Continuing a final stretch run with its final home game of the 2018-19 season, Georgia Tech hosts Boston College Sunday evening for a 6 p.m. nationally-televised Atlantic Coast Conference basketball game McCamish Pavilion.

Tech (12-17, 4-12 ACC), in its third season under head coach Josh Pastner, has lost nine of its last 10 games after dropping an 81-51 contest at No. 2 Virginia Wednesday night. Tech's only victory since Jan. 22 came last Wednesday night in a 73-65 decision over Pittsburgh. Boston College (14-13, 5-10 ACC), in its fifth season under head coach Jim Christian, has won three of its last five games and sits alone in 10th place in the ACC standings. All three of those victories have come at home, including a 66-59 decision over Louisville Wednesday night. The Eagles are 1-7 on the road this season in conference play, having won at Wake Forest back on Jan. 26.

NET through games of Feb. 28

+first place in conference standings

Starting Lineup

• Pleasant Valley Sunday - Georgia Tech is making its second appearance on the ACC's Sunday night ESPNU series. The Yellow Jackets' other appearance was Feb. 10 at Notre Dame.

• Tuesday's child - Only three games separate the bottom six teams in the ACC standings, with Boston College leading that group at 5-10, followed by Miami and Wake Forest at 4-11, Tech at 4-12, Notre Dame at 3-12 and Pittsburgh at 2-13. The Yellow Jackets own tiebreakers over Notre Dame (based on their win over Syracuse, which could change), Wake Forest and the Panthers, and can gain another with a victory Sunday over the Boston College.

• Outta here - The Yellow Jackets are in the midst of closing out their schedule with three games out of four on the road (Miami, Virginia, NC State). Boston College is Tech's last home game, and the Jackets close out their regular season Wednesday night at NC State, followed by their scheduled bye.

• Stacked - Six ACC teams rank among the top 30 in KenPom.com's offensive efficiency rankings, and nine ACC teams rank among the top 30 in defensive efficiency. Four of those teams are ranked in the top 20 of both categories.

• Outpost - In an attempt to invigorate its offense, Georgia Tech returned to a one-post starting alignment for its last five games, with James Banks III starting in the middle with four perimeter players. It has helped produce the Yellow Jackets' three highest point totals since Jan. 12 and three of its best shooting efforts since Jan. 22. Tech has averaged 60.8 points and hit on 35.5 percent of its three-point shots in its last five games, compared to 53.9 points and 23.8 percent on threes in the previous eight games.

• The Bank is open - It took 23 games at Georgia Tech for James Banks III to exceed his 46-game totals at Texas in every offensive category, as well as blocked shots and steals. Banks has six double-doubles this season for the Jackets, fifth most in the ACC.

• Hola again - Jose Alvarado has scored 79 points in Tech's last four games (19.5 ppg), including a career-high 29 against the Panthers last Wednesday. In those four games, he has hit 26-of-49 from the floor, 9-of-22 from three-point range, 17-of-21 from the free throw line. He also had 18 rebounds, 16 assists and seven steals.

• I'll be there for you - Jose Alvarado has played the full 40 minutes three times in Tech's last six games, (Notre Dame, Pittsburgh and Miami). The sophomore has logged 12 complete games in his career, four this season.

• Sjo-time - Freshman forward Kristian Sjolund (pronounced SHO-lund) has scored 48 points and played 127 minutes in Tech's last six games. He played in just 13 of Tech's first 23 games, scoring a total of nine points in 62 minutes.

• Crack that whip - Michael Devoe is 24-for-50 from three-point range in Tech's last 12 games. He had gone 12-for-43 in the first 17 games of the season.

• Three's the charm - Tech has averaged 7.5 three-point field goals and connected on 34.6 percent of its attempts in its last six games. The Jackets had averaged just 3.0 threes and shot 20.5 percent in the six games before that.

• Guard your yard - Georgia Tech ranks No. 7 in the ACC in scoring defense (69.5 ppg), No. 6 in field goal percentage defense (41 pct.) and No. 4 in three-point percentage defense (31.4 pct.) against conference opponents. The Jackets rank No. 5 in steals (7.0 pg) and No. 2 in blocked shots (5.5 pg). Those rankings have dropped precipitously over the last six games as Tech has altered its playing rotations to emphasize offense.

• Below average - Georgia Tech has faced three of the nation's top 10 teams in offensive efficiency as ranked by KenPom.com - Tennessee (2), Duke (3) and Virginia Tech (9) - and held them to an average of 61.3 points. Each posted their lowest efficiency rating of the season against the Jackets. North Carolina is No. 7, and the Jackets held the Tar Heels to their fourth-lowest rating of the season. Tech held Florida State (28th) to two of its three lowest efficiency ratings of the season.

Despite two late pushes that cut the deficit to seven and then six with under a minute to go, Georgia Tech couldn't complete the comeback, falling to Boston College, 87-77, in the first round of the ACC Tournament.

Senior Tadic Jackson finished with a game-high 29 points and five assists for the Yellow Jackets (13-19) as Ben Lammers finished with 18 points (10-of-12 from the free-throw line) and six rebounds. Josh Okogie was the other Jacket to score in double figures, tallying 14 points as well as six rebounds.

Sophomore forward Nik Popovic scored a career-high 20 points and Jerome Robinson, runner-up for ACC player of the year, added 19 on 5-of-17 shooting for Boston College (18-14). Despite going 2 for 14 from 3-point range, the Eagles never trailed and were in control throughout against a Georgia Tech team that struggled to score all season.

