THE OPENING KICK

- After starting the Barry Odom era with a dominating shutout victory, Purdue Football remains at home for another non-conference matchup. The Boilermakers host Southern Illinois under the lights of Ross-Ade Stadium. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. ET on Big Ten Network.
- With the win over Ball State, Odom became the first Purdue head coach since 2009 (Danny Hope) to start his Boilermaker career with a victory.
- Battling the Salukis for the second time in history, Purdue plays a FCS program for just the third time in the past 10 years.
- The Boilermakers were one of two Big Ten teams (Wisconsin) and one of 10 teams in the country to produce a shutout to start the season.
- Limiting Ball State to one red zone trip and stopping the Cardinals' opportunity, Purdue is one of 21 teams in the country to not allow any red zone scoring so far this season.
- It took Purdue two plays (36-second drive) to score the first touchdown of the season, the program's fastest opening score to start a season since 1981.
- The Boilermakers scored 14 points in the first quarter against Ball State after only managing 13 first quarter points throughout the 2024 campaign.
- Landon Johnson, a former linebacker for the Boilermakers (2000-03), will serve as the honorary captain for Saturday night's game. Johnson played in 101 games over his 7-year NFL career (Cincinnati Bengals, Carolina Panthers, Detroit Lions).

NUMBERS TO KNOW

0

Purdue posted a season-opening shutout in consecutive years for the first time since 1964-65. The Boilermakers were one of 10 teams nationwide to record a shutout to start this season.

2,525

With 59 rushing yards in the season-opening win, Devin Mockobee became the eighth Boilermaker to reach 2,500 rushing yards in a career. The senior now has 2,525 yards to rank seventh in school history.

311

With a career-high 311 passing yards, Ryan Browne became the only Big Ten quarterback to eclipse 300 passing yards in the first week of the season.

43

Forty-three Boilermakers made their Purdue debut in the season-opening win over Ball State. Purdue entered the season with 82 newcomers, including a nation-high 54 transfers.

A WIN WOULD

- Make Barry Odom the first Purdue coach to start his tenure 2-0 since Cleo O'Donnell in 1916.
- Make Purdue 2-0 for the first time since 2021.
- Be Purdue's first in a night game since defeating Nebraska on Oct. 30, 2022, 43-37 at Ross-Ade Stadium.
- The Purdue defense allowed only 87 passing yards in the opener, the fewest surrendered to an FBS team since Nov. 19, 2022 (Northwestern).
- Arhmad Branch caught three passes for 101 yards in the season opener, becoming the first Boilermaker to reach 100 receiving yards on three-or-fewer catches since 2008.
- Branch's 100-yard game was the first by a Purdue wide receiver since Sept. 16, 2023 (Abdur-Rahmaan Yaseen vs. Syracuse).
- Ryan Browne leads the Big Ten in total offense with 316 yards (311 passing, 5 rushing) in the season opener. Adding two touchdowns through the air and one on the ground, the Purdue QB is tied for the conference lead in points responsible for.
- Browne's 17.3 passing yards per completion ranks second in the country.
- Finding the end zone to start the season, Devin Mockobee recorded his 20th career touchdown. Mockobee is one of 10 Boilermakers to score 20 rushing touchdowns throughout program history.
- Mockobee is currently ranked in the program Top 10 in several career categories: 100-yard rushing games (6th), rushing yards (7th), rushing touchdown (9th).
- Purdue is known for the Cradle of Quarterbacks. Entering the 2025 NFL season, Purdue quarterbacks have thrown for 1,401 touchdowns in the Super Bowl era, more passing TDs than any other college. Cal (1,165) is second with 236 fewer touchdowns.

ABOUT THE SERIES

- The two clubs met once before during the 2014 season, a 35-13 win at Ross-Ade Stadium.
- Purdue holds a perfect 10-0 record against current Missouri Valley Football Conference programs (7-0 vs. Indiana State, 2-0 vs. Illinois State, 1-0 vs. Southern Illinois).

OUR LAST MEETING

PURDUE 35, SOUTHERN ILLINOIS 13 SEPT. 20, 2014 - WEST LAFAYETTE, IND.

- Purdue downed Southern Illinois 35-13 in the fourth game of the 2014 season.
- The Boilermakers jumped out in front after scoring 14 first quarter points after a fumble recovery and interception over the opening 15 minutes.
- Quarterback Danny Etling went 15-of-26 for 198 yards and a pair of touchdowns.
- Running back Akeem Hunt carried the ball eight times for 62 yards and a pair of scores.
- Wide receiver Danny Anthrop snagged five passes for 106 yards and a touchdown, while DeAngelo Yancey found the end zone once on four receptions for 30 yards.
- Landon Feichter posted a 10-tackle game with seven solos to go with an interception.
- Ryan Watson notched a pair of Purdue's three sacks on the day.

BOILER NOTES

THE ODOM ERA BEGINS

- Guiding one of the greatest resurgences in college football over the past two seasons, Barry Odom was named the new head football coach of the Purdue Boilermakers on December 8, 2024.
- Odom, 48, became the 38th head coach in the history of Purdue Football, coming to West Lafayette following what could be considered the most impressive gridiron campaign in UNLV's school history. The Rebels reached double-digit wins for only the third time in program history (1974, 1984), with both previous seasons predating the program's move up to Division I competition and the Mountain West Conference, respectively.
- Prior to arriving at Purdue, Odom possessed a 44-33 overall record in six seasons as a head coach, four at Missouri (2016-19) and two at UNLV (2023-24). His 19-8 mark with the Rebels bears significance in that the five seasons prior to his arrival (2017-22), UNLV won just 20 games.
- Odom has a defensive background. A linebacker during his playing days at Missouri (1996-99), he has racked up seven seasons as a defensive coordinator over three stops: Memphis (2012-14), Missouri (2015) and Arkansas (2020-22).

