ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY

Purdue and Texas A&M have played eachother four times in their histories, each taking one win apiece. In the first matchup, and in the latest, the Boilermakers took the win, both in neutral site matchups. When it comes to the Aggies playing in College Station, they took both home wins in 2013 on back-to-back days. The matchup in February will mark the fifth ever game, and the third in College Station as the Boilers look for their first away victory.

2025 GAMES RECAP

The Aggies struck first, coming in the bottom of the first inning, scoring three runs on three hits. In the bottom of the second inning, Klochack came to the mound to relieve the starter, Bailey, but not before the Aggies added on two more. Freshman Camper then made her debut on the mound and finished out the inning, earning a fly out and her first collegiate strikeout. In the bottom of the third, the Aggies increased the lead to a commanding 10-0, but the Boilers fought back in the top of the fourth. Polar began the offense with the first Purdue hit of the game, a triple to left field, before a sac-fly from Alivia Meeks scored her from third. Julia Gossett added another single before closing out the fourth. Delaney Reefe earned her first hit as a Boilermaker in the top of the fifth, with an infield single to third. A fielder's choice from Kylie Franks exchanged runners, before a double to right field from Jordyn Ramos added another run to the board. Yet, Texas A&M was able to earn the final out to close out the game 10-2.
In the second game, the Aggies won 11-0.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY

Purdue and Villanova have met four times in program history, with the Boilermakers going 4-0. The first meeting was 21 years ago, back in 2004, while the most recent meeting was in 2008. The Wildcats and the Boilermakers have only ever played at neutral sites, which three of the locations being Clearwater, Fla. The largest margin of victory was 9 runs, when Purdue won 13-4 on March 10, 2006.

2025 GAME RECAP

After three scoreless innings of work for Gossett, including five strikeouts, the Boilermakers broke through in the bottom of the third, scoring three runs. Singles from Banks and an error from Villanova put two runners aboard. Alivia Meeks came up clutch for Purdue, with a timely three-run home run, the first of her career. Gossett and the Boilermakers cruised through two more scoreless innings, until Villanova added two singles in the sixth, which broke up the perfect game for Gossett. The Wildcats eventually plated four runs in the inning, due to a grand slam after a Purdue pitching change. Purdue answered back in a big way in the bottom of the inning. Back-to-back-to-back singles from Jordyn Ramos, Banks, and Polar plated the tying run, before a double from Gossett scored two more. On a combination of a single from Ryen Ross and an error from Villanova, the Boilers plated the seventh run. Villanova scored one in the top of the seventh, but the Boilers hung on to earn their first victory of the year, with Kendall Klochack earning the win on the mound.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY

The Boilermakers and the Bears have met seven times in their histories, with Baylor taking the commanding 6-1 lead. Their first meeting was in 2000, which was merely months before the hiring of long-time Baylor head coach, Glen Moore in June 2000. The Boilers and Bears have never met in West Lafayette, with four games at home in Waco, and three neutral site matchups.

2025 GAME RECAP

After a scoreless first inning on both sides, the Boilermakers got on the board first, beginning with a triple from Ramos. Sage Scarmardo put Purdue on top with a sacrifice fly to deep left field.
In the bottom of the second inning, the Bears fought back, hitting a solo shot to even the game at one apiece, before adding on five runs to take the 6-1 lead. Camper came in the bottom of the second, to relieve the starter, Elish, and finished out the game scoreless, but the Boilers were unable to make up the early deficit.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY
The meeting of Abilene Christian and Purdue in February will mark the first-ever meeting between the two programs. Second-year head coach, Maggie Frezzotti, will face off against first-year head coach, Jo Koons.

2025 SERIES RECAP
Purdue stepped on the gas in the bottom of the first, and continued to steadily score throughout the game. Banks led off the game with a triple, followed by a walk from Polar, which put two in scoring position, for a single from Bailey that scored both. Ramos then added onto the lead with a double to right field, which brought in Bailey. Ramos helped her cause with a steal of third, before she was knocked in by Sage Scarmardo, which extended the lead to four after the first. After three quick outs from Elish on the mound in the second, the Boilermakers got back to work, plating two runs in the inning. A walk from Banks and a single from Polar, once again had two runners in scoring position, before a sac-fly in foul territory from Bailey scored Banks on the tag. When Ramos reached on a fielding error by ACU, Polar came across to bring the lead out to 6-0 after two innings. In the third, Elish earned three straight groundouts to bring Purdue back to the plate. Kylie Franks led off the inning with a double to left field, before Ashlyn Campbell reached on an error, moving Franks to third. Polar added two RBI to her day with a single to score both runners. Bailey's second hit of the day was a single to right, which brought Polar around. Bailey made her way back home on another error from ACU, while Ramos added one more to the tally with a single down the third base line.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY
The meeting in February marks the 6th meeting between the two programs, as the Boilers are looking to tie up the series 3-3. Purdue won the latest battle in 2013, defeating Utah State 2-1. In the 2004 victory, Purdue pitcher Diana LaRiva tossed a 4-0 no-hitter in seven innings of work.