Tadic Jackson had 23 of his 29 points in the second half for the 13th-seeded Yellow Jackets (13-19), who won their final two regular-season games after losing seven straight and 11 of 12. Ben Lammers added 18 points and leading scorer Josh Okogie had 14 on 5-for-20 shooting.

Jordan Chatman chipped in with 13 points for the Eagles, who had lost four of five.

After trailing by 10 at halftime, Georgia Tech missed its first nine field-goal attempts in the second half and the Eagles opened their largest lead, 51-31, on Bowman's three-point play with 13:37 remaining.

The pressing Yellow Jackets forced a flurry of late turnovers and cut the margin to six with 45 seconds left, but Boston College closed it out at the free-throw line.

Three Seniors Say Farewell

Sunday night will mark the final regular-season home game for three Georgia Tech seniors - Brandon Alston, Abdoulaye Gueye and Sylvester Ogbonda.

Alston, a 6-5 guard from Vienna, Va., is finishing his second season as a graduate transfer after three years at Lehigh, and has played in 56 games as a Yellow jackets, starting 24 while averaging 6.3 points per game. He is finishing his master's degree in economics this semester.

Ogbonda, a 6-10 center from Port Harcourt, Nigeria, attended National Christian Academy in Washington, D.C., before coming to Tech, where he is a fourth-year junior in terms of athletic eligibility. After a redshirt year in 2015-16, he has played in 42 games as a backup in the post, and is completing course work this semester for his bachelor's degree in business administration.

Gueye, a 6-9 forward from Dakar, Senegal, is a fifth-year senior who has played in 86 games and started 39 during his career. He attended Central Park Christian School in Birmingham, Ala., before coming to Tech. He took a redshirt year in 2015-16 and has been a part-time starter in the last two seasons. He is finishing his degree requirements in business administration this semester.

Series Notes vs. Boston College

• Georgia Tech leads the all-time series with Boston College, 14-12, but dropped both meetings in the 2017-18 season, 80-72 in overtime, at Conte Forum, and 88-77 in the opening round of the ACC Tournament.

• BC has an 11-10 lead since the Eagles joined the ACC.

• Boston College has won three of the four ACC Tournament meetings between the two schools, and each time the tournament result has mirrored the regular-season outcome.

• Nine of the games in the short series have been decided by less than 10 points, 13 of them by four points or less, and three in overtime.

• Tech is 6-2 against the Eagles at home, earning the last four wins on three different home courts - one each at Alexander Memorial Coliseum and Philips Arena and the last two at McCamish Pavilion.

• Tech has played BC at three different venues in the Boston area. The Jan. 29, 2005 game was Tech's first visit to the Conte Forum, BC's current home court, where the Jackets are 3-6. The first game in the series on Dec. 31, 1946, was played at Boston Arena, and the teams also played in the Boston Garden on Jan. 19, 1980.

• Prior to BC's entry into the ACC, the teams met four times on neutral floors, including one outside the United States, a 65-62 overtime win for the Yellow Jackets in the 1986 Suntory Ball in Tokyo, Japan.

• The teams have met twice in NCAA Tournament competition, both of them won by Tech. The Yellow Jackets downed the Eagles, 103-89, in the 1996 Southeast Regional second round in Orlando, and eliminated the Eagles, 57-54 in a 2004 second-round game in Milwaukee.

team's fewest since giving up a season-low six in last season's game at Virginia.

- Tech has averaged 7.5 threes and shot 34.6 percent from beyond the arc in their last five games. In the five games before that, the Jackets shot 14-for-96 (14.6 pct.) from bonus range. Tech's five threes at Virginia, however, was the team's fewest in that span.

- Tech has made 73.2 percent of its free throws over its last nine games; however, the Yellow Jackets have averaged scoring just 10 points from the charity stripe. Tech went 4-for-7 at Virginia, its fewest trips to the line since Jan. 26 vs. Duke (2-for-6).

- Tech has surrendered a season-high for points in each of its last two games: 80 points at Miami and 81 at Virginia; the Jackets had given up 79 in three previous games, most recently to Louisville on Jan. 19. Miami and Virginia shot 50.9 percent from the floor combined, the highest figure over two games surrendered by the Jackets this season.

- Only Wake Forest (74.4 ppg, scored 79), Clemson (71.4 ppg, scored 72 in the first meeting), Virginia Tech (75.6, 76 in second meeting), Miami (72.2, scored 80) and Virginia (71.5, scored 81) have met or exceeded their season scoring averages against Georgia Tech this season.

- Tech has been outrebounded in its last four games and in 15 of its last 17. Virginia's 41-21 rebound margin was the highest against the Jackets this season, and Tech's 21 boards were its fewest of the season.

- Two fouls in the first half? No problem. Tech ranks No. 1 in the nation, according to KenPom.com, in percentage of first-half minutes that Jackets are on the floor with two fouls (64.8 percent). The national average is 21.4 percent.

- Freshman Kristian Sjolund has seen his most extensive action of the season in the Yellow Jackets' last six games, playing a total of 127 minutes after seeing just 62 minutes in his previous 13 games. He has averaged 8.0 points with a pair of 11-point efforts against No. 22 Virginia Tech and No. 17 Florida State. He has connected on 11-of-30 three-point attempts in those six games after going just 2-for-11 in the 13 games prior.

- With Tech opting for a 4-out, 1-in approach at Virginia Tech, Abdoulaye Gueye has not started the last six games. After playing just four minutes at Virginia Tech, however, he has averaged 14.8 off the bench in Tech's last four games, scoring 25 points (11-of-22 FG) with 13 rebounds. In ACC games, Gueye has averaged 8.9 points and 4.0 rebounds, while hitting 51.5 percent of his field goal tries.

