The Boilermakers have been a fixture in the NCAA Tournament, making five Sweet 16s in the last seven tournaments. Over the last eight tournament appearances, Purdue is one of two schools to earn a top-5 seed in each of its trips and the Boilermakers have posted a 110-30 (.786) overall record over the last three seasons.

Entering the 2024-25 season, Painter owns a 472-208 (.694) record in 20 seasons as a head coach, while attaining a 447-203 (.688) mark in 19 seasons at Purdue.

In just 19 seasons and at age 54, Painter already ranks second on the school's all-time wins list (447), sandwiched between legendary mentors Gene Keady and Ward "Piggy" Lambert, both of whom have been inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Painter officially became the 18th head men's basketball coach in Purdue history on April 8, 2005, and immediately set about laying the groundwork for a dramatic reversal in the program's fortunes.

▸▸▸ 2023-24 | 34-5 | NCAA Tournament Finalist | Big Ten Champions

Facing perhaps the biggest expectations of any team in Purdue history, the Boilermakers delivered, advancing to their first Final Four in 44 years, earning the Big Ten regular-season title by three games for the second straight year and winning a school-record 34 games.

Starting the year ranked No. 3 in the preseason AP top-25 poll, the Boilermakers quickly ascended into the nation's top spot after defeating three top-11 ranked teams in the Maui Invitational, knocking off Gonzaga, Tennessee and Marquette en route to the title. Purdue also defeated Alabama in Toronto and No. 1-ranked Arizona in Indianapolis, posting Purdue's third straight unbeaten non-conference record. With the rise to No. 1 in the polls, Purdue became the first Big Ten team to be ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25 poll in three straight seasons.

Then after experiencing a couple of bumps in the road to start Big Ten play, starting league play 3-2, Purdue won 14 of its last 15 league games to win the Big Ten regular-season title by three games, the first Big Ten program in 50 years to win the league by multiple games in consecutive seasons.

Purdue advanced to the Final Four for the first time in 44 years with three dominating wins over Grambling, Utah State and Gonzaga, before rallying for a 72-66 win over No. 6-ranked Tennessee in the Elite Eight. With unprecedented support of Boilermaker Nation in Phoenix, Purdue defeated North Carolina State in the semifinals, before falling to the No. 1 overall seed, Connecticut, in the final game on Monday night.

Leading the way again was Zach Edey, who became the first player since Bill Walton (1972, 1973) to be consensus back-to-back National Player of the Year. Edey led the country in scoring (25.2 PPG) while adding 12.2 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.2 blocks per game. He was just the second player in NCAA history to amass at least 983 points and 474 rebounds in a season, joining the great Elvin Hayes of Houston during the 1967-68 season to reach those marks. He ended his career as the school's all-time leading scorer and rebounder and was one of eight players in NCAA history with 2,500 points and 1,300 rebounds in their career.

In addition, Braden Smith was named a first-team All-Big Ten honoree after leading the country in assists with a school-record 292 dimes, becoming just the second player in NCAA history to tally 450 points, 275 assists and 225 rebounds in a season. In addition, Fletcher Loyer (10.3 PPG) and senior transfer Lance Jones (11.7 PPG) both averaged in double figures.

▸▸▸ Big Ten Regular-Season Champions | Big Ten Tournament Champions

Unranked in the preseason, the Boilermakers rode the large shoulders of National Player of the Year Zach Edey to a 29-6 overall record, a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and the Boilermakers' third Big Ten regular-season title in seven years while also winning the Big Ten Tournament in March.

Purdue put the country on notice early in the year, winning the loaded Phil Knight Legacy Championships with lopsided victories over West Virginia, Gonzaga and Duke - all teams that made the NCAA Tournament. It propelled the Boilermakers to a 22-1 start, Purdue's best start in school history. Purdue would end up winning the Big Ten by three games before winning the Big Ten Tournament for the second time.

The Boilermakers became the first Big Ten program in almost 50 years to be ranked No. 1 in consecutive seasons and spent the final 16 weeks ranked in the top 5. Purdue's final ranking of No. 3 matched the program's highest final ranking in school history.

Purdue was led by the most-dominant player in college basketball, as Zach Edey won all six major National Player of the Year accolades after averaging 22.3 points, 12.9 rebounds, 2.1 blocks and 1.5 assists per game. He became the first player in NCAA history (since blocks became an official stat) to have at least 750 points, 425 rebounds, 70 blocks and 50 assists in the same season, and the first Big Ten player in almost 60 years to lead the league in points, rebounds and field goal percentage. Edey was aided by a pair of freshman in Fletcher Loyer and Braden Smith, who combined for the second-most points by a pair of freshman in school history.

▸▸▸ 2021-22 | 29-8 | NCAA Sweet 16

Ranking in the Associated Press Top 10 all season long, the 2021-22 Purdue basketball team was one for the record books. Classic, defeating Final Four participants North Carolina and Villanova on back-to-back days.

Purdue was led by sophomore guard Jaden Ivey, who earned consensus second-team All-America honors including a first-team accolade by the NABC, and a two-headed interior attack of Zach Edey and Trevion Williams, who combined for 26.1 points and 15.1 rebounds between them.

The Boilermakers ranked No. 2 nationally in offensive efficiency and scored the third-most points in a season in school history, while making the third-most 3-pointers as well. Purdue ranked in the NCAA's top 25 in 10 different categories, also ranking second nationally in rebound margin and seventh in field goal and 3-point percentage.

▸▸▸ 2020-21 | 18-10 | NCAA Tournament

Playing with one of the youngest rosters in America, the Boilermakers again turned heads, placing fourth in the Big Ten standings and earning a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament with an 18-10 overall record and a 13-6 league mark.

The Boilermakers won five games against teams ranked in the Top 20 and earned a spot in the AP Top 25 for the sixth straight season, the second-longest streak in school history.

Purdue accomplished this with no seniors and a freshman class that accounted for almost 45 percent of Purdue's scoring throughout the season. Four different freshmen earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors (most in Big Ten history) and Trevion Williams was named first-team All-Big Ten and a finalist for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award given to the nation's top center.

