A THE LAST TIME OUT

PURDUE 62, #14/13 INDIANA 95

- The Purdue women's basketball team fell on the road to No. 14/13 Indiana on Sunday afternoon at Assembly Hall.
- For the second straight game, Mary Ashley Stevenson led the way on the offensive end with 16 points on 7-of-9 shooting and one 3-pointer. She was joined in double figures by Caitlyn Harper's 13 points, and Sophie Swanson connected on a trio of 3-pointers to finish with 11 points.
- The Boilermakers shot an even 50% from the field in the first half and finished with a 451% clip overall for the game.
 Purdue was 5-of-13 from distance.
- The Purdue freshmen combined for 31 points, marking the fifth game this season the rookies tallied 30 or more.
- Jeanae Terry led Purdue in rebounding with seven. Rashunda Jones came off the bench to post five assists and a pair of steals. Four Boilermakers recorded a block, including the first career rejection by Swanson.
- Indiana put four players in double figures. The Hoosiers shot 59% from the floor and went 13-of-21 from behind the arc.
 Indiana converted 14 Boilermaker turnovers into 12 points and flipped six offensive rebounds into 13 points.

A THIRD YEAR OF THE KG ERA

- Head coach Katie Gearlds is in her third season at Purdue after guiding the Boilermakers to back-to-back postseason bids, including the first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2017.
- In two short seasons, Gearlds has transformed Purdue back into an NCAA Tournament squad with eyes on taking the Boilermakers back to the same national spotlight from when she was on the floor 20 years ago.
- Gearlds took over the program 47 days before her first campaign in 2021-22 when Purdue was coming off a seven-win season. She guided Purdue to a 17-15 mark and reached the WNIT after the program failed to reach the postseason in the previous three years.
- Purdue finished the 2022-23 season with a 19-11 record and its first return to the NCAA Tournament since 2017.
- Gearlds joined Boilermaker legends Carolyn Peck and Lin Dunn as the only Purdue head coaches to post win improvements in each of their first two seasons.
- When Gearlds moved into the head coach role, Purdue had lost 19 straight games to ranked opponents. Over her first two years, Gearlds has racked up three ranked wins, including the program's first true road AP top-5 victory against No. 2 Ohio State in 2022-23.
- Gearlds was initially hired as the associate head coach to later become the head coach at the start of the 2022-23 season.

BOILER NOTES

BOILERMAKER BASKETBALL

- Purdue Women's Basketball is in its 49th season in 2023-24.

 Purdue was the 40th program in NCAA Division Lipitory to
- Purdue was the 40th program in NCAA Division I history to reach 900 wins.
- The Boilermakers are the only team from the Big Ten to win a national championship, hoisting the title in 1999.
- The program has reached the NCAA Tournament 27 times with 12 Sweet 16s, eight Elite 8s, three final fours and a trio of national championship game appearances.
- In addition to its NCAA success, Purdue owns the Big Ten record for most tournament titles with nine.

WAIT, HOW MANY SISTERS ARE ON THIS TEAM?

- If a team is a family, Purdue is taking that to a whole new level with three sets of siblings on the 2023-24 roster - Madison & McKenna Layden, Mila & Amiyah Reynolds, Caitlyn & Alaina Harper.
- The Boilermakers are the only team in the nation with three sets of sisters. Utah Tech is the only other program with more than one pair of siblings.
- Based on the research of a communications intern, 39 teams across Division I have one pair of sisters of the roster this year.
- McKenna and Madison Layden became the first Boilermakers to play on the floor together in program history, playing 6:29 together in the season opener at UCLA.
- Alaina Harper and Caitlyn Harper were the second set of siblings to play in the same game at Purdue, when Alaina checked in for her big sister in the fourth quarter against UCLA.

FRESHMAN OUTPUT

- With six freshmen on the roster, five active, the rookie class for the Boilermakers have made an impact in West Lafayette.
- The six-player class was Gearlds' primary focus during her first years back at Purdue.

JEANAE JOINING THE CLUBS

- In less than three years, Jeanae Terry has cemented herself as one of the top all-around producing guards in Purdue history.
- Terry is set to become the 10th player in Big Ten history to join the 700-assist club, including her time at Illinois.
- The Detroit native will be the second Big Ten player ever to join the 900-rebound, 700-assist and 200-steal club.
- Terry is the seventh player in Purdue history to reach 500 assists in a career in West Lafayette.
- She joined Purdue legends Stephanie White and Katie Douglas as the only Boilermakers to record 500 assists and 600 rebounds in a career.
- She is on pace to become the first Boilermaker to lead the team in rebounds and assists over three seasons.
- Already the only Boiler to do it twice Terry is on pace to be the first player in Purdue history to post three seasons with over 150 assists and 200 rebounds.