- Freshman Michael Devoe averages 10.2 points (No. 3 on the team), 3.8 rebounds and 2.4 assists in ACC games, and he has hit a team-best 44.4 percent of his three-point tries, leading the Jackets with 28 threes in conference play. Devoe is 19-of-40 from three-point land (47.5 pct.) in his last eight games.

Pastner's Key Metrics

- Assists to made field goals: The Jackets are at 57.0 percent for the season (No. 52 in the nation) and 55.1 percent in ACC games. Tech assisted on seven of 21 made field goals (33 percent) against Virginia, missing its nightly goal of 60 percent (lowest percentage since Feb. 2 at Florida State).

- Free throws made to opponents' attempts: Tech is 37-17 under Josh Pastner when attempting more free throws than the opponent. Tech connected on 4-of-7 free throw attempts to Virginia's 12 of 17 (nightly goal of making more than opponent tries not accomplished).

- Turnovers: Tech has averaged 14.9 turnovers per game in ACC play, and only forced 11.7. Target each night is 11 or fewer, which Tech has met three times this season (both wins). More telling for Tech under Josh Pastner is that when Tech has committed fewer turnovers than its opponent, it is 22-14. When it has committed more, it is 21-30.

- Guard rebounding: The group of Alvarado, Alston, Devoe, Haywood, Moore and Phillips has combined to take 332 of Tech's 734 defensive rebounds this season (46 percent). Tech's guards combined for just one of its 15 defensive rebounds against Virginia.

Build the Wall

Due to its ability to play both zone and man-to-man and keep opponents off-balance, Georgia Tech has been able to rely on its mixture of defenses to win games over Josh Pastner's first two-plus seasons at Georgia Tech.

This Yellow Jacket team has played it well enough to rank No. 30 in adjusted defensive efficiency (94.2 ppg/100 possessions). Tech has ranked as high as 11th this season before adjusting its lineup in an effort to boost its offensive output. and is No. 5 in the ACC and 47th in the NCAA in scoring defense at 66.0 points per game.

- Tech's effective field goal percentage defense (45.5 pct., taking into account three-point field goals) ranks No. 15 nationally, according to KenPom.com, and the Jackets are No. 19 in the NCAA rankings in field goal percentage defense (39.3 pct.). Tech ranks 29th in KenPom in effective two-point percentage (46.0) defense.

- The Jackets have also defended the three-point shot well, allowing just 29.8-percent accuracy to rank No. 3 in the ACC and No. 14 nationally. Tech is No. 11 in effective 3-point defense according to KenPom.com.

- Tech has improved markedly in another area - takeaways. The Jackets are No. 6 in the ACC and rank No. 85 nationally in steals (7.2 per game) and are No. 2 and 10, respectively, in blocked shots (5.2 per game).

- Said Florida State coach Leonard Hamilton: "Georgia Tech utilizes a defensive scheme that is probably the best match-up zone defensive scheme that I've seen in my coaching career. They do an outstanding job of taking away so many different spots on the floor that you normally are accustomed to operating in."

- Said Notre Dame coach Mike Brey: "They are really hard to score on. There's a reason why their stats play out as one of the best, if not the best, defensive team in our league. They are just really hard to deal with. They're long, they're athletic, they're in passing lanes and if you do beat them, they've got shot blocker in the back."

- Said Pittsburgh coach Jeff Capel: "Their defense is difficult. Their defense is different. It's unique. They have length around the basket and they understand how to move in their defense and their zone."

- Tech's NIT finals team from 2017 ranked No. 6 in adjusted offensive efficiency (91.0 points allowed per 100 possessions) according to KenPom.com. That group ranked fourth in the ACC in scoring defense (66.8 ppg) and No. 1 in FG percentage defense (39.8 pct.).

Assisted Living

Georgia Tech coach Josh Pastner preached and prodded his Yellow Jackets on ball and player movement and hard cutting from the first time he got his team on the practice court. His primary measuring stick on how well the Jackets perform offensively is their ratio of assists to made field goals, and the Jackets' struggle to score this season is not for lack of ball movement.

Tech is No. 52 in 2018-19 at 57 percent (55.1 pct. in ACC games), and remains well above the national average (52.1 pct.) in that category. The Jackets did not perform as well in that department in 2017-18, assisting on 54.6 of its made field goals overall, 53.9 against ACC teams, and missing Pastner's 60-percent bar 14 times.

In Pastner's first season, the Yellow Jackets ranked 13th nationally, according to KenPom.com, in highest percentage of assists to made field goals at 62.6 percent, the team's highest rate since the 2000-01 season. Tech's number was 63.2 percent in ACC games. Pastner's nightly goal is 60 percent.

Tech's top assists-to-made field goals ratios: 1987-88 - 68.3; 1988-89 - 65.9; 1986-87 - 65.8; 1992-93 - 65.0; 1985-86 - 64.8; 2000-01 - 62.9; 1999-00 - 62.9; 2016-17 - 62.6

Jose Can You See

Point guard Jose Alvarado, recruited to Georgia Tech primarily for his winning attitude and determination, was given the green light by head coach Josh Pastner to handle the position, sink or swim, before his freshman season came to an abrupt end Feb. 11 against Duke. He dislocated his left elbow in a fall, and missed the rest of the season.

The Brooklyn native, the first Tech player from the New York area in nearly 20 years, has developed into the Yellow Jackets' engine on the floor in his sophomore season, leading the Jackets in scoring (12.0 ppg), assists (3.5 apg) and steals (1.8 pg) in ACC games. He also has hit 79.6 percent from the free throw line while taking 3.7 rebounds on average in ACC games to date.