2025 SERIES RECAP
The Aggies got on the board first, scoring two in the first inning, after a double and a triple. Camper then worked a fly out before Kendall Klochack took the mound for the Boilers.
In the top of the third inning, Delaney Reefe reached on an error before back-to-back bunt singles from Kylie Franks and Ashlynn Campbell. The bases were then loaded for Khloe Banks, who knocked in a run on a fielder's choice. With some smart base running, Banks stole second while pinch runner Maura Condon scored to tie the game at two. Moriah Polar then singled to right field, scoring Banks from second. Klochack continued to shine for Purdue, tossing 4.2 scoreless innings, retiring all 13 batters she faced. In the bottom of the seventh, Julia Gossett came to the mound for the Boilers, but after a double and a triple, Utah State tied the game up at three apiece. In the top of the eighth, the Boilers went down in order. In the bottom of the inning, Utah State loaded the bases and walked it off with an eventual single.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY
The Boilermakers have faced Louisville ten times, taking only two victories. The most recent victory was back in 2009 in Louisville, Kentucky. The Boilermakers are looking for their first win in over 16 years.

2025 GAME RECAP
The Boilermakers started the game hot, scoring three runs in the first. Polar got aboard for the Boilers on a bunt single, and plated the first run on a double from Julia Gossett. Sage Scarmardo followed up Gossett's double with a single of her own, before Jordyn Ramos brought both around on a two-RBI single. Elish threw a scoreless frame in the bottom of the first, but Louisville scored one run in the bottom of the second, and one run in the third to make it 3-2. In the fourth, Purdue tacked on four runs beginning with back-to-back singles from Delaney Reefe and Aslynn Campbell. A walk to Khloe Banks loaded the bases before Polar drove in two with a single to right center. Kyndall Bailey added one to the lead on a fielder's choice before Polar scored on a passed ball to increase the lead to 7-2. In the top of the seventh, the Boilers continued the run support after a walk from Ramos, who eventually came around to score on a passed ball. The Boilers scored their final run of the day on a bunt single from Polar. In the bottom of the inning, the Cardinals plated one more run and made some noise, but Purdue was able to close out the inning with the six-run win. Elish went the distance for the Boilers going seven full, and surrendering just one earned run.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY
Purdue and Belmont have played in two games, where the Boilermakers took both victories. In the first meeting, Purdue pitchers Sheryl Scheve and Jaime Martino combined for a non-traditional no hitter. The Boilermakers also had 18 hits inthe game, which was a school record.

2025 GAME RECAP
Purdue and Belmont battled out a pitcher's duel for six innings before the Boilermakers fell in the eighth inning. In the first inning, both teams earned a single, before both also hit into a double play.The second inning was quiet on both sides, with each team going down in order. Elish surrendered a double in the third inning, but quickly worked out of the jam. In the bottom of the inning, Ashlynn Campbell singled to centerfield, but the Boilers failed to bring her around. The fourth and fifth innings did not see action on either side, while Belmont earned a lone single in the sixth, but couldn't keep the momentum going. In the top of the seventh, a Belmont infield single, turned into a runner at second due to an error, which brought Kendall Klochack to relieve Elish on the mound. Klochack worked out of the inning with back-to-back fly outs. The eighth inning began with a runner placed on base due to the international tie breaker rule. Two hits from Belmont turned into two runs to plate the first in the game. In the last effort for the Boilers, they were unable to get the spark going and fell 2-0.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY

The meeting in Birmingham will represent the first time that these two teams will meet in their histories. UAB also boasts a second-year head coach beside the Boilermakers.

