MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA SERVICES

The 2018 Georgia Tech Baseball Information Guide is published primarily as a source of information for members of the media. Requests for additional information, interviews and photographs should be directed to the Georgia Tech communications & public relations staff.

Baseball notes and statistics are updated regularly throughout the season. Access to this information can be achieved by accessing the official Georgia Tech Athletics website, www.RamblinWreck.com. The communications & public relations staff will email weekly releases to members of the media.

RUSS CHANDLER STADIUM

Georgia Tech's home field is located on the corner of Fowler Street and Ferst Drive, with the entrances to the stadium along Ferst Drive.

From the North (I-75): Follow I-75 South to Northside Drive/Howell Mill Road Exit. Follow exit to Northside Drive and turn right. Proceed to 10th Street (sixth light) and turn left. Follow 10th Street to Fowler Street (fifth light) and turn right. Stadium will be on the right.

From the North (I-85): Follow I-85 South to North Avenue exit and turn right. Proceed to Techwood Drive (first light) and turn right. Follow Techwood Drive to Fifth Street (second light) and turn left. Stadium will be on the right.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be issued only to working members of the media. Children and other non-workers are not allowed. Members of the media may claim credentials two hours prior to each game at the media will-call window at Russ Chandler Stadium.

Requests: Contact the Georgia Tech communications & public relations staff at least one day prior to home game or series.

Media Will Call: Third base ticket booth, corner of Cherry Street and Ferst Drive.

Media Parking: A limited number of media parking spaces at various locations around Russ Chandler Stadium are available. Please include parking requests along with credential requests.

Press Box: The Russ Chandler Stadium Press Box is located atop the grandstand behind home plate. It includes space for working members of the press, official and visiting scorers, the public address announcer and the scoreboard operator. Also located on the press level are two radio booths, a television booth, and eight luxury suites (two indoor, six outdoor). The Press Box is on the same level as the third base entry gate.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for head coach Danny Hall or any Georgia Tech baseball player should be directed to the Georgia Tech communications & public relations staff and assistant director Kevin Davis (kdavis@gtathletics.org or 704-974-9095).

Players and coaches are available to the media before and after practice by appointment. Interviews with coaches or players while the team is on the road can be arranged through the Georgia Tech communications & public relations staff and Kevin Davis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Danny Hall is available to meet any working members of the press immediately following the game in the classroom at Russ Chandler Stadium. Due to space limitations in the locker room, all player interviews are also conducted in the classroom as well; media members are not permitted in the clubhouse area and will be escorted to the postgame media location by a member of the Georgia Tech communications & public relations staff. The Georgia Tech communications & public relations staff will coordinate all postgame interview requests for the Yellow Jackets.

Interviews with visiting team members can be done on the field, subject to the policy of the visiting team's sports information representative.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Media credentials are required for all photographers and television media. All credentials can be claimed at Will Call, located at the third base entrance of the stadium.

Photo wells are located at the far end of both dugouts, with space for both still and video cameras. Photographers are also permitted to shoot from the press level, but may not shoot from ground level between the two dugouts. Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time. Photographers may move from one photo well to the other by exiting the dugouts and walking along the concourse behind home plate.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Updated cumulative statistics, game notes, scorecards and team rosters are available in the Press Box prior to each home game.

An official scorer is assigned to all home games, and the Georgia Tech Communications & Public Relations staff will keep the media informed of all scoring decisions, noteworthy facts and records.

THE WEB AND SOCIAL MEDIA

The official website of Georgia Tech athletics is updated daily with the latest on Yellow Jacket athletics. It provides the most up to date schedules, rosters, statistics and biographies on every student-athlete and coach. In addition, fans are encouraged to follow the team on Twitter (@GTBaseball), Instagram (@gt_baseball) and Facebook. Georgia Tech will tweet live in-game updates during every game.

RUSS CHANDLER STADIUM

Twice named the "Field of the Year" by the Sports Turf Managers Association, winning the honor in both 2008 and 2014, Russ Chandler Stadium is one of the nation's top collegiate baseball parks.

Scenically nestled in downtown Atlanta, Russ Chandler Stadium provides a brilliant backdrop for college baseball and offers one of the best atmospheres for the game in the country.

The home of Georgia Tech baseball for more than 80 years, Russ Chandler Stadium has a long and storied history, from its original construction in 1930 with funds from Tech's 1929 appearance in the Rose Bowl game to its use as a training facility for the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games.

With incredible views of the Atlanta skyline, the facility underwent a $4.5 million renovation and expansion underneath the stadium in 2014-15.

An anonymous $2.5 million challenge grant was the lead for Phase I of the Russ Chandler Stadium renovations. Phase II of the renovations, which includes further expansion of the team's clubhouse facilities down the left-field line, is currently in the fundraising stage.

The latest renovation prior to the start of this season includes a new state-of-the-art video board in left field as well as a new sound system throughout the stadium to better enhance the game day atmosphere.

Prior to the latest additions, 2014-15 saw the first renovation to Russ Chandler Stadium since its complete reconstruction for the 2002 season. The reconstruction took less than eight months at a cost of $9.7 million, making the "Rusty C" one of the top collegiate ballparks in America.

At a current capacity of 4,157, Georgia Tech's baseball facility more than doubled in size when the renovations were complete in 2002. Russ Chandler Stadium features approximately 1,100 chair back seats behind the home plate area in addition to nearly 3,000 bleacher seats.

A wide concourse and plaza area is located at the main entrance to the stadium behind third base. Ticket booths, concession stands and restrooms are located on both the first base and third base sides of the stadium.

Above the grandstand is the press level, which includes ample space for the writers and broadcasters who cover Tech's nationally-ranked program. The main press box has seating for more than 30, while three auxiliary booths can accommodate television and radio crews.

Two enclosed luxury suites are located to one side of the press box, while six open-air, covered suites are on the other side of the press area.

MARK TEIXEIRA LOCKER ROOM/PLAYERS LOUNGE

With the $4.5 million renovation and expansion underneath the stadium in 2014-15, the Yellow Jackets' locker, training and weight rooms were transformed to make Russ Chandler into a state-of-the-art, all-around facility.

Tech's locker room (pictured above) doubled to 2,000-square feet and was renamed the Mark Teixeira Locker Room.

Georgia Tech's clubhouse, which is located on the third base side of the stadium, includes a player's lounge (pictured below), a study hall classroom, a video room where players and coaches can break down game film, and a separate locker area for the coaching staff. A state-of-the-art athletic training room is adjacent to the Tech locker room in addition to a sizable weight room and workout facility (pictured to the right).

The facility features locker rooms for both Georgia Tech and the visiting team, as well as for the umpires.

The stadium also includes three covered batting cages and pitching mounds. One is located underneath the grandstand, while an enclosed area above the left field grandstand houses two additional cages and mounds.

Danny Hall

HEAD COACH DANNY HALL

DANNY HALL

Head Coach
25th season at Tech

17

Danny Hall is a winner.

Hall's tenure at Georgia Tech has been his most successful, as he is the all-time winningest baseball coach in program history with 988 victories on The Flats.

Hall has led Tech to the NCAA Tournament on 20 occasions and guided the Yellow Jackets to the NCAA College World Series in 1994, 2002 and 2006 -- the program's only three berths.

Hall became Georgia Tech's winningest coach in 2005 with his 505th win (surpassing Jim Morris), and his Tech teams have posted an overall record of 988-505-1 in his 24 years at the helm of the Yellow Jackets' program. His 30-year head coaching record, which includes six seasons at Kent State, stands at 1,196-622-1.

Over his 24 years in the dugout at Tech, Hall's Yellow Jackets have won close to 60 percent of their Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season games.

The 2018 season will be his 25th on The Flats and his 31st overall as a collegiate head coach. He ranks 26th all-time among all NCAA Division I baseball coaches with 1,196 career wins as a head coach. He also stands seventh among active coaches in number of victories (1,196) and ranks in the top 15 in career winning percentage (.658).