He ranks among the ACC's top 10 in free throw percentage, assists and steals against ACC competition.

Alvarado's freshman season was full of promise until it came to an abrupt halt on Feb. 11, when he dislocated his left elbow on a hard fall to the floor trying to contest a breakaway shot from Duke's Javin Delaurier. Until then, he had averaged 12.6 points per game to rank second on the team, 3.9 rebounds and 3.3 assists with an assist/turnover ratio of 77/56. He also shot the ball well, making 45 percent of his shots from the floor, 37.4 percent from three-point distance, and 80.2 percent from the foul line on 80 attempts.

Alvarado has posted 34 double-figure scoring games in his career, nine times scoring 20 or more. And the 6-foot playmaker has averaged more than 34 minutes per game, with 12 complete 40-minute games.

- Said Pittsburgh coach Jeff Capel: "[Jose] Alvarado is a big-time competitor. We told our guys coming into this game, I know that kid and I know his spirit. With his team struggling, I knew that he would try to take it upon himself to be aggressive and have a great game. He was sensational."

Devoe Getting Comfortable

Freshman guard Michael Devoe, the highest-rated high school prospect Georgia Tech has recruited under Josh Pastner, has steadily improved for the Yellow Jackets since the season began.

The Orlando, Fla., native suffered a setback by missing six weeks of preseason practice with a toe injury and began the season slowly, but has steadily played more minutes and improved his production.

He entered the Tech starting lineup at Arkansas on Dec. 19, a game Tech won, 69-65, and he scored 11 points. He has connected on 44.4 percent of his three-point tries in ACC games (would lead the ACC with enough 3PM) and averaged 34.6 minutes (14th-most).

Devoe scored 16 points in his ACC debut against Wake Forest, and has seven double-digit scoring games in his last 11. He has hit 24-of-50 three-point tries in that stretch.

Banking Hours

The most significant development in the direction of this year's Georgia Tech team may have occurred Nov. 13, when the NCAA granted James Banks III immediate eligibility after his transfer from Texas.

Tech received that news while conducting its shootaround for its second game of the season, at Tennessee. Arrangements were made to get Banks to Knoxville (transfers to not travel with the team), where he contributed five points and seven rebounds in a 66-53 loss.

The personable 6-9 post player has progressed rapidly since that modest start. He posted his first double-double four games later at Northwestern (12 pts/12 rebs), and made his first start the game after that against St. John's (14 pts/12 rebs).

In ACC play, Banks has been Tech's No. 2 scorer (10.6 ppg) and top rebounder (6.8 ppg), hitting 50 percent of his shots from the floor and 71.2 percent of his free throws, while ranking No. 2 the conference in blocked shots (2.5 pg).

It took Banks 23 games at Tech to exceed his 46-game totals at Texas in every offensive category, plus blocks and steals.

Out of Africa

Georgia Tech got a big lift from an unlikely source once ACC play began last season, junior forward Abdoulaye Gueye (pronounced "AB-doo-lie GAY"). During the month of January and into February, the Yellow Jackets saw the 6-9 native of Senegal (by way of Birmingham, Ala.) become a legitimate offensive force, and not just a disruptor on defense and on the boards.

Known as "A.D." to his teammates and coaches, the likeable Gueye took advantage of a much-improved jump hook shot to average 6.5 points (50 percent from the floor) and 4.5 rebounds in ACC games.

The fifth-year has made a similar jump from non-conference to ACC play this season as well, averaging 8.9 points and 4.0 rebounds while hitting 51.5 percent shots from the floor. He scored in double figures in six consecutive games, the first time he has done that in his career, and in seven ACC games.

Building Depth

Georgia Tech has deployed 11 different starting lineups this season, and 11 Yellow Jackets have started three or more games.

Tech has deployed at least eight players for significant minutes in all of its games so far, including as many as nine or 10 in its ACC games. Tech's bench has played 34.1 percent of available minutes, No. 80 in the nation according to KenPom.com (national average is 30.7 pct.). Last season, Tech ranked No. 210 with 30.1 minutes played by reserves.

In conference play this season, head coach Josh Pastner has relied on a core group for longer durations - Jose Alvarado and Michael Devoe rank among the conference top 15 in average minutes, yet still has utilized eight or nine players altogether.

Other Storylines for 2018-19

- 104th season - Georgia Tech is playing its 104th season of basketball and has an all-time record of 1,374-1,243.
- Unlucky 13 - Tech was picked to finish 13th in the Atlantic Coast Conference this season in a vote of the ACC media, ahead of Pittsburgh and Wake Forest. The Yellow Jackets finished 13th last season.
- Seven - Number of freshmen and sophomores playing significant roles for the Yellow Jackets this season. They have played 67.1 percent of the minutes for Tech in ACC games.
- 1.25 years - Average experience of the players on Georgia Tech's current roster, which ranks No. 299 in the nation (No. 1 is the oldest), according to KenPom.com. The national average is 1.67 years.
- Above average - Georgia Tech ranks No. 78, according to Kenpom.com, in average height (77.5 inches) among the nation's Division I teams. The national average is 76.8.

Thin Gold Line

Some of Georgia Tech's most successful teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference era have had thin benches and a trio of players who averaged more than 35 minutes per game in ACC play, beginning with the Yellow Jackets' first ACC Championship team in 1985, dubbed the "Thin Gold Line."