2025 GAME RECAP

Both Purdue and UAB had both gone down quickly in the first inning, with just one single between the two. In the top of the second, Purdue got on the board first after singles from Gossett, Reefe, and an RBI single from Kylie Franks to take the 1-0 lead. UAB quickly evened the gap in the bottom of the inning on a solo shot to left center. The Boilers took the lead back in the top of the third after back-to-back bunt singles from Polar and K. Bailey. Sage Scarmardo earned an RBI in the game on an infield single and Reefe picked up her first RBI in the game on a bases-loaded walk. The bottom of the third saw a pitching change for the Boilers, bringing Kadyn Camper to the mound. The Blazers made the adjustment, plating two runs in the inning. Purdue responded in the top of the fifth, as Jordyn Ramos sent out a solo shot, the first of the year and the second of her career. The back-and-forth battle continued in the fifth as UAB tied up the game again on three hits. The sixth and seventh saw zeroes for both teams as Elish made her second relief appearance of the day which allowed Purdue to continue on to extra innings. Purdue broke the game open in the top of the eighth, plating five runs on four hits. Banks was the first on base, with a bunt single before a double to center from Polar put runners on first and third. The Birmingham native, K. Bailey then came up clutch, with an RBI single to score Banks. A play later, Polar scored on a wild pitch to put Purdue ahead by two. A walk and a hit by pitch then loaded the bases for Reefe who cleared them with a double to the left field wall which sealed the deal.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY

This will be the first time the Boilermakers face USI, and it will take place at neutral site, UAB.

2025 GAME RECAP

Khloe Banks started off the game with a bang for the Boilers with a triple to the left center gap. On the next play, Moriah Polar scored Banks from third on a bunt single. Later in the inning, Julia Gossett reached on a throwing error, which earned another run and put Purdue out to a 3-0 lead after the first. In the second and third innings, both teams worked scoreless frames. Gossett worked out of a jam in the second, before taking down USI in order in the third. In the fourth, the Boilers added on two more runs. Alivia Meeks led off the inning with a walk, before Ashlynn Campbell worked her way on base, reaching on an error from USI. Banks then singled up the middle to score Meeks. Banks came around to score on an RBI ground out from Kyndall Bailey to close out the top of the fourth with a five-run lead. As Gossett continued to work in the circle, the Boilers continued to work at the plate. In the top of the fifth, Jordyn Ramos walked, before a single from Gossett had two runners on base. Ramos stole third on USI, and scored on the next play. The Purdue pinch runner for Gossett, Maura Condon, attempted to steal second which drew the throw to the bag, allowing for Ramos to score and put the Boilers up 6-0. Meeks added fuel to the fire, hitting her third home run of the year with a solo shot, which brought Purdue ahead to a seven-run lead. Purdue continued to add to its lead in the top of the seventh, combining for five runs on five hits. Polar led off the inning with a single, before back-to-back walks loaded the bases for the Boilermakers. A bloop single to second base from Ramos scored Polar, before a wild pitch brought around K. Bailey. Gossett earned her fourth RBI on the day after singling to score both Ramos and pinch-hitter Kylie Franks who walked earlier in the inning. A foul out from Campbell allowed Gossett to tag and score the final run of the inning.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY

Samford and Purdue have faced one another three times before. In the two wins for the Boilermakers, they both came by way of shutout. The sole win for Samford was a 6-3 victory at neutral site, Auburn, Ala.

2025 GAME RECAP

The first two innings brought scattered hits, but the Boilers did not get on the board until the top of the third. Moriah Polar led off the inning with a single up the middle, following the hit up with stealing second on the next play. On a single to center, Julia Gossett then drove in Polar. Delaney Reefe then doubled down the left field line to drive in Gossett. In the bottom of the third, Samford evened the score on three hits, but Purdue had an immediate answer. In the top of the fourth, Ashlynn Campbell walked, advancing to second on a wild pitch. A bunt single from Polar moved Campbell to third before Kyndall Bailey drove her in on a single to right field. Gossett continued to help her cause on both sides of the ball, doubling in the inning to score Bailey. Jordyn Ramos reached on a fielder's choice, which drove in the last run of the inning, bringing the Boilers out to a 6-2 lead.

Samford continued to fight in the bottom of the fourth. The Bulldogs began with a double, before plating two runs on a homer. With the score within two, Madi Elish came to the mound to relieve Gossett, working a strikeout and a ground out to close out the fourth. Purdue extended the lead to three runs in the top of the fifth beginning with Campbell infield single, who eventually scored on an RBI ground out from K. Bailey. Elish continued to make quick work of Samford, striking out the side in the sixth. This momentum carried into the offense as Purdue exploded for four runs in the top of the seventh. Polar and Gossett both earned their third hits of the day to start the seventh, before Ramos drove two runs to bring Purdue up 9-4. Reefe added on the exclamation with her second double of the day, which plated the final two runs of the game.