THE SPIDER - RASHUNDA JONES

- Rashunda Jones was the first South Bend Washington commit before the Reynolds sisters joined to reunite the powerful trio.
- Jones returned to the rotation against Wisconsin after missing the previous four games as a medical scratch.
- Coming off the bench, Jones is fifth on the team with 8.5 points per game. She has hit 20 points three times this season.
- Jones and Michigan State's Tory Ozment are the only players from the Big Ten to average over 8.5 points per game without making a start.
- She was the first Boilermaker rookie to score 20 points three times since Dominique Oden in 2016-17.
- Jones has been named Big Ten Freshman of the Week once, after a 20-point performance against Texas A&M.
- Her 23 points against Penn State were the most by a Boilermaker freshman since Dominique Oden in 2016-17. Jones' performance at Penn State featured 10 made free throws, the most by a Purdue rookie since KK Houser in 2009-10.
- Jones was tabbed the 2023 Indiana Miss Basketball runner up.
- Her versatility earned her the nickname "Spider" from her high school head coach and Amiyah & Mila's father - Steven.

NUMBERS TO KNOW IN THE GEARLDS ERA

- Purdue is 39-6 when leading after the first quarter and 44-7 when taking a lead into the fourth quarter.
- Purdue is 29-18 when knocking down seven or more 3-pointers.
 Purdue is 18-13 when shooting 35% from distance or better and 38-15 when shooting 40% or better overall, including 15-1 with a field goal clip above 50%.
- The Boilermakers are 31-8 when outrebounding opponents.
 The Boilermakers hold a 32-7 record when scoring 70 or more points, while also posting a 40-12 mark when holding opponents below that mark.

MILESTONE WATCH

- Abbey Ellis is nine points away from joining the 1,000-point club at Purdue. The Australian already has over 1,800 points in her career.
 Madison Layden needs 51 points to join the 1,000-point club.
- Jeanae Terry needs 98 rebounds for 1,000 in her career, 48 for 600 points at Purdue and 16 points for 1,000 in her career.
- Terry needs two assists to join the 900-rebound, 700-assist, 200-steal club, as the second Big Ten member.

HARPER HITTING HER STRIDE

- In her sixth year of college basketball, Caitlyn Harper might be in the best shape of her career playing over 30 minutes in 11 games. She bested 30 minutes just thrice last year.
- Harper scored in double figures in 15 outings, sitting second on the team with 11 points per game at a 54.6% shooting clip.
- Harper leads the team in Big Ten action with 12.7 points per game while shooting 56.1% from the field.
- She is one of 15 players from the Big Ten averaging double figures and shooting over 50% from the field.
- Harper joined the 1,800-point club at Michigan State, made her 100th career triple at home against Indiana this year and started her 100th career game at Nebraska.
- After a rough night without scoring against Valpo, Harper bounced back to drop her Purdue best 22 points against SEMO.

FLITE FLLIS

- Abbey Ellis is her final campaign in West Lafayette after honorable mention All-Big Ten nods each of the last two years.
- The Australian leads the team in scoring with 13 points per game and has reached double figures in 19 outings.
- Ellis is eighth in the Big Ten with a 84.3% mark at the line (59-70).
 Her career 87.3% mark is second in Purdue history.
- Ellis paired with Rashunda Jones to become the first Boilermaker duo to score 20 points in a game since 2019-20
 when they both scored 20 against Texas A&M.
- The fifth-year senior dropped 28 points against Indiana State, finishing one shy of her Purdue career high.
- Ellis' 10-game double-digit streak to start the year marked the second straight season Purdue had a player hit double figures in the first 10 games, following Lasha Petree's 11 games last year.

ABBEY AMONG THE GREATS

- In less than three seasons at Purdue, Abbey Ellis is nearing the 1,000-point club, currently 11 points away.
- She will become the 36th player in Purdue history to join the club and the first since Karissa McLaughlin in 2020.
- Purdue's 1,000-point club includes all-time leading scorer MaChelle Joseph (2,405), Katie Gearlds in fourth (1,974) and Kelly Komara in 22nd (1,266).

Purdue celebrates the 25th anniversary of its 1999 National Championship, the only one in the Big Ten in women's basketball. Led by National Coach of the Year Carolyn Peck and a star-studded list of greats in Stephanie White, Ukari Figgs, Camille Cooper, Katie Douglas, Michelle Duhart and Kelly Komara, Purdue knocked off 10 ranked opponents, including No. 1 Tennessee in the season opener.

After posting a perfect 16-0 record in Big Ten play and winning the league tournament, Purdue carved through the NCAA Tournament as a No.1 seed, before defeating Duke 62-45 in the National Championship Game.