During a collegiate coaching career that spans 40 years (as a graduate assistant, an assistant and a head coach), Hall has been part of 1,633 victories and seven trips to the College World Series.

Each of Hall's Tech teams have been powered by a potent offense, leading or finishing second in the ACC in batting or run production in 13 of his 24 years as the Yellow Jackets' head coach; most recently finishing second in the ACC in 2016 with a team batting average of .307 on the season.

Hall's players have earned 114 all-ACC honors in his 24 years, while 37 different players have garnered a total of 94 all-America honors. He has coached two National Players of the Year, two National Freshmen of the Year, one ACC Player of the Year, one ACC Pitcher of the Year and three ACC Rookies of the Year.

In addition to the three College World Series appearances and 20 NCAA berths under Hall, the Yellow Jackets have claimed five ACC tournament titles (2000, 2003, 2005, 2012, 2014) and won the ACC regular season five times (1997, 2000, 2004, 2005, 2011).

Since Hall's arrival in 1994, a staggering 117 Yellow Jackets have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft a total of 134 times -- that includes a school-record 10 draft picks in 2004, 2007 and 2010, and a record five top-10 round picks in 2013. Thirteen of his student-athletes have been selected in either the first or supplemental round, while 59 have been taken in the first 10 rounds. A total of 61 players have been drafted out of high school but have chosen instead to play for Hall at Georgia Tech.

Hall's no-nonsense, professional approach has given his players the fundamentals they need to be successful after leaving Georgia Tech. That is indicated in the number of his former players that have excelled on the MLB level, headlined by Matt Wieters of the Washington Nationals, Charlie Blackmon of the Colorado Rockies, Derek Dietrich of the Miami Marlins, Buck Farmer of the Detroit Tigers, Blake Wood of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim and former MLB stars Mark Teixeira, Nomar Garciaparra, Jason Varitek and Jay Payton.

The success of Hall's players in professional baseball is molded by their accomplishments at Tech, as his Yellow Jacket teams have advanced to 20 NCAA Regionals in 24 seasons. Georgia Tech has posted 52 NCAA tournament victories since his arrival, winning six NCAA Regional titles and a pair of NCAA Super Regional crowns in both 2002 and 2006.

Just as Hall stresses the importance of on-field performance, his student-athletes have been equally successful in the classroom. Over 200 of his student-athletes have been named to the ACC honor roll (with a 3.0 or higher grade point average) and nine have earned academic all-America honors on 13 occasions.

Hall has worked tirelessly to keep his former Yellow Jackets connected to the program. Through annual events like golf outings or offseason training sessions, Tech baseball alums can always be seen on The Flats.

Hall and Teixeira helped spearhead a major renovation to Russ Chandler Stadium in 2014-15, with Phase II of that project in the beginning stages now.

The Mark Teixeira Locker Room was part of a multi-million dollar overhaul to the Yellow Jackets' team facility, which also included a state-of-the-art weight room, academic center and new athletic training facilities.

In his first year at Georgia Tech, Hall guided an extremely talented and veteran unit with four all-Americans and three first-round draft choices to the brink of a national championship, Georgia Tech's first-ever appearance in the College World Series, and a 50-17 record. Hall was recognized by his American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) peers as Coach of the Year in the Atlantic Region, and may have won the national honor if not for the unranked-to-national title season put together by Oklahoma's Larry Cochell. Three Yellow Jackets earned consensus first-team all-America recognition and those three players finished in the top three in the conference batting stats, a first in ACC history.

Hall guided Tech back to the NCAA Regionals in 1995 and 1996 with teams dominated by freshmen and sophomores. His 1997 squad captured its first ACC regular season title in just his fourth year on The Flats and played in the NCAA Mideast Regional. In addition to earning his first ACC Coach of the Year accolade in 1997, the Yellow Jackets' skipper was named the National Coach of the Year by Sporting News, the first such honor for any Tech baseball coach.

After the Yellow Jackets failed to earn an NCAA Regional bid in 1999 for the first time since his arrival at Tech, Hall guided the Jackets to one of their most successful seasons in 2000 - capturing both the ACC regular season and tournament championships in addition to the NCAA Atlanta Regional title. The team concluded the year with a 50-16 record, and Hall was tabbed the ACC's Coach of the Year for the second time.

Following another 40-win season in 2001, the sixth since Hall took over the reins in 1994, the Jackets' skipper guided Tech to just its second College World Series appearance in 2002 by turning in one of the best coaching jobs of his career, leading a Tech team that included 17 freshmen and only three seniors back to Omaha. The Yellow Jackets swept through the NCAA Atlanta Regional and the NCAA Atlanta Super Regional with a perfect 5-0 record before finishing fifth at the College World Series. They concluded the 2002 campaign with 52 victories, establishing a school record for wins in a season.

Hall led Georgia Tech to its sixth ACC championship, and second in four years under his direction, with an improbable run to the title in 2003. An early-round loss, combined with weather issues, forced Tech to play a triple-header on the final day of competition, with Hall guiding the Yellow Jackets to a 10-6 win over North Carolina, a 10-7 win over Florida State and a 6-5, 10-inning victory over NC State to claim the title in the first triple-header sweep in league history.

HEAD COACH DANNY HALL

In 2004, the Yellow Jackets captured their third ACC regular season title under Hall while the team made its fifth-straight NCAA appearance and 10th since Hall's arrival on The Flats. Tech hosted an NCAA regional for the fourth time in five years and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional for the third time since 2000. From 2004-05, Hall directed Tech to an ACC-record 25-straight conference wins, and the Yellow Jacket skipper was awarded with his third ACC Coach of the Year award honor after guiding Tech to both the 2005 ACC regular season and tournament titles.

Georgia Tech, which earned a top-eight national seed in the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-consecutive year, made its third-straight NCAA Super Regional appearance the following season in 2006 and advanced to its third College World Series since Hall's arrival. Hosting an NCAA Regional for the fifth-straight year, Tech swept through the regional and then the super regional with a perfect 5-0 record before ending the 2006 season in Omaha with a 50-10 overall record.

With a squad that was among the youngest in the nation in 2011, Tech tied a school record with 22 ACC wins and claimed the ACC regular season title. The following year, 2012, may go down as one of Hall's best coaching jobs on The Flats. A team that was battered with injuries, especially in the bullpen, snuck into the ACC Tournament on the final day of the regular season and got hot at just the right time. Tech rolled through Greensboro an undefeated 4-0, becoming the first No. 8 seed in conference history to win the title and the first to defeat a No. 1 seed (Florida State) in tournament play. The Jackets hit .329 overall as a team and outscored the opposition 35-15.

Tech's 8-5 win over Miami in the 2012 ACC title game was Hall's fourth win in five ACC championship game appearances.

The Jackets bashed their way out of the gate in 2013, opening the season 14-2 with staggering offensive numbers. Tech set a school record by scoring double-digit runs in nine-straight games and 14 of the first 21. Paced with home run power from eventual all-Americans Daniel Palka and Zane Evans, Tech finished the season leading the ACC with 58 home runs and was second in both batting average (.304) and slugging percentage.

The Jackets won series over No. 2 North Carolina and No. 5 Virginia during the regular season, beat No. 7 Florida State in the ACC Tournament and knocked off No. 2 Vanderbilt, 5-0, during the NCAA Nashville Regional - the 18th NCAA trip in Hall's 20 seasons at Tech.

Tech was one of the nation's youngest teams again in 2014, starting as many as six true freshmen position players. Yet Hall was able to mold the group into champions as the Yellow Jackets, the ACC's ninth seed, made a remarkable run through Greensboro and captured the program's ninth ACC Tournament title.

