• Purdue's first trip to the state of Michigan since 2015 doubles as the first of consecutive three-team pod weekends for the Boilermakers as they take on Penn State and Michigan State in East Lansing.
• Purdue has not played a game in the state of Michigan since winning the finale of its May 2015 series at Michigan State. The Boilermakers were scheduled to open and close the Big Ten season in Ann Arbor and East Lansing last year prior to the shutdown. Purdue has played 260 games in 24 different states since its last game in Michigan.
• Meanwhile, the Boilermakers and Spartans have only played six games against each other since the start of the 2016 campaign. With Purdue and MSU also in the same three-team pod next weekend in Champaign, the Boilermakers are scheduled to play four consecutive games against the Spartans over a week's time.

HEAD COACH GREG GOFF

Greg Goff joined Purdue baseball as an assistant coach in July 2017 and was promoted to head coach in June 2019. The 2021 season will be his 16th as a collegiate head coach.

Previously a head coach at four universities, Goff succeeded his friend and longtime colleague Mark Wasikowski, who returned to the University of Oregon as the Ducks' new head coach in June 2019.

Goff has previously served as the head coach at Campbell University (2008-14), Louisiana Tech University (2015-16) and the University of Alabama (2017) as well as Division II University of Montevallo (2004-07). He also helped lead the Boilermakers to a memorable 38-win season in 2018, punctuated by the program's third NCAA Regional bid in program history. Purdue finished second in the Big Ten standings and was also the runner-up at the Big Ten Tournament in Goff's first year with the program.

Along with bringing an upbeat personality to the dugout and contagious energy to his role as the first-base coach, Goff helped numerous Boilermakers develop offensively the last two years. He played a leading role in coaching the base running and outfield defense. He also filled in as the program's pitching coach for a few games during a 2018 home sweep of Michigan while Steve Holm was with his wife for the birth of their second child. Purdue has compiled a 28-15 record at Alexander since Goff joined the coaching staff, headlined by a program-record 13-game home win streak to close the 2018 campaign. That represents Purdue's best two-year mark at home since 2011 to 2012.

In his first two years at Purdue, Goff helped develop and organize new community events for the program like the preseason fan fest and first pitch dinner. Both events proved very popular and helped generate preseason interest going into the new campaign. He has also served as the director of Purdue baseball camps.

Twenty-six Boilermakers registered a grade-point average of 3.0 or better during the 2019 fall semester. During the 2016-17 school year, Alabama's 3.259 team GPA established a program record.

Over 40 Purdue players completed at least 10 hours of community service during the 2019 fall semester as part of the program's increased emphasis in that aspect of the student-athlete experience. As a team, Goff's team logged over 450 hours of community service during the first half of the 2019-20 school year.

Goff and his wife, Tina, are the parents of four daughters: Kara, Kiley, Kolby and Kenzie. Kara plays softball at Louisiana Tech and Kiley joined Purdue softball for the 2020-21 school year.

SIX 40-WIN SEASONS

- As a head coach, Goff's teams have won over 40 games six times. Campbell was one of only eight Division I programs to win 40-plus games for three straight years from 2012 to 2014, posting 131 total victories during that span. The Camels enjoyed a historic 49-10 campaign in 2013.
- He also won 42 games in his final season at Louisiana Tech, helping lead the Bulldogs to an NCAA Regional bid.
- Montevallo was a DII College World Series qualifier in 2006 under his guidance. As an assistant coach at Delta State, the Statesmen also qualified for the DII College World Series in 1994 and 1996.

ENDED NCAA REGIONAL DROUGHTS AT CAMPBELL & LOUISIANA TECH

- In Goff's final season at Campbell (2014), the Camels qualified for their first NCAA Regional in 24 years. Two years later, he led Louisiana Tech to its first Regional bid in 29 years. The 2014 Camels and 2016 Bulldogs both won at least one game in their Regionals, with La Tech coming through the loser's bracket to reach a Regional final at Mississippi State.

HISTORY OF TURNAROUNDS

- Goff's teams have had a losing record only five times in his 14 years as a head coach. Four of those five seasons were his first at a respective university. He has led his teams to some impressive turnarounds.
- In just two seasons, Louisiana Tech went from 15-35 the year before Goff's arrival to 42-20 in 2016, ending a 29-year NCAA Regional drought in the process. At Campbell, he inherited a team that was 11-45 in 2007. But under Goff, the Camels posted a winning record (27-24) in his second season and won 40 games by his fifth year (2012).
- Purdue's win total also jumped from 29-27 in 2017 to 38-21 in Goff's first year on the staff in 2018.

COACHING HONORS

- Goff was named the South Central Region Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association at both Louisiana Tech (2016) and Montevallo (2006). He was the 2013 Big South Coach of the Year at Campbell after leading his team to a school-record 49 wins and a conference title. Montevallo won a combined 100 games over his final two seasons, posting a new single-season record both years.

BEFORE BECOMING A HEAD COACH

- Goff has coached 10 future big leaguers and over 50 MLB Draft picks, highlighted by Cy Young award winner Brandon Webb while he was the pitching coach at Kentucky (2000-03). Longtime big leaguer and World Series champion Joe Blanton also pitched for Goff at Kentucky.
- Along with his years as the pitching coach at Kentucky, Goff served as an assistant at Southeast Missouri State (1998-99) and his alma mater Delta State (1994-97) before becoming a head coach for the first time in the summer of 2003 at Montevallo. It was at SEMO in the late 1990s where he first worked with Wasikowski. They helped lead the Redhawks to an NCAA Regional in 1998.

