- Despite the departure of dependable firepower, Purdue added four talented transfers from the portal in Ella Collier (Marian. NAIA), Destini Lombard (Stephen F. Austin), Reagan Bass (Akron) and Mahri Petree (UTEP).
- All in their final year of eligibility, the four arrived to Mackey Arena with 289 combined career starts.
- · Collier was a two-time NATA National Player of the Year and a 2.000-point scorer from Marian
- · Lombard won the WAC Defensive Player award during her final season at Stephen F. Austin.
- Bass was a three-time All-MAC honoree and one of 10 players in the nation to make 135 free throws each of the last two seasons.
- · Petree, the younger sister of Lasha who led Purdue to the NCAA Tournament in 2022-23, joins Purdue as the lone sixth-year player after time at UTEP and Bradley.

HALL OF FAMER

- In October, Katie Gearlds became the 13th member of the Purdue women's basketball team to be enshrined in the Leroy Keyes Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame.
- The fourth highest scorer in program history, Gearlds guided Purdue to two Big Ten Tournament tiles, four NCAA Tournament appearances, two Sweet 16s and an Elite Eight.
- · Gearlds was a four-time All-Big Ten honoree and was tabbed Third Team All-America as a senior.
- She was selected seventh overall in the 2007 WNBA Draft by the Seattle Storm, the highest pick in Purdue history.
- · Gearlds was enshrined alongside Devynne Charlton (Track), Annie Drews (Volleyball) Chukwuebuka Enekwechi (Track & Field). Bob Ford (Men's Basketball). Laura Gonzalez-Escallon (Women's Golf). Kevin Plawecki (Baseball) and Tim Stratton (Football).

THE VOICE OF THE BOILERMAKERS

- In his 35th season calling Purdue women's basketball, play-byplay man Tim Newton has called over 1,000 games with Purdue women's basketball.
- He joined the 1,000-game club against Indiana State on Dec. 50 5053
- Newton has provided the call for all seven Big Ten regular season titles, all nine Big Ten Tournament Championships, three Final Fours and 25 of 27 NCAA Tournament appearances.
- Perhaps Newton's best call came in the final seconds of the 1999 National Championship as Purdue became the only Big Ten team to capture the national title. "Ladies and gentlemen, the national champion team resides in West Lafavette, Indiana, as Katie Douglas throws the ball skyward. It's over. Purdue wins 62-45, capturing the national championship."
- · His first game was on WBAA (920 AM) on Jan. 3, 1991 when No. 3 Purdue downed Ohio State at Mackey Arena 105-45.

THE BIG TEN'S ONLY NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

- Led by National Coach of the Year Carolyn Peck, the Boilermakers finished the year with a program-best 34-1 record, a perfect 16-0 mark in Big Ten play, a Big Ten Tournament title and a 62-45 win in the National Championship Game over Duke.
- The 1998-99 season opened when Purdue knocked off three-time defending national champion and No. 1-ranked Tennessee at Mackey Arena 78-68.
- Stephanie White was named an All-American, the Honda Award winner and the Wade Trophy honoree, as well as the Big Ten Player and Athlete of the Year. Ukari Figgs earned an honorable mention All-America nod and was named the 1999 Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Tournament.
- The victory was bittersweet as guard Tiffany Young tragically died when she was killed by a drunk driver just over four months after winning the national championship. The 1998-99 team have continued to bring back their memories and love for Young over the last 25 years to ensure her impact on their lives will never be forgotten.

PACKING MACKEY

- Head coach Katie Gearlds continues to bring the magic back to Mackey Arena, as more fans come through the turnstiles.
- Purdue has topped 5.000 fans in nine home games last season and ranked 17th nationally.
- Purdue has sold out Mackey Arena four times in program history and twice under head coach Katie Gearlds.
- Following renovations of Mackey Arena, the new attendance number grew to 14.876.
- Purdue set a new attendance record in 2022-23 with a capacity crowd when it hosted Indiana for its first sellout since 2000.