The team did its damage with pitching and defense, shaving nearly a full run off its ERA from 2013 and setting the school record for fielding percentage (.974) while leading the nation in double plays (77).

Tech reached the NCAA Regional for the 19th time under Hall in 2014, following a regular season that included series wins over then No. 1 Florida State, No. 22 Miami, No. 13 North Carolina, Georgia, Duke and Virginia Tech.

In 2015, freshman Kel Johnson became the 20th player under Coach Hall to earn freshman all-America honors as the Yellow Jackets finished the season at 32-23 overall, including a stellar record of 21-8 at home on the year. Four Jackets in Matt Gonzalez, A.J. Murray, Brandon Gold and Johnson all earned all-ACC honors, as Tech saw its season cut short in the ACC Championship Tournament for the first time since 2007, ending a streak of seven-straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

The Yellow Jackets got back on track in a huge way in 2016, as Coach Hall's squad swarmed out of the gates with 12-straight wins to start the season off at 12-0. Despite hitting a rough patch midseason, which was caused by a slew of injuries to the pitching rotation, the Yellow Jackets made their 31st overall NCAA Regional appearance, the 20th under Coach Hall, and finished the injury plagued season at 38-25 overall.

The only school from the state of Georgia to advance to the NCAA postseason in 2016, Tech went 2-2 in the regional to finish as the runner-up.

With their NCAA Gainesville Regional appearance, the Jackets have made 28 NCAA Regional appearances in the last 32 years, the fourth-most by any school during that same span (Florida State – 32, Miami – 31, LSU – 29).

Coach Hall's squad registered a non-conference midseason sweep of the eventual 2016 NCAA National Champions in Coastal Carolina from April 29 thru May 1, taking three-straight from the Chanticleers by scores of 9-1, 9-8 and 4-2 in a shortened-contest. On top of the sweep over the eventual national champions, the Jackets also

- Led or finished second in the ACC in batting or run production 13 times

took two-of-three games on the road at both No. 3 North Carolina and No. 23 Clemson in ACC play and used a three-run 10th inning to upend Georgia 6-3 in the Yellow Jackets' final game at Turner Field.

Freshmen Joey Bart and Tristin English were both named to the 2016 Louisville Slugger freshman all-American team and the ACC all-freshman team, while English was also named to the D1Baseball freshman all-American second team. Pitcher Matthew Gorst earned a spot on the NCBWA all-American second team, while a number of Yellow Jackets earned all-ACC honors in English (first team), Kel Johnson (first team), Matt Gonzalez (first team), Brandon Gold (second team), Gorst (second team), and Connor Justus (third team). Gorst, Gonzalez and Gold were all also named to the 2016 ABCA/Rawlings Atlantic all-region team, the first Jackets to receive all-region honors since 2013. A total of five Yellow Jackets – Justus, Gonzalez, Gold, Gorst and Arden Pabst where selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in June, the most picks by the Yellow Jackets in a single season since seven were chosen in 2013. One of only 32 NCAA Division I baseball programs to earn the 2015-16 American Baseball Coaches Association Team Academic Excellence Award, Tech had four players in Ben Parr, Johnson, Trevor Craport and Brandt Stallings named to the 2016 all-ACC academic team.

In 2017, the Jackets were hindered by injuries all season long, as Tech had a total of 11 student-athletes miss significant time (six games or more) due to an injury throughout the year. In what proved to be a grueling schedule, the Yellow Jackets played a total of 16 games (30 percent) of its schedule against top-20 teams in No. 12 Oklahoma, No. 9 North Carolina, No. 7/16 Auburn, No. 5 Clemson, No. 2 Louisville, No. 8 Virginia and No. 12 Wake Forest (rankings at time of competition), scoring one win apiece versus Oklahoma, North Carolina, Auburn, Clemson and Virginia.

Despite the uncharacteristic Georgia Tech baseball season, the Jackets had one player named to all four all-ACC teams in 2017. Junior second baseman Wade Bailey was named to the all-ACC first team, while sophomore catcher Joey Bart earned a spot on the second team. Junior third baseman Trevor Craport was named to the third team, while freshman shortstop Austin Wilhite was named to the all-ACC freshman team. Both Bailey and Bart earned ABCA/Rawlings all-region accolades, while Bailey was also named to the all-America second team by Collegiate Baseball. Wilhite was named to both the Collegiate Baseball freshmen all-America first team and an NCBWA freshman all-American.

From a pair of conference titles and NCAA Regional appearances as a player, through six Big Ten championships and four College World Series teams as an assistant coach, to two conference titles and a pair of NCAA Regionals as a head coach at Kent State, Hall was well-prepared for the task that faced him when he took over the reins at Georgia Tech in December 1993.

In his six years as the head coach at Kent State (1988-93), he guided the Golden Flashes to Mid-American Conference championships and bids to the NCAA Regionals in each of his last two seasons, compiling an 86-28 record during that time.

He forged a 208-117 (.640) record in his six years at Kent State, twice winning Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year honors. He also won more games than any other MAC school from 1989-93. He had 18 Kent State players drafted by major league organizations.

Before his first head coaching position, Hall served as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan, where the Wolverines won the Big Ten six times, participated in seven NCAA Regionals and four College World Series. During his tenure, Hall coached future major leaguers Jim Abbott, Scott Kamieniecki, Barry Larkin, Hal Morris, Chris Sabo and Gary Wayne.

Larkin was inducted into the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame in 2012, becoming the first of what could be many of Danny Hall's former players to be enshrined.

A former president of the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA), Hall now sits on its Board of Directors and is directly responsible for future elected officers within the ABCA as a member of its Nominations Committee. Hall was also a contributing writer on base running techniques in Baseball Strategies, a book produced by the ABCA in 2002.

Hall was selected to the Miami (Ohio) Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998 and the Kent State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005. He was also inducted into the Miami Cradle of Coaches in 2007.

He is married to the former Kara Zufall and has three sons, Danny III, Carter and Colin. Both Carter and Colin are currently on the Georgia Tech baseball team.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JASON HOWELL

Assistant Coach (Pitching)
Recruiting Coordinator
Sixth season at Tech

41

Jason Howell is in his sixth season on The Flats having joined the Georgia Tech staff in July 2012. He came to The Flats as the pitching coach following a successful five-year run in a similar position at UNC Wilmington.

In 2017, Howell added recruiting coordinator to his title, spearheading the Yellow Jackets recruiting efforts.

During his time at Tech, the Yellow Jackets have consistently had recruiting classes ranked in the top-25 by Perfect Game, DIBaseball and Baseball America, including the most recent 2017 signing class which was ranked No. 10 overall nationally by Perfect Game.

The highly regarded Howell, who played and coached at the University of North Carolina and pitched for five years professionally, developed one of the Colonial Athletic Association's (CAA) leading staffs at UNCW. The Seahawks reached the NCAA Regionals in 2012 for the first time since 2008.

In his five seasons as Tech's pitching coach, eight Yellow Jacket arms have been drafted, including Buck Farmer (2013), Matthew Grimes (2013 and 2014), Sam Clay (2014), Josh Heddinger (2014), Dusty Isaacs (2014), Matthew Gorst (2016), Brandon Gold (2016) and Zac Ryan (2017).

Farmer was a National Pitcher of the Year semifinalist and earned all-ACC honors in 2013 under Howell's tutelage, while Gold (2015 and 2016) and Gorst (2016) each earned all-ACC honors as well. Gorst also earned NCBWA all-America second team honors in 2016.

In his first season on The Flats in 2013, he guided Farmer to first-team all-ACC honors as the senior righty went 9-5 with a 2.78 ERA. Farmer, who was second in the ACC with 122 strikeouts, was drafted in the fifth round by the Detroit Tigers. Howell also oversaw the development of freshman lefty Jonathan King, who worked his way from a reliever, to a midweek starter and then to a weekend starter over the course of the season. King finished with a 4.04 ERA and a 6-5 record. Sophomore Josh Heddinger also made great strides under Howell's leadership and would record one of the greatest postseason pitching performances in Tech history with his complete game, two-hit shutout of No. 2 Vanderbilt in the NCAA Nashville Regional.