The Boilermakers became the first team since 1999-00 (Florida) to post three wins of 25 or more points against AP top-25 teams with blowout victories over No. 5 Virginia, No. 8 Michigan State and No. 17-ranked Iowa. The Boilermakers faced one of the toughest schedules in America, playing 11 games against nationally-ranked teams, posting a 5-6 record in those games.

▸▸▸ 2018-19 | 26-10 | NCAA Elite 8 | Big Ten Champions

After starting just 6-5, the Boilermakers then won 20 of their last 25 games to win their second Big Ten title in three seasons and reach the Elite Eight for the first time since 2000. The Boilermakers once again led the way with a lethal offense, ranking fourth nationally in offensive efficiency and setting a Big Ten record for 3-pointers made (365). Purdue finished the season ranked No. 8 in the final USA Today Coaches poll, its highest final ranking since 1994.

Purdue advanced to the Elite Eight with a defensive-minded win over Old Dominion in the first round, a 26-point thrashing of defending National Champion Villanova in the Round of 32 and a thrilling Sweet 16 overtime win over Tennessee, which had spent several weeks at No. 1 in the national polls. Purdue's run came to an end in overtime to eventual National Champion Virginia.

Leading the way was consensus All-American Carsen Edwards, who rewrote the NCAA Tournament record books, making a tournament-record 28 3-pointers in just four games, while scoring the most points for a player competing in just four games (or fewer) since Loyola Marymount's Bo Kimble in 1991. Edwards averaged 34.8 points per game in NCAA Tournament play while being named the South Region's Most Outstanding Player – the first for a player from a losing team since Davidson's Steph Curry in 2008.

Painter also got major production from seniors Grady Eifert and Ryan Cline, as well as sophomores Matt Haarms and Nojel Eastern. Cline captured America's attention in the win over Tennessee, scoring 22 second-half points, including four 3-pointers in the final five minutes when Purdue was trailing.

▸▸▸ 2017-18 | 30-7 | NCAA Sweet 16

After starting the season 4-2, Purdue rattled off a school-record and nation's-best 19-game winning streak, catapulting to No. 3 in the national rankings – equaling Purdue's highest ranking since Feb. 2010.

After finishing second in the Big Ten standings with a 15-3 record, Purdue received a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, cruising to the Sweet 16 with wins over Cal State Fullerton and Butler, the latter coming after dominant big man Isaac Haas broke his elbow against Cal State Fullerton.

Leading Purdue was sophomore Carsen Edwards, who was named the Jerry West Award winner as the nation's best shooting guard and was an All-American honoree by the AP, NABC and Sporting News.

The Boilermakers' offense was ranked No. 2 nationally in efficiency and became the first Big Ten team in 25 years to average at least 76.5 points per game in conference play. The Boilermakers shattered a then-school record with 353 made 3-pointers and Purdue's 29 league wins over the two-year span were the ninth most in consecutive seasons in Big Ten history.

▸▸▸ 2016-17 | 27-8 | NCAA Sweet 16 | Big Ten Champions

With one of the nation's best players leading the charge, Purdue returned to the Sweet 16 and won its league-best 23rd Big Ten championship with an impressive late-season run.

In addition to winning the Big Ten title, the Boilermakers also claimed the Cancun Challenge and won their first game in the Crossroads Classic with a thrilling comeback victory over Notre Dame.

Paving the way was consensus first-team All-American Caleb Swanigan, who set the school record for rebounds and double-doubles while being named the Big Ten Player of the Year, the Pete Newell Big Man of the Year Award winner and a top-three finalist for every major award in college basketball.

Swanigan's development was impressive as he averaged 18.5 points, 12.6 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game, numbers that only Tim Duncan matched in the last 31 years of college basketball.

In addition, Vincent Edwards, Isaac Haas and Dakota Mathias all earned Big Ten accolades.

For the first time during the Painter era, Purdue led the league in scoring offense and scoring margin, while also pacing the league in 3-point percentage, free throw percentage and rebound margin. Purdue finished in the top 100 nationally in 12-of-16 categories, including Painter-era highs in scoring offense (40th), field goal percentage (28th), 3-point percentage (9th), free throw percentage (27th), assists (2nd) and personal fouls (15th).

▸▸▸ 2015-16 | 26-9 | NCAA Tournament

With expectations high after returning almost every key piece as well as landing Purdue's first McDonald's All-American in 25 years, the Boilermakers didn't disappoint in 2015-16, posting a 26-9 overall record, a Big Ten Tournament title game appearance, a Hall of Fame Tipoff Classic title, win their seventh straight Big Ten / ACC Challenge game and advance to their second straight NCAA Tournament.

Purdue started the year 11-0 and ranked as high as No. 9 nationally. Purdue owned back-to-back wins over top-10 ranked programs Michigan State (No. 8) and Maryland (No. 10) and had one of college basketball's premier home-court advantages, posting a school record for home wins (17) and ranking in the nation's top 20 for attendance.

Among NCAA stats, Purdue was ranked among the nation's top 75 in 13-of-17 statistical categories, while setting a school record and ranking third nationally in rebound margin (+10.9).

Individually, Purdue players raked in the honors. A.J. Hammons was Purdue's first All-Big Ten first-team selection and All-American since the 2011-12 season. He was also named the Big Ten's Defensive Player of the Year, the league-best ninth Defensive Player of the Year award for the Boilermaker program.

▸▸▸ 2014-15 | 21-13 | NCAA Tournament

Purdue entered the 2014-15 season as a relative unknown and after some bumps in the road in the non-conference, the Boilermakers surged through Big Ten play and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2011-12 season.

Purdue started the season 11-8, but then won eight of its next nine games, including wins over nationally-ranked foes Iowa and Ohio State and a season sweep of Indiana. The Boilermakers also reached the Big Ten Tournament semifinals for the first time since 2010 and were rewarded with a No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Purdue's turnaround was one for the history books. The Boilermakers might have been the Big Ten's worst-defensive team in the non-conference portion of the schedule, but led the league (in league games only) in field goal percentage defense for the first time in school history, owning the ninth-best field goal percentage defense since the 1973-74 season.

Individually, A.J. Hammons was named second-team All-Big Ten, while Rapheal Davis became Purdue's eighth recipient of the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year Award.