- The Boilermakers set a program record with 19 straight nonconference home wins under Gearlds that ended late last year.
- The Gold and Black Sound (G.A.B.S.) is overwhelmingly the best pep band in the Big Ten with constant, never-ending energy.
- In the final minute of halftime, Purdue plays "Sandstorm"by Darude, Fans join G.A.B.S. in a special dance. If you want to partake the steps are - two right punches across your body high, two high with your left, two right punches across your body low, two low with your left, repeat with one punch, clap, shimmy, "Woo!".
- New this season and prior to every home game. Purdue displays a video call "ALL-IN". The video features several Boilermaker legends detailing the heights of the program.

THE BOILERMAKER CHALLENGE

- Throughout the summer, the team competed in an intrasquad competition - The Boilermaker Challenge.
- The players were split into teams of three or four connecting newcomers and returners for the summerlong series that focused on teamwork.
- It was a mixed bag of competition that featured a campus scavenger hunt, on-campus bowling, axe throwing, Pictionary and teammate trivia.

- · Sue Bird, her teammate with the Storm and a mentor over the last 15 years, inspired Gearlds to go into coaching.
- She also shared the court in Seattle with Swin Cash (V.P. New Orleans Pelicans), Adia Barnes (Arizona head coach) and Lauren Jackson (owner Melbourne Boomers).
- · She competed against Chris Paul in the skills challenge ahead of the 2003 McDonald's All-America Game.

E KATIE GEARLDS BIO

Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame inductee Katie Gearlds enters her fourth season as the head coach of the Purdue women's basketball team. Returning to her alma mater, the 2007 All-American was elevated to the head job on Sept 17, 2021, becoming the ninth coach in program history.

Three seasons back home at Purdue, Gearlds has begun the process to return Purdue Women's Basketball back to the national stage with three straight postseason appearances. She inked a contract extension in the summer of 2024 that will keep her home in West Lafayette through the 2028-29 season. Establishing a new culture, revamping recruiting and reconnecting with the alumnae and fan bases, Gearlds has the Boilermakers headed in the right direction.

Gearlds was inducted into the Leroy Keyes Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2024.

PURDUE POSTSEASON BOUND

The Boilermakers have reached the postseason in each of Katie Gearlds' first threeseasons back in West Lafayette. Purdue returned to the NCAA Touranment for the first time since 2017 and the 27th time in program history during the 2022-23 campaign. Gearlds took the Boilermakers back to the postseason for the first time since 2018 in her first year, reaching the second round of the WNIT. The Boilermakers added their second WNIT appearance under Gearlds in 2023-24, as Purdue reached the Great 8 for its deepest postseason run in more than a decade.

ON THE RECRUITING TRAIL

Gearlds' first true signing class in November of 2022 was ranked No. 21 by ESPNW. The class of five added to its firepower when top-50 signee Amiyah Reynolds signed for Purdue in May of 2023, alongside her sister and former top-60 recruit Mila, a transfer from Maryland.

PRIOR TO PURDUE

Gearlds spent eight seasons taking Marian University to unparalleled success as its head coach, winning back-to-back NAIA National Championships in 2016 and 2017. She is the winningest coach in Marian history with a 228-50 record, an 82% clip.

A three-time NAIA National Coach of the Year, Gearlds guided the Knights to six straight Crossroads League regular-season titles, four league tournament championships and seven appearances in the NAIA Tournament.

With only five All-Americans in program history before her arrival, Gearlds mentored 12 All-America honorees, including 2021 WBCA NAIA National Player of the Year Imani Guy, as well as 28 All-Crossroads League selections.

Her teams averaged more than 70 points per game in all eight campaigns at Marian and over 75 points in four seasons. Defensively, the Knights kept opponents to 60 points per game or less in six of her eight years.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Prior to her jump into coaching, Gearlds spent three seasons in the WNBA with the Seattle Storm. She was taken with the seventh overall pick in the 2007 WNBA Draft, the highest selection ever from Purdue and the 10th top-10 pick in Big Ten history.

Over three campaigns with the Storm, Gearlds shot just under 40% from the field and 37.9% from distance. She also spent time playing professionally in Spain, Greece, Portugal and Slovakia. Two of her closest teammates and friends over the years are WNBA legend Sue Bird and fellow WNBA great and New Orleans Pelicans Vice President of Basketball Operations Swin Cash.