A BACK-TO-BACK START

- With a win Saturday, Barry Odom could do something that no Purdue head coach has done in more than a century - start his Boilermaker career 2-0.
- The last coach to start his tenure 2-0 was Cleo O'Donnell in 1916 when he beat Monon Bell rivals Wabash and DePauw.
- The best start to a Purdue career was by Knowlton Ames, who went a perfect 12-0 over two seasons (4-0 in 1891, 8-0 in 1892) to win back-to-back Indiana Intercollegiate Athletic Association Championships.

Coaches to Start Purdue Career 2-0

Coach	Year	Opponents	Winning Streak
Cleo O'Donnell	1916	DePauw, Wabash	2 Games
Andy Smith	1913	Wabash, Northwestern	2 Games
Albert Hearnstein	1905	Wendell Phillips, Beloit	2 Games
Oliver Cutts	1903	Englewood, Wabash	3 Games
Charles Best	1902	Franklin, DePauw	2 Games
S.M. Hammond	1896	Greer, Rush Medical	2 Games
David Balliet	1893	Indiana, Butler	4 Games
Knowlton Ames	1891	Wabash, DePauw	12 Games
George Reisner	1889	DePauw, Wabash	2 Games

FAST START

- It took the Boilermakers two plays and only 36 seconds to score their first points of the season.
- After a 13-yard run by Devin Mockobee, Ryan Browne found Arhmad Branch down the middle of the field. The sophomore wide receiver broke multiple tackles and added a smooth spin move before finding the end zone for the 49-yard score.
- The last time Purdue scored within the first minute of the season was at the start of the 1981 campaign, on a 100-yard kickoff return by Jimmy Smith against Stanford.
- The Boilermakers scored touchdowns on their first two drives, totaling three minutes and 31 seconds over only eight plays. The 14 first quarter points surpassed the 13 first quarter points Purdue scored throughout all of last season.

SEASON-OPENING SHUTOUT

- For the second straight season, Purdue began the year with a shutout victory. Jack Mollenkopf's Boilermakers in 1964 and 1965 were the last to record a season-opening shutout in consecutive seasons.
- The Boilermakers were one of 10 programs nationwide to start the season with a shutout, including one of only two Big Ten teams (Wisconsin).
- Purdue kept an FBS opponent off the scoreboard for the first time since a 49-0 victory over UConn in 2021.
- The Boilers limited Ball State to only 203 yards of total offense, which included just 87 passing yards. The defense also racked up seven tackles-for-loss and four sacks.
- Purdue was one of 21 teams over Week 0 and Week 1 to allow just one trip or less to the red zone.

6-FOR-6

- A season ago, Arhmad Branch's lone touch was a 3-yard touchdown on an end-around. Impressing the new coaching staff in the spring and throughout fall camp, it was evident that the sophomore was going to get more than one look in the season opener.
- Offensive coordinator Josh Henson and quarterback Ryan Browne targeted Branch early, as the wide receiver caught three passes for 101 yards in the first quarter.
- Not only did Branch produce a 100-yard quarter, he became the first Purdue wide receiver to record a 100-yard game since Abdur-Rahmaan Yassen (Sept. 16, 2023 vs. Syracuse).
- Branch's first career catch was a 49-yard touchdown on the second play of the game for Purdue's first score of the season. On the second drive, he started off with a 17-yard snag before hauling in an impressive one-handed grab for 35 yards.
- Branch was one of only two wide receivers in the country to eclipse 100 yards on three-or-fewer receptions on the opening weekend, the first Boilermaker to accomplish the feat since 2008.

HERE COMES THE MOCKTRAIN

- From walk-on to phenom, Devin Mockobee will finish his career as one of the best running backs in Purdue history.
- Mockobee has led the rushing attack for the Boilermakers in each of the last three seasons, amassing 2,525 yards on 519 carries with 20 touchdowns throughout his career.
- The Boonville, Ind., native is the most experienced returner with 38 appearances and 24 starts at Purdue.
- The senior was named to the Doak Walker Award, Wuerffel Trophy and AFCA Good Works Team Watch Lists, as well as the Senior Bowl Top 300 list.
- Mockobee did not entertain entering the transfer portal after last season, instead focusing on completing his mechanical engineering technology degree. His close connection to running backs coach Lamar Conard (2000 Purdue graduate), who was retained by Barry Odom, also was a major factor in staying at Purdue.
- He is one of 13 Big Ten running backs to rush for 650 yards in the last 10 years, a list that includes Saquon Barkley, Jonathan Taylor and Nicholas Singleton.
- Mockobee's impact can be felt beyond the field after donating $10,000 to youth football in his hometown during the offseason.