MATERIAL MATERIAL MA

- Jayla Smith is the 10th Indiana Miss Basketball to play at Purdue, winning the award in 2021.
- The long history of Purdue welcoming the state's top player extended back to 2003, when Katie Gearlds became the fifth honoree to pick West Lafayette.
- Madison Layden (2020) and Rashunda Jones (2023) finished as runner-ups in their senior campaigns.
- Purdue holds the record for most Indiana Miss Basketball winners, followed by Indiana, Notre Dame, Tennessee tied for second with four.

BOILER NOTES

JT - START UNKNOWN, FINISH UNFORGETTABLE

- "Start Unknown, Finish Unforgettable" is the mantra Jeanae Terry lives by so much she has a tattoo featuring that phrase.
- Last season, she was one of three players (lowa's Caitlin Clark and Notre Dame's Olivia Miles) to record at least 6.0 points, rebounds and assists per game.
- Terry and Clark are the only two players in the nation to dish out 150 assists and haul in 200 rebounds in each of the last two years.
- Terry holds the second and third spots on the single-season assist lists, as well as the program's lead for career assist-to-turnover ratio.
- The Detroit native is the only player in Purdue men's or women's basketball history to amass multiple triple-doubles in a season and a career, a feat she achieved during the 2021-22 campaign.
- In both of her triple-double performances, the last category Terry hit double digits in was points.
- Terry is also the only Boilermaker to record a non-point doubledouble. Jeanae Terry recorded the mark four times since the start of last season, the most of any player in the nation since 2009.

TERRY'S TIDBITS

- Jeanae Terry has shown herself to be even more of a pass-first point guard in her final season of college basketball.
- The fifth-year is averaging 5.6 points, 7.0 rebounds and 5.8 assists per game with a 2.0 assist-to-turnover ratio.
- Terry owns the best career assist-to-turnover mark in Purdue history at 1.95, while she will post three of the top-15 singleseason marks in program history.
- Terry is one of three players from the Big Ten averaging five points, rebounds and assists per game (Shyanne Sellers -Maryland and, unsurprisingly, Caitlin Clark - Iowa).
- Terry is second in Big Ten assists and 10th in rebounding, while sitting second in assists and third rebounds in league games.
- Terry notched the first non-point double-double of the year nationally against SEMO with 11 assists and 10 rebounds. It was her fourth as a Boilermaker, the most nationally since 2009-10.
- During her time in West Lafayette, Terry has set the program record for triple-doubles and non-point double-doubles.
- Terry has 504 assists at Purdue to rank seventh on the program's all-time charts.
- In three Pink Games at Purdue, Terry averaged 9.7 points, 12 rebounds, 10.3 assists and 4.3 steals. All were wins.

MONEY MADS

- Senior Madison Layden is in her fourth campaign as one of the top all-around producers for the Boilermakers.
- Layden is third on the team with 10.1 points per game.
- She is second in the Big Ten with a 43.8% 3-point clip.
- Shooting 40.5% as a freshman, Layden is the first Boilermaker to shot over 40% from distance since 2012-13 and 2013-14.
- The senior's 3-point splits are impressive: Home 46.0%, Away 41.9%, Wins 49.2%, Big Ten 42.9%, Non-Conference 44.6%.
- Layden has climbed up to seventh in program history in career triples, making 188 during her time in West Lafayette.
- Layden got engaged during the holiday break to Rees Zay, a Purdue graduate and former practice player of the program.
- She set the single-game Purdue freshman record for triples in a game with six against lowa in 2020-21.

SNIPER SOPHIE SWANSON

- A pure shooter and scorer, Sophie Swanson joined the program after a stellar prep career at Barrington in Illinois.
- Swanson is averaging 5.5 points in 8.9 minutes per game. Her per 40-minute average for points is 24.8.
- She set a career-high with 12 points on four 3-pointers against Michigan State, the most by a Purdue rookie since 2020-21.
- Swanson made her collegiate debut against Southern Indiana with two points and two rebounds after missing the opening five games rehabbing from her high school injury.
- Swanson was named the 2022 Illinois Miss Basketball and 4A Player of the Year following her junior campaign.
- She set the school record for points in a season (750), 3-pointers in a year (86), thrice set the school mark for points in a game (40, 37, 36).

I FTTING IT FLY

- Shoot before you turn it over that's the goal for Purdue's offense.
- The Boilermakers are 6-3 when making seven or more triples this season and 29-18 when hitting that mark in the Gearlds era.
- Purdue has made 10 or more 3-pointers in 14 games in the Katie Gearlds era. Prior to her return, the Boilermakers tallied just 22 double-digit triple games in the preceding 12 seasons.
- The Boilermakers have not been shy about shooting the three during Katie Gearlds' time on the sideline, notching the first and second most made and attempted triples in program history over the last two years.