• The upward progress of the program is evident in the development of its 2017-18 freshman class, each of whom received significant playing time last season and made significant contributions on the ACC level. Though not highly-rated in terms of rankings, the four-man class has a wide range of skills and is ripe for development into consistent conference-level performers over the next couple of years.

a. Point guard Jose Alvarado started every game last season and showed durability and toughness by averaging more than 38 minutes in ACC games until suffering a dislocated elbow Feb. 11.

b. Off-guard Curtis Haywood II was developing into a significant shooting threat and excellent defender before suffering stress reaction in his shin and missing the final month of the 2017-18 season.

c. Forwards Evan Cole and Moses Wright, both under-the-radar signees, exceeded expectations for their first year when forced into action due to injuries over the final month of the season. With added strength and development this off-season, can be counted on to be in the frontcourt rotation and make significant contributions at both ends of the floor.

• Coach Pastner, his staff and the student-athletes in the program have carried over a solid, sustainable culture of accountability and dependability from the previous coaching staff which enabled the team to overcome a number of key injuries last season and continue to work hard and remain focused on the court and in the weight room.

• Pastner replaced two assistant coaches - Tavaras Hardy and Darryl LaBarrie - over the last year. Hardy was named head coach at Loyola of Maryland in late March, while LaBarrie resigned during the season. Anthony Wilkins, an Atlanta native, joined the staff after five seasons at Tulane, and Julian Swartz was elevated from his position as director of recruiting and compliance.

• Tech added a three-man recruiting class ranked No. 46 in the country according to 247Sports, including consensus

Tech played 55 seasons in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, compiling a record of 556-194 (.741). Miami was the last team to play Tech there, a game Tech won, and was the first ACC team to play in McCamish Pavilion, which Miami won. For the 2011-12 season, Tech played its home games at Philips Arena and the Arena at Gwinnett.

four-star guard Michael Devoe and three-star forwards Khalid Moore and Kristian Sjolund, and true to staff's objectives, the class has varied skill sets and are expected to develop into significant contributors next season and beyond (building through multiple quality recruiting classes)

- Another addition to the roster this season — 6-3 guard Shembari Phillips, a high-major conference player who sat out the 2017-18 season as a transfer from Tennessee. He has the size and varied skill set necessary to compete in the ACC (6.2 ppg, 3.1 rpg, 37.5 pct. 3s in 2016-17). He has two years of eligibility.

- Tech also accepted transfer James Banks, a 6-9, 243-pound frontcourt player from Decatur, Ga., ranked as high as No. 49 among high school seniors in the class of 2016. After two years at Texas, he enrolled at Tech for the summer term and was granted immediate eligibility by the NCAA on Nov. 13. He has two seasons of eligibility at Tech.

- Tech returned six players who received significant playing time in 2017-18 — 15 or more minutes per ACC game — and combined to start 91 games overall. They accounted for more than 53 percent of total minutes played and 43 percent of Tech's scoring. Five of those players have two or more years of eligibility remaining.

- Tech has a young roster — three freshmen, four sophomores, three juniors and two seniors among scholarship players returning or incoming — but the process of getting old and staying old and building a sustainable winning program is ongoing.

- Player development successes over the past two seasons include Josh Okogie, Ben Lammers and Tadic Jackson, who maximized their skill sets under the current coaching staff, doubling their scoring and rebounding averages over their first two seasons. Okogie went from being ranked the 11th in the state as a HS senior to a first-round NBA draft pick. Last season, 6-9 forward Abdoulaye Gueye developed into an ACC-level contributor, making a similar leap from the non-conference season to conference play. Graduate transfer Brandon Alston, who has a year of eligibility remaining, had similar statistical numbers on the ACC level this season as he compiled in two seasons at Lehigh and was fundamentally sound in his ballhandling and defense.

- With the addition of Phillips and the arrival of Devoe and Moore, as well as the return of Alston and sophomores Alvarado and Haywood, Tech is deep and talented across the perimeter and wings. Tech has Gueye, rising junior Sylvester Ogbona and Banks to rotate through the post, with Cole and Wright rotating in the big forward position. This gives Pastner the option of playing a bigger lineup when necessary.

- Tech won 34 games overall and 14 ACC games in Josh Pastner's first two seasons, on par or better than the first two years of each of Josh Pastner's predecessors in the ACC era. For comparison, Buzz Williams won 12 ACC games in his first two years at Virginia Tech, same with Tony Bennett at Virginia. Leonard Hamilton and Mike Krzyzewski each won 10. Pastner has won 14.

- Head coach Josh Pastner's Georgia Tech teams were 5-14 against top-25 teams (5-5 at home) in his first two-plus seasons.

- Tech has sold out 12 games at McCamish Pavilion over the past three seasons, including a facility-record five games in 2017-18. Tech's 28 homecourt wins over Pastner's first two seasons were more than any two-year period in the Jackets' ACC era except the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons combined (31). That's 43 home wins over the past three seasons, more than 14 per season.

Jackets Add Didenko, Usher

David Didenko, a 6-8, 230-pound forward from Boca Raton, Fla., who attends Palm Beach State College, signed a national letter-of-intent with Georgia Tech during the early signing period in November, while Jordan Usher, a 6-7, 225-pound forward, has transferred from Southern California and enrolled at Tech for the spring semester.

Didenko attended Boca Raton Community High School before enrolling this year at Palm Beach State, a junior college in Boca Raton. A full academic qualifier in high school, Didenko will enroll at Tech in the summer and have three years of eligibility with the Yellow Jackets.

