STORY LINES

- Purdue opens its 137th season of football, including the 101st at Ross-Ade Stadium, hosting Indiana State in an in-state matchup. Kickoff is set for 12 p.m. ET on BTN.
- The Boilermakers are 6-0 against the Sycamores, including a 56-0 win two years ago.
- Making his Purdue debut, Devin Mockobee recorded a team-high 78 rushing yards with one touchdown in the 2022 victory over Indiana State.
- Purdue begins the second season under head coach Ryan Walters; during Walters' first season in West Lafayette, the Boilermakers tied for fourth in the Big Ten West and captured both rivalry games (Indiana - Old Oaken Bucket, Illinois - Cannon Trophy) for the third straight season.
- Walters' defense recorded 35 sacks last year, the third most in program history and the highest since 2004.
- Dillon Thieneman, the 50th All-American in program history, is a consensus Preseason All-American; setting program freshman records for interceptions (6) and solo tackles (74), Thieneman was tabbed the FWA Freshman Defensive Player of the Year and the Big Ten Freshman of the Year last season.
- Purdue has produced four All-Americans over the past three seasons (Thieneman - 2023, Charlie Jones - 2022, David Bell - 2021, George Karlaftis - 2021), the most in a three-year stretch since 1967-69.
- Behind Mockobee and Tyrone Tracy Jr. (New York Giants), Purdue led the Big Ten in rushing in conference games (184.6 ypg); Purdue was the only team in the Big Ten with two running backs to rush for more than 500 yards in league contests (Mockobee - 625, Tracy - 624).
- Kydran Jenkins recorded 15.5 TFLs a season ago, ranking third in the Big Ten and 18th nationally, the most by a Boilermaker since George Karlaftis (Kansas City Chiefs) in 2019 and the first Boilermaker to lead the team in back-to-back seasons since Jake Replogle (2014-15).
- Purdue added 23 players in the transfer portal, including 14 from Power 4 schools; the group was a consensus Top 10 class in the transfer rankings when 14 of the transfers joined the team for the spring semester.
- One year after recorded the highest total and average attendance since 2007, Purdue Football sold out its season ticket allotment (42,000) for the 2024 campaign; the Notre Dame game (Sept. 14) sold out one day after going on sale to the public. All tickets for the Purdue student section, the Ross-Ade Brigade, are also sold out for the year.
- Boilermaker legend and College Football Hall of Famer Mark Herrmann is the new color analyst for Purdue football games on the Boilermaker Sports Network, taking over following the retirement of Purdue Football alum Pete Quinn, who spent 32 seasons in the announcing chair calling Boilermaker games on the gridiron.
- Purdue will debut new jerseys for the 2024 season.
- Thirteen Boilermakers have already earned their undergraduate degrees, six from Purdue and seven from other schools before transferring to Purdue.

TEAM NOTES

PURDUE FOOTBALL IS BACK

- The Boilermakers kick off their 137th season of football in 2024.
- Purdue holds a 78-52-6 mark in season openers, while going 92-39-4 in home openers. The Boilermakers have won 22 of their last 26 home openers.
- Ross-Ade Stadium has been Purdue's home for 100 seasons, marking the 2024 campaign as the 101st full season; Ross-Ade will turn 100 years old on November 22 when the Boilermakers play at Michigan State.
- Purdue closed out the 1924 season with its first game at Ross-Ade, a 26-7 Homecoming win over Indiana (Nov. 22, 1924).

YEAR 2 OF THE WALTERS ERA

- Purdue begins its second season under the guidance of head coach Ryan Walters.
- The three pillars of Walters' program: Competitive, Tough, Disciplined.
- Known as a players' coach, Walters has established a culture in which everyone in the program feels like family.
- Hired at age 36 after being named the 2022, On3 Coordinator of the Year Walters, now 38, is one of the youngest coaches in college football - the fourth youngest among the Power 4 conferences (Kenny Dillingham - 34, Dan Lanning - 38, Sherrone Moore - 38).
- Despite the record not being what Walters and Purdue wanted, facing one of the toughest schedules in the country, there were several positives the Boilermakers could take away from Walters' first year in West Lafayette to build off of heading into the 2024 season.