BOILER NOTES

DISHING OUT DIMES

- The Boilermakers are 4-0 this year and 17-0 over the last three seasons when dishing out 20 or more assists.
- Against Southern, the Boilermakers dished out 19 assists on 20 made field goals. They were the fifth most of the Gearlds era, while the 95% assist rate was the best by Purdue since 2015 against Minnesota (24 ast, 25 FGM).
- · Purdue then dished out 24 assists against Southern Indiana, which ranked third in the Gearlds era.

HOME SWEET HOME

- Purdue is 9-3 at Mackey Arena, scoring 77.4 points per game, while holding opponents to just 65.0 points per night.
- The Boilermakers have shot 46% from the field and 36% from distance at home, compared to marks of 37.1% and 31.5% when on the road this year, respectively.
- · Winning their first eight games at home this season, Purdue reached its first 10-game winning streak since Katie Gearlds' playing days, a 12-game stretch from March 19, 2006, against Missouri State to Jan. 25, 2007, against Northwestern.
- · Purdue's longest home winning streak is 26 games that spanned from Dec. 2000 to March 2002 when associate head coach Kelly Komara laced them up for the Boilermakers.

FIGHT LIKE A BOILERMAKER PINK OUT

- The Boilermakers snapped a seven-game losing skid with a 77-72 overtime win against Illinois on Feb. 5.
- Mary Ashley Stevenson paced Purdue with 25 points, including a perfect 9-of-9 at the charity stripe.
- Jeanae Terry narrowly missed out on a triple-double with 14 assists, nine points and nine rebounds. It was the second most assists in a game in Purdue history.
- Purdue auctioned off its game-worn pink uniforms with multiple jerseys selling for over $1,000 with proceeds benefiting the Purdue Institute for Cancer Research.

PACKING MACKEY

- Head coach Katie Gearlds continues to bring the magic back to Mackey Arena, as more fans come through the turnstiles.
- Purdue has topped 5,000 fans in six home games this season and rank 12th nationally and fourth in the Big Ten at 6,364.
- Purdue has sold its most season tickets since 2012-13.
- Purdue has sold out Mackey Arena four times in program history and twice under head coach Katie Gearlds.
- Following renovations of Mackey Arena, the new attendance number grew to 14,876.
- Purdue set a new attendance record last season with a capacity crowd when it hosted Indiana for its first sellout since 2000.
- The Boilermakers are the eighth team this season to host a game with a crowd over 14,000.

ONE OF THE BEST SINCE 1999

- At the end of January, The Athletic unveiled its Top-20 Assistant Coaches and Purdue associate head coach Kelly Komara was on the list.
- · Komara is in her first season back home in West Lafayette, after serving two campaigns from 2014-16.
- She was a prominent member of Purdue's 1999 National Championship team during her playing days from 1999-02. She reached two title games, four NCAA Tournaments, five combined Bia Ten titles.
- She played 134 games for the Old Gold and Black with 9.4 points, 3.3 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game and was named the 2002 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.
- · Komara was fourth Indiana Miss Basketball to play at Purdue.

RANKED MATCHUPS

- Head coach Katie Gearlds has guided Purdue to three ranked wins during her time in West Lafayette. Purdue had lost its last 25 games to ranked opponents before the Gearlds era started.
- Purdue recorded back-to-back ranked wins for the first time since 2018 during the 2022-23 campaign.
- With a 73-65 win over No. 2 Ohio State in Columbus, the Boilermakers tallied their first ever top-five win on the road.
- Purdue snapped the program's 19-game skid to ranked teams with a 66-61 win over No. 17 Florida State last season.
- Gearlds was 23-22 against ranked teams during her playing days in West Lafayette.
- Purdue has 19 wins in program history against AP Top-5 teams.

A TOUGH STRETCH

- The month of January was a gauntlet for the Boilermakers, which is not a surprise in the Big Ten.
- Purdue faced seven straight teams in the top 30 of the NET when they played and were in the top 35 of the NET when the stretch ended. Despite the streak, Purdue averaged 9,267 fans over four games at home.
- The Boilermakers played No. 15 Indiana to six points and No. 12 Ohio State to three points at Mackey Arena.
- · All of Purdue's non-neutral losses have come against teams in the top 50 of the NET.