Born in Russia, Didenko moved to New York in August, 2010, at the age of 10, and is a United States citizen. Prior to his enrollment at Boca Raton Community High School, Didenko attended Northeast High School as a junior, and Montverde Academy for his ninth- and 10th-grade years.

Usher comes to Tech after playing a season and a half for the Trojans, departing from USC after the recently completed fall semester and enrolling for the spring semester. He must complete a year of residency at Georgia Tech and will become eligible to play for the Yellow Jackets following the conclusion of the fall, 2019 term. He will be eligible for the remainder of the 2019-20 season and all of the 2020-21 season.

A native of Canton, Ga., Usher played in all 36 games with two starts for the Trojans as a freshman in 2017-18, averaging 4.8 points and 2.0 rebounds per game while connecting on 40.9 percent of his three-point field goal attempts. In 2018-19, Usher played in 12 games and made two starts, averaging 8.6 points and 3.7 rebounds. A 4-star prospect ranked No. 104 in the nation by 247Sports, Usher played his senior season (2016-17) at Wheeler High School in Marietta, Ga., and prior to that, he attended Sequoyah High School in Canton.

Wire-to-Wire

Though he has expanded his playing rotation this year to reflect the growing level of talent within the program, head coach Josh Pastner remains committed to a tight playing rotation, reminiscent of the way Bobby Cremins coached the Yellow Jackets over his 19 seasons.

Tech has utilized its bench for an average of 50.5 minutes (25.3 percent of available minutes) in its ACC games thus far after averaging 78 minutes in non-conference play.

Jose Alvarado, who had played 96.7 percent of possible ACC minutes prior to his Feb. 11 injury last season, is averaging 35.5 minutes in ACC games this season and has played 35 or more minutes 14 times this season.

Freshman Michael Devoe has averaged 34.6 minutes in ACC games, and James Banks III has averaged 32.3. Alvarado and Devoe, who both rank among the ACC's top 15, each played the full 40 minutes at Notre Dame on Feb. 10, and Alvarado also did so against Pittsburgh and Miami.

Last season, Alvarado had ranked fifth among freshmen nationally in percentage of minutes played and minutes per game before he was injured. He has posted 12 complete, 40-minute games in his career.

Tech players had 20 complete games combined in 2017-18, and had at least one player play the full 40 in 12 of 19 ACC games (regular season plus tournament). This season, Alvarado has four and Devoe one.

NOTE: Between the Cremins era and the arrival of Pastner, only one Georgia Tech player played every minute of a game, regulation or overtime, and that was Marcus Georges-Hunt on Feb. 20, 2016, in a win over Notre Dame at home. In the final 15 seasons of Cremins' tenure (1985-86 through 1999-2000), a total of 196 players logged a 40-minute game.

Winning Starts at Home

Georgia Tech and head coach Josh Pastner have made a priority of making McCamish Pavilion a real homecourt advantage for the program, and the Yellow Jackets made a good start on that by setting a program record for wins at home (17) in 2017-18, which included a 7-2 ACC record and two NIT victories.

Tech is 15-11 against ACC teams at home under Pastner, and that includes a 5-5 mark against ranked opponents.

The Jackets' 60-53 win over No. 25 Notre Dame on Jan. 10 was the latest triumph in a list that includes eventual NCAA champion North Carolina (No. 9 at the time), No. 6 Florida State and No. 15 Notre Dame last season, as well as a 64-54 win over No. 15 Miami on Jan. 3 this season. Tech's only losses came to No. 9 Louisville last January and to No. 2 Virginia and No. 18 Clemson this season.

Tech is 39-18 at McCamish Pavilion under Pastner.

20-Game ACC Schedule Rotation Announced

The Atlantic Coast Conference announced the future matchups of the league's 20-game men's basketball schedule, which begins with the 2019-20 season. The 20-game matrix is in effect for three years through the 2021-22 season.

Each team will play its two primary rivals every season both home and away (four games, Clemson and Notre Dame remain Georgia Tech's primary home-and-away opponents) and four repeat opponents both home and away (eight games). The remaining eight opponents will be single games, four at home and four on the road. The full cycle of repeat opponents will be complete following the third year.

Under the former 18-game schedule, each team played four opponents both home and away each season, four at home and four away.

In 2019-20, Georgia Tech will play Louisville, NC State, Pittsburgh and Syracuse both home and away in addition to Clemson and Notre Dame, with Duke, Miami, Virginia and Virginia Tech visiting McCamish Pavilion.

In 2020-21, Tech's home-and-away opponents will be Clemson, Notre Dame, Duke, Florida State, Virginia and Wake Forest, with home games against Boston, North Carolina, Pittsburgh and Syracuse.

In 2021-22, the Yellow Jackets play Clemson, Notre Dame, Boston College, Miami, North Carolina and Virginia Tech both home and on the road, and will host Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest.

Tech to Take Summer Tour to Spain

Georgia Tech's men's basketball team will take its first summer tour out of the United States since 2015 when the Yellow Jackets take an eight-day tour of Spain in August.

The tour will take place from August 8-16, coinciding with the break between summer and fall academic terms. The Yellow Jackets will spend the first three days (Aug. 9-11) in Barcelona, then take a high-speed train to Madrid, where they will stay from Aug. 12-16. Tech will play four games, two in each city, against teams to be determined by the Spanish Basketball Federation.

Along with the basketball competition, the Yellow Jackets will have the opportunity for sight-seeing tours of the U.S. Embassy in Barcelona and the Royal Palace in Madrid, visit the professional soccer facilities of FC Barcelona and Real Madrid, and other activities still to be determined.

Per NCAA rules, the Yellow Jackets will be allowed 10 practices to prepare for the tour along in addition to the currently allowable off-season training and skill development.