In the 2014 campaign, the Yellow Jackets shaved one run off the team ERA from the previous season, finishing with a 3.35 ERA -- Tech's lowest since 2011 and the second-lowest since 1993. Howell was forced to shuffle the rotation after early, season-ending injuries to weekend starters King and Cole Pitts. Yet redshirt junior lefty Devin Stanton flourished on the weekend (5-3, 2.24 ERA) and rookie Ben Parr emerged as a dominant midweek starter (5-4, 2.62 ERA).

Tech's strength was its bullpen in 2014 as Clay (4-1, 1.26 ERA, 8 saves) and Isaacs (8-5, 1.92 ERA, 7 saves) combined for 15 of Tech's school-record tying 18 saves, while Clay tied a school record for fewest runs allowed in a season (eight). Isaacs was named the MVP of the ACC Tournament.

In 2015, Ryan posted a stellar 9-1 record overall with seven saves in 28 appearances out of the bullpen for Coach Howell's staff, while Gold, an all-ACC selection, led the Tech starters with a 7-3 record in a 3.26 ERA on the season. King led the Jackets and ranked 10th in the ACC in innings pitched at 92.0, as he made a team-high 15 starts on the mound.

The 2016 season saw a number of starters and pitchers transitioned into new roles, as the Jackets turned in a team ERA of 4.73 on the season. There were a number of bright spots for the year, as Gorst was recognized as an all-ACC and a second-team all-American performer as he went 2-1 with 12 saves and an ERA of 0.55. Gold posted a 9-3 record overall with a 2.48 ERA, while out of the pen Parr went 7-1 in 25 appearances. Walk-on Bailey Combs had a strong season on the mound, as he made 11 appearances and posted an ERA under 1.00 at 0.64 for the year.

The Jackets had eight different arms make at least one start on the year in 2017, which included a team-high 15 starts from freshman Xzavion Curry, six starts from newcomer Jay Shadday and one start by first-year Jacket Connor Thomas. Ryan led the team with five saves out of the bullpen, while Jared Datoc turned in an ERA of 3.77 with six wins, two saves and a total of 32 appearances for the Jackets. Curry matched Datoc with a team-high six wins, while sophomore Jake Lee added four wins on the season, including a complete game win over Duke on May 14. Overall Howell had six different true freshmen pitch on the season and a total of 13 underclassmen appear in multiple games on the mound.

Before accepting the Georgia Tech position, Howell's UNC Wilmington pitching staff ranked 67th nationally (second in the CAA) in 2012, boasting a team ERA of 3.61 and shaving nearly two runs per game off its ERA from the previous season. Senior right-handed starter Tyler McSwain (3.18 ERA) and junior left-handed starter Mat Batts (3.04 ERA) keyed the staff's rise in 2012, as both were named all-CAA performers. McSwain, a first-team pick, broke the CAA's all-time record for wins in conference play with 17. Four key relievers posted ERAs of less than 3.00.

In 2010, under the direction of Howell, UNCW returned to the top of the CAA, leading the 11-team circuit in ERA (4.58), strikeouts (479) and opponent's batting average (.265). The Seahawks ranked 42nd nationally in ERA and were ninth in hits allowed per game, allowing nine per nine innings.

Cameron Roth, who was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles, finished fifth in the conference with a 2.98 ERA while McSwain was ninth with a 4.02 mark. Joining Roth as draft selections were Stephen Harrold (12th round, San Francisco) and Seth Frankoff (27th round, Oakland).

In his first season at UNCW, Howell made an immediate impact on the staff as UNCW topped the CAA in earned run avverage. Brad Holt and Jeff Hatcher earned first-team all-CAA honors while Harrold and Roth were named all-Americans in addition to their CAA all-freshman honors. In conference play, Seahawk pitchers compiled a league-leading 3.84 ERA and held opponents to a league-best .255 batting average. Holt, who also earned three all-America honors, was the 33rd pick overall in the Major League Baseball draft after leading the conference with 11 wins and ranking second with a 3.18 ERA.

A native of Western North Carolina, Howell went to UNCW following two seasons as an assistant coach at North Carolina, his alma mater. He coached first base while working with the pitching staff under the direction of assistant coach Scott Forbes.

The Tar Heels reached the championship series of the NCAA College World Series in 2006 and 2007 - both of Howell's years in Chapel Hill. The 2007 staff fashioned a 3.52 earned run average, ranking 12th nationally, and featured draft picks Luke Putkonen (3rd round, Detroit), Andrew Carignan (5th round, Oakland) and Robert Woodard (20th round, San Diego). In 2006, major league draft selections, Andrew Miller (1st round, Detroit), Daniel Bard (1st round, Boston) and national ERA leader Jonathan Hovis (FA, New York Yankees) led the Tar Heels into the finals.

Prior to joining the UNC coaching staff, Howell began his coaching career as a pitching coach for the Southern Ohio Copperheads of the Great Lakes League, a summer collegiate league, in 2005.

Before getting into coaching, Howell was a member of the Boston Red Sox farm system for five seasons before retiring from professional baseball in 2005. He compiled a 28-14 mark, collected 23 saves and recorded a 3.86 ERA with the Red Sox. In 2002, he paced Boston's minor league circuit with 17 saves for Augusta and later topped the organization in 2003 when he made 48 appearances for Sarasota of the Florida State League.

He played three seasons at Appalachian State before concluding his collegiate career at UNC, where he earned a bachelor's degree in 2002. He also graduated from UNC in 2008 with a master's degree.

In 2001, he earned second-team all-ACC honors after both pitching and playing in the field for the Tar Heels. On the mound, Howell went 6-2 with four saves and was also second on the team with a .350 batting average with 13 doubles and 29 runs batted in. For his efforts, Howell earned the S.H. Basnight Award as the Tar Heels' Most Valuable Pitcher.

Howell married the former Meredith White on Nov. 14, 2009. The couple has two young daughters, Lena and Lillian.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MIKE NICKEAS

Assistant Coach (Hitting)
Fourth season at Tech

12

Mike Nickeas was promoted to assistant coach in July 2017 after serving two years as the volunteer coach. Nickeas returned to the Georgia Tech baseball program in 2015 after playing three years under Danny Hall in the early 2000's. He played 11 years of professional baseball, including four years in Major League Baseball (MLB).

Nickeas, who served as the volunteer coach in 2016 and 2017, was promoted to the volunteer assistant coach prior to the start of the 2016 season after spending the 2015 year as a manager while he completed his bachelor's degree in business administration.

The Jackets were hindered by injuries all season long in 2017, as Tech had a total of 11 student-athletes miss significant time (six games or more) due to an injury throughout the year. In what proved to be a grueling schedule, the Yellow Jackets played a total of 16 games (30 percent) of its schedule against top-20 teams in No. 12 Oklahoma, No. 9 North Carolina, No. 7/16 Auburn, No. 5 Clemson, No. 2 Louisville, No. 8 Virginia and No. 12 Wake Forest (rankings at time of competition), scoring one win apiece versus Oklahoma, North Carolina, Auburn, Clemson and Virginia.

Despite the uncharacteristic Georgia Tech baseball season, the Yellow Jackets had one player named to all four all-ACC teams in 2017. Junior second baseman Wade Bailey was named to the all-ACC first team, while sophomore catcher Joey Bart earned a spot on the second team. Junior third baseman Trevor Craport was named to the third team, while freshman shortstop Austin Wilhite was named to the all-ACC freshman team. Both Bailey and Bart earned ABCA/Rawlings all-region accolades, while Bailey was also named to the all-America second team by Collegiate Baseball. Wilhite was named to both the Collegiate Baseball freshmen all-America first team and an NCBWA freshman all-American.