RECAP OF 2023

- Purdue's first 11 opponents on its 12-game 2023 schedule did not have a losing record at the time of their matchup against the Boilermakers, resulting in one of the nation's most difficult schedules.
- The Boilermakers battled throughout the season to finish tied for fourth in the Big Ten West, while winning both rivalry games (Indiana - Old Oaken Bucket), Illinois - Cannon Trophy) for the third straight season.
- In Walters' debut season guiding the Old Gold and Black, Purdue found success in all three phases of the game. The offense led the Big Ten in rushing in conference contests, averaging 184.6 yards per game. Purdue's defense recorded 35 sacks, the most since 2004 and the third-most in program history, and the special teams unit averaged 24.2 yards per kickoff return, Purdue's best since 2004 and the fourth-most all-time.
- Individually, Dillon Thieneman became an All-American (Third Team - AP) and was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year after setting school records for interceptions (6) and solo tackles (74) by a freshman.

DIFFICULT SCHEDULE

- A season ago, Purdue did not face a team with a losing record at the time of the game until battling Indiana for the Old Oaken Bucket in the season finale. This year's schedule may be even tougher.
- Purdue's schedule was ranked the 11th hardest in the nation by ESPN's Football Power Index, fourth by College Football News, seventh by College Football Network and sixth by Sports Grid.
- Four preseason Top 10 teams appear on the Boilermakers' 2024 schedule: No. 2 Ohio State (Nov. 9), No. 3 Oregon (Oct. 18), No. 7 Notre Dame (Sept. 14) and No. 8 Penn State (Nov. 16).
- No other team in the country plays more Top 10 teams than Purdue. Only Florida matches the Boilermakers with four Top 10 opponents.
- Three of the Top 10 matchups are at home, as Purdue hosts Notre Dame, Oregon and Penn State at Ross-Ade Stadium.

IN-STATE OPPOSITION

- A schedule rarity, Purdue will play three opponents from the state of Indiana this season.
- After beginning the season against Indiana State, the Boilermakers have a bye week before facing Notre Dame for the Shillelagh Trophy (Sept. 14).
- Sticking with tradition, Purdue closes out the regular season by battling Indiana with the Old Oaken Bucket up for grabs.
- The last time three in-state opponents were on Purdue's schedule occurred during the 2013 season, with four such seasons this century.

ROSS-ADE PACKED ALL SEASON LONG

- With three of Purdue's six home games coming against preseason Top 10 teams, Ross-Ade Stadium is expected to be packed all season long.
- The 2023 season featured Purdue's highest home attendance, both average and total, since the 2007 campaign, but those marks might be broken this season.
- With more than 42,000 season ticket holders, including more than 5,000 new season ticket holders, season tickets sold out for the 2024 season.
- Student season tickets also sold out five hours after going on sale, a record-breaking time.
- Purdue's in-state matchup against Notre Dame sold out one day after going on sale to the public.

PURDUE VS. THE FCS

- Purdue will face an FCS opponent for just the second time since 2016 when it won 45-24 over Eastern Kentucky in the season opener.
- Indiana State was the last FCS team to battle the Boilermakers, and Purdue cruised to a 56-0 victory (Sept. 10, 2022).
- From 2006 to 2016, the Boilermakers faced an FCS opponent every season except for 2009. Four of those games were against the Sycamores.

BOILERMAKERS TO THE NFL

- The 2024 NFL Draft marked the fifth straight year that at least two Boilermakers were chosen, totaling 14 over the span. That last time Purdue had a five-year streak of multiple Boilermakers drafted was 1998-2002.
- Tyrone Tracy Jr. was the first Boilermaker off the board, as the New York Giants selected the running back in the fifth round with the 166th overall pick. Despite sharing the workload in the backfield with Devin Mockobee, Tracy tallied 716 yards on the ground, while leading the team in touchdowns (eight rushing, one kickoff return) and pacing the Big Ten in all-purpose yards in conference games (127.4 ypg).
- Tracy averaged 6.3 yards per carry on 113 attempts, the second-best single-season rushing average in school history.
- The Baltimore Ravens drafted defensive back Sanoussi Kane with their final pick (7th Round - 250th Overall). A four-year letterman, Kane played in 45 games over his Purdue career. He made 25 starts for the Old Gold and Black, totaling 161 tackles that included 115 solo stops.
- Kane became the first Boilermaker drafted by the Ravens, although Hall of Famer and Boilermaker legend Rod Woodson helped lead the team to a victory in Super Bowl XXXV and Bernard Pollard helped Baltimore win Super Bowl LVII.

- The Boilermakers have outscored the Sycamores 253-76 in those contests, including 56-0 two years ago.
- The first in-state matchup occurred 96 years ago when the Boilermakers shutout Indiana State 38-0.