Tech has made summer international tours twice previously, most recently to The Bahamas in 2015. The Jackets traveled to France in August of 1991.

Tech to Play in 2019 Diamond Head Classic

Georgia Tech will make the fifth trip to the state of Hawai'i in program history next December when it will compete in the 2019 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic in Honolulu, Hawai'i.

The field for the 2019 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic features Ball State (Mid-American), Boise State (Mountain West), Georgia Tech (ACC), tournament host school Hawai'i (Big West), Houston (AAC), Portland (WCC), UTEP (Conference USA), and Washington (Pac-12). The 11th annual event will be played at the Stan Sheriff Center on the campus of the University of Hawai'i.

Three teams in the 2019 field were a part of the postseason last season — Boise State (NIT), Houston (NCAA) and Washington (NIT). Meanwhile, five teams will make their first-ever appearance in the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic.

Tech has a 10-5 record all time in four previous tournament events in Hawai'i, including a 6-3 mark in three appearances in the Rainbow Classic — 1984 champions, 1988, 1994 — which also were held at the University of Hawai'i. The Yellow Jackets also played in the 1998 Big Island Classic in Hilo, and the 2006 Maui Invitational.

Tech-UGA Game Moves to November Next Two Seasons

The Georgia Tech and Georgia basketball teams have signed an agreement to play the next two games of the series the week before Thanksgiving, giving both teams an opportunity to play the game at home in front of their student bodies before the fall semester ends.

The teams will face off next season on Wednesday, Nov. 20, at Stegeman Coliseum in Athens, and the following season on Thursday, Nov. 19, at McCamish Pavilion in Atlanta.

In the 194-game history of the series, Tech and Georgia have played their game before Thanksgiving only twice, on Nov. 15, 2013 in Athens and Nov. 14, 2014 in Atlanta. The Yellow Jackets won both games and lead the all-time series, 105-89.

As Southeastern Conference foes from 1932-64, the games were played in January, February and March. After Tech left the ACC, most of the games remained in January and February until the rivalry became a late December fixture at the Omni arena in downtown Atlanta from 1981-94. The series has been played on the two campuses every year since then, mostly in December.

Four Tech Alumni on NBA Rosters

Since 1982, Georgia Tech has produced 19 first-round NBA draft picks and 44 draft picks overall. A total of 38 Georgia Tech alumni have played in the NBA.

Four former Georgia Tech basketball stars were on NBA rosters at the start of the 2018-19 season, including guard Josh Okogie, who was drafted 20th overall by for the Minnesota Timberwolves.

Iman Shumpert, a seven-year NBA veteran, played his third full season in Cleveland after helping the Cavaliers win the NBA championship in 2016, and was traded before the deadline to Sacramento last season, and was traded to Houston this season.

Thaddeus Young, an 11-year NBA veteran, is now in his third season with the Indiana Pacers after playing seven seasons in Philadelphia, one in Minnesota and two in Brooklyn.

Derrick Favors has emerged as a key figure in his eighth season in Utah and re-signed with the team after becoming a free agent.

Georgia Tech's practices are closed to the public and the media, but coaches and student-athletes are made available prior to each game before one of the team's practices. Notices will be distributed weekly to confirm the schedule.

TV stations are allowed to shoot B-roll during the first 10 minutes of those practices.

Media are asked to notify Mike Stamus the day before of their need to attend and to make specific student-athlete requests.

Interview requests with student-athletes that need to be conducted at other times must be arranged through the Georgia Tech communications office at least 24 hours in advance. These interviews will be conducted at a time and place convenient to the student-athletes' availability and class schedule.

Media are asked not to contact student-athletes directly either by phone, e-mail, text or social media. They are instructed not to respond. Every effort will be made to make them available.

Interviewing Coach Pastner

Media wishing to speak with Coach Pastner at times other than scheduled media availabilities must notify Mike Stamus in the communications office in advance to make or confirm arrangements. He also is available each Monday on the ACC Teleconference (10:50 a.m.) beginning January 7.

Post-Game Protocol

Each head coach will hold a post-game press conference in the designated interview room (Shah Media Room at McCamish Pavilion).

Student-athletes requested by the media will be brought to the interview room following the coaches press conferences, when the team is at home, outside the team's locker room when the team is on the road.

Arts and Letters

Beginning with Moe Miller and Lance Storrs in the summer of 2011, every four-year senior in the Georgia Tech program has graduated, with the exception of the Yellow Jackets' 2018 two seniors, who are both expected to return and complete their degrees this summer after a year of pro ball overseas.

Graduate student Brandon Alston (economics), fifth-year senior Abdoulaye Gueye (business administration) and fourth-year junior Sylvester Ogbonda (business administration) all will complete their course work this semester and receive their degrees in May.

Georges-Hunt and Jackson made the Academic All-ACC team twice, and the Yellow Jackets have had at least one player named to that team since it was instituted for the 2010-11 season.

Tech's men's basketball team has recorded the highest Academic Progress Report scores the last five years since the NCAA began tracking academic performance in 2004-05. The Jackets scored a perfect team single year APR score of 1000 three straight years from 2011-13.

Welcome to The Hank

Georgia Tech is playing its seventh season in McCamish Pavilion, which was for all intents and purposes, brand new when it opened for the 2012-13 season. The only physical elements of McCamish Pavilion that remain from the venerable Alexander Memorial Coliseum are the roof, which was re-covered, and the 32 steel ribs that support it.