BOILER NOTES*WHAT CAN BROWNE DO FOR YOU

- In his first start of the season, quarterback Ryan Browne notched his first career win behind a career-high 311 yards on 18-of-26 passing with a pair of touchdowns. He added another score on the ground.
- Browne was one of eight quarterbacks to throw for 300 yards against FBS opposition on the opening weekend of the season and was one of two to throw for 300 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while scoring another on the ground (Maverick McIvor - Western Kentucky) against an FBS team.
- He joined Drew Brees (2000), Elijah Sindelar (2019), Jack Plummer (2021) and Aidan O'Connell (2022) as the only Purdue quarterbacks to register a 300-yard passing game in the season opener since 1995.
- He was the lone Big Ten quarterback to throw for 300 yards in Week 1 and leads the league in total offense.
- He spread the love around, finding eight different receivers in the opener.
- Browne was named the starting quarterback by head coach Barry Odom in the last week of fall camp after a competition with Malachi Singleton, Bennett Meredith and Evans Chuba and Garyt Odom.
- Browne served as a backup for the Boilermakers last year, making one start, before spending the spring semester under Bill Belichick at North Carolina. He transferred back to Purdue during the spring portal window.

THE THRILLER

- Michael Jackson III was one of the stars of the wide receiver room throughout fall camp, and the new Boilermaker thrilled the Ross-Ade faithful in his first game at Purdue.
- Jackson caught a game-high six passes for 72 yards, matching his career high in receptions when he was a USC Trojan facing Notre Dame in 2023.
- He also hauled in his first touchdown as a Boilermaker, a 14-yard catch in the third quarter, before celebrating like the King of Pop.

JACK MCCALLISTER - FOR THE BRAND

- A starting punter for the past three seasons at Washington, senior Jack McCallister had no problem bringing his talents from the Pacific Northwest to West Lafayette.
- In his Purdue debut, McCallister punted three times and averaged 50.3 yards per punt with all three landing inside the 20-yard line.
- His best punt of the day was a coffin-corner, 55-yard boot that landed inside the 10 and rolled out of bounds at the 4-yard line.
- After the first week of the season, McCallister ranks second in the Big Ten and 10th in the country in punting average.
- He is the sixth Boilermaker punter since 2002 to average 50 yards or better on at least a trio of boots.

HARD, SMART, TOUGH

- The three core principles of a Barry Odom-coached program are: hard, smart and tough. Playing football that way helped Odom's UNLV teams succeed in all three phases of the game each of the past two seasons.
- Odom's defenses have made 17 interceptions in both the 2023 season and the 2024 campaign. The 34 INTs were the second most recorded by a team over the past two years. The defenses also forced 49 turnovers during the two-year span, ranking fifth nationally.
- Odom's teams have put up points over the past two seasons, averaging 34.4 points per game in 2023 (22nd nationally) and 36.2 ppg in 2024 (14th nationally). The 953 total points throughout both 2023 and 2024 ranked sixth in the country.
- Odom emphasizes special teams, realizing it brings a winning edge to a program. In 2023, Odom's Rebels made 26-of-29 field goals for an 89.7 percent clip. Last season, his special teams unit blocked five punts to lead the nation.

MOCKING MOVING UP THE CHARTS

- Mockabee has already climbed into the top 10 at Purdue in several career categories: ninth in career rushing attempts (519), seventh in career yards (2,525), ninth in rushing touchdowns (20) and sixth in 100-yard rushing games (8).
- With a 59-yard day against Ball State, he became just the eighth Boilermaker in history to rack up 2,500 career rushing yards, moving up to seventh on the all-time charts in the process.
- The MockTrain is the ninth running back to lead Purdue in rushing for three straight seasons since 1946.
- He started his career by setting a new Purdue freshman record with 968 rushing yards while also adding nine touchdowns in 2022. After being put on scholarship, he led the team in rushing once again with 807 yards and six touchdowns in 2023. He posted 687 yards and four scores in 2024.

ADDING THROUGH THE PORTAL

- It's a brand new era under head coach Barry Odom. With a coaching change, there always comes roster turnover. Odom welcomed at least 50 transfers in each of his two seasons at UNLV, attacking the portal to produce two of the best seasons in UNLV history.
- Heading into the 2025 campaign, Purdue has welcomed 54 transfers, which leads the nation. Add in high school signees and walk-ons, 82 Boilermakers are new to the program.
- Forty-six players practiced for the first day on the opening day of fall camp as post-spring practice additions.

ANOTHER SEASON OF PURDUE FOOTBALL

- The Boilermakers kicked off their 138th season of football in 2025 with a 31-0 win over Ball State.
- Ross-Ade Stadium has been Purdue's home for 101 seasons, marking the 2025 campaign as the 102nd full season.
- Purdue closed out the 1924 season with its first game at Ross-Ade, a 26-7 Homecoming win over Indiana (Nov. 22, 1924).
- The Boilermakers have held a team scoreless 182 times, resulting in 174 wins. The Boilermakers' most recent shutout was in the season opener against Ball State, 31-0. The largest shutout was a 96-0 win over Butler in 1893.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

- A season ago, Purdue faced the toughest schedule in college football history. Five Boilermaker opponents ended up making the College Football Playoff in 2024. No other team had as many playoff opponents on its schedule, and due to the CFP expanding to 12 teams last year, Purdue became the first team in history to face five playoff teams in one season.
- This season, the Boilermakers have another tough schedule that includes three CFP teams from 2024 (Notre Dame, Ohio State, Indiana) and five opponents ranked in the Preseason Top 25: No. 6 Notre Dame (Sept. 20), No. 12 Illinois (Oct. 4), No. 14 Michigan (Nov. 1), No. 3 Ohio State (Nov. 8), and No. 20 Indiana (Nov. 28).
- Purdue faces the past two national champions, Michigan and Ohio State, in back-to-back weeks to kick off the month of November.
- The 2025 slate was tabbed the 18th hardest in the nation by ESPN Football Power Index and 13th in Phil Steele's preseason guide.
- Purdue's trip to Washington for Game 11 will tie for the eighth-longest road trip in program history at 2,187 miles.