UCA and Purdue met a year ago, where the Boilermakers took the 4-3 victory. Prior to that meeting, the programs had not met in 12 years.

2025 GAME RECAP

Purdue scored early and often in the victory over UCA. The Boilers began the first inning with a walk from Khloe Banks, followed by a single from Moriah Polar. The next play, Banks scored on a wild pitch, which also advanced Polar to third. The Boilers put their second run on the board on an RBI groundout from Julia Gossett. In the second inning, Purdue added one more run on a solo shot to left field from Kylie Franks. The homer was the only hit in the inning, and it was the first of her career for Franks. The third inning saw a hit from Polar, followed by back-to-back walks to Kyndall Bailey, and Gossett, but a fielder's choice and a line out ended the threat for UCA. The fourth and fifth innings were quiet on both sides, before the Boilers added two more runs in the sixth. Alivia Meeks led off the inning with a single to right, and was then replaced by pinch runner, Maura Condon. Franks added a single, advancing Condon to second and putting two on for Purdue. A sacrifice-bunt from Ashlynn Campbell advanced both runners to scoring position, but a fielder's choice from Banks saw Condon get thrown out at home. Polar came up clutch on the next play, plating both Franks and Banks on a two-run double to left field, which secured the final runs of the game. On the mound, Kendall Klochack tossed five scoreless innings with two strikeouts to earn the win, while Madi Elish worked two scoreless innings to earn her first-career save.

In the last game between Saint Louis and Purdue, the game ended in the Boilermaker's favor, but with 23 total runs scored. All three matchups have been at neutral site territories, this will be the first time the teams play in West Lafayette.

2025 GAME RECAP

Julia Gossett started in the circle, tallying two strikeouts, but surrendered one run to the Billikens in the first inning. The Boilers tied it up after Banks stole home, following her triple to centerfield. Jordyn Ramos in centerfield caught a pop fly on the first play of the second inning, before Gossett threw back-to-back strikeouts to bring the Boilers to the plate. Ramos then doubled to left as the only hit of the inning but was thrown out in a rundown. The Boilermakers pulled ahead in the third with four runs on three hits. Moriah Polar started with a single to centerfield and stole second, then the Boilers capitalized on a dropped third strike, allowing Reefe to reach first and Polar advance to third. Gossett singled to left, allowing Polar to score. Ramos then earned an RBI, putting up another run for the Boilers. Meeks finished the Boilers' hitting streak with a double to center driving in two more runs for Purdue. After a scoreless fourth inning, the Billikens registered six runs on seven hits in the top of the fifth. Freshman Kadyn Camper took over the mound after the first out. The Boilermakers went down in order in the bottom of the inning, trailing two runs behind Saint Louis. Purdue held Saint Louis from scoring in the sixth inning but failed to score in the bottom of the inning. Senior Madi Elish took over the circle after another Billiken run in the middle of the seventh inning, finishing game one and allowing no hits or runs. The Boilermakers ultimately couldn't catch up in the bottom of the inning. Reefe and Condon were left on base as Purdue fell 8-5. In the second game against the Billikens, Purdue scored four runs scoring three runs in the fifth, and plating the fourth run in the sixth. The Boilers defeated Saint Louis 4-2.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY

Bradley and Purdue have faced-off 11 times, with the Braves leading the series 6-5. Purdue has won the last three matchups in 2019 & 2023, but are looking to even the longtime series in 2025.

2025 GAME RECAP

Game two of the tournament started with two innings of back-to-back outs on both sides. Elish registered two strikeouts, and Campbell threw out the lead runner to close the top of the third, holding the Braves to no runs. The Boilers made an impressive double play from Kylie Franks and Gossett in the top of the fourth inning. No runs were scored until Reefe hit a double to left field in the bottom of the fourth inning, allowing Kyndall Bailey to score. The Boilers added to their lead in the fifth inning with two runs scoring on a double from Polar. Purdue surrendered one run on three hits from the Braves in the top of the sixth inning, but it wasn't enough for Bradley to make up the deficit, with the Boilers taking the 3-1 victory. After two errors in the field in the first inning, the Boilermakers bounced back to score two runs on two hits from Banks and Gossett when they took the plate. Purdue held Bradley to nothing in the second inning and had another big inning at the switch. Meeks led off with a hard hit up the middle but went out on third base on a grounder to shortstop by K. Bailey. Franks and Ashlynn Campbell scored when Polar tripled with a line drive up the middle. The Braves knocked a ball out of the park in the third inning, but the Boilers didn't let that slow their momentum, running through the whole lineup and then some and scoring seven more runs on five hits. Ramos, Polar, K. Bailey and Reefe singled and Condon doubled out to right center. A series of walks helped to load up the bases at the beginning of the bottom half, and an impressive five RBIs helped Purdue's cause.