The capacity of McCamish Pavilion is 8,600, including 1,665 seats in the new balcony level and 6,935 seats in the lower seating bowl. There are no suites, but there is a premium club area that seats 500. Alexander Memorial Coliseum seated 9,191 spectators in its final configuration.

The most impressive features of McCamish Pavilion are its grand entrance, which fronts 10th and Fowler Streets, the ability for patrons to view the court from the main concourse all the way around, and the theatrical lighting system, which concentrates light on the court while leaving the seating areas dark, modeled after the Staples Center in Los Angeles and Madison Square Garden in New York.

Tech played 55 seasons in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, compiling a record of 556-194 (.741). Miami was the last team to play Tech in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, a game Tech won, and was the first ACC team to play in McCamish Pavilion on Jan. 5, which Miami won. For the 2011-12 season, Tech played its home games at Philips Arena and the Arena at Gwinnett.

Tech's NCAA Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in the NCAA Tournament 16 times in its history. Fifteen of those appearances have occurred from 1985 to the present, 10 under head coach Bobby Cremins and five under Paul Hewitt.

Tech has a record of 23-16 in NCAA Tournament play, highlighted by its 2004 trip to the NCAA title game as well as a Final Four berth in 1990. The Yellow Jackets have reached the NCAA Sweet 16 seven times (1960, 1985, 1986, 1990, 1992, 1996, 2004).

The 2004 and 2005 appearances were the Yellow

Jackets' first back-to-back appearances since Bobby Cremins led the Institute to the Big Dance nine straight years from 1985-93.

Georgia Tech has won at least one game in 11 of its 16 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Tech's ACC Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in 39 ACC Tournaments, and has a 26-36 all-time record in the event. The Yellow Jackets have won three championships, in 1985 (Atlanta), 1990 (Charlotte) and 1993 (Charlotte).

Tech has been a runner-up four times (1986, 1996, 2005, 2010). The 1986, 1996 and 2010 runs to the finals occurred in Greensboro. Tech also made the finals in 2005 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C.

Tech was 0-2 in the ACC Tournament under coach Dwane Morrison, 15-16 under Bobby Cremins (including all three titles), 9-11 under Paul Hewitt (runner-up in 2005 and 2010), 2-5 under Brian Gregory, and 0-2 under Josh Pastner.

BIO UPDATES

Head Coach Josh Pastner • 3rd season

Josh Pastner, who guided Memphis to five post-season berths in seven seasons as the Tigers' head coach, was introduced as Georgia Tech's 14th head basketball coach on April 8, 2016, and wasted no time in getting the Yellow Jackets back to the post-season.

While coaching Tech to 34 wins and building the Jackets' talent base for the future, Pastner has tirelessly promoted the program on campus and throughout the city of Atlanta in an effort to re-create the major homecourt atmosphere that surrounded the Yellow Jackets throughout the 1980s, 1990s and into the middle of the 2000s. The result has been 29 wins and eight sellouts in two seasons at McCamish Pavilion, including a program-record 17 home wins in his first year.

In his first season at the helm, his Yellow Jacket team defied all pre-season expectations by winning 21 games, including four in the National Invitation Tournament. Tech posted an 8-10 ACC record, which included victories over No. 9 North Carolina, No. 6 Florida State and No. 14 Notre Dame, who all finished among the top four in the ACC regular season. He was named Coach of the Year in the ACC and in NABC District 2.

Implementing a high-energy style of play and creative offensive and defensive schemes, Pastner and his staff guided the Yellow Jackets all the way to the finals of the NIT for the first time in 46 years. Two of his players earned all-Atlantic Coast Conference honors; junior center Ben Lammers was named second-team All-ACC and ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while freshman guard Josh Okogie was named to the ACC All-Freshman team.

Though hampered by several significant injuries and other issues in 2017-18, Tech still was able to knock off a pair of top-25 teams while Lammers and Okogie again earned conference honors, and Okogie developed into an NBA first-round draft choice.

Pastner, who turned 41 in the fall, compiled a 167-73 record over seven seasons as the head coach at Memphis, where the Tigers earned bids to the NCAA Tournament four times. He tied for the 10th most wins for a head coach in his first seven seasons in Division I basketball history, and is the second winningest active coach under the age of 40 in NCAA Division I.

Despite his young age, Pastner has been involved in basketball at the Division I level for 21 years, as a player and an assistant coach at Arizona, and as an assistant coach and the head coach at Memphis. He has been a part of teams that have won 524 games, played in 17 NCAA Tournaments and 19 total post-season events. Teams he has been involved with have won 12 conference tournament or regular-season championships, advanced to seven Sweet Sixteens, five Elite Eights, two Final Fours and two NCAA championship games.

As an NCAA head coach and an AAU head coach, he has coached nearly 25 NBA draft selections.

Pastner's Memphis teams averaged 23.9 wins per season and compiled a conference regular-season record of 82-36, including a conference winning streak of 28 games. The Tigers went 11-4 in Conference USA and American Athletic Conference tournaments, including three championships.

He guided Memphis to five post-season berths, the NIT in 2010 and the NCAA Tournament in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014. Pastner twice won Conference USA Coach of the Year honors (2010, 2013) by various organizations and news media.

Pastner was born in Glen Dale, W.Va., and grew up in Kingwood, Texas. He earned his bachelor's degree in family studies in December of 1998, in just two and a half years, from Arizona and his master's degree in teaching and teacher education from Arizona in December of 1999, all while lettering four years in basketball under head coach Lute Olson.

He married the former Kerri Lamas of Sierra Vista, Ariz., in 2009. He has a stepson (Ethan) and three daughters, Payten, Kamryn and Harper.