BOILER NOTES

IN-STATE OPPOSITION

- A schedule rarity, Purdue has three opponents from the state of Indiana this season.
- Purdue downed Ball State 31-0 to start the year.
- The Boilermakers will square off with Notre Dame for the Shillelagh Trophy on Sept. 20.
- Purdue will close the regular season with the 100th Old Oaken Bucket Game against Indiana on Black Friday (Nov. 28)
- It marks the second straight season the Boilermakers will face three in-state foes and just the fifth time in the last 25 years.

EXPERIENCE WELCOMED

- Purdue's coaching staff was deliberate in finding players who could make an instant impact when signing players out of the transfer portal with 41 of the 54 additions bringing at least one game of experience in their career.
- Of the 41 players with collegiate experience, the group combined to average 23.9 games of experience throughout their career before arriving in West Lafayette. .
- Six new Boilermakers arrived in West Lafayette with 40 or more games played in their careers (Tony Grimes - 50, Christian Moore - 46, An'Darius Coffey - 45, Chauncey Magwood - 41, Jack McCallister - 41, Tahj Ra-El - 40), while nine other have 30 games of experience.
- Fifteen of Purdue's transfers started the final seven games at their previous stop.

BROWNE OFF THE BENCH IN 2024

- Ryan Browne appeared in eight games last season, making two starts, throwing for 532 yards and four touchdowns with a QB efficiency of 127.5. He rushed for 241 yards on 50 carries.
- Making his first career start in place of an injured Hudson Card, Ryan Browne rose to the occasion and nearly led Purdue to the biggest comeback in program history at No. 23 Illinois (Oct. 12, 2024).
- The Clarkston, Michigan, native became just the sixth Boilermaker quarterback to eclipse 100 yards rushing in a game, joining Phipps, Bob Bobrowski, Gary Danielson, Rob Henry and Kirsch. His 118 rushing yards were the most by a Purdue quarterback since Henry at 132 at Northwestern on Oct. 9, 2010.
- Browne's day on the ground eclipsed his 85-yard day he had in relief against Northwestern a season ago, but he joined Drew Brees as the only Purdue quarterbacks (since 1996) to produce a pair of 80-yard rushing games.
- For his performance against the Illini, Browne earned a 90.9 grade from PFF, the best by a Purdue QB on the road since at least 2008.

THE CAPTAINS

- At the end of fall camp, head coach Barry Odom announced the eight Boilermakers named captain for the 2025 campaign.
- Quarterback Ryan Browne, defensive backs An'Darius Coffey and Tony Grimes, wide receiver Michael Jackson III, running back Devin Mockobee, linebacker Mani Powell, defensive end CJ Madden and offensive lineman Jalen St. John were elected after a vote by the team.
- Six of the selections are seniors in their final season, while Browne and Madden represent a young leadership group that bought into the new culture under Odom.
- Jackson III and Coffey made an quick impact in the locker room to earn their selection after joining Purdue following the conclusion of spring ball.

TRENT EARNS A SCHOLARSHIP

- Offensive lineman Ethan Trent came to West Lafayette with a family legacy already deeply entrenched in Purdue history. His older brother Tyler became a cult-hero for the Boilermaker faithful during the 2018 season. The Purdue superfan continued passionately cheering on his favorite team despite his battle with a rare form of bone cancer.
- Tyler's story was shared on ESPN College Gameday ahead of the Boilers' matchup against No. 3 Ohio State. In what became known as "The Tyler Trent Game," Purdue dominated the Buckeyes in a 49-20 upset rout in Ross-Ade. Ethan, who appeared multiple times in the Gameday piece, was the one pushing Tyler's wheelchair as the pair stormed the field along with thousands of other fans.
- In 2023, Ethan joined the football team as a preferred walk-on freshman. Last season, he made his Boilermaker debut and appeared in three games.
- Impressing head coach Barry Odom with his hard work and quickly becoming a major piece to the Purdue offensive line, Ethan earned a scholarship during the spring.
- He earned his first career start for Purdue in the season opener against Ball State.

WATCH LIST SEASON

- A pair of Boilermakers were recognized during watch list season this summer.
- Transfer linebacker Mani Powell was named to the Butkus Award Watch List, as one of the 51 best linebackers in the nation and one of 12 from the Big Ten.
- Running back Devin Mockobee was honored for his play on the field on the Senior Bowl Top 300 List and the Doak Walker Award Watch List.
- Mockobee was also recognized for the AFCA Good Works Team and Wuerffel Trophy Watch List, following a $10,000 contribution to youth football in his hometown.