▸▸▸ 2011-12 | 22-13 | NCAA Tournament 2nd Round

Behind a senior core of Hummel, Jackson and Ryne Smith, Painter guided the Boilers to their sixth-straight 20-win season and NCAA Tournament selection in 2011-12. Purdue led the nation in fewest turnovers per game with an average of 8.74, the sixth-best in college basketball since the NCAA began keeping the stat in 1993.

The Boilermakers also finished third nationally in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.54) and ninth in the NCAA in turnover margin (+3.8).

Tenth-seeded Purdue was an underdog to No. 7 seed Saint Mary's in the second round of the 2012 NCAA Tournament in Omaha, but toppled the Gaels, 72-69, to win their 14th NCAA Tournament-opening game in a row. Despite a heroic effort from Hummel, the Boilers dropped a 63-60 decision to Kansas in the round of 32.

Hummel was once again named an All-American after ranking fourth in the Big Ten in both points and rebounds per game, and also earned the third first-team All-Big Ten nod of his career. At the 2012 Final Four in New Orleans, he garnered the prestigious Lowe's Senior CLASS Award in recognition of both his on and off-court achievements.

The Boilermakers were widely written off before the 2010-11 season began as they lost Hummel to another knee injury at the beginning of fall practice. Painter, however, was undaunted and led Purdue to another of the finest seasons in program history.

The Boilers finished 26-8 overall, and 14-4 in the Big Ten to finish second in the league. Purdue posted separate winning streaks of seven and 10 games during the campaign, and knocked off a pair of top-10 teams at Mackey Arena in the same week, defeating No. 10 Wisconsin on Feb. 16 and toppling second-ranked Ohio State by 13 points on Feb. 20. Painter also piloted the Boilermakers to their fifth-straight NCAA Tournament berth, where they defeated Saint Peter's in the second round before falling to eventual Final Four participant VCU in the third round.

JaJuan Johnson led the Big Ten in scoring and blocks en route to being named a consensus All-American, Big Ten Player of the Year and Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, while E'TWaun Moore earned first-team All-Big Ten honors and was named an All-American for the second-straight season after becoming just the fifth Boilermaker in history to break the 2,000-point barrier for his career.

Johnson also earned the Pete Newell Big Man Award from the NABC, given annually to the nation's top interior player as voted by the NABC membership.

▸▸▸ 2009-10 | 29-6 | NCAA Sweet 16 | Big Ten Champions

With a core of talented and experienced players back in the fold, expectations were high for the Boilermakers heading into the 2009-10 season, and Painter and company didn't disappoint.

Ranked seventh to open the season, Purdue won the Paradise Jam in the U.S. Virgin Islands, defeated Wake Forest in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge and came out on top of a top-10 showdown with West Virginia on New Year's Day en route to matching the best start in program history with a 14-0 run to open the year.

Painter's team faced adversity after a 2-3 start to Big Ten play, but rebounded to win 10-straight league games, and 12 of their last 13, to earn a share of the program's first Big Ten title in 14 years. Along the way, the Boilermakers set a program record with four wins over top-10 teams, tied the 1993-94 squad's program standard of six wins over top-25 teams, vanquished decade-long losing streaks at Indiana, Michigan State and Ohio State, and became the first Purdue

The 2010 awards season was also bountiful for Painter's charges, as both Hummel and Moore were named All-Americans -- the former earning second-team honors from the coaches' association and both garnering honorable mention recognition from the AP -- after earning inclusion on the All-Big Ten first team. Johnson was named second-team All-Big Ten following his junior season, while Kramer captured his second-career Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year award and became the first player in league history to be named to the Big Ten All-Defensive Team in each of his four seasons.

▸▸▸ 2008-09 | 27-10 | NCAA Sweet 16 | Big Ten Tournament Champions

Painter kept the ball rolling in a 2008-09 season that proved to be an historic one for the Boilermakers. Purdue was a constant presence in the national polls, rising as high as ninth to mark its first appearance in the AP top 10 since 1999, while its 27 victories were its most in more than a decade.

The Boilermakers were at their best during the 2009 postseason run, rattling off double-digit victories over Penn State and Illinois to reach the Big Ten Tournament final, where they dispatched Ohio State, 65-61, to earn the first conference tournament crown in program history.

The Big Ten Tournament, however, was just the first act of Purdue's postseason script in 2009, as the Boilers earned the fifth seed in the West Region and headed out to Portland, Oregon, for the NCAA Tournament. After defeating Northern Iowa in its first-round game, Purdue earned a 76-74 triumph over Washington in front of a highly-partisan UW crowd at the Rose Garden to capture its first Sweet 16 berth since 2000.

Acclaim was once again forthcoming for Painter's players following the success of the 2008-09 campaign. Johnson, Moore and Hummel were named first, second and third-team All-Big Ten, respectively, while Kramer was an honorable mention all-league pick and Lewis Jackson earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

Having to compensate for the loss of his two senior leaders didn't slow Painter down in 2007-08, as the year proved to be another pivotal step in Purdue's resurgence.

Despite counting four true freshmen, two sophomores and a junior college transfer among his top seven scorers, Painter guided the Boilermakers to a 25-9 record, a second-place finish in the Big Ten and a second-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament.

With a 15-3 record in the Big Ten, the Boilers finished just one game out of first place and swept league champion Wisconsin to hand the Badgers their only two Big Ten losses of the year. Painter also took a team known as the "Baby Boilers" and directed it to an 11-game winning streak during conference play, as Purdue didn't lose for more than a month during the run.

Purdue ranked as high as 14th in the polls in 2007-08, wrapping up the campaign at No. 20 in both the AP and ESPN/USA Today rankings. The Boilers also showed a knack for knocking off some of the nation's top teams in 2007-08, posting three victories over squads ranked in the top 11 spots of the polls.

The season's efforts also brought individual honors for Painter's players, as Hummel became the first Purdue freshman ever to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors, while Moore was named to the second team and Chris Kramer took home Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

Painter rode the momentum of that recruiting haul into the 2006-07 season, which turned out to be a landmark campaign for the program.

Led by Landry and Teague, who both garnered All-Big Ten honors as seniors, the Boilermakers won 22 games en route to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in four years. Purdue won nine conference games in 2006-07, setting a program record for improvement after capturing just three league victories the previous season. The Boilers' 13-game overall turnaround was also a program record, and ranked as the fourth-best in the nation that season.