The Boilers and the Panthers have played one another in seven games in their histories, with the first matchup dating back to 1994, in the inaugural season of play for Purdue. In the most recent game, a year ago, Purdue took down EIU 9-5 in West Lafayette.

2025 GAME RECAP

Purdue came out ready to play in the first inning with a strikeout from Klochack, followed by two outs in the outfield. At the plate, Khloe Banks and Moriah Polar singled to the outfield, but were left on base. Klochack earned another strikeout at the start of the second frame, while the Panthers registered one hit in the inning. The third inning brought no runs or hits from either team. When Purdue took the field again, Klochack sent down Eastern Illinois with three straight strikeouts. The Boilers made headlines in the bottom of the fourth frame with seven runs on nine hits. Three two-RBI hits came from Sage Scarmardo, Kylie Franks and Delaney Reefe. Julia Gossett and Reefe both tallied two hits in the inning. Klochack struck out the first two batters in the seventh frame. The Panthers added another hit to the scoreboard, but did not score. Scarmardo led off with a successful bunt in the bottom of the inning and scored on Jordyn Ramos's double, forcing mercy rule and giving Purdue the victory.

2025 GAME RECAP

Gossett came ready to play, striking out the first two batters of the game. When Purdue went to bat in the first inning, three batters made it on base, but none came around to score. The second frame brought two more strikeouts from Gossett, and the Boilermakers used that momentum at the plate to tally three hits and one run, giving them the lead off of a bunt single from Ashlynn Campbell. After a set of outs at the top of the third Purdue extended the lead with two more runs off two hits by Delaney Reefe and Gossett. The Jaguars had a few hits in the fourth frame, but the Boilers stopped the damage and came back swinging in the box with two more hits from Campbell and Reefe. The fifth inning had no hits from either team, with three-up, three-down outs. Campbell and Moriah Polar made it on base in the sixth frame, but the Boilers went scoreless. Gossett wrapped up the game quickly in the top of the seventh inning with her career-high 14th strikeout, giving Purdue the win 3-0.

The last time the teams matched up in the regular season was in 2011, but the teams have played one another during fall ball in years since. The inaugural victory for the Purdue softball team at their home varsity complex was over Miami OH.

2025 GAME RECAP

Gossett started the game with a strikeout, and the infield followed it up with two caught fly balls. Polar and Banks made it on base in the bottom of the first inning, but the Boilermakers went scoreless. The Redhawks put a hit on the board in the second inning, but the Boilers stopped the damage before the runner could score. Purdue sent Miami down in order in the top of the third frame, then carried that momentum to the plate. Banks made it on base and a line drive up the middle by Polar sent her home. Maura Condon hit the ball to the left side and Polar scored on a Redhawk errant throw, extending the lead. The Boilers had another set of back-to-back outs in the top of the fourth inning to hold the Redhawks at no runs. Jordyn Ramos had a hit out to right centerfield, but was left on base. Banks and Polar both made it on base again in the fifth inning but weren't able to add any more runs to the score. The sixth inning brought no runs or hits from either side, and Purdue secured their 2-0 win with three quick outs in the seventh.

2025 GAME RECAP

Kendall Klochack started the game and registered two strikeouts. Emma Bailey took over to finish and was credited with her first career save. The Boilermakers were strong at the plate with 11 hits, four of which were multi-base hits, including an in-the-park home run from Moriah Polar. Klochack started the game with a strikeout, followed by two fly outs to right field. Banks and Polar went to bat in the bottom of the inning and each put up a bunt single. A Cougar error let Banks score and Polar take third base. Kyndall Bailey had a line drive that sent Polar home. Sage Scarmardo was hit by pitch and advanced her, but both were left on base. SIUE came into the second inning with two hits and an RBI to put them on the scoreboard. Purdue stopped the damage with another bunt single from Banks and another Cougar error to send her to third base again. Polar came in and smashed a grounder past right field and sprinted around the bases for an inside-the-park homer. SIUE fired back with a home run to close the gap, but Purdue stopped the damage with a double play from Scarmardo and Julia Gossett. The Boilermakers put some runners on base at the bottom of the frame, but did not add to the score.The Cougars added a pair of hits to the board in the fourth inning, but the Boilers held them from scoring. They strengthened their lead with three more runs on a double from Gossett and two singles from Banks and Polar.The fifth inning brought three back-to-back outs in the field for Purdue, and a double from Ryen Ross at the plate. Purdue and Wisconsin have a long standing history with an overall record of 35-31 against each other. The Boilermakers lead the all-time record, although they fell to Wisconsin in a three game series back in 2023. The Boilermakers 35 wins over Wisconsin is tied for the most wins over a single team in program history.