25TH ANNIVERSARY FOR THE BIG TEN CHAMPS

- The 2025 season marks the 25th anniversary of the Boilermakers' Big Ten title and trip to the 2001 Rose Bowl Game. Purdue will welcome back the historic team to Ross-Ade Stadium for the USC game on Sept. 13.
- Quarterbacked by Heisman Trophy finalist and Maxwell Award winner Drew Brees, the Boilermakers went 8-4 overall with a 6-2 mark in Big Ten play to earn a share of the Big Ten title and reach the Rose Bowl Game for the first time since 1967.
- Ten Boilermakers garnered All-Big Ten honors, led by Brees, the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year and Chicago Tribune Silver Football Award winner. Safety Stuart Schweigert was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year.
- The 2000 roster featured seven future Super Bowl champions (Drew Brees, John Standeford, Matt Light, Gene Mruczkowski, Chukky Okobi, Brandon Gorin, Gilbert Gardner).

NFL QB U

- The home of the Cradle of Quarterbacks, Purdue has sent an impressive army of gunslingers to the NFL. Two of the four Boilermakers enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame are quarterbacks Len Dawson and Bob Griese. (Hank Stram & Rod Woodson)
- Entering the 2025 season, Purdue alumni have combined to throw for 262,241 yards and 1,762 touchdowns.
- Drew Brees, who is in his first year of eligibility for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was Purdue's all-time passing leader in the NFL and ranks second in league history with 80,358 passing yards and 571 touchdowns.
- Jim Everett, Len Dawson, Jeff George and Bob Griese all threw for more than 20,000 yards during their professional careers.
- Purdue quarterbacks have combined to win four Super Bowls, tied for fourth most by a school - Len Dawson SBIV, Bob Griese SB VII & VIII and Drew Brees SBXLIV.
- It is one of two schools to have three different Super Bowl champion quarterbacks, second only to Alabama's four.

BOILER NOTES

FIRST GAME OF A NEW ERA

- Barry Odom became the 19th head coach in Purdue history to win his first game in charge at Purdue, when the Boilermakers downed Ball State 31-0 on Aug. 30.
- The last coach prior to Odom to lead Purdue to victory in his debut was Danny Home in 2009 against Toledo.
- Jim Colletto is the only other Purdue head coach to win in his debut in the last 50 years, knocking off Eastern Michigan in 1991.

247SPORTS 30UNDER30

- General Manager Brandon Lee and defensive ends coach Jake Trump were tabbed to the 247Sports 2025 30Under30 list in mid-August.
- Purdue is one of two programs to have multiple staff members on the list (Illinois).
- Trump joined Odom in West Lafayette after spending the past five seasons at Arkansas. Three of those years were when Odom was the Razorbacks' defensive coordinator. While in Fayetteville, Trump helped mentor 12 All-SEC defenders.
- While only in his first season as the Boilermakers' general manager, Lee has been a rising star in college athletics for some time. The Indianapolis native arrived at Purdue after serving as associate athletic director for student-athlete brand strategy and innovation at Mississippi State.
- Prior to reuniting at Purdue and embarking on their respective careers, Lee and Trump were teammates at Missouri (2015-18) under Odom's guidance.

MBOW TO THE GIANTS IN THE 5TH ROUND

- Marcus Mbow was selected in the fifth round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the New York Giants, reuniting him with Purdue teammate, running back Tyrone Tracy Jr.
- Mbow started all 12 games at right tackle in 2024, recording a 75.2 run blocking grade by PFF, ranking sixth among Big Ten tackles.
- Mbow played in 36 games throughout his Purdue career, making 32 starts between right guard and right tackle. He was All-Big Ten Honorable Mention in each of the past three seasons.
- Dating back to the beginning of the Joe Tiller era (1997), at least one Boilermaker has been chosen in every NFL Draft aside from the 2019 season.

DB DEPTH

- Perhaps the most overhauled position on the 2025 roster was the defensive backs room with 12 new additions since head coach Barry Odom arrived in West Lafayette.
- 10 of the 12 have previous experience with the entire room boasting 331 games of collegiate experience. The average experience level of the college additions was 27.6 games played in a career.
- Senior Tony Grimes was named a captain ahead of the season, following time spent at UNLV, Texas A&M and North Carolina.
- An'Darius Coffey, another elected captain, Tahj Ra-El and Chail Cummings all arrived with defensive backs coach Charles Clark from Memphis.
- Eight defensive backs have appeared in 27 games or more throughout their career, while seven have started double-figure games.

Most Experienced DBs

Player	Played	Starts	Previous School
Tony Grimes	50	40	UNC, Texas A&M, UNLV
An'Darius Coffey	45	9	Memphis
Tahj Ra-El	40	17	Old Dominion, Memphis
Hershey McLaurin	35	20	Jones CC, West Virginia, Houston
TD Williams	33	30	Central Arkansas

BOILERMAKER BACKERS

- Defensive Coordinator and linebackers coach Mike Scherer followed head coach Barry Odom from UNLV, where he held the same role in two seasons with the Rebels. Scherer was a standout linebacker at Missouri under Odom.
- Following Scherer from UNLV, Mani Powell found success in the system last season, totaling 59 tackles, 9.0 tackles-for-loss and 3.5 sacks. Powell received preseason buzz with his addition to the Butkus Award Watch List.
- Joining the UNLV crew in West Lafayette, Charles Correa appeared in 14 games for the Rebels with two starts as a true freshman last season. Correa credits Odom and Scherer's leadership and family atmosphere for his reasoning to follow the duo to Purdue.
- Sanders Ellis joined Purdue from Tennessee State in the FCS ranks, where he was a Freshman All-American and finished fifth in the Jerry Rice Award voting. A versatile linebacker for the Tigers, Ellis finished second among FCS freshmen in tackles-for-loss (15.5) and third in total tackles (86) in 2024.
- Alex Sanford Jr. looks to carve out a significant role on the Boilermakers' defense after two seasons at Arkansas. He was recruited by Odom and Scherer at Arkansas.