Painter picked up his first NCAA Tournament win as a head coach along the way, as Purdue defeated Arizona in the first round before dropping a seven-point decision to eventual national champion and top overall seed Florida.

The 2005-06 campaign saw a two-game improvement, from seven wins to nine, over the previous season despite the fact that star guard David Teague missed the entire season with injury and standout forward Carl Landry played only five games before an injury sidelined him for the remainder of the year.

Perhaps the biggest impact of Painter's initial season at the helm was his tenacious recruiting of the state of Indiana. In the fall of 2006, Painter and his staff signed four in-state products, including future Purdue stars Robbie Hummel, JaJuan Johnson and E'Twaun Moore, in a class that was ranked first in the Big Ten and regarded as one of the nation's five best by various recruiting publications.

As part of a planned transition into the head coaching job, Painter was tabbed in April of 2004 to succeed Keady. He spent the 2004-05 campaign as associate head coach as the Boilermakers won just seven games and finished 10th in the Big Ten.

▸▸▸ On the Recruiting Trail

Purdue has been a fixture in the country's top-30 recruiting classes under Painter, being ranked in the nation's top 30 eight times. However, it's the development and perfect fit from his classes that deserve the praise.

The most-recent recruiting class might be one of his most impressive. Ranked in the top 10 nationally and consisting of six players, the group features three players ranked in the 247Sports top-100. Highlighted by Gicarri Harris and Daniel Jacobsen, and adding Raleigh Burgess (was top 100 before an injury) and underrated players C.J. Cox and Jack Benter, the group figures to help keep Purdue near the top of the Big Ten standings.

The 2022 Class featured four players, comprising a class that ranked No. 26 nationally according to 247Sports. Indiana natives Braden Smith won Mr. Basketball, while backcourt mate Fletcher Loyer was named Indiana's Gatorade Player of the Year. Cam Heide was one of the state's top recruits in Minnesota while Sweden's Will Berg is a late bloomer with loads of potential.

The 2021 recruiting haul featured two top-50 players in Trey Kaufman-Renn and Caleb Furst, two in-state players that finished 1-2 in the Indiana Mr. Basketball race. Among schools that signed only two players, Purdue's class was ranked third nationally. Brian Waddell was a spring signee that many feel is a rising star in the class.

Purdue had both Mr. Basketball and Mr. Basketball runner-up in the state of Indiana in two of the last three classes.

The 2020 Class featured two top-75 players for the first time since the Class of 2007 (Baby Boilers), in addition to the No. 436 prospect in center Zach Edey, who became a two-time National Player of the Year. Another member of the class, Jaden Ivey, became Purdue's first NBA Draft Lottery pick in almost 30 years when he went No. 5 to the Detroit Pistons in the 2022 NBA Draft.

In 2015, Painter landed the nation's No. 9-ranked prospect Caleb Swanigan, Purdue's first Indiana Mr. Basketball since 1991 and the first McDonald's All-American since 1996, in addition to Ryan Cline and Grant Weatherford to give the Boilermakers the No. 23-ranked class according to ESPN.com.

However, it's the "underrated recruits" that have helped Purdue's surge. The 2018 senior class had one top-100 recruit (Isaac Haas), but went down as one of the best classes in school history.

Zach Edey was ranked No. 436 in his senior class, but developed into the unanimous two-time National Player of the Year honoree in 2023 and 2024. The Class of 2020 was ranked just 23rd nationally, but produced two first-team All-Americans (Edey, Ivey).

Jaden Ivey was ranked No. 85 in the final 247Sports rankings in 2020, but developed into an All-American and lottery pick in just two seasons. Trevion Williams was ranked 154th nationally by 247Sports in 2018, but became a first-team All-Big Ten selection and is off to a successful professional career in Germany.

Carsen Edwards, a class of 2016 recruit, was a borderline top-100 player, but helped Team USA to a bronze medal in the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup, serving as one of the team's top players, before being named a two-time All-American in 2018 and 2019.

The 2018-19 season featured one player that was ranked in the top-100 (Nojel Eastern), but reached the Elite Eight and won the Big Ten Championship. Painter's vision and construction of rosters is among the best in the country, signing players that fit the way he wants to play.

Counting back from last year (2022), Purdue's classes have been ranked 10th (2024), 66th (2023), 26th (2022), 23rd (2021), 23rd (2020), 42nd (2019), 38th (2018), 24th (2017), unranked (2016), 23rd (2015), 26th (2014), 38th (2013), 19th (2012), unranked (2011), unranked (2010), unranked (2009), unranked (2008) and 11th (2007).

▸▸▸ Home Cooking

Painter has resurrected Mackey Arena into one of the country's best home-court advantages, piling up a 268-44 (.887) record at home, including a remarkable 129-9 (.935) record against non-conference opponents. Purdue owns a Big Ten-best 83-12 (.874) record against league opponents in Mackey Arena since the 2014-15 season, having boasted the league's best record in five of the last eight seasons. Purdue is 57-4 (.934) over the last four seasons in Mackey Arena, the nation's fourth-best home record behind Houston, Gonzaga and Kansas.

Three years ago, FOX Sports named the Paint Crew as the best student section in America and many national writers have boasted that Mackey is one of the top three arenas in America.

In each of the last two seasons, Mackey Arena has set a school record for average attendance (14,876), selling out every game in Mackey Arena in each of the last four seasons and carrying a 73-game sellout streak into the 2024-25 season.

Mackey Arena continues to be one of the loudest arenas in America, registering an ear-splitting 124.3 dB against Northwestern on Jan. 31, 2024, while surpassing 120.0 dB four times during the 2023-24 season.

▶▶▶ The Next Level

With Painter at the helm of the Purdue program, a host of Boilermakers have earned the opportunity to play basketball at the professional level.

Since the 2011 NBA Draft, Purdue has had nine NBA Draft selections.

Carl Landry became the first NBA draft choice of the Painter Era in 2007, when Seattle called his name with the No. 31 selection and traded his rights to Houston. Landry went on to earn a place on the 2008 NBA All-Rookie Team, and finished his career scoring over 5,500 career points and 2,500 rebounds while playing in 513 career games.