In his first year as a volunteer assistant coach in 2016, the Yellow Jackets finished the injury plagued season at 38-25 overall and made their 31st overall NCAA Regional appearance. The only school from the state of Georgia to advance to the NCAA postseason in 2016, Tech went 2-2 in the regional to finish as the runner-up. Tech registered a non-conference midseason sweep of the eventual 2016 NCAA National Champions in Coastal Carolina from April 29 thru May 1, taking three-straight from the Chanticleers by scores of 9-1, 9-8 and 4-2 in a shortened-contest. On top of the sweep over the eventual national champions, Tech also took two-of-three games on the road at both North Carolina and Clemson in ACC play and used a three-run 10th inning to upend Georgia 6-3 in the Yellow Jackets' final game at Turner Field.

In the fall of 2016, Nickeas served as a bench coach for the Great Britain National Team that competed in the qualifying round of the 2017 World Baseball Classic held at MCU Park in Brooklyn, N.Y. from Sept. 22-25. Great Britain went 2-2 overall with wins over Pakistan and Brazil before falling to Israel 9-1 in the championship game.

A three-time USA Baseball alum, Nickeas was named an assistant coach for the Stripes team at the 2017 17U National Team Development Program, which took place on July 22-28, 2017 in Chicago. The former Yellow Jacket played for Team USA on the 1999 16U National Team, the 2001 18U National Team and the 2003 Collegiate National Team. The 2003 USA National Team included a total of four Yellow Jackets in Nickeas, Eric Patterson, Tyler Greene and Micah Owings.

A standout catcher for the Yellow Jackets from 2002-04, Nickeas played in 151 games in his collegiate career and hit .291 with 17 home runs and 95 RBIs. He was a freshman on the Jackets' 2002 College World Series squad and helped Tech to an ACC Championship in 2003. He also led the team in hitting his sophomore season.

Nickeas was drafted in the fifth round of the Major League Baseball draft by the Texas Rangers in 2004 and was later traded to the New York Mets in 2006 for Victor Diaz. He made his Major League Baseball debut on September 2, 2010 for the Mets. Nickeas recorded his first major league hit off of Yovani Gallardo, his first homer off of J.A. Happ and hit a grand slam off of Dale Thayer of the Padres during his MLB career.

Nickeas played three seasons with the Mets and in 2012 was one of two catchers to handle R.A. Dickey in his breakout Cy Young winning season. In 2013 Nickeas was traded to the Toronto Blue Jays with fellow catcher Josh Thole and pitcher R.A. Dickey in exchange for John Buck, Travis d'Arnaud, Wuilmer Becerra and Noah Syndergaard. Nickeas retired from professional baseball following the 2014 season.

Nickeas was born in Vancouver, B.C. to Mark and Sherrie. Mark was a professional soccer player for the Vancouver Whitecaps of the NASL. Nickeas grew up in Westlake Village, Calif. and signed with the Yellow Jackets after a prep career at Westlake High School.

In 2007 he was granted dual citizenship (Great Britain) and played for the Great Britain National Team in the 2007 European Baseball Championship, helping the British to a silver medal.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ERIC PATTERSON

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First season at Tech

19

Former Tech standout and a 2016 Georgia Tech Hall of Fame inductee, Eric Patterson was named the volunteer assistant coach in July 2017.

Patterson's career got off to a flying start in 2002, when he earned third-team all-America honors and helped spur the Yellow Jackets to their second trip to the College World Series. During his career at Tech, he made the all-ACC team three times in three years and helped the Jackets to 140 victories, an ACC Tournament title in 2003 and an ACC regular-season title in 2004.

A terror on the base paths, he stole 124 bases in three seasons; three shy of the Tech record. He also posted the second and third-highest season totals in Tech history with 48 steals in 2004 and 41 in 2002. The second baseman finished his career eighth on Tech's all-time list for runs scored (205) and triples (12), and hit .316 for his career.

Patterson, who completed his degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing in December 2016, was selected in the eighth round of the 2004 Major League First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs and played at the MLB level for the Chicago Cubs, Oakland Athletics, Boston Red Sox and San Diego Padres between 2007-11.

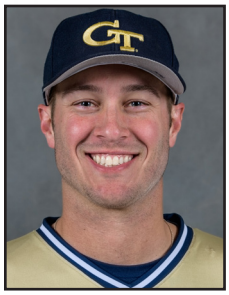
MARK POPE

Undergraduate Assistant Coach
First season at Tech



Former Tech standout pitcher Mark Pope returned to The Flats as an undergraduate assistant coach after a seven-year professional career from 2011-17. He is working towards his bachelor's degree in international affairs.

A 2011 Collegiate Baseball second-team all-American, a third-team Baseball America all-American and an NCBWA all-America third team all-America selection, Pope posted a record of 24-6 with nine saves and six complete games over his three seasons with the Yellow Jackets from 2009-11.

A Golden Spikes Award semifinalist and an ABCA all-region first team selection in 2011, Pope was also named first-team all-ACC as he led the team with an 11-4 record and a 1.74 ERA over 16 starts as a junior.

Pope is the Yellow Jackets' all-time leader in career shutouts with four. He also ranks second all-time in Tech's career record books in walks per nine innings (2.17), 11th in ERA (3.00), 14th in winning percentage (.800), 15th in saves (nine) and 16th in wins (24).

A fifth round draft pick by the San Diego Padres in 2011, advanced as high as Triple-A with the Tucson Padres in 2012. He also pitched in the Atlanta Braves and Los Angeles Dodgers farm systems before playing for both the Winnipeg Goldeyes and the Texas AirHogs in the American Association from 2015-17.

ZANE EVANS

Undergraduate Assistant Coach
First season at Tech

A 2013 consensus all-American on the diamond, former Tech standout Zane Evans returned to The Flats in 2018 as an undergraduate coach after a five-year professional baseball career in the Kansas City Royals organization. He is currently working towards a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in finance.

Named an NCBWA all-America second team selection and a third-team all-American by Baseball America, ABCA/Rawlings and Collegiate Baseball in 2013, Evans was also a first-team all-ACC honoree and a national finalist for the 2013 Johnny Bench Award, giving the nation's top catcher.

Also a Baseball America freshman all-American in 2011, Evans hit .310 with 215 hits, including 23 home runs, two triples and 43 doubles at the plate for his career at Tech from 2011-13. He also drove in 163 RBIs and scored 115 runs in 181 games at Tech, which also included 33 games on the mound where he went 2-3 overall with 10 saves and a 3.57 ERA.

A 2013 Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy semifinalist, Evans led the team in hitting (.361) and RBIs (66) his junior season.

A two-time all-ACC academic team member and a member of the 2012 ACC Championship all-tournament team, Evans was drafted in the fourth round by the Kansas City Royals in 2013. He spent five seasons in the Royals farm system, reaching as high as Triple-A in 2016.

BASEBALL SUPPORT STAFF

NICK SCHERER

Director of Operations
11th season at Tech

Nick Scherer is in his 11th year as the director of baseball operations for the Georgia Tech program after playing four years for the Yellow Jackets and head coach Danny Hall from 2004-07.

In his current role, Scherer is responsible for coordinating the Yellow Jackets' travel plans, equipment management and clubhouse operations in addition to assisting in alumni relations and marketing for the Georgia Tech baseball team. Scherer also serves as the director for the Danny Hall Baseball Camps.

A catcher that provided depth behind the plate during his tenure, Scherer was a leader in the locker room and served as the primary catcher for Tech starter Eddie Burns in 2007. Scherer played in 47 games from 2005-07 after receiving a redshirt in 2004. He was a product of the highly-touted East Cobb Baseball program and a member of the East Cobb Yankees summer team that captured the Connie Mack World Series titles in 2001 and 2003.