THE TIGHT ENDS

- Offensive coordinator Josh Henson will also have tight ends responsibility tied to his title in 2025. He earned his college football coaching breakthrough serving as the tight ends coach at Oklahoma State (2001-04) and LSU (2005-08).
- The group carries a large frame as a unit, averaging a height of six feet-5.6 inches, good to tie for second tallest in the Big Ten behind Maryland's six feet-5.8 inches.
- Christian Earls carries the largest frame (6-foot-8, 280 pounds), and followed Odom from UNLV after 20 appearances in the last two seasons.
- George Burhenn looks to lead the group this season. He finished his 2023 campaign with five catches for 74 yards and a 33-yard touchdown in the finale vs. Indiana and showed promise before an injury-plagued 2024 campaign limited him to four games. His name pronunciation in the guide (a cold chicken), Burhenn fed into the nickname enough to get a tattoo of a cold chicken.
- Christian Moore brings a hybrid style between fullback and tight end across his 46 games between UNLV (2024) and Kansas State (2020-23). He finished fifth among FBS tight ends with a 79.9 run blocking grade last year.
- Rico Walker, a former four-star prospect, appeared in 13 games over two seasons at Maryland and Auburn.

IN THE TRENCHES

- Purdue's offensive line has made monumental strides during the offseason under coach Vance Vice. While most position groups will be dominated by newcomers out of the portal, a trio of returners last year will look to make their impact in the starting five.
- Bakayne Coly and Joey Tanona were both understudies last year, making the occasional rotation into the playing group. Tanona is a former four-star prospect who left Notre Dame after a car accident before his first practice barred him from playing for the Fighting Irish, while Coly has packed on 30-plus pounds since his arrival in West Lafayette three years ago.
- Jalen St. John is has the most experience of any linemen, having played 39 games over his five years in college.
- Ethan Trent worked his tail off during the offseason to not only earn a scholarship, but to a serious contender for Purdue's starting group.

SPECIAL TEAMS, SPECIAL PLAYERS

- James Shibest, who Odom calls "the best special teams coach in the country," joins Purdue after a two-year stint under Odom at UNLV and is a 25-year coaching veteran. His unit in 2024 led the nation with five blocked punts and finished third with five blocked kicks. In each of his two seasons at UNLV, he mentored a kicker, kick returner and punt returner to All-Mountain West honors.
- Jack McCallister's addition at punter during the summer brought 41 games of collegiate experience at Washington. His experience includes punting in the 2023 CFP National Championship vs. No. 1 Michigan. McCallister has a 42-yard average with 33 punts pinned inside the 20.
- Spencer Porath is Purdue's only special teams returner this season after he appeared in nine games as a true freshman in 2024. He went 7-of-11 (63.9%) on field goal attempts.
- The Boilermakers brought in Seth Turner to compete with Porath for the kicking job in 2025. While he did not receive any game experience in two seasons at UConn, Turner did nail a 56-yard field goal during fall camp to enhance the competition.
- Purdue's return game remains a competition, but Shibest noted that Michael Jackson III stood out throughout fall camp at both kick and punt returner.

RETURNING PRODUCTION

- As head coach Barry Odom and his staff flipped the roster, a committed group of returners bought into the system looking to guide Purdue's reemergence back on the national stage.
- Twenty-eight returners on the roster have appeared in at least one game for Purdue, while only five have played 12 games or more.
- Just six players have started for Purdue, led by Devin Mockobee's 23 starts. Smiley Bradford (4) is the lone defensive returner to start at Purdue (De'Nylon Morrisette - 4, Ryan Browne - 2, George Burhenn - 1, Bennett Meredith - 1).

COACHING CONNECTIONS

- After an incredible two-year run at UNLV, head coach Barry Odom brought eight players and three coaches, two analysts and four additional staff members with him when he arrived in West Lafayette.
- Odom has a solid contingent of former players from his time at Missouri on his staff, including defensive coordinator Mike Scherer, defensive ends coach Jake Trump, general manager Brandon Lee, senior defensive analyst Ronnell Perkins, defensive analyst
- Odom is the definition of a players' coach, as seven of his former players are on his 2025 staff: DeMarkus Acy (defensive analyst), Brandon Lee (general manager), Jack Lowary (defensive analyst), Ronnell Perkins (senior defensive analyst), Mike Scherer (defensive coordinator/linebackers coach), Tre'vour Simms (offensive analyst), Jake Trump (defensive ends coach).
- Trump and defensive line coach Kelvin Green worked under Odom while he was the defensive coordinator at Arkansas. Trump was with Odom for all three seasons in Fayetteville (2020-22), while Green joined Odom's defensive staff for the 2022 campaign.
- Offensive coordinator Josh Henson worked alongside Odom at Missouri for three seasons when both were assistants for Gary Pinkel.

HEAD COACH BARRY ODOM

Guiding one of the greatest resurgences in college football over the past two seasons, Barry Odom was named the new head football coach of the Purdue Boilermakers on December 8, 2024.