The 2011 NBA Draft was a seminal moment in the history of the program, as Johnson and Moore were both selected and, by the end of the night, reunited as members of the Boston Celtics. After being selected 27th overall by New Jersey to become Purdue's first first-round pick since 1994, Johnson was traded to Boston, which later chose Moore with the 55th overall selection.

After battling back from injuries to post a standout senior season, Hummel was chosen 58th overall by Minnesota in the 2012 draft.

A.J. Hammons gave Painter his fifth NBA Draft selection when he was taken by Dallas as the 46th pick in the 2016 Draft.

In 2017, Caleb Swanigan became Purdue's highest NBA Draft pick since 1994, when he was taken 26th by Portland.

In the 2018 draft, Vince Edwards was taken 52nd by the Utah Jazz. It gave Purdue a draft pick in three straight drafts for the first time since 1974-84 (11 drafts) and the Boilermakers are currently one of six programs to have a player selected in three straight drafts.

Carsen Edwards was selected as the 33rd pick in the 2019 NBA Draft, marking the fourth straight year (one of six schools) to have a player taken in four straight drafts.

The 2022 NBA Draft was another landmark moment in the Painter era, as Jaden Ivey became Purdue's first lottery pick since Glenn Robinson in 1994 when he was selected fifth by Detroit.

Former Purdue standouts Trevion Williams, Sasha Stefanovic, Dakota Mathias, Vince Edwards, Isaac Haas, Chris Kramer and Keaton Grant have also started promising professional careers.

JaJuan Johnson became the highest-paid non-European player to play in Russia when he recently signed a two-million dollar a year deal with Lokomotiv Kuban in 2017.

Numerous players who studied under Painter in West Lafayette have also forged professional careers overseas, including recent Boilermakers Eric Hunter Jr., Aaron Wheeler, Terone Johnson, David Teague, Nemanja Calasan and Marcus Green.

▶▶▶ Honors and Awards

As the architect of some of the finest season's in Purdue's long basketball history, it is only fitting that Painter has been recognized time and again by both his coaching peers and the media for his efforts.

In 2019, he was named the national Coach of the Year by his peers – the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) after leading a "rebuilding" team to the Elite Eight and the school's 24th Big Ten Championship. It marked the second straight year that Painter was considered a finalist for a national Coach of the Year award.

In 2023, Painter took a team that was predicted in the middle of the pack of the Big Ten race to a No. 1 seed and a pair of Big Ten Championships. For his leadership, he was named a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year award.

Painter has been named Big Ten Coach of the Year five times, earning the award in 2008, 2010, 2011, 2019 and 2024.

Painter is one of only three men to win the award at least five times since its inception in 1974, along with Keady and former Indiana coach Bob Knight. Painter's five wins, combined with Keady's seven, give Purdue a league-best 12 Big Ten Coach of the Year honors.

While at Purdue, Painter has also been named a district coach of the year by the NABC four times and the USBWA three times, as well as a four-time finalist for the Jim Phelan Coach of the Year award. He was also selected as a finalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year award, the Henry Iba Coach of the Year award and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year award in 2008.

▶▶▶ Success off the Court

Winning championships, however, is only one part of Painter's equation for success. He has also focused himself on developing student-athletes who will represent Purdue with pride.

This past year, Purdue players combined for a 3.14 GPA during the spring semester with 12 players boasting a 3.00 GPA or better. The cumulative GPA entering following the 2023-24 season stands at 3.26. The team was honored by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC)

All but two players that exhausted their eligibility at Purdue has received their diploma.

To that end, Painter has seen a total of 47 players earn a combined 88 Academic All-Big Ten honors during his tenure as head coach. Painter has also mentored a pair of Academic All-Americans, as Moore earned second-team honors during the 2009-10 season and Swanigan was tabbed a second-team honoree for the 2016-17 campaign.

A commitment to the community is also part of Painter's focus on student-athlete development, and his players devote themselves to that cause during their time under his watch, spending numerous hours volunteering their time to read to youth at local elementary schools.

In addition to participation in Special Olympics clinics, Painter's players have also visited local elementary schools and hospitals and devoted time to the Boys and Girls Club and Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

The Boilermakers have hosted a shopping spree for disadvantaged area families in each of the last 13 years with the exception of the 2020 Holiday season (pandemic). Every year, members of the Boilermaker men's basketball program given up part of their holiday per diem to aid in the shopping spree.

In 2012, Hummel became Purdue's first-ever winner of the prestigious Senior CLASS Award, given annually to the Division I men's basketball player who exemplifies four areas of excellence: classroom, character, community and competition. In 2022, Sasha Stefanovic was a finalist for the same award, earning first-team Senior CLASS All-America honors.

Painter has also taken part of the Coaches Charity Challenge, helping raise over $200,000 for charity. After three runner-up finishes in the national competition, Painter finally took home the title in the 2015 competition, before finishing in the top four in 2016, 2017 and 2018. Two seasons ago, Painter participated in the Coaches vs. Cancer T-Shirt Challenge, leading the country with over $27,000 raised.

Teaming with his wife, Sherry, Painter has been very active in the local scene in raising money for cancer awareness.

▶▶▶ Team USA Highlights

In July of 2009, Painter extended his reach past the collegiate game and into the international arena, serving as an assistant coach with the United States' squad that captured the gold medal at the FIBA U19 World Championship in Auckland, New Zealand. Despite medaling in seven of the previous nine U19 Worlds, Team USA hadn't won gold since 1991.

Two of Painter's players also garnered international attention in 2009, as Hummel and Johnson were both invited to the World University Games Trials. Hummel eventually made the squad and helped lead the Americans to a bronze medal.

In the summer of 2010, Johnson was chosen as part of an elite group of college players known as the USA Men's Select Team, whose charge was to help Team USA train for its gold-medal run at the FIBA World Championship.

Painter himself once again ventured into the international spectrum in the summer of 2011, serving as head coach for the U.S. World University Games Team in Shenzhen, China. Despite being knocked from medal contention with a loss in the quarterfinals, Painter led the USA to a 7-1 record that tied for the best in the tournament.