OUR LAST MATCHUP VS. INDIANA STATE

- Purdue's defense forced a fumble on the opening play of the game to set the tone in a 56-0 rout of Indiana State (Sept. 10, 2022). The 56-point margin of victory was the largest for Purdue since a 59-point shutout win over Southeast Missouri in 2011.
- Devin Mockobee, making his Purdue debut as a redshirt freshman, led the rushing attack with 78 yards and one touchdown on 13 carries.
- Aidan O'Connell (Las Vegas Raiders) was efficient in his one half of action with four touchdowns and 211 yards on 17-of-19 passing; O'Connell was one completion and attempt shy of breaking the Purdue single-game record for completion percentage (a minimum of 20 attempts was needed to qualify).
- Charlie Jones (Cincinnati Bengals) caught three touchdown passes, finishing the day with nine receptions for 133 yards.
- The 145 yards of total offense allowed by Purdue were the fewest given up by the defense in more than 25 years.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

AIR RAID INNOVATION

- Offensive coordinator Graham Harrell is in his second year as the play caller in West Lafayette.
- An innovative play caller and a member of the Mike Leach coaching and playing tree, Harrell has installed his dynamic offense to the Cradle of Quarterbacks.
- Harrell helped Ryan Walters land Hudson Card as Purdue's quarterback in the winter of 2022, and the duo's bond continues to grow on the field. Their close bond off the field made for a seamless transition to the quarterback communication link starting this season.
- The Boilermakers launched a dual attack last season with six games of 150 yards or more rushing and five games with over 250 yards passing, including a career-high 323 through the air for Card against Syracuse.

BEST GROUND GAME IN THE BIG TEN

- Purdue's ground game in 2023 was the best in the Big Ten in league games with 184.6 rushing yards per game.
- The Boilermakers tallied 300 yards on the ground in back-to-back weeks (353 vs. Minnesota, 303 at Northwestern), a first for Purdue since 1968.
- It marked just the fifth and sixth times Purdue recorded over 300 yards rushing in a Big Ten game since 1996. Both were the lone 300-yard games in the Big Ten last season.
- Purdue was the only school in the 14-team league to have two running backs rush for more than 500 yards in Big Ten games (Devin Mockobee - 625 yards, Tyrone Tracy Jr. - 624 yards).
- Purdue's 2,029 yards on the ground were the most in a season since 2012.

HUDDY TUDDY

- Quarterback Hudson Card is under center for his second season in West Lafayette.
- The Boilermaker signal caller appeared in 11 games last year and threw for 2,387 yards and 15 touchdowns during his first campaign at Purdue in 2023.
- The Austin, Texas, native earned an All-Big Ten honorable mention nod, while twice garnering a spot on the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Honor Roll.
- He guided Purdue to a win over Indiana in the Old Oaken Bucket Game, recording 360 yards of offense (275 passing, 85 rushing) and four touchdowns (three passing, one rushing) to become the first quarterback since Drew Brees (2000) to pass for at least 275 yards and rush for at least 85 yards in the same game.
- Card was one of two quarterbacks in the Big Ten last season to throw for 15 scores and rush for five more on the ground, joining Maryland's Taulia Tagovailoa.
- Card is the fifth Purdue quarterback since 1956 to reach those marks in a single season:

STRONG FINISH AT HOME

- The Boilermakers' offense found its groove in its final two home games during the 2023 season with a 49-30 win over Minnesota and a 35-31 come-from-behind victory to retain the Old Oaken Bucket against Indiana.
- Purdue tallied over 450 yards of total offense in both games, including a season-high 604-yard outing against Minnesota.
- Hudson card posted a pair of 250-plus-yard performances to total 526 yards, six touchdowns and no interceptions. He notched a 172.9 quarterback efficiency over the two outings.
- Devin Mockobee moved into ninth in Purdue history with his sixth 100-yard rushing game, going for 153 yards against Minnesota. Mockobee was part of a rushing attack that ran for 265.5 yards during the final two home contests.
- Purdue did not commit a turnover in those two games.
- Card missed Purdue's penultimate game of the year on the road at Northwestern due to injury.

HERE COMES THE MOCK TRAIN

- From walk-on to phenom, Devin Mockobee has certainly made a name for himself in his time in West Lafayette.
- He started his career by setting a new Purdue freshman record with 968 rushing yards while also adding nine touchdowns.
- After being put on scholarship in the first official act of the Walters era, he led the team in rushing once again with 807 yards and six touchdowns in 2023.
- In doing so, Mockobee became the first Boilermaker to lead the team in rushing in back-to-back seasons since Markell Jones, who did it three years running (2015-17).
- The Boonville, Ind., native is one of only four Big Ten players to rush for more than 800 yards in each of the past two seasons.
- He enters the 2024 campaign ranked 14th in Purdue career rushing touchdowns (15) and 18th in rushing yards (1,779).
- Mockobee can be the first Boiler since Jones (2015-18) to reach the 2,000 yard career mark.