Odom, 48, became the 38th head coach in the history of Purdue Football, coming to West Lafayette following what could be considered the most impressive gridiron campaign in UNLV's school history. The Rebels reached double-digit wins for only the third time in program history (1974, 1984), with both previous seasons predating the program's move up to Division I competition and the Mountain West Conference, respectively. National recognition has followed, as the Rebels have achieved a program-best No. 19 ranking in both the AP and Coaches polls, as well as their first-ever CFP ranking.

Fresh off steering UNLV Football to its winningest season in 40 years, Odom has compiled an impressive list of accomplishments throughout his coaching career, which includes stints as a head coach in both the Southeastern Conference with Missouri (2016-19) and the Mountain West Conference with the Rebels (2023-24). UNLV has totaled 19 wins during Odom's time guiding the Rebels, making it the winningest two-year stretch in the school's history as a Division I program. As a head coach, he has secured four postseason appearances in six seasons, including two (2017 Texas Bowl, 2018 Liberty Bowl) bowl bids at Missouri.

His 19-8 mark with the Rebels bears significance in that the five seasons prior to his arrival (2017-22), UNLV won just 20 games. Impressively, his UNLV teams posted a 10-2 mark in true road games after the program only won eight total road games in the previous six seasons (8-25).

In just two seasons, Odom dramatically changed expectations in Las Vegas, with UNLV twice advancing to the MWC Championship Game after the program had not made a single appearance in the event prior to his arrival. Following Odom's first campaign in Las Vegas (9-5, 6-2 MWC), he was named the 2023 Mountain West Coach of the Year. He also earned distinction as the program's first-ever Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award finalist. The 2023 season culminated in an appearance in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl in Phoenix, Arizona.

Odom's adept tutelage saw three Rebels earn All-America status, and the program christened its first-ever First Team Academic All-American after the 2023 season. Back-to-back seasons of six First Team All-MWC honorees for the Rebels have occurred, including a school-record 12 combined recognitions between the conference's first and second teams in 2024. Incoming Rebels have seen a boost in notoriety, as well, with Odom's 2025 signees ranking as the top class in the Mountain West.

Odom has also spent impactful tenures as a highly regarded defensive coordinator at Memphis (2012-14), Missouri (2015) and Arkansas (2020-22). For the Razorbacks, Odom served as associate head coach, defensive coordinator and safeties coach. His 2021 defense turned heads, as it allowed just 22.9 points per game – 12 points fewer per game than in 2020 and the fewest for an Arkansas defense since 2014. Focusing on the run defense, the unit evolved to allow just 153.9 yards per game, the fewest for Arkansas since 2015. Under Odom's watch, Arkansas' 18 takeaways during the 2020 campaign ranked 25th nationally. The Razorbacks' 13 interceptions were second most in the SEC and 13th most in the FBS.

During his first defensive coordinator job at Memphis in 2012, he transformed the Tigers into a defensive power. In 2014, his defense ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 points per game) and 22nd nationally in total defense (343.3 yards per game) to help the Tigers go 10-3. That marked an incredible turnaround for a Memphis team that ranked 117th in total defense prior to his arrival. The program improved defensively each year under Odom, rising from 50th nationally in total defense in 2012 to 39th in 2013 to 22nd in his final year.

Before moving to Fayetteville, Odom spent four seasons as Missouri's head coach, taking two of his teams to bowl games and finishing at .500 or better three times en route to building an overall record of 25-25 from 2016-19. His 2018 Missouri squad finished the regular season ranked 23rd in the College Football Playoff poll.

Regarded among the coaching fraternity for his steadfast pathway to the top, Odom was promoted to the head coaching role at Missouri following the retirement of Gary Pinkel, whom he worked for in numerous capacities while on staff at Missouri in two separate stints. From 2003-2011, Odom served as graduate assistant, director of recruiting, director of football operations and safeties coach for the Tigers. Upon returning from his three seasons at Memphis, Odom served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2015 before his promotion ahead of the 2016 season.

Odom was born in Lawton, Oklahoma, and raised in Maysville, Oklahoma. He was a four-year letterwinner at linebacker for Missouri from 1996-99, helping the school make two bowl trips and serving as team captain during his senior season. He ended his MU career ranked in the program's all-time top 10 with 362 tackles.

Odom graduated from Missouri in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in education and earned his master's in education from the school in 2004. He and his wife, Tia, have two sons, JT and Garyt, and a daughter, Anna.

ROSS-ADE STADIUM HISTORY

• Ross-Ade Stadium was dedicated Nov. 22, 1924, ahead of its first game when Purdue hosted Indiana. The Boilermakers demolished their in-state foes in a 26-7 rout.

• The two men for whom the stadium is named after, David E. Ross and George Ade, were instrumental in building a stadium that has served as the backdrop to Purdue lore over the last 101 seasons. Ross conceived of the idea for a new stadium to replace Stuart Field, a 5,000-seat stadium that hosted Purdue Football from 1892 to 1924 and was located where the Elliot Hall of Music stands today.

• The original capacity for Ross-Ade Stadium in 1924 was 18,500, including standing room tickets. Over the years and several renovations, the capacity grew to its largest at 69,200 in 1970.

• The largest crowd ever to see a game at Ross-Ade is 71,629 against Indiana on Nov. 22, 1980, when Purdue outlasted the Hoosiers, 24-23, on the shoulders of consensus All-Americans quarterback (and current John Purdue Club Director of Leadership and Alumni Engagement) Mark Hermann and tight end Dave Young.