LOCK DOWN DEFENSE

- The Boilermakers have held nine opponents to 60 or fewer points this season.
- Purdue is 7-2 in those games this year and 22-3 under Katie Gearlds when keeping a team to 60 points or fewer.
- Purdue held Wisconsin to just 50 points on Dec. 30, the fewest points given up to a Big Ten team by Purdue since 2019.
- The Boilermakers are generating 14.3 points per game off 15.5 opponent turnovers this season.

MAGIC MCKENNA

- McKenna Layden has shown poise on the floor this year as a quality defender rebounder and one of the first subs.
- She reunited with her sister Madison following a 78-17 career record at Northwestern High School and was named an Indiana All-Star as a junior and senior.
- She set the Northwestern single-game record with 47 points with nine 3-pointers against Taylor in 2021.
- In addition to her success playing for her mother Kathie, including reaching the IHSAA 4A Championship Game as a freshman alongside Madison, Layden won two sectional titles in volleyball and tennis each.

MILA MAKES HER WAY HOME

- · Mila Reynolds continues to see her spot in the rotation grow each week as a post option off the bench.
- Reynolds set career highs with six points and five rebounds against Valparaiso.
- She made her first career 3-pointer against Indiana State.
- She returned to her home state and reunited with her little sister Amiyah after playing her freshman season at Maryland.
- She won the 2022 IHSAA 3A State Championship with Amiyah and Rashunda Jones.
- The eldest Reynolds totaled 2,099 career points, second in Panther history behind 2010 graduate Skylar Diggins-Smith.

PURE LEADER AMIYAH REYNOLDS

- Amiyah Reynolds completed a prolific career for South Bend Washington, going 95-18, winning an IHSAA State Champion and three conference titles.
- Reynolds ranked second in South Bend Washington history with 564 assists.
- Her 1,000th point came off an assist from Rashunda Jones.
- Sadly, due to an injury that ended her senior campaign in February, Reynolds will redshirt for the 2023-24 season.
- Despite sitting out drills, Gearlds has made a point to work with Reynolds during practice to ingrain her in the offense.

BOILER NOTES

THE VOICE OF THE BOILERMAKERS

- In his 34th season calling Purdue women's basketball, playby-play man Tim Newton is closing in on his 1,000th game with Purdue women's basketball.
- He has called 1,009 games in his time with the Boilermakers.
 Purdue is 684-325 in games called by Newton. He has been on
- the air for 1,009 of Purdue's 1,481 total games.

 Newton has provided the call for all seven Big Ten regular season titles, all nine Big Ten Tournament Championships, three
- Final Fours and 25 of 27 NCAA Tournament appearances.

 Perhaps Newton's best call came in the final seconds of the 1999 National Championship as Purdue became the only Big Ten team to capture the national title.
- "Ladies and gentlemen, the national champion team resides in West Lafayette, Indiana, as Katie Douglas throws the ball skyward. It's over. Purdue wins 62-45, capturing the national championship."
- His first game was on WBAA (920 AM) on Jan. 3, 1991 when No. 3 Purdue downed Ohio State at Mackey Arena 105-45.
- Based on the best research available, Newton and LSU's play-byplay voice Patrick Wright are the only active radio voices to reach 1,000 games called.

A WEEKEND FOR THE CHAMPS

- Purdue welcomed home its legendary 1998-99 team this weekend to celebrate the 25-year anniversary of the Big Ten's only national championship in women's basketball over the weekend of Nov. 10-12.
- The championship squad was honored in front of a sold-out Mackey Arena for the men's basketball game on Friday, before an on-field ceremony at the football game on Saturday. The weekend culminated with a halftime ceremony at the women's game in front of 5,002 fans on Sunday.
- Head coach Katie Gearlds unveiled a new trophy display for the Sears Trophy at the front of Mackey Arena, complete with photos and quotes of players from that magical year.
- A major piece from the celebration involved a Boilermaker who was gone too soon. Tiffany Young, a charismatic junior guard passed away four months after winning the title in a car accident. Throughout the 2023-24 season, Purdue will reopen the Tiffany Young Scholarship Endowment to provide a women's basketball student-athlete a scholarship in her name.

THE BIG TEN'S ONLY NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

- Led by National Coach of the Year Carolyn Peck, the Boilermakers finished the year with a program-best 34-1 record, a perfect 16-0 mark in Big Ten play, a Big Ten Tournament title and a 62-45 win in the National Championship Game over Duke.
- The 1998-99 season opened when Purdue knocked off threetime defending national champion and No. 1-ranked Tennessee at Mackey Arena 78-68.
- Stephanie White was named an All-American, the Honda Award winner and the Wade Trophy honoree, as well as the Big Ten Player and Athlete of the Year. Ukari Figgs earned an honorable mention All-America nod and was named the 1999 Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Tournament.
- The victory was bittersweet as guard Tiffany Young tragically died when she was killed by a drunk driver just over four months after winning the national championship. The 1998-99 team have continued to bring back their memories and love for Young over the last 25 years to ensure her impact on their lives will never be forgotten.