THE ADMIRAL

- Gus "The Admiral" Hartwig once again leads the Purdue front line in his fifth year starting for the Boilermakers.
- The four-time All-Big Ten honorable mention honoree has played in 39 games, starting 36. He first start came at right guard against Minnesota during his freshman season in 2020.
- He was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List each of the last three seasons, a trophy presented annually to the most outstanding center in college football.
- A cerebral leader at the heart of the offense, he has been named Academic All-Big Ten three times and is also a member of the NFF Hampshire Honor Society.
- He finished as a Campbell Trophy Semifinalist in 2023.
- Hartwig graduated with a bachelor's in Finance with honors and is now working on his master's in Global Supply Chain Management.

COMEBACK PASS CATCHERS

- The Boilermakers are boosted by the return of two skill players after injuries cut short their campaigns in 2023.
- Jamhal Edrine missed the entirety of last year following a knee injury suffered during preseason camp. Edrine was expected to be Purdue's top receiving talent last season. He put up over 500 yards receiving and six touchdowns in 2022 at FAU.
- After starting his career as one of the top tight ends in the country early in the season last year, Max Klare is fully healthy for 2024. Klare grabbed 22 passes for 196 yards in just five games last season.

DEFENSIVE / SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

THE NO NAME DEFENSE

- When asked at his introductory press conference if his defense had a name, head coach Ryan Walters responded, "It's so unique that there's really no name for it yet."
- Walters' a proven defensive guru, as well as current defensive coordinator Kevin Kane, unleashed a versatile defensive scheme that aims to get even better in 2024.
- It all starts with three down linemen at 290 pounds and over, backed up by a fierce RUSH END and linebacker corps, followed by a ball-hawking secondary featuring a single-high safety.

"THE MOST FEARED DEFENSIVE BACK IN THE COUNTRY"

- Dillon Thieneman is one of the best defensive backs in the nation. Period.
- David Hale of ESPN wrote that, "Dillon Thieneman might be the most feared defensive back in the country."
- The sophomore was tabbed Third Team All-America, the FWAA Defensive Freshman of the Year and Thompson-Randle El Big Ten Freshman of the Year.
- Thieneman racked up five Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors, becoming the first defender in conference history to win any weekly award five times in a single season.
- He ranked third nationally in interceptions (6) and solo tackles (74), leading all freshmen and setting new Purdue freshman records. His solo tackle record passed Rod Woodson's mark of 67 that stood since 1983.
- He became the first Purdue freshman to record multiple double-digit tackle games since Ja'Whaun Bentley (New England Patriots)
- Thieneman was the No. 83-ranked player in EA College Football 25 with an overall rating of 90.
- The Westfield, Ind., native also garnered a spot on Bruce Feldman's 'Freaks List', checking in at No. 96. Since his arrival on campus, Thieneman has put on 11 pounds of muscle, trimmed body fat and added to his already ridiculous speed.

TACKLES-4-LOSS

- One of the major anchors of the defense is senior Kydran Jenkins (KAY-dran), who garnered All-Big Ten Honorable Mention for the second straight year in 2023.
- As a junior, Jenkins finished second in the Big Ten in tackles-for-loss with 15.5 on the year, ranking 18th in the country and the most by a Boilermaker since George Karlaftis in 2019 (17.0).
- A versatile player, Jenkins moved from RUSH END to middle linebacker ahead of the 2024 campaign, a position he played in high school and a spot the coaching staff believed would do more to impress NFL scouts.
- He ranks 10th in Purdue history with 16.5 career sacks and 18th with 31.5 tackles-for-loss.

BIG BOYS UP FRONT

- If you play offensive line against Purdue, you're going to have a long day, as Purdue's three down linemen all weigh north of 290 pounds.
- The initial starting trio of Jeffrey M'Ba (302), Cole Brevard (333) and Joe Anderson (290) have a combined weight of 925 pounds. That's more than the weight of a grand piano... all game long.
- When you factor in all seven linemen on the depth chart, that equals out to 2,100 pounds clogging the holes in the middle.
- Cole Brevard is the lone returning starter from a season ago, with the addition of last year's rotational linemen Joe Anderson and Jeffrey M'Ba.

THE GREEKS

- Yanni Karlaftis is in his first full season as a starter after playing his way into the lineup in the middle of the 2023 campaign.
- He set career highs last year with 55 total tackles and 28 solos, including 47 stops in the final eight games of the year.
- Karlaftis grew up in Greece with his family and won a world judo championship at age 11.
- Yanni's older brother is Purdue All-American and two-time Super Bowl champion George Karlaftis of the Kansas City Chiefs.