HUNTER'S PURSUIT

Skyler Hunter is chasing Purdue's all-time records for hits and triples as a fifth-year senior this season. He is the Big Ten's active career leader and ranks among the top five nationally in both categories. Hunter has been a starter in center field since the beginning of the 2017 season.

STRUGGLES PERSIST IN BIG TEN RUBBER GAMES

• Rubber games won't be a factor over the next two weekends as Purdue plays four games at both of its three-team pods. The Boilermakers have had an opportunity to win four of their first five series this season, but they've dropped a rubber game each of the last three weekends. Since mid-April 2019, the program has lost six straight Big Ten rubber games. Purdue has also lost 10 of its last 11 Big Ten rubber games since mid-April 2017 and is just 8-26 in Big Ten rubber games since the beginning of the 2010 campaign. Three of those losses have come at the hands of Michigan State and are part of the reason why the Boilermakers have not won a series vs. MSU since April 2012.

• Coincidentally, Purdue went 5-0 in Big Ten rubber games in 2009, including a rubber game win in East Lansing.

SIMINGTON STREAKS INTO SELECT COMPANY

• Miles Simington placed his name among some select company with a pair of notable streaks during the six-game homestand. He joined current big leaguer Kevin Plawecki (2012) as the only Boilermakers since 2001 with a double in five consecutive games. Simington is also just one of 10 Purdue players since 2001 with an extra-base hit in five straight contests.

• Simington also had two hits in each of the first four games of the six-game homestand, finishing his first action at Alexander Field 11-for-26 with six doubles, four RBI and five runs scored over the six games. He was just the ninth Boilermaker since 2013 with multiple hits in at least four straight games.

IOWA COULDN'T KEEP CAM OFF BASE

• Cam Thompson also caught fire on the back half of the six-game homestand. He reached base safely in seven of his nine plate appearances vs. Iowa, becoming just the eighth Boilermaker since 2016 to reach safely in 70% of his plate appearances in a series (minimum 8 PAs). However, three other active Boilermakers – Tyler Powers, Ben Nisle, Ryan Howe – plus assistant coach Harry Shipley have also accomplished the feat.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

• Over its first 17 games, Purdue has scored 17 of its 63 runs (27%) in the ninth inning. Even with only a 44-game regular-season schedule this year, the Boilermakers are already halfway to becoming just the sixth Purdue team since 2001 with at least 30 runs in the ninth inning.

• The ninth inning has been the team's most productive frame, with only the third inning (16 runs) being close entering weekend No. 6. Three of Purdue's five biggest rallies have been in the ninth inning this season – seven vs. Rutgers (March 27), four vs. Rutgers (March 26) and three vs. Iowa (April 4).

NINTH-INNING MAGIC DURING HOME-OPENING WEEKEND

• Purdue's home-opening weekend was highlighted by Saturday's memorable ninth-inning comeback, which produced the ninth walk-off win in Alexander Field history. The seven-run rally in the bottom of the ninth was the program's most prolific do-or-die inning at home in the last 20 years. An April 2008 win vs. Minnesota at Lambert Field, which was a seven-inning affair as part of a Saturday doubleheader, marked the only other time the Boilermakers scored at least four runs in the final frame for a walk-off win. Coincidentally, Purdue also scored six times in the bottom of the sixth of the seven-inning nightcap that day to rally for a 7-5 win, eventually sweeping the series with Minnesota on Sunday.

• Mason Gavre's three-run homer Saturday was the program's first walk-off home run since Ryne White hit a solo shot in the ninth inning of an April 2006 win vs. Illinois State at Lambert Field. Ben Nisle also scored the game-winning run in the Opening Day walk-off vs. Nebraska. He's the first Boilermaker since Milo Beam in 2017 to score the winning run in multiple walk-offs in the same season.

SIMINGTON TWO-HITS THE ENTIRE SERIES

- Miles Simington not only drove in the game-tying run in the ninth inning Saturday with an opposite-field sacrifice fly, the outfielder also had two hits in all three games of the series with Rutgers. He finished the series 6-for-12 with two doubles and no strikeouts. It marked the fourth season in a row that a Boilermaker had multiple hits in all three games of a weekend. Ben Nisle did it in February of last year at the Campbell Tournament, which Purdue won thanks to victories vs. Maine, Villanova and the host Camels. Nisle actually had two hits in four consecutive games.
- Ryan Howe (March 29-April 3) and Skyler Hunter (April 23-26) had multiple hits in three consecutive games at Alexander Field in 2019, but both streaks did not happen as part of the same series. Simington is the first Boilermaker to accomplish the multiple-hit feat in a home series since Eric Charles in April 2012 vs. Michigan State.
- Tyler Powers registered his first four-hit game as a Boilermaker in Saturday's win, highlighted by an RBI single in the seven-run ninth inning. He drove in the third of seven runs during the rally. Powers finished the series 6-for-13 and is batting .480 (12-for-25) during his six-game hit streak. Against Iowa in 2019, Powers turned three 5-3 double plays and had three hits in Purdue's game 2 win.

MORE ABOUT CAM'S SLAM

- Cam Thompson accounted for the fourth grand slam by a Boilermaker at Alexander Field when he went deep in the ninth inning of Friday's series opener with Rutgers. But he joined Miles Simington on an even more unique list – Purdue players whose first career home run was a grand slam. Since 2006, only Dominick D'Agata (2010) and Ted Snidanko (2015) also duplicated the feat.
