becoming the fourth member of his family to acquire the accolade while wrestling at Wisconsin.

The 2013 season saw Davis help Tyler Graff earn the third, and highest, All-America honor of his career, placing third at 133 lbs. Under Davis, Graff became the ninth three-time All-American in Wisconsin history. Davis also helped Jackson Hein and Connor Medbery qualify for their first NCAA championships appearances.

Davis led the Badgers to their third-straight top 10 finish at the NCAA Division I Championships in 2011, and coached four of the seven wrestlers who qualified to All-America honors.

In 2010, Davis won the biggest accolade of his coaching career when he was named the National Coach of the Year by the National Wrestling Coaches Association. Davis helped Wisconsin to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, tying for best finish in school history and best under his reign. In addition, he helped aid then-sophomore Andrew Howe to his first NCAA Division I title at 165 lbs. and a perfect 37-0 overall record.

His Badgers finished the 2008-09 dual season with a 9-8-0 overall mark and 3-5 mark in the Big Ten. The 2008-09 season marked the 11th time (and 10th-consecutive year) Davis's teams have won at least nine duals. More impressive, Davis's 2008-09 squad finished ninth at the NCAA championships, tying for the best finish in his 15-year tenure. Five wrestlers qualified for the 2009 NCAA Championships and Wisconsin brought home three All-Americans including runner-up at 165 lbs., Andrew Howe, Kyle Ruschell (3rd at 149 lbs.) and Zach Tanelli (4th at 141 lbs.).

Davis reached a milestone during the 2007-08 season by recording his 150th career win with an 18-15 victory over Oklahoma on Feb. 21, 2008. This made him just the second UW coach to do so, joining George Martin who coached for 32 years and finished 182-163-12.

Davis was installed as the 15th head coach in Wisconsin history on March 4, 1994, after serving as the program's interim head coach for the 1993-94 season.

During his tenure, Davis has coached seven individuals to 11 Big Ten titles, including the latest, Andrew Howe, who captured the 165 lbs. title as a true freshman in 2009. Howe is the only true freshman during Davis's tenure to win a Big Ten title. Davis also coached Donny Pritzlaff (165 pounds, 1999, 2000, '01), Keith Davison (190 pounds, 1994), Matt Hanutke (118 pounds, 1994), Eric Jetton (126 pounds, 1997, '98) and Kevin Wilmot (167 pounds, 1997) Tom Clum (125 pounds in 2004 and 133 pounds in 2006) to conference championships.

Additionally, 21 of Davis' wrestlers have earned All-America honors while two have claimed NCAA titles. Pritzlaff won back-to-back national championships in 2000 and 2001 and Jeff Walter won the 1996 heavyweight title. Sixty-two wrestlers have qualified for the NCAA championships under Davis' direction, including current Badgers Tyler Graff, Jackson Hein, Connor Medbery and Cole Tobin.

CHAMPIONSHIP MENTALITY

As a collegian at the University of Iowa, Davis was the winningest wrestler at the winningest program at the university level. Davis graduated in 1985 with a career record of 162-

9-1 (.945). He still holds school records for wins in a season (46 in 1982) and career wins (162) and is fourth in career-winning percentage. For his accomplishments, Davis was inducted into the National Iowa Varsity Club Athletic Hall of Fame in September of 1998.

Davis competed at 118 pounds in 1981-82, at 126 pounds in both the 1982-83 and 1984-85 seasons, and was a red-shirt during the 1983-84 season to compete in the Olympics. He dominated the Big Ten, becoming one of only nine wrestlers in history to win four league titles.

The Iowa teams on which he competed were equally dominant, winning Big Ten championships in each of Davis' four years. The 1983 Iowa team had an unprecedented nine Big Ten titlists. After his senior season, Davis was honored as the Big Ten's Athlete of the Year, one of only two wrestlers to win the prestigious award.

On the national level, Davis was a four-time All-American and a three-time NCAA champion. After placing seventh as a freshman, Davis won national titles in 1982, 1983 and 1985. Iowa won NCAA team titles all four years that Davis competed. Following the 1985 NCAA Championships, Davis was named Outstanding Wrestler of the Tournament.

THE NEXT LEVEL

Taking a year off from collegiate competition paid off for the senior-to-be when he earned a silver medal (125.5 pounds) at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Davis was also a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic team that competed in Seoul, South Korea. He attempted to make his third Olympic team in 1992, but was eliminated at the U.S. Trials. Davis was also runner-up at the 1987 World Championships after winning the Olympic Sports Festival.

COACH DAVIS' BEGINNING

A 1985 graduate of the University of Iowa, Davis began his coaching career as a graduate assistant to legendary head coach Dan Gable from 1986-87. Davis was an assistant coach at Iowa from 1988-92, helping guide the Hawkeyes to four top-six finishes, including NCAA championships in 1991 and 1992. He coached former UW assistant coach Bart Chelesvig from 1987-92.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"I would like to commend Barry Davis for his relentless pursuit of serving, promoting, and protecting the sport of amateur wrestling. He has been extremely supportive of many National Wrestling Coaches Association initiatives that have positioned amateur wrestling to thrive in this new Millennium."

-Mike Moyer, National Wrestling Coaches Association

"What I like about Barry is he has a quiet intensity. I've never met anyone that appears to have as much energy as him. I believe Barry Davis and Wisconsin can win a national championship together."

-Pat Christenson, former UW NCAA champion