DB DEPTH

- Purdue's secondary received a major infusion of depth this offseason from the transfer portal and high school signees.
- After injuries plagued the group in 2023, the defensive backs room is poised in multiple phases of the game.
- Dillon Thieneman headlines the group as one of the top defensive backs in all of college football following his All-America campaign as a freshman last year.
- Emerging this offseason as a defensive leader, senior Antonio Stevens trimmed his body fat down and added 15 pounds of muscle compared to last season.
- Out on the perimeter, Nyland Green has considerable experience from three seasons, including a pair of national championships with the Georgia Bulldogs.
- Markevious Brown and Kyndrich Breedlove reunited after starting their careers as roommates at Ole Miss.

RUSH END

- A key part of Purdue's defense is the RUSH END position.
- A hybrid standing lineman with pass rushing, run stopping and pass coverage duties, the RUSH ENDS are set up to have one of the biggest impacts on the field for the Boilermakers.
- Standing 6-foot-6, Will Heldt has cemented his spot as one of the leading RUSH ENDS on the team. The Carmel, Ind., native posted eight tackles with one for-loss last season.
- Two transfers have emerged as key pieces at RUSH END in CJ Madden (Georgia) and Shitta Sillah (SHEET-ah) (Boston College). Madden won the 2022 National Championship with the Bulldogs, while Sillah played 39 games with 80 tackles, 12 for-loss and 6.5 sacks over five seasons with the Eagles.

SACK SQUAD

- Purdue's defense made a living in the opposition's backfield last year, as the Boilermakers racked up 35 sacks on the year, the highest tally in West Lafayette since 2004 and tied for third on the single-season charts.
- At 2.92 sacks per game, the Boilermakers ranked 13th in the nation and second in the Big Ten.
- Thirteen different Boilermakers posted a sack last year with six returning to this year's squad, led by Kydran Jenkins' career-high 7.5 sacks.

ODDS AND ENDS

- The Boilermakers scored twice on defense last year, ranking third in the Big Ten. Kydran Jenkins took a fumble 55 yards to the house against Nebraska, while Malika Langham recovered a fumble in the end zone against Illinois.
- Purdue finished fourth in the Big Ten with a 4th-down defense conversion rate of 45%.
- The Boilermakers recovered eight fumbles last season to finish fifth in the Big Ten. Cole Brevard tied the single-game record with a pair of recoveries at Nebraska last season.
- Purdue finished with just a hair under six tackles-for-loss per game last season, ranking fifth in the Big Ten.

Considered one of the nation's fastest rising young coaches, Ryan Walters is in his second season as head coach of the Boilermakers. Walters was announced as the 37th head coach in Purdue Football history on Dec. 13, 2022.

During his first season at Purdue, Walters and the Boilermakers faced one of the toughest schedules in the country. As the Boilermakers prepared to play Northwestern in their 11th game of the season, all 11 teams on Purdue's schedule up to that point, including the Wildcats, did not have a losing record. Despite the gauntlet, Purdue tied for fourth in the Big Ten West and won both rivalry games to keep possession of the Cannon Trophy (Illinois) and the Old Oaken Bucket (Indiana) for the third straight season.

In Walters' debut season guiding the Old Gold and Black, Purdue found success in all three phases of the game. The offense led the Big Ten in rushing in conference contests, averaging 184.6 yards per game. That included the Boilermakers rushing for more than 300 yards in back-to-back games for the first time since 1968. The 2,029 rushing yards were the most since 2012, while Purdue became the only team in the Big Ten with two running backs eclipsing 500 yards in conference games (Devin Mockobee - 625, Tyrone Tracy Jr. - 624). Purdue joined national champion Michigan as the only two teams to score seven touchdowns in a Big Ten contest.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Boilermakers recorded 35 sacks, the most since 2004 and the third-most in program history. Individually, Dillon Thieneman became an All-American (Third Team - AP) and was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year after setting school records for interceptions (6) and solo tackles (74) by a freshman; both marks ranked third nationally by any defender in college football throughout the 2023 campaign. In Walters' defense, the duo of Nic Scourton and Kydran Jenkins had more sacks and TFLs than any other teammates in the conference, as both Boilermakers cracked the Big Ten's Top 3 in both categories.

The 2023 special teams unit averaged 24.2 yards per kickoff return, Purdue's best since 2004 and the fourth-most all-time. Tracy returned a kick 98 yards for a touchdown in the season opener, the first by a Boilermaker since 2013, while ranking second in the Big Ten and 15th nationally in kick return average (25.5).