Scherer has served as an assistant coach for the East Cobb Yankees since 2007. In his first two years with the Yankees, the team picked up a runner-up finish in 2007 and a championship in the 2008 Connie Mack World Series. He has also been the assistant coach on staff for the Yankees teams that have won the 2012 Perfect Game World Wood Bat National Championship, the 2013 CABA Championship, and the 2013 Connie Mack World Series Championship.

More recently, his East Cobb Yankees squads have also won the 2015 Perfect Game World Wood Bat National Championship and were crowned both the 2015 and 2016 Connie Mack World Series Champions.

Scherer is a native of Roswell, Ga., and graduated from Georgia Tech with a degree in management in December 2007.

He is married to the former Lauren Neylan. The two reside in Marietta, Ga.

STEVE TAMBORRA

Assistant Player Development Coach
19th season at Tech

In his 19th year as an assistant player development coach at Georgia Tech, Steve Tamborra oversees the highly-touted strength and conditioning program for the Georgia Tech baseball team.

Since his arrival more than a decade ago, Tamborra has been responsible for the development and implementation of strength training regimes of many student-athletes that have gone on to play professional baseball, with several of those athletes returning to Georgia Tech during their offseason to continue training with him.

In 2013, Tamborra was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC) by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa). This honor is the highest given in the strength and conditioning profession.

Tamborra joined the Tech staff in November 1999, after five years in a similar capacity at Florida State where he worked with the baseball, softball and football teams from 1995-99.

He earned a Bachelor of Science in Nutrition and Fitness from Florida State in 1994 and a Master of Science in Athletic Administration from Florida State in 1996.

He holds certifications from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), Titleist Performance Institute, CrossFit, USA Weightlifting and Precision Nutrition. He has written one book, Complete Conditioning for Baseball, which was published in late 2007.

Tamborra earned his bachelor's degree in nutrition and fitness from Florida State in 1994 and a master's degree in athletic administration from Florida State in 1996.

He is married to the former Stacy Venable, a pitcher for the Florida State softball team from 1997-99. They have two daughters, Malayna and Payton, and a son, Austin. Payton and Austin are twins.

PAUL WOLKOFF

Athletic Trainer
10th season at Tech

Paul Wolkoff joined the Georgia Tech Athletic Association in the sports medicine department in 2008 and is responsible for the care of the baseball team. Prior to the 2014-15 season, he worked with the men's and women's cross country and track & field teams.

Wolkoff came to Georgia Tech from Progressive Health Aviation Services where he worked for one year.

He was the head athletic trainer at LaGrange College for 10 years where he oversaw all aspects of medical care and coverage for a 16-sport athletics program. Prior to LaGrange College, he served as assistant director and senior athletic trainer at UAB Sports Medicine.

Wolkoff graduated from Georgia Tech in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in management. He later earned his master's in physical education from East Tennessee State in 1995. While working as a graduate assistant at ETSU, he mainly worked with the staff physical therapist. He also earned a certificate in Health Sciences while at Tech.

He is a NATABOC Certified Athletic Trainer and a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association, Southeast Athletic Trainers' Association, and the Georgia Athletic Trainers' Association, and he is licensed by the state of Georgia as an athletic trainer.

DAVID MCDANIEL

Athletic Equipment Manager
Third season at Tech

David McDaniel joined the Georgia Tech Athletic Association as assistant equipment manager in September 2015. He is responsible for the purchasing, inventory, issuing and maintenance of all athletic apparel and equipment for Tech's baseball, softball, and track programs.

Prior to joining the Tech staff, McDaniel spent two-plus years as the head football equipment manager and video coordinator at Mercer in Macon, Ga. He handled the apparel and equipment needs for the football and lacrosse teams, while also coordinating all video services for Mercer's football and lacrosse teams.

This is his second stint in Atlanta as he was a graduate assistant equipment manager at Georgia State from 2009-12. While at GSU, he assisted with the complete start of the Panthers' new football program. While at Georgia State, he also was a member of the video staff of the Arena Football League's Georgia Force and was an assistant soccer coach at North Cobb Christian School in Acworth, Ga.

He graduated from Liberty University with a bachelor's degree in sport management in 2009 and he later earned his master's degree in sport administration from Georgia State in 2012.

He and his wife, Katie, live in Kennesaw, Ga.

JOHNATHAN LANGLEY

Bullpen Catcher
Fourth season at Tech

43

A senior business administration major with a concentration in operations and supply chain management, Langley has been pivotal in helping pitching coach Jason Howell with the pitching staff. He catches the pitchers in practice, individual throwing sessions, offseason throwing workouts and during pregame. He also is the catcher in the bullpen during games for the Yellow Jacket relievers as they prepare to enter the game.

Langley came to The Flats from nearby Dunwoody, where he played first base and caught behind the plate at Dunwoody High School. A member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Board, Langley participates in numerous NCAA and community outreach functions for the Yellow Jackets, including being a part of Georgia Tech's first-ever "Jackets Without Borders" trip to Costa Rica in August 2017.

ADMINISTRATION

G.P. "BUD" PETERSON

Institute President

G.P. "Bud" Peterson was appointed as the 11th president of Georgia Tech on April 1, 2009. Under his leadership, Georgia Tech has developed and begun the implementation of a 25-year strategic plan, exceeded the $1.5 billion goal for Campaign Georgia Tech by 20 percent, grown innovative collaborations and strategic partnerships, expanded the campus infrastructure, attracted startups and established companies to Tech Square, and increased national and global visibility. Notably in that time, applications have tripled, and enrollment has increased by 23 percent.

Peterson came to Georgia Tech from the University of Colorado at Boulder, where he served as chancellor. Prior to that, he served as provost at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in New York, and for 19 years on the faculty and in leadership positions at Texas A&M University. He has worked for NASA and the National Science Foundation (NSF).

Throughout his career, Peterson has played an active role in helping establish the national education and research agendas, serving on many industry, government, and academic task forces and committees. He has served on a number of national accreditation agencies, with a focus on improving and assessing outcomes for higher education. He also has served on congressional task forces, research councils, and advisory boards, including the Office of Naval Research, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the Department of Energy, the National Research Council, and the National Academy of Engineering.

A distinguished scientist, he was appointed in 2008 by President George W. Bush, and again in 2014 by President Barack Obama, as a member of the National Science Board, which oversees the NSF and advises the U.S. president and Congress on national policy related to science and engineering research and education. In 2010, he was named by U.S. Secretary of Commerce Gary Locke as a member of the National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship. President Obama appointed him to the Advanced Manufacturing Partnership (AMP) steering committee in 2011, and to the AMP 2.0 steering committee in 2013. He is a member of the board of directors of the Association of American Universities. In August 2016, he became chair of the NCAA Board of Governors, the NCAA's highest governing body.

Peterson, a fellow of both the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA), received the AIAA Distinguished Service Award in 2011. His research has focused on phase change heat transfer in both the cooling of electronic devices and spacecraft thermal control. He is widely published, authoring or co-authoring 16 books or book chapters, 210 refereed journal articles, and more than 170 conference publications. He also holds a total of 13 patents, with one pending.

Peterson earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering, a second bachelor's degree in mathematics, and a master's degree in engineering, all from Kansas State University. While at Kansas State, he lettered three years as a tight end/wide receiver for the Wildcats. He earned a Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M University. He and his wife, Val, have four adult children, two of whom are Georgia Tech alumni.

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Charles L. Isbell, Jr., senior associate dean and professor in the College of Computing, was named faculty athletics representative (FAR) to the Georgia Tech Athletic Association on June 6, 2017.

The FAR serves as the liaison between the Institute and the Athletic Association on issues regarding rules compliance, developments at the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), and activities related to Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) membership.