The past 10 summers, Painter served on the committee to select the team for the United States U18 and U19 National Team, serving as the chairperson of the selection committee in each of the last five years.

Several of his players, including Hummel, Johnson, Hammons, Swanigan, Vincent Edwards, Isaac Haas, Trevion Williams, Jaden Ivey, Caleb Furst and Myles Colvin, have spent time in US National Team training camps.

In addition, Ethan Morton ventured another route, winning a U18 3x3 World Championship in Mongolia during the summer of 2019.

Carsen Edwards helped Team USA to a bronze medal in the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup, averaging 10.4 points per game and leading the team in assists (23), while Trevion Williams helped Team USA to a gold medal in the 2019 U19 World Cup in Greece, averaging about eight points and seven rebounds.

In the summer of 2021, three Boilermakers exploded onto the International scene at the FIBA U19 World Cup in Latvia. Both Zach Edey and Jaden Ivey were representatives on the FIBA U19 World Cup All-Star 5 Team after dominating performances. Edey led Team Canada to a bronze medal by averaging 15.1 points and 14.1 rebounds per game, while Ivey led USA to the Gold medal after averaging 12.3 points and 3.1 rebounds per game. In addition, Caleb Furst also won Gold after averaging over seven points and four rebounds per game in Latvia.

In the summer of 2023, Myles Colvin made the U19 World Cup team for USA Basketball, helping the Americans to a fourth-place finish.

Incoming recruit Daniel Jacobsen earned a spot on the 2024 US U-18 National Team, playing in the 2024 Americas Cup in Buenos Aires, Brazil, in early June.

▸▸▸ World University Games

Serving as USA's representative for the 29th World University Games, the Boilermakers won the Silver Medal, posting a 7-1 record. Purdue posted five straight games scoring 100 points and during the experience, won six games against teams that would be considered NCAA Tournament caliber.

It marked the second time that Coach Painter had taken a team to the World University Games, now owning a 14-2 record against international competition.

▸▸▸ Playing Career

A hard-nosed guard with excellent court vision and passing skills, Painter played under Keady at Purdue from 1990-93, leading the Boilermakers to three NCAA Tournament bids and an NIT appearance. He piled up 276 assists during his playing days, a figure that still ranks 20th on the program's career chart.

Painter served as team captain as a senior in 1992-93, earning honorable mention All-Big Ten honors after averaging better than 4.5 assists per game.

▸▸▸ Prior to Purdue

Painter wasted no time in beginning his journey through the college coaching ranks, joining former Purdue assistant and Boilermaker associate athletics director, the late Tom Reiter at Washington & Jefferson College for the 1993-94 season. He helped guide Washington & Jeff to a 22-3 record and an appearance in the Division III Elite Eight in his only season on the bench.

After spending the 1994-95 campaign as an assistant at Division II Barton College, Painter broke into the Division I coaching ranks as an assistant at Eastern Illinois. Painter's stint in Charleston, Ill., lasted from 1995-98. During his tenure, Painter was heavily involved in recruiting EIU stars Kyle Hill and Henry Domercant, who later led the Panthers to the 2001 NCAA Tournament.

In 1998, Painter reunited with former longtime Purdue assistant Bruce Weber at Southern Illinois, where he spent five seasons as the latter's top assistant and helped quickly reverse the fortunes of a program that had suffered three-straight losing season prior to his arrival. Painter helped return Southern Illinois to the national spotlight during the 2001-02 season, mentoring a team that set a school record with 28 wins and advanced to the Sweet 16. The Salukis made a return trip to the Big Dance with Painter on the bench in 2003, and were featured in a nationally-televised documentary on MTV.

Painter was introduced to the head coaching ranks at Southern Illinois in 2003-04, when he succeeded longtime Purdue assistant Bruce Weber in Carbondale and led the Salukis to a 25-5 record and an NCAA Tournament berth. SIU rose as high as 15th in the AP poll during the campaign, and Painter was rewarded with Missouri Valley Coach of the Year honors.

BRANDON BRANTLEY

- Assistant Coach
- Purdue (1996)
- 12th Season at Purdue

Brandon Brantley enters his 12th year as an assistant coach at Purdue. Brantley spends the majority of his on-court duties coaching Purdue's big men.

Since his arrival, Purdue has advanced to nine NCAA Tournaments, five Sweet 16s, two Elite Eights, appeared in the National Championship game a year ago and has won five Big Ten titles while becoming the dominant team in the Big Ten.

The current stretch Purdue is on is the best in school history, being ranked No. 1 in the country for three straight years - the first Big Ten team to do so in league history. The Boilermakers have won 92 games since the start of the 2021-22 season, the second-most victories in the country.

His work with Purdue's big men has been well noted, recently helping turn Zach Edey and Trevion Williams into the best big men in America.

Zach Edey became one of college basketball's most-dominant players in history, after repeating as the consensus National Player of the Year in 2024, becoming just the second consensus NPOY in the last 60 years (UCLA's Bill Walton). Edey averaged an NCAA-best 25.2 points and 12.2 rebounds per game in becoming the first player to lead the country and reach the Final Four in the same season since Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson in 1960. Edey also became just the second player in NCAA history to score at least 975 points and have 470 rebounds in a single season (Houston's Elvin Hayes, 1968).

In 2023, Edey became Purdue's third National Player of the Year recipient after one of the most-dominating seasons by a collegiate big man in NCAA history. Edey averaged 22.3 points, 12.9 rebounds and 2.1 blocked shots per game to run away with unanimous National Player of the Year accolades. He became the first player in NCAA history to score 750 points with 400 rebounds, 70 blocked shots and 50 assists.

Edey also dominated the paint in 2022, becoming just the seventh player in college basketball over the last 30 years to average at least 14 points, seven rebounds, one assist and one block in under 25 minutes per game and the only one to do so in under 20 minutes per game. He was one of three of the seven to shoot at least 60.0 percent from the field.

In 2022, the Boilermakers reached the No. 1 ranking for the first time in school history, posted a 29-8 overall record and reached the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in the last five tournaments. Brantley was critical in the development of sophomores Jaden Ivey and Edey as both were named all-Big Ten and received All-American mentions. Ivey was selected No. 5 in the 2022 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons.