Walters brought energy and excitement to Purdue Football, as season tickets nearly reached 40,000 and broke the 30,000 mark for the first time since 2007. The Ross-Ade Brigade, Purdue's student section, sold out season tickets for the first time in five years. Ross-Ade Stadium averaged 58,249 fans at each home game, the highest average attendance since 2007.

Hired at age 36 after spending two seasons as Illinois' defensive coordinator and creating the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (12.3 ppg in 2022), Walters became the fourth-youngest coach in the Power 5 conferences behind Kenny Dillingham (32-Arizona State), Kane Wommack (35-South Alabama) and Dan Lanning (36-Oregon) and eighth youngest in the FBS.

Walters elevated Illinois' defensive unit from the back of the pack into one of the nation's elite in just two seasons. Following the 2020 season, in which the Fighting Illini ranked 97th nationally in scoring defense (34.9) and 114th in yards allowed per game (466.8), Walters' first year in Champaign saw his side of the ball rise to 29th (21.9) and 49th (367.0), respectively. In 2022, the results were shown nationwide as Illinois went into the bowl schedule No. 1 nationally in scoring defense (12.3) and No. 2 in yards allowed per game (263.8).

A former safety at Colorado (2004-08), Walters tutored two of the nation's top defensive backs during his two-year stint in Champaign. Among six Illini defenders to earn All-Big Ten recognition in 2021 was safety Kerby Joseph, who was Illinois' first All-Big Ten First Team defensive back since 1989. Two more Illinois defensive backs accomplished the feat in 2022, with Devon Witherspoon and Sydney Brown earning first team accolades from the conference. Witherspoon, notably, became Illinois' first Jim Thorpe Award (top defensive back in college football) finalist in school history this past season.

Walters spent six seasons at Missouri prior to his tenure with the Illini, including three as defensive coordinator. He oversaw an impressive transformation of the Tigers' defense into one of the Southeastern Conference's top units. His 2019 defense ranked in the nation's Top 20 in several categories, including total defense (14th NCAA; 3rd SEC - 312.0) and scoring defense (17th NCAA; 6th SEC - 19.4), while excelling as a Top 10 pass defense (8th in passing yards allowed NCAA; 2nd SEC - 179.3).

Walters previously served as co-defensive coordinator for the 2016 and 2017 seasons in Columbia before being promoted to defensive coordinator permanently ahead of the 2018 season, with Missouri's overall defensive improvement leading the way to an eight-win season and bid to the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Previously during bowl preparation in December 2017, Walters ascended to the role of defensive coordinator before the squad's 2017 Texas Bowl appearance after assuming control of the entire secondary ahead of that season. He had focused on the safeties in his first two seasons with the program.

Prior to making the move to Missouri in 2015, Walters coached at Memphis where he spent the 2014 season as cornerbacks coach and oversaw a defense that was among the most improved in the nation when the Tigers went 10-3.

A native of Aurora, Colorado, Walters was a football student-athlete at Colorado, where he was a standout safety for the Buffaloes (2004-08). He started 33 times in 46 career appearances as a Buffalo and earned All-Big 12 Conference Honorable Mention his senior season. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Colorado, working with the secondary in 2009, and then spent two years on staff at Arizona, where he was a graduate assistant in 2010 before being promoted to defensive backs coach for the 2011 season.

From Arizona, Walters moved to Oklahoma as a graduate assistant cornerbacks coach in 2012, as the Sooners went 10-3 and played in the 2013 Cotton Bowl. He moved to North Texas for the 2013 season, where he oversaw cornerbacks and helped lead UNT to a 9-4 record in its first year in Conference USA.

Prior to his arrival at Illinois, Walters was one of 12 coaching participants in the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches' inaugural Coalition Academy in April 2020, a first-of-its-kind mentorship program pairing influential athletic directors with minority football coaches.

Walters earned his degree in history from the University of Colorado in December 2008 with dual majors in history and ethnic studies. Walters and his wife Tara have two sons, Aaron and Cason.

STAFF RETENTION

- One benefit from the offseason that has Purdue poised to take another step under Ryan Walters is the fact the coaching staff largely remained together.
- Of the 10 handpicked position coaches from Walters' first season, only one staff member departed, as tight ends coach Seth Doege accepted the offensive coordinator position at Marshall.
- Walters looked in-house to fill out his staff this year, promoting analyst and veteran special teams guru Chris Petrilli to the title of special teams coordinator in January.
- After the NCAA passed legislation permitting additional coaches, Walters gave a well-deserved promotion to senior offensive analyst and one of the best tight ends in Purdue history Justin Sinz to work with the tight ends. Sinz spent the last 10 years at his alma mater filling various roles from analyst, quality control and recruiting.