MACKEY IS ONE OF A KIND

- The Gold and Black Sound (G.A.B.S.) is overwhelmingly the best pep band in the Big Ten with constant, never-ending energy.
- In the final minute of halftime, Purdue plays "Sandstorm" by Darude. Fans join G.A.B.S. in a special dance. If you want to partake the steps are - two right punches across your body high, two high with your left, two right punches across your body low, two low with your left, repeat with one punch, clap, shimmy, "Woo!".
- New this season and prior to every home game, Purdue displays a video call "ALL-IN". The video features several Boilermaker legends detailing the heights of the program.

THE NEXT GENERATION

- National Signing Day brought Purdue a trio of talented high schools seniors, as Katie Gearlds welcomed Jordyn Poole, Lana McCarthy and Kendall Puryear to the Boilermaker family.
- All three players were named McDonald's All-America Game nominees.
- Out of Fort Wayne Snider High School, Poole is a 5-7 guard and a candidate for Indiana Miss Basketball. Poole was the No. 54 player in the nation and averaged 16.7 points, 3.6 rebounds and 4 assists per game as a junior. Her uncle is Purdue legend Roosevelt Barnes and cousin was Purdue Big Ten Player of the Year Caleb Swanigan.
- Puryear, a 6-2 forward from Lee's Summit, Mo., averaged 15.9 points, 9.9 rebounds and 1.6 assists per game as a junior to be ranked the No. 2 player in the state.
- McCarthy, a 6-4 forward from Bedford, N.H., is the No. 1 player in the state and averaged 21.7 points per game while reaching her third straight state championship game. McCarthy also won four straight volleyball state titles, set the state record for blocks and was named the New Hampshire Volleyball Player of the Year.

BEEN THERE, THEY'RE BACK

- Purdue's coaching staff features a trio of alumnae who left their marks on the program during their playing days.
- Head coach Katie Gearlds was one of the best pure scorers in Purdue history, reaching four NCAA Tournaments, three Sweet 16s and an Elite Eight. She continues to rank in the top-10 of numerous career stat categories and was named an All-American in 2007 as a senior.
- 1999 National Champion and new associate head coach Kelly Komara returned to West Lafayette for her second stint on the sidelines. Komara was the 2002 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and helped the Boilermakers reach two national title games, winning the lone championship in Big Ten women's basketball.
- Alex Guyton is in her fifth season on staff and third as an assistant coach. Guyton reached three NCAA Tournaments and one the Big Ten championship her four-year career for the Boilermakers
- Another new addition to the coaching ranks at Purdue is dynamic recruiting assistant coach Mark Stephens. After spending the last five seasons on staff at Toledo and Xavier, Stephens returns to the state to lead the Boilermakers' posts and recruiting operations. Stephens' in-state ties run deep after serving as a coach at several high schools and AAU programs.
- While they didn't play for Purdue, director of video and recruiting Lakan Hasser-Smith and graduate assistant Abby Downard are in-state products with deep ties to Katie Gearlds. after playing their entire careers for her at Marian.
- Director of operations Amie Anthrop is well-accustomed to the bright lights of Purdue. After an award-winning career as a guard at Southern Indiana, she married Jade Anthrop, brother to Dru (basketball), Danny (football) and Jackson (football).

SOMETHING ABOUT A TRUCK

- A heartfelt story told by the Big Ten Network during the 2022-23 season centered around Gearlds' relationship with her parents.
- As a freshman at Beech Grove High School, Gearlds made a deal with her parents that if she was named Indiana Miss Basketball, they would buy her the car of her dreams.
- Four years and an incredible high school career later, her father
 Tony traded in his truck to surprise Katie with a 2002 yellow Ford
 Mustang in the family garage. Tony took over Katie's 1988 Chevy Celebrity, driving it until the wheels fell off.
- In the summer of 2022, Katie returned the favor and surprised her dad to buy him any brand new he wanted. The only rule, it could not be red.

PROBOILERS

- Purdue has four players currently playing pro ball in Europe.
- Aya Traore, a teammate of Gearlds' during her playing time in West Lafayette, plays for Lleida in the Spanish LF2 Division.
- Ae'Rianna Harris Picken Claret in the Spanish LF2 Division.
- Andreona Keys Arad in the Romanian Liga Nationala.
- · Lasha Petree Vimpelin Veto in the Finnish Korisliiga.