In 2021, Williams was named a finalist for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award and named first-team All-Big Ten in 2021. He teamed with freshman Zach Edey to average a combined 24.2 points and 13.6 rebounds per game in 2021.

During the 2018-19 season, Brantley was instrumental in the development of sophomore Matt Haarms, who had an outstanding second half of the season and became the first Big Ten player to lead the league in field goal percentage and blocked shots in the same season since Ohio State's Greg Oden in 2007.

In 2017-18, Brantley helped Purdue to a school-record 30 wins and its second straight Sweet 16 appearance. Purdue's center, Isaac Haas, was named an honorable mention All-American and was a finalist for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award given to the nation's best center. Purdue is the only school in America to have three different players in the last three years be named finalist for a Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame position award (Abdul-Jabbar Award, Malone Award).

Eight years ago, he helped in the development of Caleb Swanigan, who was named a consensus first-team All-American, the Pete Newell Big Man of the Year Award winner and the Big Ten Player of the Year. Swanigan was a completely different player from his freshman to sophomore season under Brantley's guidance. In addition, junior center Isaac Haas led the Big Ten in points / 40 minutes and ranks seventh on Purdue's career field goal percentage list.

Swanigan finished the season as the first player in college basketball since Tim Duncan to average at least 18.5 points, 12.5 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game and is the only player in college basketball in the last 31 years to have 640 points, 430 rebounds and 100 assists in a season.

During the 2015-16 season, A.J. Hammons was named first-team All-Big Ten and honorable mention All-America while freshman Swanigan was named to the Big Ten's All-Freshman Team. In addition, the Boilermakers led the country in points scored on post-ups and ranked third nationally in rebound margin, setting a school record in the process. Swanigan led the league in rebounding as a freshman.

Brantley has made a solid impact on the recruiting trail as well, recruiting the fertile grounds of Indianapolis, Chicago and nationally in the search for Purdue's next dominant big man. Brantley has made a major impact on Purdue's recruiting efforts locally.

Brantley has extensive experience on the sidelines, spending the last two years with Basketball University and as the EG10 AAU Under-16 head coach. During his time with the EG10 Under-16 squad, he guided the team to the Bob Gibbons Tournament of Champions title in Atlanta during late April of this past year.

Brantley was key figure in Purdue's run of success in the Big Ten Conference in the mid-90s. He helped the Boilermakers to three Big Ten Championships, serving as the team captain of the 1995-96 squad that posted a 26-6 overall record, a 15-3 Big Ten mark and the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament's West Region.

TERRY JOHNSON

- Assistant Coach
- Purdue Ft. Wayne (1998)
- 4th Season at Purdue

Terry Johnson enters his fourth year as an assistant coach with the Purdue men's basketball program in 2024-25.

Johnson came to Purdue after a successful stint as an assistant coach at Ohio State. In his four years at Ohio State, Johnson has helped transform the Buckeyes into a national power on the court while serving as an outstanding recruiter in Columbus.

A year ago in his third season at Purdue, the Boilermakers recorded one of their best seasons in school history with a 34-5 overall record, a Big Ten regular-season title and a spot in the National Championship game. Shifting to the defensive side of the ball, Johnson was instrumental in guiding a defense to rank 12th nationally in defensive efficiency, the highest mark for the Boilermakers since 2000 (11th) and the third-highest ranking in the last 13 years. Under his tutelage, center Zach Edey became a semi-finalist for the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year award and was a member of the Big Ten's All-Defense Team.

Johnson's second year was once again highlighted by one of the nation's top offenses, ranking 12th nationally in offensive efficiency, led by the National Player of the Year Zach Edey. The Boilermakers reached No. 1 for the second straight season, won the Big Ten championship by three games and earned the school's fourth No. 1 seed in school history. The Boilermakers accomplished that with a pair of freshman guards in the backcourt - Braden Smith and Fletcher Loyer.

During Johnson's first year at Purdue, the Boilermakers reached the No. 1 ranking for the first time in school history, posted a 29-8 overall record and reached the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in the last five tournaments. Johnson was critical in the development of sophomores Jaden Ivey and Zach Edey as both were named all-Big Ten and received All-American mentions. Ivey was selected No. 5 in the 2022 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons, while Edey will return for his junior season as a preseason national Player of the Year candidate.

During his four seasons at Ohio State, Johnson helped the Buckeyes to an 87-44 record during the span, while reaching three NCAA Tournaments, including second-round appearances in 2018 and 2019 and a No. 2 seed in the 2021 tournament and making the Big Ten Tournament title game in March.

In 2019-20, the Buckeyes were ranked as high as No. 4 nationally before ending the season ranked No. 7 in the final AP Top 25 poll. Ohio State finished with a 21-10 record that included nine Quad-1 victories. He was instrumental in the development of First-Team All-Big Ten selection E.J. Liddell, and the Buckeyes boasted the fourth-most efficient offense in America.

In his first year in Columbus, Ohio State finished the 2018 season with a 25-9 overall record. The Buckeyes recorded a 15-3 Big Ten Conference regular-season record to help the Buckeyes to a second-place finish in the league standings.

Ohio State completed the 2018-19 campaign with another 20-win season and a second-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament Second Round after a defeat of Iowa State in the NCAA First Round game in Tulsa.

Heading into the 2020 Big Ten Tournament, which, along with the 2020 NCAA Tournament was canceled, the Buckeyes built an overall record of 21-10 with a league mark of 11-9, good enough for a tie for the No. 5 spot in the league standings. The Big Ten was considered the best league nationally and the toughest top-to-bottom in perhaps the history of the league in 2020, only to be outdone in 2021.

Johnson arrived in Columbus after 10 seasons as an assistant at Butler, where he helped the Bulldogs to eight NCAA Tournaments, including consecutive Final Fours in 2010 and 2011, four regular-season conference championships and three conference tournament titles. The Bulldogs ranked in the Top 25 nationally eight times in those 10 seasons, had seven players garner Academic All-America honors and sent two players to the NBA. In 2015, Johnson was invited to the Villa 7 Consortium, which brings together university athletics directors and the country's elite assistant coaches in an effort to prepare the next generation of college basketball leaders.