- Tyler's story was shared on ESPN College GameDay ahead of the Boilers' matchup against No. 3 Ohio State. In what became known as "The Tyler Trent Game," Purdue dominated the Buckeyes in a 49-20 upset rout in Ross-Ade.
- Ethan, who appeared multiple times in the GameDay piece, was the one pushing Tyler's wheelchair as the pair stormed the field along with thousands of other fans.
- The Tyler Trent (T2) Student Gate was dedicated during the 2019 season in memory of the Purdue superfan who passed away at the age of 20 from osteosarcoma.

DARTH (JAH)MAL

- They had to wait a year due to injury, but Purdue and Coach Walters are expecting FAU transfer Jahmal Edrine to be a force in the passing attack for the Boilermakers.
- In 13 games for the Owls, the big bodied pass catcher racked up 579 yards on 40 receptions with six touchdowns.
- As a redshirt freshman, he was second on the team in yards, receptions, and receiving touchdowns.
- He actually made his Ross-Ade debut with FAU, catching one pass for 39 yards against the Boilermakers back in the 2022 season.

EXPERIENCE IN THE TRENCHES

- Purdue's offensive line is one of its most experienced groups in 2024 with a combined 136 starts.
- The line is anchored by four-time All-Big Ten honoree center Gus Hartwig. In his final season in West Lafayette, Hartwig has the most starts of any active player at Purdue with 36. He was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the third straight campaign, as well as his first nod on the Senior Bowl Watch List.
- Marcus Mbow, Mahamane Moussa and Jalen Grant return after making starts for Purdue last season. Mbow garnered a preseason spot on the Senior Bowl Watch List.
- 2024 will be the third straight year Hartwig, Mbow and Moussa have started on the line together.

NEW LOOK RECEIVING ROOM

- One area that head coach Ryan Walters and his staff attacked during the signing and transfer periods was at wide receiver.
- The Boilermakers brought in some serious height and speed, as the average height is up to 6-foot-2 for those listed on the depth chart, compared to the 5-foot-11 for available receivers late in the season last year.
- One of Purdue's biggest additions was already on the roster as FAU transfer Jahmal Edrine will be available after missing last season due to injury.
- Purdue added a pair of national champions to the receivers room in Georgia transfers CJ Smith and De'Nylon Morrisette.
- Smith's speed has already caught some eyes as a key target for Hudson Card. The Apopka, Fla., native posted a 10.3 second 100-meter dash in high school.
- Standing 6-feet-4, junior college transfer Leland Smith has quickly made himself a down field threat in the offense, while freshman Shamar Rigby was the only rookie to land on the initial depth chart after a strong camp.
- While the new additions have made early impacts, several returners have stepped into new roles after the departure of last year's leading receivers.
- Jaron Tibbs jumped onto the scene late in the season last season, securing five catches for 42 yards, including four receptions in the final two games.
- Jayden Dixon-Veal made 16 catches for 142 yards and a touchdown in his first season at Purdue last year.
- Arhmad Branch will be an effective tool for the receiving corps after developing for a year in 2023.
- The old reliable hands of Andrew Sowinski are back for a final campaign in West Lafayette.

THE RETURN GAME

- Special teams coach (last year senior analyst) Chris Petrilli added something that Purdue had not seen in a decade, a reliable kick and punt return scheme.
- The Boilermakers tallied 24.3 yards per kick return last season to rank 12th in the nation and second in the Big Ten.
- It was Purdue's highest kickoff return average since 2013, when Miami Dolphin's running back and Big Ten 60 and 200-meter champion Raheem Mostert returned kicks.
- Tyrone Tracy Jr. housed a 98-yard kickoff return in the season opener against Fresno State for Purdue's first touchdown by that unit since 2013.

THE VET AND THE ROOK

- Purdue's kicking game went through ups and downs last season due to injuries, but the Boilermakers have a pair of solid legs for 2024.
- Senior Ben Freehill went 6-of-11 on field goals in his first season as the placekicker, but blood clots in his leg held him out for most of the season. He was 5-of-8 in conference play.
- Freehill has been the kickoff specialist for the last three seasons, averaging 58.9 yards per boot with 21 touchbacks.
- Freshman Spencer Porath was tabbed the No. 8 kicker in the class of 2024, a U.S. Army Bowl All-American and Indiana Mr. Football position award winner.
- The rookie had a stellar camp and will vie for playing time early this season.