PURDUE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

SISTER SISTER

Madison Layden - Feb. 7, 2002 McKenna Layden - Jan. 11, 2005

Age Gap - 1,069 days or 2 years, 11 months, 4 days

Parents - Kathie & Jeff Layden Hometown - Kokomo, Ind.

- Madison and McKenna Layden are back together for the first time since Madison's senior year of high school in 2020, when the duo guided Northwestern to the 4A IHSAA State Championship game.
- Their mother Kathie was the head coach of the basketball team assisted by their father Jeff. The Laydens won back-to-back state titles in 2018 and 2019.
- The tandem played basketball, volleyball and tennis together throughout their high school careers.
- Kathie won five Indiana State championships as a head coach, the most by a non-private school head coach, during her career that she retired from in 2023 after 23 seasons.
- Madison claimed a trio of sectional titles and back-to-back 3A state titles, before McKenna joined the high school ranks.
- McKenna owns the Northwestern High School record for points in a game with 47 off nine 3-pointers during her senior year.
- The Laydens were honored in a Hamburger Helper commercial when McKenna and Madison were children.
- Madison got engaged during the holiday break this year.

Caitlyn Harper - Feb. 12, 2000 Alaina Harper - Dec. 4, 2003

Age Gap - 1,391 days or 3 years, 9 months, 22 days

Parents - Dale & Rhonda Haprer Hometown - Heartland, Wis.

- Due to the long age gap, Caitlyn and Alaina Harper will play on the same team for the first time in their lives.
- After Caitlyn had a standout career at Arrowhead High School, Alaina followed suit wearing the same No. 34 her sister wore.
- Prior to transferring to Purdue ahead of the 2022-23 season, Caitlyn was an all-conference player at Arrowhead before earning WAC Player of the Year honors at Cal Baptist.
- Alaina spent her freshman campaign at Grand Canyon following an all-conference career at Arrowhead.
- Their father Dale played collegiately at Bemidji State.
- Strong academics have always played a major role in their lives. Caitlyn was a 2022 CoSIDA All-American and earned a 3.9 GPA at Arrowhead. Alaina bettered that with a perfect 4.0 GPA in high school.

Mila Reynolds - July 1, 2003 Amiyah Reynolds - June 25, 2004 Age Gap - 360 days or 11 months, 24 days Parents - Steve & Marcy Reynolds Hometown - South Bend, Ind.

- After an impressive three years together at South Bend Washington, Mila and Amiyah Reynolds are reunited on the same roster after a year hiatus.
- Combined, the duo won the 2022 Class 3A State Championship and posted a 68-17 record together over three years.
- Mila finished her career with a 78-30 mark and amassed 2,099 career points, second in program history to Skylar Diggins-Smith.
- Amiyah was the No. 43 player in the nation and the second highest Big Ten signee in the class of 2023, per ESPN. She finished her career ranked second in assists with 564 and in the top 10 in points. Reynolds' senior season came to an abrupt ending due to an foot/ankle injury that will rule her out of the 2023-24 season.
- The unofficial third sister of the group is fellow South Bend Washington Panther Rashunda Jones who created an unstoppable backcourt with Amiyah. The duo went 95-18 over their four years on the court.
- Rashunda finished as the runner up for the 2023 Indiana Miss Basketball.
- Their father Steve was the head coach of South Bend Washington assisted by their mother Marcy, both of whom played professionally overseas.
- Mila and Amiyah are two of the seven Reynolds children.
- The Reynolds and Rashunda Jones have played together since grade school after attending church together as children.

AN IMPACT BACK IN WEST LAFAYETTE

- In two seasons back at her alma mater, Katie Gearlds has guided the Boilermakers back to the postseason twice.
- After posting a 19-win campaign in 2022-23, Gearlds joined the elite company of Carolyn Peck and Lin Dunn as the only Boilermaker head coaches to post win improvements in each of their first two campaigns.
- The Boilermakers made their return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017 with a bid to the First Four last year.
- Prior to her arrival, Purdue had dropped its last 19 games against a ranked opponent. In two seasons, Gearlds has racked up three, including the program's first AP top-5 win in a true road game against No. 2 Ohio State in 2022-23.
- · Katie Gearlds reached the 250-win plateau for her career against Harvard, reaching the feat in 315 career games.

HITTING THE RECRUITING TRAIL

- The 2023-24 freshmen made up Gearlds' first true recruiting class through an entire cycle.
- Landing five signees in November of 2022, the 2023 class ranked No. 21 in the nation, before Gearlds welcomed in top-50 player Amiyah Reynolds to the program the following May.
- · A former Indiana Miss Basketball, Gearlds has placed a major emphasis on recruiting and ensuring the best talent in the state comes to Purdue.
- Gearlds has also found success in the transfer portal with Jeanae Terry and Abbey Ellis garnering All-Big Ten nods, while Lasha Petree and Caitlyn Harper powered the offense in 2022-23.