2025 GAME RECAP
In the top of the first inning, the Boilermakers struck first in Devon Park, plating two runs on a single to centerfield. The inning began with Banks reaching on an error to the pitcher, who was then joined by Kyndall Bailey who was hit by a pitch. The two came around on the single from Julia Gossett to put the Boilers out-front 2-0. The Boilermakers threatened again in the top of the second, putting back-to-back runners aboard with Banks's 100th career-hit, and a walk from Moriah Polar. The Boilers added another run in the top of the fourth after a single up the middle from Alivia Meeks, her first hit of the day. The Badgers put up a crooked number on the scoreboard in the bottom of the fourth, adding one run on a solo homer, but the Boilers answered back in the top of the fifth, plating two runs on a home run from Reefe, just her second of the year. The inning continued with a two-run pinch hit single from Maura Condon which brought Purdue out to a 7-1 lead. In the sixth inning, Ashlyn Campbell's two-run single sealed the mercy-rule victory with the Boilers winning it 9-1 in six innings. In game two. The Badgers and the Boilermakers remained scoreless through two innings. Purdue put up two hits in the first two innings, while Gossett held the Badgers without a hit, picking up two strike outs. In the top of the third, Banks hit her first home run of the year, a solo shot, which was the third of her career. The Boilers maintained the one-run lead in the top of the fourth, but Wisconsin tied it up in the bottom of the inning on a single up the middle. Purdue took the lead in the top of the fifth after Banks earned her second extra-base hit of the day, a triple to the right-center gap. In the bottom of the inning, Wisconsin earned the lead for the first time in the game on a three-run homer. The Badgers continued to add run support, plating another four runs on back-to-back doubles off two different Purdue pitchers.

ALL-TIME SERIES HISTORY
The Terps and the Boilermakers have a shorter history, only facing one another a total of ten times in their histories. In 2024, Purdue took the series victory over the Terps in College Park, winning the final game 7-1 after falling 5-4 in ten innings during game two. The first match up between the teams was back in 2000, where Purdue shutout Maryland 2-0. Maryland joined the Big Ten in 2014, but the teams did not face each other until 2021 during the COVID era games in Leesburg, Fla, where Maryland defeated Purdue in a three-game series.

2025 GAME RECAP
Maryland struck early and often against the Boilermakers, plating 6 runs in the first three innings. Kendall Klochack started on the mound for Purdue, but was replaced by Emma Bailey in the third inning, who worked out without further damage. In the bottom of the third, Ashlynn Campbell picked up the first hit of the day for the Boilermakers with a single to right field, but was stranded. The Terrapins plated two more runs in the top of the seventh to bring the lead out to 8-0. In game two, The Terps built an inning in the top of the first, but Gossett worked out of the jam, working a ground ground out with two runners thrown out by the Purdue defense. In the bottom of the second inning, Purdue scored first, on a two-run homer Ramos, her third of the season. The homer scored Gossett who beat out an infield single earlier in the inning. The third, fourth, and fifth innings were quiet on both sides, with just a combined four hits between the two teams. Gossett continued to work on the mound in the top of the seventh, working around two singles to earn her fourth victory on the year, a complete game shutout.

HEAD COACH – MAGALI (MAGGIE) FREZZOTTI | 2ND YEAR AS A HEAD COACH

BY THE NUMBERS

1

NFCA All-American Selection

2

All-Region Honorees

1

Newcomer of the Year

1

All-Big Defensive Team Honoree

Magali (Maggie) Frezzotti (pronounced Frez-OH-tee) was named head coach of the Purdue softball team by vice president and director of athletics Mike Bobinski on June 16, 2023. With the announcement, Frezzotti became the fifth head coach in program history after serving as an assistant for the Boilermakers the last two years.