ANOTHER AUSSIE

- The Boilermakers went back to the land Down Under for their punter this season, as Mississippi State transfer Keelan Crimmins has quickly become a fan favorite in West Lafayette.
- The Aussie was the No. 3-ranked punter by ProKick Australia.
- Crimmins is 23 years old and already holds a degree from Victoria University in Australia.
- He played cricket and high level Australian Rules Football.
- Crimmins is the second straight Purdue punter from Australia, joining Jack Ansell (2021-23), who also wore No. 30.

ROSS-ADE HISTORY

- Ross-Ade Stadium was dedicated Nov. 22, 1924, ahead of its first game when Purdue hosted Indiana. The Boilermakers demolished their in-state foes in a 26-7 rout.
- The two men for whom the stadium is named after, David E. Ross and George Ade, were instrumental in building a stadium that has served as the backdrop to Purdue lore over the last 101 seasons. Ross conceived of the idea for a new stadium to replace Stuart Field, a 5,000-seat stadium that hosted Purdue Football from 1892 to 1924 and was located where the Elliot Hall of Music stands today.
- The original capacity for Ross-Ade Stadium in 1924 was 18,500, including standing room tickets. Over the years and several renovations, the capacity grew to its largest at 69,200 in 1970.
- The largest crowd ever to see a game at Ross-Ade is 71,629 against Indiana on Nov. 22, 1980, when Purdue outlasted the Hoosiers, 24-23, on the shoulders of consensus All-Americans quarterback (and current John Purdue Club Director of Leadership and Alumni Engagement) Mark Hermann and tight end Dave Young.
- Additional upgrades to the stadium included a new press box, luxury boxes and premium club areas in 2003 as a part of a $70 million project. Permanent lighting was installed in 2017 and a new sound system in 2018.
- The Tyler Trent (T<sup>2</sup>) Student Gate was dedicated during the 2019 season in memory of Purdue superfan Tyler Trent who passed away at the age of 20 from osteosarcoma. The T<sup>2</sup> Gate was relocated to the south side of the stadium after the 2023 student section renovations were completed.

PHASE 1

The 2023 season saw the completion of the Phase I of a multi-phased renovation project at a cost of more $45 million, fully funded by gifts to the John Purdue Club.

The three main enhancements to the stadium were the Tiller Tunnel, the south end zone student section and the team dining facility, which opened in July, on the north side of the stadium, bringing the total capacity up to 61,441

SOUTH END ZONE PROJECT

The Purdue student section and the All-American Marching Band have a new home in the south end zone of Ross-Ade Stadium. As a part of the Phase I project, the dedicated student section enhancements included the addition of a new Tyler Trent student entrance area, safe standing seats, patio and deck areas, rail seating, and enhanced concessions.

The completion of the bowl, in addition to the investment in the size of the concourse, allows for a more accessible fan experience as fans will now be able to traverse the entire stadium at the concourse level.

TILLER TUNNEL

The Boilermakers run onto Rohrman Field at Ross-Ade Stadium via the Tiller Tunnel. Completed in 2023, the tunnel provides direct access to the team back to the Kozuch Football Performance Center.

The tunnel is named in honor of the Purdue Hall of Fame inductee Joe Tiller, the winningest coach in the history of Purdue Football. Tiller left an incredible legacy on the program and Boilermakers everywhere. The result was 10 bowl games, including the 2001 Rose Bowl, and a Big Ten Conference championship in 2000.

DEN OF DEFENSIVE ENDS

Throughout its history, Purdue has produced many outstanding defensive ends, creating an institution unlike any other in college football - The Den of Defensive Ends.

The tradition of The Den of Defensive Ends dates to the days of Leo Sugar and Lamar Lundy from the late 1940s to the mid-1950s and Keena Turner in the late 1970s, but it has flourished more recently. While Purdue's high-powered offense has made headlines under head coaches Joe Tiller, Jeff Brohm and Ryan Walters, the Boilermakers' defense made a name for itself principally for the play of its ends.

CRADLE OF QUARTERBACKS

The Cradle of Quarterbacks has evolved over the last 70 years as a defining feature of Purdue football. Boilermakers have set numerous NCAA and Big Ten Conference records, many have been chosen as All-Americans and national awards winners or finalists.

Fifteen former Purdue signal-callers have gone on to play in the National Football League. Drew Brees, Dawson and Griese combined to win four Super Bowls. Purdue is one of just two universities that can claim three Super Bowl champs at the position. (Alabama)

The reference to Cradle of Quarterbacks was added in the late 1970s when the poster was updated to include Mark Herrmann.