"Charles is an engaged leader and innovator at Georgia Tech in numerous areas, and we are very fortunate that he has agreed to add the role as the Institute's new faculty athletics representative to his responsibilities," said Peterson. "On behalf of all of Georgia Tech, I would also like to thank Reggie DesRoches for serving us so well as our FAR for the past three years."

Isbell has been a faculty member at Georgia Tech since 2002, but first came to Tech as a student to earn his bachelor's degree in computer science. He also holds a Ph.D. in computer science from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

His first institutional service role at Tech was with the Institute Undergraduate Curriculum Committee, where he worked with student-athletes returning to finish their degrees.

"Since the very beginning of being here as a faculty member, I've been interested in the way student-athletes interact with the rest of the institution," he said.

Isbell hopes to continue events that DesRoches organized to facilitate faculty and student-athlete interaction. He also hopes to serve as a bridge for faculty members to pursue more research endeavors with the Athletic Association.

"I can't tell you the number of conversations I've had with faculty members who have been interested in working with athletics, but weren't sure how to go about doing it," he said. "I'm going to put energy into making those connections."

For Isbell, understanding the experience of student-athletes is paramount to success in higher education. Athletic achievements can elevate a university's profile to prospective students, and student-athletes' relationship to the university is one that can be used as a model for the broader campus community.

"Anyone interested in higher education and how it has to grow and change has to understand how Division I athletics works at a university," he said. "As higher education changes, we have to think of ourselves more as a community and consider what lets people build connections and keep coming back. It's going to have to happen with all students, faculty, and staff, and athletics can be an example of how to do that well."

While Isbell is a fan and frequent attendee of Georgia Tech athletic events, his support for student-athletes extends beyond the stands.

"I want the student-athletes to know I am here for them, and I intend to talk with them and be a resource for them," he said. "I want them to know that and believe it, and know that I take it very seriously."

Isbell's research focuses on statistical machine learning and interactive artificial intelligence. He teaches several courses both to on-campus students and to students around the world in Tech's Online Master of Science in Computer Science program. His three-year term as FAR began on July 1, 2017.

ADMINISTRATION

TODD STANSBURY

Director of Athletics

Georgia Institute of Technology introduced former Tech football player Todd Stansbury as the Institute's ninth director of athletics on Sept. 22, 2016.

Since officially arriving back on The Flats on Nov. 28, 2016, Stansbury has identified four strategic priorities for Georgia Tech athletics:

- define the GT athletics brand;
- establish the internal culture;
- align the internal structure;
- generate new revenue.

To assist in achieving his strategic goals, Stansbury established two new offices within the athletics department — the office of brand and ideation, which works to identify and tell the story of the Yellow Jackets' brand, and the office of innovation, which oversees Georgia Tech's efforts to build on its status as college athletics' leader in innovation, particularly through collaboration and partnerships within the Institute and innovation hubs throughout Atlanta.

He has also enlisted the help of prominent former Georgia Tech student-athletes that are now leaders in their fields. Examples include Stansbury's former teammate Sam Bracken, a New York Times best-selling author and renowned executive coach that has worked with Stansbury and the athletics department to establish a strong internal culture and identify strategic priorities, and volleyball alum Jaime Weston, the National Football League's senior vice president for marketing, creative and branding who is assisting with the Jackets' brand-identification efforts.

Prior to his return to Georgia Tech in 2016, Stansbury served as Oregon State's athletic director since June 2015, which followed a nine-year stint as the university's executive associate athletic director (2003-12). During his time at Oregon State, Stansbury was part of a senior management team that raised $150 million for a football stadium expansion, in addition to fundraising for the construction of a sports performing center. He also was part of a team that established several career development initiatives for student-athletes.

Stansbury's resume also includes roles as athletic director at the University of Central Florida (2012-15) and East Tennessee State University (2000-03). He was Georgia Tech's assistant athletic director for academics from 1988-1995 under legendary A.D. Homer Rice.

Stansbury grew up in Canada. When he was 10 years old and on vacation with his family in Florida, he befriended several Georgia Tech football players staying at the same hotel. During the drive back home to Ontario, his family stopped on campus to see a practice. That's when Stansbury knew he wanted to play football on The Flats.

The dream came true and he earned varsity letters while at Georgia Tech from 1980-84 as a middle linebacker and on special teams for head coach Bill Curry. He was selected in the third round of the Canadian Football League draft by the Saskatchewan Roughriders in 1984.

As the ninth director of athletics in Georgia Tech history, he follows in the footsteps of storied names such as Rice, John Heisman and Bobby Dodd. He was hired following a national search that began in August 2016 when Mike Bobinski accepted the athletics director position at Purdue University. A nine-member search committee led by Georgia Tech Foundation President Al Trujillo identified candidates. The search process was assisted by Turnkey Search.

"Todd Stansbury is committed to athletes' success both on and off the field," Georgia Tech president Dr. G.P. "Bud" Peterson said at the time of Stansbury's hire. "His global perspective and leadership experience in athletics and development, combined with a lifelong passion for Georgia Tech, make him the ideal candidate. I believe this is one of those rare golden moments in life where opportunity meets ambition. We welcome him home."

"I am honored and humbled to have the opportunity to return to Georgia Tech, a place that has played such a large role in my life and the place responsible for opening up a world to me that I didn't even know existed," Stansbury said. "I am thankful to President Peterson and the selection committee for providing me this opportunity."

Stansbury and his wife, Karen, who were married inside Georgia Tech's Arthur B. Edge Intercollegiate Athletics Center, reside in Atlanta. After they were married in 1995, the couple traveled the world for 18 months before returning to the United States.

ADMINISTRATION

AYO TAYLOR-DIXON

Senior Associate A.D.
External Operations

Veteran collegiate athletics administrator Ayo Taylor-Dixon joined Georgia Tech athletics' executive staff as senior associate athletics director for external operations in August 2017.

Taylor-Dixon came to Georgia Tech from the University of Minnesota, where he served as senior associate A.D. for fan engagement from March 2016-August 2017. At Minnesota, he oversaw the Golden Gophers' marketing, gameday experience/season ticket member surveys, gameday customer service and licensing operations.

He also serves as the 2017-18 president of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA).

Prior to his 17 months at Minnesota, Taylor-Dixon served on the administrative staffs at Northern Colorado (senior associate athletics director – 2014-16), USF (senior associate athletics director – 2006-14) and Evansville (assistant athletics director – 2002-06). In addition to his extensive background overseeing marketing and promotions, ticket sales and operations, licensing, branding, sponsorships, broadcasting and communications, he has also served as a sport administrator.

Taylor-Dixon was a member of the track and field team and the student-athlete advisory committee at Stephen F. Austin State University, where he earned bachelor's (business administration – 2000) and master's (interdisciplinary studies with emphases on business, communications and kinesiology – 2002) degrees.

He and his wife, Beth, have four children.

Omaha, at last. Georgia Tech's baseball squad finally reached college baseball's promised land in the summer of 1994 under first-year head coach Danny Hall. Over the previous decade, Georgia Tech had produced one of America's most consistent baseball programs, averaging 45 wins per season while earning 10-straight NCAA Tournament invitations. Included in that span were numerous national and No. 1-rankings, and yet no College World Series appearances. But all of that changed in 1994 when the Yellow Jackets outlasted a talented Washington club, 18-7, in the final game of the Midwest II Regional in Wichita, Kansas.

With four of the premier talents in all of college baseball, including consensus first-team All-Americas Jason Varitek, Nomar Garciaparra and Jay Payton, and second-team All-American Brad Rigby - all four of whom were taken among the first 36 players in the June, 1994, draft - Tech headed to Omaha, where they came within one win of the school's first NCAA title.