Under Frezzotti's guidance, the Boilermakers have posted two of their strongest defensive efforts to date, including Purdue's second-highest fielding % in program history at .971%.

The Purdue defense has accumulated 3,165 putouts, 1,242 assists and 40 double plays in her two seasons on the Boilermaker staff. The showing includes one of the best marks by a Big Ten defense in the 2023 season, with the team racking up 479 assists, second-most in the league.

Frezzotti's success in player development is seen in an NFCA All-American, two All-Region honorees and a Newcomer of the Year, all since 2019.

Frezzotti came to Purdue from Montana, where she was the assistant softball coach from September 2018 to August 2021. While with the Grizzlies, she was responsible for the development of hitters and catchers, while assisting with infielders. Defensively, Frezzotti oversaw the catcher's defensive skills, leading to improvements in footwork, glove positioning, hop-reading and more.

While with Montana, Frezzotti helped the Grizzlies to a program-best 16-3 record at home, a third-place finish in the Big Sky Conference during her inaugural year in 2019 and helped the program to more than 55 wins under her tutelage.

Prior to her time at Montana, Frezzotti's previous coaching stops include Eastern Michigan as an assistant coach, Concordia as a graduate assistant and Michigan. While in Ann Arbor from 2016-2017, Frezzotti was a catchers development consultant, organized camp logistics, official visits and more.

An accomplished player on the world stage, the Argentina native played for the Argentina National Team for 13 years, where she not only served as team captain, but competed in the World Cup in 2015, the Pan American Championships (2005, '06, '13, '17), the Pan American Games (2007, '10) and the World Championships (2010, '12). Frezzotti's success culminated in being named to the All-Tournament team as a catcher at the 2017 Women's Softball Pan American Championship, held in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

Outside of coaching, the Boilermaker founded Lineup Latino, which aimed to help the softball community in Latin America. Frezzotti created a platform to connect the softball community in Latin America with resources in the U.S. and across the world. Its mission is to educate, empower and prepare softball players from Latin America and the Caribbean to become a better version of themselves, on and off the field, for the rest of their lives.

Frezzotti earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Instituto Numero 1 Dr. Enrique Romero Brest in Buenos Aires, Argentina, in 2012, a master's degree in student personnel administration in higher education from Concordia in 2017 and a master's degree in public administration from Montana in 2020. Frezzotti is joined in West Lafayette by her wife, Haley Frezzotti-Hostetler, whose grandfather is a Purdue graduate.

Frezzotti's first year at the helm coincided with the 30th season of Purdue softball, which played its inaugural game in March of 1994.

2022 SEASON

2024 SEASON

MAY 7, 2024

ASSISTANT COACH – JORDAN RICHWOOD (2ND SEASON)

Richwood joins the Boilermakers from S2 Breakthrough Softball Facility in Romeoville, Illinois, where she served as pitching coach since 2020. Managing and creating 10-plus pitcher's training programs, she oversaw assessments covering mobility, movement and more while working to analyze and improve pitcher performance. Prior to her time at S2 Breakthrough, she was a member of the Bucknell's coaching staff, where she also oversaw pitching from 2019-2020. Richwood came to the Bison after previously serving as an assistant with the softball teams at Christian Brothers and at Memphis, following a standout playing career with the Tigers. Memphis won 59 games during the two seasons that Richwood was on the staff, including a 37-21 mark in 2018. Richwood primarily developed and coached the Tigers' outfielders, while also working with the pitching staff and managing the team's academic needs. From 2015-18, Richwood served as a graduate assistant coach at Christian Brothers, teaching and coaching the pitching staff. She also oversaw the team's travel plans, academic progress, and directed the program's social media efforts. Richwood also served as a pitching instructor at the Legends Baseball and Softball Facility in Atoka, Tenn. from 2016-18, where she worked with young athletes' mechanics and taught the basics of softball pitching. As an instructor, Richwood emphasized mental preparation and putting athletes in game situations through challenging mental and physical drills. As a player, Richwood appeared in 117 games as a pitcher for the Memphis Tigers from 2012-15, totaling 26 wins, four saves, and 430 strikeouts. In 2012 she was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman team after pitching nine complete games and recording 10-plus strikeouts three times. As a senior, Richwood captured a career-high 11 wins and pitched five shutouts.