THE JOB SO FAR

- Gearlds guided the Boilermakers on another step forward in 2022-23, making the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017.
- After having a full offseason to prepare, the Boilermakers went 19-11 and tallied a pair of ranked wins over No. 22 Illinois and No. 2 Ohio State.
- The Katie Gearlds era started sooner than expected in 2021-22, when she took over the program a mere 47 days prior to the
- Purdue finished 17-15 on the year, winning 10 more games than the previous campaign. It was the best win improvement by firstyear head coach at Purdue and the third best in program history. • The Boilermakers finished 10-2 in the non-conference, marking
- the second-best clip by a first-year head coach.
- The Boilermakers reached the postseason for the first time since 2017-18, ending the campaign in the second round of the WNIT.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

- Spent eight seasons taking Marian University winning back-toback NAIA National Championships in 2016 and 2017.
- Went 228-50 record, an 82% clip with the Knights.
- Three-time NAIA National Coach of the Year, won 10 total Crossroads League titles and made seven appearances in the
- Guided 12 WBCA NAIA All-America selections, compared to just five in the first 37 years of the program's existence.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

- Played professionally over six seasons
- Spent three seasons in the WNBA with the Seattle Storm.
- · Was taken with the seventh overall pick in the 2007 WNBA Draft, the highest selection ever from Purdue
- Two of her closest teammates and friends over the years are WNBA legend Sue Bird and fellow WNBA great and New Orleans Pelicans Vice President of Basketball Operations Swin Cash.
- · Gearlds is the highest draft pick in Purdue history, going seventh overall to the Seattle Storm in 2007.

ALL-AMERICAN AT PURDUE CAREER

- · Was a three-year starter from 2004-07.
- · Ranks fourth in program history with 1,974 points and was the ninth fastest to join the 1,000-point club.

@ @katiegearlds4

💆 🏿 katiegearlds4

- · Named a Legend of Mackey Arena for the 50th season.
- Won two Big Ten Tournament titles and never missed the NCAA Tournament with Gearlds in the squad
- Reached three Sweet 16s and one Elite Eight.
- Set the Purdue single-game record with 41 points at Wisconsin on Feb. 18, 2007, and scored 707 points to tie the single-season program record.
- 2007 Third Team AP All-America WBCA Honorable Mention
- Four-time All-Big Ten and the 2004 Big Ten Freshman of the Year.
- Earned a bachelor's degree in sociology and minored in psychology and communications form Purdue in 2007.

ONE-OF-A-KIND PREP CAREER

- Named the Indiana Miss Basketball in 2003.
- Amassed 2,521 career points, good for sixth in IHSAA history.
- Averaged 30.1 points, 9.4 rebounds, 5.4 assists and 5.1 steals per game to lead Beach Grove High School to the 2003 Class 3A State Championship.
- Nike/WBCA All-America, First Team All-State and the Gatorade Indiana Player of the Year.
- · A McDonald's All-American, was named the MVP of the McDonald's All-America Game the same season as a young talent from Akron, Ohio - LeBron James.

INSPIRED BY GREATNESS

- · Gearlds has a deep bench of basketball legends who have touched and continue to influence her career.
- One of the few people who can say they've worked with two G.O.A.T.s, Gearlds was the MVP of the 2003 McDonald's All-America Game with LeBron James
- · Sue Bird, her teammate with the Storm and a mentor over the last 15 years, inspired Gearlds to go into coaching.
- · She also shared the court in Seattle with Swin Cash (V.P. New Orleans Pelicans), Adia Barnes (Arizona head coach) and Lauren Jackson (owner Melbourne Boomers).
- · She competed against Chris Paul in the skills challenge ahead of the 2003 McDonald's All-America Game.

AN INDIANA LEGEND

- One of the best products of Indiana basketball, Gearlds claimed a state title, a Big Ten championship and a national title with programs from the Crossroads State.
- Named Indiana Miss Basketball as a senior at Beech Grove in 2003, Gearlds guided the Hornets to a 3A state championship, setting a state record across all classes with 33 points in the final. Today, she ranks 11th in state history with 2,521 career points.
- As a Boilermaker from 2003-07, Gearlds reached the NCAA Tournament four times, won two Big Ten Tournament titles, sits fourth in Purdue history with 1,974 career points and holds the record for points in a season with 707 with Stephanie White.
- · Following a six-year professional career, Gearlds took over the reins at Marian in Indianapolis, posting a 227-49 record over eight years, winning three NAIA Coach of the Year honors and claiming two national championships.