The Yellow Jackets faced a talented Cal State Fullerton team in the opening game of the 1994 College World Series, with both teams throwing their aces. The Jackets drew first blood in the bottom of the fifth inning when Garciaparra earned a bases-loaded walk. Rigby then took over, striking out the side in the sixth while adding whiffs in the seventh and eighth as well as two more in the ninth to finish with a three-hitter and 10 strikeouts.

A familiar foe was on deck, with Georgia Tech squaring off against Mike Martin's Florida State team in Yellow Jackets' second game of the College World Series. With the score knotted at 4-4 in the top of the ninth inning, Varitek singles home Garciaparra with the first run of an eight-run explosion that set a CWS record for scoring in an extra frame. Matt Saier, the No. 9 hitter in the Tech order, capped the outburst with a grand slam to help the Jackets move on to game three.

Faced with a rematch against Cal State Fullerton, Tech stood one win away for playing for the championship. Payton snapped a 1-for-8 CWS slump with a two-run homer in the top of the first inning, but the Titans tied the game with runs in the first and fourth innings against Rigby. Both teams relied on pitching and defense over the next seven innings before Garciaparra ended the scoring drought with a solo home run in the top of the 12th inning. Fullerton quickly responded by putting runners on the corners with no outs, but Chris Myers struck out DH Sal Mancuso, popped up first baseman D.C. Olsen and retired left fielder Brian King on a liner to Payton to give the Yellow Jackets a berth in the NCAA championship game.

The Yellow Jackets' enjoyment in the title match up is short-lived, as Oklahoma scored a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning before home runs in the second and third innings by Varitek and Garciaparra tie the game at 2-2. Disaster struck for Georgia Tech over the next three innings though, as the Yellow Jackets yielded nine runs - five in the fourth and four more in the sixth - to the Sooners, who went on to capture the national title with a 13-5 win.

Georgia Tech ended the 1994 season with its highest final ranking ever. Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and USA Today all ranked the Yellow Jackets No. 2 in the year-end polls, a mark that has been unmatched since Tech's magical 1994 run.

With Georgia Tech's emphatic 11-5 victory over Florida Atlantic to win the NCAA Atlanta Super Regional, Kyle Bakker was looking forward to the homecoming he'd always dreamed of. A native of Omaha, Bakker returned to his hometown as part of just the second Georgia Tech team to ever advance to the College World Series. The big man didn't disappoint in his one and only hometown appearance either - shutting out South Carolina through eight innings while recording nine strikeouts to lead Georgia Tech to an 11-0 win in the Yellow Jackets' opening game of the 2002 College World Series. Victor Menocal and Matt Murton recorded four hits apiece to pace Tech's offense, and Brian Burks shut the door on the Gamecocks by recording three outs on just six pitches to end the game.

The Yellow Jackets didn't fare as well two days later, as Clemson jumped on Georgia Tech early with an eight-run explosion in the second inning. Tech would get as close as two runs in the sixth inning, but Matt Henrie held the Yellow Jackets to just one hit over the final 2.1 innings to preserve the Tigers' 9-7 win. Menocal and Jason Perry collected three hits apiece and Murton and Eric Patterson each added two hits in the game as Georgia Tech out-hit the Tigers, 14-9, and played flawless defense, but struggled to drive in runs, leaving a staggering 13 men on base.

Playing out of the loser's bracket two days later, Georgia Tech again faced the Gamecocks but couldn't produce the same results. Timely hitting by the Gamecocks, combined with costly errors by the Yellow Jackets, helped South Carolina stake a 9-2 lead through 7.5 innings. Tech answered with a pair of runs in the bottom of the seventh on a two-run home run by Jeremy Slayden, and the Jackets tacked on another run in the bottom of the eighth inning, but the comeback fell short as South Carolina moved on with a 9-5 win.

The 2002 season was one of the finest in school history, as the Yellow Jackets set a new school record with 52 wins while eclipsing the 50-win mark for the fourth time in the program's history. Six Yellow Jackets were selected in the 2002 MLB Draft, including Victor Menocal, who was named to the All-College World Series team after batting a blistering .563 with six runs scored in Omaha.

The Yellow Jackets also finished as a consensus top-10 team for just the third time under head coach Danny Hall, including a No. 5 final ranking by Collegiate Baseball and USA Today while Baseball America ranked Georgia Tech at No. 8.

The 2006 season marked Georgia Tech's third trip to Omaha under head coach Danny Hall, and the Yellow Jackets drew an opening-round match up against a familiar foe, Atlantic Coast Conference champion Clemson. The Yellow Jackets and Tigers were just two of a league-record four ACC teams taking part in the 2006 College World Series, joining Miami and North Carolina in Omaha.

The Yellow Jackets jumped on the Tigers early, scoring three runs in the top of the first inning. Wally Crancer doubled to reach base with one out and scored on a run-scoring single from Matt Wieters. A two-run home run by pitcher-turned-outfielder Jeff Kindel quickly made the score 3-0 in Tech's favor. Meanwhile, junior left-hander Lee Hyde kept Clemson's batters off balance all afternoon, holding the Tigers scoreless through seven innings, but the league champions mounted a comeback in the eighth inning. Clemson scored eight runs in the frame and held on to take the 8-4 win in the opener.

Dropped into the CWS loser's bracket, the Yellow Jackets found themselves matched up against Cal State Fullerton in the tournament's first elimination game on Sunday, June 18. Tech again scored three runs in the first inning, with RBI singles from Kindel and Wes Hodges and a sacrifice fly from Whit Robbins. Blake Wood cruised through the first three innings before yielding runs in both the fourth and fifth. The Titans would take the lead with back-to-back run-scoring hits in the fifth inning to chase Wood, but the Jackets answered with a solo home run from Wieters in the sixth inning to tie the game. The score remained tied until the top of the ninth, when Cal State Fullerton scored two runs on an infield single.

Despite the 0-2 record in Omaha in 2006, the season was special for several reasons. The Yellow Jackets eclipsed the 50-win mark for just the fifth time in history, and fourth under Hall. Tech led the league in runs (8.7 pg), doubles, home runs, RBI, slugging percentage and walks, while seven Yellow Jackets were selected in 2006 MLB Draft, led by second round selection Wes Hodges.

Tech turned in a consensus top-10 season, according to the final national college baseball rankings. Baseball America and USA Today listed the Yellow Jackets' at No. 7, while Collegiate Baseball had Georgia Tech ranked No. 8.

GEORGIA TECH'S MAJOR LEAGUERS

Listed here are 66 major league baseball players whose enrollment at Georgia Tech is documented by records in the Tech alumni and registrar's offices. Not all of them actually played baseball at Tech, and a few were enrolled for no more than one quarter or one semester. This list was originally compiled with the help of Tech alumnus Richard Musterer and the Society for American Baseball Research.

The listing of scores on the following pages is the most comprehensive possible with available sources of information.

The years prior to 1900 are incomplete, but the scores listed for those years have been documented.

Georgia Tech began playing its home games at Rose Bowl Field in 1930, and Russ Chandler Stadium opened on that same site in 1985.

Before that, the Yellow Jackets played their home games at Tech Park, Brisbine Park, Piedmont Park and Grant Field.

ALL-TIME NO. 1 NATIONAL RANKINGS

Georgia Tech has been ranked as the top team in the country 11 times in its history for a total of 30 weeks. In 1993, the Jackets were ranked No. 1 by Baseball America for four straight weeks and returned to the top spot in all three polls on May 17, Tech's first unanimous choice ever. The Jackets opened the 1994 season ranked No. 1 and proceeded to advance to the College World Series where they finished as the national runner-up. Tech returned to the top spot after winning the 2000 ACC Tournament. The Yellow Jackets opened the 2001 season as the nation's preseason No. 1 team and spent six weeks at the top of the poll, their longest stay ever. Georgia Tech opened the 2003 season as the nation's No. 1 team according to Baseball America, and returned to the top spot on Mar. 28, 2005, after opening the season 21-5 and 11-1 in the ACC.