ASSISTANT COACH – HEATHER GELBARD (2ND SEASON)

Heather Gelbard was hired by head coach Magali Frezzotti on August 8, 2023. In her role as assistant coach, Gelbard will oversee the Boilermakers' offensive efforts in addition to recruitment. Coming off two years at Georgia Southern where she held a similar role, Gelbard was primarily responsible for overseeing the team's hitting, culminating in the program's most triples since 2017, the most walks since 2019 and the most runs scored in a single conference game since 2015. Prior to her time at Georgia Southern, Gelbard was a volunteer coach at South Carolina for two seasons (2019-2021). During her stint, she worked to develop two All-SEC and NFCA All-Southeast Region selections, an NFCA All-American and two CoSIDA Academic All-Americans with a primary focus on team defense and hitting. A former All-ACC and Academic All-American student-athlete at NC State, Gelbard began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Barry University (2007-09), where she guided her team to a DII World Series berth in 2008. She was an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic from 2010-16 before being named head coach at UMBC from 2016-18. Gelbard also served as the interim head coach at Florida International (FIU) for a season before joining the Gamecocks staff as a volunteer coach. Gelbard graduated from NC State with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2007. Currently, she owns multiple Wolfpack records, including hits (261), games started (256), at-bats (834). She earned her master's degree in exercise science with a concentration in sports psychology from Barry in 2009.

ASSISTANT COACH – JORDYN RUDD-LEE (2ND SEASON)

Jordyn Rudd was hired by head coach Magali Frezzotti on August 8, 2023. A four-time All-Big Ten and three-time All-Defensive Team honoree, Rudd played in every game of her collegiate career at Northwestern (2019-2023). Other honors include 2022 Softball America National Defensive Player of the Year, 2022 Johnny Bench Award which is presented to the best female catcher in the nation, and Rawlings Gold Glove Award. As the first catcher in Big Ten history to be named First Team All-Big Ten in her first three seasons, Rudd closed her career with a .332 batting average, 247 hits, 50 doubles and 297 total bases. A catalyst for success, Rudd guided her team to two consecutive NCAA Regional titles, the Big Ten tournament title (2023) and two straight Big Ten regular-season crowns during her career at Northwestern.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT – KATE CLAYPOOL (1ST SEASON)

Purdue softball head coach Magali Frezzotti hired alumna Kate Claypool (Purdue Softball 2023-24) as the first-ever director of player development for the program in July 2024. In her role, Claypool will assist players in personal and athletic growth, working closely with both the coaching staff and student-athletes on individual development. Additionally, she will help the coaching staff assess, understand and predict performances both for current and future players and contribute to scouting reports and game plans. Claypool, who graduated from Purdue in May 2024 with a Master's degree in Business Analytics, played for the Boilermakers from 2023-24 after transferring from Iowa, where she earned an undergraduate degree in Mathematics and Statistics. Involved with student-athlete advisory committees throughout her collegiate career, Claypool joins the staff with a key understanding of what student-athletes are facing and has experience providing solutions for challenges they are facing. In addition, she worked for the compliance department at Purdue, focusing her efforts on analyzing NIL data to find the most successful avenues for student-athletes.

2025 GAME NOTES

The Boilermakers open the Big Ten Conference tournament Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m. as the No. 5 seed, taking on the No. 5 seeded Wildcats of Northwestern. The two teams have not faced one another during the 2024 season and will meet for the first time since 2024 at Bittinger Stadium tomorrow night. Purdue assistant coach, Jordyn Rudd-Lee, spent four years at Northwestern as a player, earning various accolades. Rudd-Lee was named a four-time All-Big Ten honoree, an All-Defensive Team honoree, as well as the 2022 Softball America National Defensive Player of the Year, the 2022 Johnny Bench Award for the Best Female Catcher in the Nation, and the Rawlings Gold Glove Award. Northwestern is 29-17-1 on the year, and 16-6 in Big Ten play. The Wildcats have won their series over Penn State, Michigan State, Minnesota, Illinois, Rutgers, Wisconsin, and most recently the No. 8 team in the country, UCLA. The only series Northwestern lost during the Big Ten season was to Nebraska. The Wildcats are led by Kaylie Avvisato at the plate who has 54 hits on the year with a .355 batting average. On the mound, Northwestern rides Lauren Boyd who has pitched 107.1 innings with 100 strikeouts and a 2.54 ERA. In the series history between the two teams, the Wildcats lead the Boilers 46-20, dating back to 1995. Although the Boilers and Northwestern did not play in 2025, the most recent series was back in 2024. During the three-game series, the Boilers took one of three against the Cats, while they were ranked in the top 25 nationally.