Johnson played both basketball and baseball at Lincoln Trail from 1992-94, where he was named all-conference in both sports and was named an honorable mention All-American in basketball. From there, he went to Lamar University and again played both sports from 1994-96, leading the basketball team in assists and steals two years in a row. Johnson earned his bachelor's degree from IPFW in 1998, earning all-conference, team MVP and Co-Male Athlete of the Year honors while playing baseball for the Mastodons. Johnson went on to play baseball professionally for the Tri-City Posse of the Western League for two years and the Anderson Lawmen of the Heartland League for another season. In addition, Johnson earned his master's degree in sports administration from Western Kentucky in 2011.

Johnson and his wife, Kristen, are parents of three boys, twins Jalen and Jordan, and Caden.

- 4th Season at Purdue

Assistant coach Paul Lusk returns to Purdue for his fourth season in 2024-25 in his second stint with the Boilermakers.

A year ago in his third season at Purdue, the Boilermakers recorded one of their best seasons in school history with a 34-5 overall record, a Big Ten regular-season title and a spot in the National Championship game. Shifting to the defensive side of the ball, Johnson was instrumental in guiding a defense to rank 12th nationally in defensive efficiency, the highest mark for the Boilermakers since 2000 (11th) and the third-highest ranking in the last 13 years. Under his tutelage, center Zach Edey became a semi-finalist for the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year award and was a member of the Big Ten's All-Defense Team.

Two years ago, the Boilermakers were vastly improved on the defensive end, ranking in the nation's top 25 in defensive efficiency and holding opponents to 62.7 points per game. Zach Edey was a semifinalist for the National Defensive of the Year and Purdue finished the year with a 29-6 record, won the Big Ten regular-season and tournament titles and earned the fourth No. 1 seed in Purdue history.

During Lusk's first year at Purdue, the Boilermakers reached the No. 1 ranking for the first time in school history, posted a 29-8 overall record and reached the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in the last five tournaments. Lusk was critical in the development of sophomores Jaden Ivey and Zach Edey as both were named all-Big Ten and received All-American mentions. Ivey was selected No. 5 in the 2022 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons, while Edey will return for his junior season as a preseason national Player of the Year candidate.

Lusk's return marks his second stint with the Boilermakers, serving as an assistant coach / associate head coach for seven years from 2005-11. During that time with the Boilermakers, Lusk helped Purdue to five NCAA Tournaments, two Sweet 16 appearances, and a Big Ten regular-season and tournament championship, while boasting one of America's strongest defenses.

For the previous three seasons, Lusk has been an assistant coach at Creighton, helping the Bluejays to a 66-31 record during that span. Creighton won a share of the Big East regular-season title in 2020, and reached both the Big East Tournament title game and the Sweet 16 (for the first time since 1974) during this past season.

Over the past three seasons, the Bluejays defense was ranked 83rd, 78th and 32nd in national defensive efficiency, their best mark since the 2006 season. He was named a top-five assistant coach in the Big East by Stadium following the 2020 season.

Lusk was also instrumental in the development of all-Big East honorees Marcus Zegarowsky, Damien Jefferson and Denzel Mahoney.

Lusk arrived in Omaha after spending the previous seven seasons as a head coach at Missouri State, winning 105 games and advancing to the Arch Madness semifinals in both 2014 and 2017. His 2013-14 club went 20-13 and reached the CollegeInsider.com Tournament, while his 2017-18 team went 18-15.

Lusk coached 10 MVC Scholar-Athlete Team selections, six All-MVC players, four All-Freshman Team picks, four members of the MVC All-Newcomer Team and two members of The Valley's Most-Improved Team in seven seasons in Springfield. He also coached the 2016 and 2017 MVC Newcomers of the Year, as well as current Brooklyn Nets forward Alize Johnson.

Lusk arrived at Missouri State after seven seasons as an assistant coach and associate head coach at Purdue. During his tenure on the Purdue coaching staff, Lusk helped guide the Boilermakers to five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances with a collective 129-45 ledger during that span.

Noted for his defensive prowess, Lusk helped guide a Purdue defense that ranked in the top 16 in defensive efficiency for five straight seasons from 2007 to 2011. During that five-year stretch, Purdue had seven All-Big Ten defensive team members and three Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honorees (Chris Kramer – 2008 and 2010; JaJuan Johnson – 2011).

Before moving to Purdue, he spent one season on Painter's staff at Southern Illinois in 2003-04, a campaign that also culminated in an NCAA Tournament berth, a No. 15 national ranking and a 25-5 record.

Prior to that, he spent one season as head coach at the University of Dubuque. His head coaching debut came on the heels of three seasons at Division II Missouri Southern State in Joplin where he was an assistant. The Lions were 71-21 in that span (1999-2002) with an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1999-2000. His coaching career started with a one-year stint as an assistant at Southwestern Illinois College in Belleville.

The native of New Baden, Illinois, began his playing career at Iowa in 1990 where he spent two years before he found a home at Southern Illinois under head coach Rich Herrin. He helped guide the Salukis to three straight NCAA Tournament trips (1993-95), earning All-MVC second-team honors in 1994 with a 15.2 scoring average as a junior. As a senior, he earned a spot on the Valley Scholar-Athlete and All-Tournament teams and finished his Saluki career with 1,031 points.

He went on to play professionally both in the United States and Argentina and earned two different invitations to the Phoenix Suns' training camp.

A 1995 graduate of Southern Illinois, Lusk and his wife Melanie have a daughter, Maddie, and a son, Jack. The couple both earned their Masters of Science in Education from Missouri State in 2000. Jack will be a sophomore on the Purdue basketball team this coming season.

Thompson's offense averaged 82.3 points per game, Purdue's highest average in 26 years. The Boilermakers ranked fourth nationally in offensive efficiency, second nationally in 3-point percentage and 15th in scoring offense, while setting school records in points scored, assists and assist / turnover ratio. Purdue had four players with at least 50 made 3-pointers for the second time in school history (2017-18), and tied for the most in the country. Thompson was also instrumental in the continued development of Braden Smith and Fletcher Loyer. Thompson was instrumental in the development of Purdue's young guards four years ago, serving as a mentor to the young guards. The Boilermakers posted an 18-10 overall record with a 13-6 Big Ten record while earning a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament, thanks to strong play from its young backcourt.