• Additional upgrades to the stadium included a new press box, luxury boxes and premium club areas in 2003 as a part of a $70 million project. Permanent lighting was installed in 2017 and a new sound system in 2018.

• The Tyler Trent (T²) Student Gate was dedicated during the 2019 season in memory of Purdue superfan Tyler Trent who passed away at the age of 20 from osteosarcoma. The T² Gate was relocated to the south side of the stadium after the 2023 student section renovations were completed.

PHASE 1

The 2023 season saw the completion of the Phase I of a multi-phased renovation project at a cost of more $45 million, fully funded by gifts to the John Purdue Club.

The three main enhancements to the stadium were the Tiller Tunnel, the south end zone student section and the team dining facility, which opened in July of 2024, on the north side of the stadium, bringing the total capacity up to 61,441

SOUTH END ZONE PROJECT

The Purdue student section and the All-American Marching Band have a new home in the south end zone of Ross-Ade Stadium. As a part of the Phase I project, the dedicated student section enhancements included the addition of a new Tyler Trent student entrance area, safe standing seats, patio and deck areas, rail seating, and enhanced concessions.

The completion of the bowl, in addition to the investment in the size of the concourse, allows for a more accessible fan experience as fans will now be able to traverse the entire stadium at the concourse level.

TILLER TUNNEL

The Boilermakers run onto Rohrman Field at Ross-Ade Stadium via the Tiller Tunnel. Completed in 2023, the tunnel provides direct access to the team back to the Kozuch Football Performance Center.

The tunnel is named in honor of the Purdue Hall of Fame inductee Joe Tiller, the winningest coach in the history of Purdue Football. Tiller left an incredible legacy on the program and Boilermakers everywhere. The result was 10 bowl games, including the 2001 Rose Bowl, and a Big Ten Conference championship in 2000.

THE MEMORIAL TUNNEL

Purdue was slated for face in-state foe Indiana in 1903 at a neutral site for the first time at Washington Park in Indianapolis.

Purdue reserved two special charter trains in order to carry the football team and over 1,500 supporters to the state capital.

Around 10 a.m. on Oct. 31, 1903, the lead special charter train carrying the team, members of the band and other university administrators collided with a northbound coal train. Seventeen people were killed, including 14 members of the football team.

Purdue dedicated the southeast tunnel of Ross-Ade Stadium to the victims of the tragedy in 2003 to mark the centennial of the wreck. Memorial Gymnasium, now Felix Haas Hall housing the Department of Computer Science, was dedicated to the victims in 1909. It has 17 steps at the entrance, one for each victim.

DEN OF DEFENSIVE ENDS

Throughout its history, Purdue has produced many outstanding defensive ends, creating an institution unlike any other in college football - The Den of Defensive Ends.

The tradition of The Den of Defensive Ends dates to the days of Leo Sugar and Lamar Lundy from the late 1940s to the mid-1950s and Keena Turner in the late 1970s, but it has flourished more recently. While Purdue's high-powered offense has made headlines under head coaches like Joe Tiller and Jeff Brohm, the Boilermakers' defense made a name for itself principally for the play of its ends.

CRADLE OF QUARTERBACKS

The Cradle of Quarterbacks has evolved over the last 70 years as a defining feature of Purdue Football. Boilermakers have set numerous NCAA and Big Ten Conference records, many have been chosen as All-Americans and national awards winners or finalists.

Fifteen former Purdue signal-callers have gone on to play in the National Football League. Drew Brees, Len Dawson and Bob Griese combined to win four Super Bowls. Purdue is one of just two universities that can claim three Super Bowl champs at the position. (Alabama)

The reference to Cradle of Quarterbacks was added in the late 1970s when the poster was updated to include Mark Herrmann.

DREW BREES (PURDUE 1997-00)

GAME 1 | AUG. 30, 2025

PURDUE	31
BALL STATE	0

ROSS-ADE STADIUM • WEST LAFAYETTE, IND.

Purdue opened the season with a resounding 31-0 win over Ball State.

Ryan Browne completed 69.2% of his passes with no turnovers. He finished 18-of-26 passing for a career-high 311 yards and two touchdowns, connecting with seven receivers.

Devin Mockobee paced the offense with 104 all-purpose yards (59 rushing, 45 receiving) and a touchdown. He moved from ninth to seventh place on Purdue's all-time rushing list (2,521 career rushing yards) and is now 73 yards away from tying Markell Jones for the No. 6 spot.

Mockobee became the 10th Boilermaker to score 20 rushing touchdowns.

Arhmad Branch led the aerial attack with a touchdown and 101 receiving yards, the most by a Purdue wide receiver since Abdur-Rahmaan Yaseen had 114 against Syracuse on Sept. 16, 2023. He scored on just the second play from scrimmage on a 49-yard dime from Browne, setting the tone early.

Michael Jackson III had a game-high six catches, matching his career best in his Purdue debut. He caught a 14-yard pass from Browne to score his first touchdown as a Boiler in the third quarter.

The defense held the Cardinals to 203 total yards and just 87 yards through the air. BSU averaged just 3.9 yards per play.

Tahj Ra-El led the team with seven tackles (all solos), including one for a loss. The Boilers made life difficult for the Cardinals all day, stuffing them behind the line for seven tackles for loss, including four sacks.

Jack McCallister had three punts for 151 yards, an average of 50.3 per punt, all landing within the Ball State 20-yard line.
